

Your Daughter's Room

A GIRL'S most impressionable years are between eleven and eighteen. Then it is that her room should take on individuality and become her particular abode—a place of rest, of study, and of joy.

Here you may choose suites from among the Period furniture shown, or from the display of craft styles, to provide just the environment desired.

Few realize that the sane, practical value of the Brass Bed has been combined with highly artistic design. From our stock of Simmons Brass Beds in the new finishes, it is possible to select a model that will harmonize perfectly with any style of interior decoration and furnishing.

Our new stock will demonstrate that even with rare "Period" surroundings there is a Simmons Brass Bed that is suitable. And the prices are moderate.

The reliance placed in us by thousands of families for all their furniture is ample evidence of how satisfactorily you may make the purchases here for your daughter's room.

Hurry up Uncle Dud, and don't be stingy! I'm just in trim for a good cold bottle of Burg Brau - So speed up a little!

The Evening Game

"When my cronies drop in for a chat and a game," says Uncle Dudley, "it's me for a few bottles of Burg Brau and an opener—quick."

"They just can't wait—say it's necessary to the proper enjoyment of the occasion. Right, too. Pure beer, like Burg Brau, makes everybody feel better, and adds zest to the play."

Burg Brau

The Old German Style Lager Beer

is the last word in beer quality—there isn't any other that is just as good.

Burg Brau is never surpassed in points of food value and tonic effectiveness. It's a splendid table beverage, appetizing and delicious. It is produced in one of the best appointed, most modern and sanitary breweries on this side of the big water—and made by men who know brewing as it is practiced in the foremost breweries of Germany.

Burg Brau just can't help being good—because nothing but good things go into it—fancy barley malt, the finest of imported Bohemian hops, and sparkling spring water.

PEACE IMPOSSIBLE AT THE PRESENT

repeated statement that Germany has exhausted her reserves.

"The allies are losing 5,000 men a day on the western front," was the way one German put it. "I suppose our losses are great, too, but we can keep it up as long as they can. We will hold out until the allies get enough of it."

Pope Wants Peace.
[By John H. Hearley, United Press Staff Correspondent.]
ROME, Oct. 7.—Pope Benedict, in a letter to the German episcopals' annual meeting at Fulda, deplors the futility of appeals for peace at this time and expresses regret that any peace move at present would be misinterpreted as an indication of partiality on the part of the Holy See.

As the representative of the Prince of Peace, the pope adds, he ardently desires that all shall share the blessings of peace. He especially recommends that children offer their prayers for peace.

KEOKUK'S BIG FESTIVAL COMES TO END TONIGHT

Week of Entertainment and Pleasure for Thousands of Visitors and Home People.

WEDDING IS FEATURE

Miss Florence Kirkpatrick and Wilbur Williams Were the Couple United in Marriage Today.

The public wedding at 4:00 o'clock this afternoon was the feature of the closing day of Keokuk's big fall celebration. The bride was Miss Florence Lillian Kirkpatrick of Keokuk, and the groom was Mr. Wilbur W. Williams of Chicago, but formerly of Keokuk. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Burns of Fort Madison in the presence of a crowd which packed Main street and both sides of Sixth street. The bridal procession moved down Main street from Twelfth to Third, and back to Sixth where the ceremony was performed. A solid wall of humanity packed the street and formed the way through which the bridal party was driven. The wedding and all of its features were planned by Fred H. Overton, chairman of the wedding committee.

The bridal party left the Kirkpatrick home on Orleans avenue between Eighteenth and Nineteenth at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Overland automobiles, furnished by the Overland-Irwin company, conveyed the party down the street. The procession moved as far down Main as Third, and around the Curtis statue, going back to Sixth street, where the platform had been moved to the intersection of the street. The bride's car came first. The bride and groom, and minister rode in the first car. Following came the car containing the bridesmaids and the groomsmen. In the last car was Mayor Lofton, Chairman Fred H. Overton and a representative of The Gate City.

At Sixth street the procession stopped and the principals took their places on the platform. There were two bridesmaids and two groomsmen, and a ring bearer. The procession was preceded by the Warsaw band and the boy scout buglers. The morning of the platform to the intersection of Sixth and Main streets made room for the big crowd. The street was packed on both sides and the Sixth street intersection took care of the overflow.

