

The greatest of all tonics THE FALL DRESS UP

ARE you nervous, irritable; are you losing confidence in yourself; are you beginning to "let down" in your work a little? Sounds a little like a patent medicine ad, doesn't it? Well it isn't; we don't guarantee a cure—we only say we can help you, and a lot, too.

Apply this Dress Up tonic externally in the form of

A Weil Suit A new shirt; a tie
A Weil overcoat A new hat.

If you don't feel like a new man afterwards, you can have your money back.

MRS. SCOTT ON PROGRAM

Prominent Local Rebekah Will Talk at Mt. Hamill Meeting September 30.

Local members of the I. O. O. F. have received invitations to attend the big picnic to be given by the Odd Fellows at Mt. Hamill at Bells timbers, one and one-half miles east of Mt. Hamill, September 30, 1916. The general public is invited to attend the event which promises to have all of the characteristics of an old fashioned program has been prepared, which includes an address by Rev. E. LeRoy Steffy and Mrs. John C. Scott, both of this city. There will be games and contests and other forms of amusement. A basket dinner will be enjoyed at noon and hot coffee will be served to all.

MEDICAL MEN ARE COMING HERE

Keokuk Chosen for Next Convention of Missouri Valley Medical Society.

The Medical society of the Missouri valley, which convened in Omaha, Thursday and Friday of last week, chose Keokuk as the meeting place for the next convention. The Omaha meeting was attended by 250 delegates. The following officers were chosen:

Dr. C. R. Woodson, St. Joseph, Mo., president; E. W. Rowe of Lincoln, first vice president; Dr. C. B. Hickenlooper of Winterset, Iowa, second vice president; Dr. O. C. Gebhart of St. Joseph, treasurer; Dr. Charles Wood Fassett of Kansas City, secretary.

CLARK CLUB TO BE HERE

Chairman Renaud Hears From Leader—More Advertising Being Posted.

More advertising for the Keokuk fall celebration next week was being posted today. Chairman E. F. Renaud and Dr. Barr in the advertising car de luxe, left this morning on a trip into the territory covered by the T. P. & W. road. They hoped to make Blandinsville.

Chairman Renaud has received a letter from Miss Helen F. McKee, who is at Sedalia this week at the Missouri state fair. She writes that she expects to have her canning club and "corn boy" at the Keokuk fall celebration club day, October 4, if she can get home in time. The county exhibit at the state fair is in her charge and she will not be able to leave until October 1. She has asked for copies of the club day rules.

WARSAW MAN DIES IN KEOKUK

J. H. Bullard Answers Call at Local Hospital—Burial in Fort Madison.

John H. Bullard, of Warsaw, died at St. Joseph's hospital this morning at 5:30 o'clock from asthma. Mr. Bullard had been in the hospital since August 22. The body is to be taken to Fort Madison and burial will be made in Wilson cemetery there on Thursday morning.

The decedent was the son of James R. Bullard and was born in Fort Madison forty-six years ago. He was a mechanic and car wheel molder by trade.

He is survived by a son, Walter Bullard, of Fort Madison, and the following three brothers and two sisters: Grover Bullard, Fort Madison; John and W. T. Bullard, and Mrs. John Maxwell and Mrs. James Golliver, all of Warsaw.