Big Crowd in City.

There was another big crowd in Keokuk today for the closing event of the week. This was Warsaw day, community day, and fireworks day. There were representatives from all of the surrounding communities here and they enjoyed all of the program provided by the Keokuk committee.

The usual program of free acts was given this afternoon. The program for tonight will start half an hour later than it has been all week.

To Close Tonight.

The celebration will come to a close this evening in a burst of glory. It will be carnival night on Main street. The last chance to see the free shows and the pay acts will be given and the concessions will have a last chance at the crowd.

Camera Fiends, Send in Snaps

The fall celebration committee, as a matter of statistics, would like to have pictures of any features of the big celebration. These will be used in making up the programs for next year and the committee would like to have all of the camera fiends send in a print of any act, any of the flights or anything that would be of interest and could be used in a statistical way in preparing for a celebration next year. The pictures can be turned in to Secretary Fulton or to Chairman Renaud any time next week.

Kahoka Band Makes Big Hit

The Kahoka band of twenty-five pieces which has been playing here during the fall festival has certainly made good so far as the Keokuk people and their guests are concerned. The band is directed by W. H. Bowers. Mr. Bowers has an organization of thirty-two pieces, and twelve of the members are young women. Five of the young women are in the band appearing here now.

W. H. Bowers, the director, has had bands with the Barnum circus and Buffalo Bill's wild west shows. His home is in Elmira, N. Y., and the commercial club there pays him a good salary for directing the band organization of that city, which supports a municipal band. Mr. Bowers happened two years ago to finish the season at Lancaster, and through a friend, was given a two-year's contract at Kahoka. He has built up a splendid corps of musicians there, and the band is making good wherever they play.

This is not the band's first appearance in Keokuk, nor will it be the last if popular sentiment has anything to do with the hiring of musicians. They played for the big Shriners' parade last year, and made a hit then. They have played four days here and have made a place in the hearts of the Keokuk people and the thousands of visitors who were here.

Reception by Miss Ruth Law

Miss Ruth Law, the flying queen, was "at home" to Keokuk people and the visitors this morning from 10 to 11 o'clock on the Elks club porch. A number of the Keokuk people who have been thrilled by her flights came down this morning to meet Miss Law.

Miss Law makes her final flights in Keokuk this afternoon at 5 o'clock and tonight at 10 o'clock. She has made some wonderful excursions into the air this week and has had the crowd gasping for breath on some of her loops in the air. She received a great ovation yesterday as she drove along Main street at the head of the industrial and fraternal parade.

Arabs Like Keokuk Folks

The six Moroccan Arabs, with Mula Ahmad as their manager, like the way the Keokuk audiences are "taking" to their act. Mr. Ahmad smiles broadly whenever people tell him they think the Arabs are fine, and he is being told that many times a day, so you can imagine the gentleman wearing a broad smile. The Moroccans were brought to this country a year ago in May by Ahmad.

The old gentleman in the group is seventy years old. In his palmy days Ahmad said he could carry as many as fifteen men. He does considerable work now carrying around five.

Ahmad said that a lot of his countrymen were in the armies of France. Chairman Renaud talked to Ahmad in French this morning, and they had quite a sociable little "gabfest." Ahmad speaks six languages.

Thanks to Weather Man

The weather man will receive a resolution of thanks from the fall festival committee. The resolution will be written on parchment in gold letters and will be framed in greenbacks. The reason for all this is the extra good brand of weather the weather man has been turning out this week. He surely battled 1,000 on the weather. There were five perfect days for the celebration. Not a cloud to mar one of them, the temperature plenty warm enough for the comfort of everybody. It was the best celebration weather Keokuk has ever had.

Celebration Notes

The Kahoka band serenaded The Gate City office this morning.

The Warsaw band was the new band on the streets today.

A marriage license was issued today to Wilbur W. Williams, 23, of Chicago and Florence Lillian Kirkpatrick, 20, of Keokuk. This is the couple who were married this afternoon at four o'clock. The license was the present from the court house "boys."

Gordon and Reveni, who have been giving such well equilibrist stunts here this week are to appear next week at Quincy.

A fire alarm just before noon today gave the crowd a thrill. The truck went out Blondeau street, but many of the visitors who had their automobiles took up the trail.

Special arrangements have been made to park autos in order that occupants can see Ruth Law make her start and finish at close range. This will be Ruth Law's last flight as she leaves the city unexpectedly at given our views on peace at this time.

This statement from Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, today reflected the attitude of British official sentiment toward the latest report from the United States that Ambassador Gerard is bearing a peace message from the Kaiser to President Wilson.

Everywhere in official circles Lord George's emphatic declaration that the war must go on "to a knock-out" was cited as the answer to the St. Louis Hay and Straw.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—Inspection of fresh arrivals totaled 26 cars (17 west on east side of river) and included 13 timothy, 4 clover-mixed, prairie and 1 clover. High-grade clover of all kinds is scarce and strong. No. 2 and better grades of timothy and clover-mixed are 50c per ton better the week, but ordinary and common stock moves slowly at unchanged prices. Clover and alfalfa also very scarce, in request and strong as buoyant.

Clover-mixed No. 1 at $10 to $11; No. 1 at $15 to $18.
Timothy, $7 to $10.
Alfalfa, common No. 2 at $14 to $15; No. 1 at $15 to $18.
Straw, steady. No fresh arrivals. Oats at $8.00. Wheat, to arrive, at $8.50.

Chicago Rye and Barley.
CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Rye—No. 2, nominal No. 8, 12c.
Barley—73 to 11c.

St. Louis Horses and Mules.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—Horses—Receipts were of fair volume, running approximately 500 head. Auction was again brisk and around 300 horses changed hands in this department. The bulk, as usual, went to the south for which classes a dozen or more buyers were collected around the auctioneer and supply did not begin to balance the demand. The few eastern sorts included in the arrivals were readily saleable. All inspections except the one of the Belgians, was active.

Heavy draft, extra $175-200
Eastern chunks 150-175
Southern horses, good 85-110
Southern horses, plain 60-75
Southern horses, common 40-60
Choice saddlers 100-200
Plugs 5-25
Mules—Moderately heavy receipts with a diminished foreign trade, plus war mule selling on a lower basis. Prices were lower, and as French were not in the market buying was limited, Italians taking from 100 to 125 each day.

Throughout it was a lower deal on the market weak despite the fact that receipts were materially lighter. Good fat bottom mules sold steady at a good price from 12 to 15.2 each, well well, but sugar mules as well as all other classes sagged off from $7.50 per head.

16 to 16 1/2 hands $150-275
15 to 15 1/2 hands 125-180
14 to 14 1/2 hands 60-110
13 to 13 1/2 hands 45-90

Stock Market Notes.
[United Press Leased Wire Service]
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Wall street registered considerable indifference regarding the report of Ambassador Gerard carrying German peace proposals to President Wilson at the opening of the stock exchange today when recoveries from yesterday's break in prices were general.

Many financial men looked upon the report as a market bear story, while others credited it.

Central Leather jumped 3 1/4 on the first sale, selling at 83. United States Steel up 1/4 at 116 1/4. Several of the leading rails showed half point recoveries and steel and munition shares were strong.

newest peace reports. There is no doubt that Lloyd-George voiced the sentiment of every Briton, at least in expressing the nation's determination to finish the war in a proper manner.

Reports similar to those received from America have reached here from Scandinavia regarding the purpose of Ambassador Gerard's visit. They are not confirmed, but they create no surprise in official circles. In fact it has been generally believed British officials that the German would send a peace-kite flying in October. The Lloyd-George interview was consequently considered very timely, forestalling a possible move by neutrals.

It was strongly emphasized today that any suggestions of mediation coming from President Wilson at this time would not be acceptable. Well informed persons added, however, that there would be no objection if President Wilson merely acted as an agent in transmitting terms the Kaiser cares to offer.

The evening newspapers commented guardedly today upon the report from America. Balanced opposition stories they print in large black type significant excerpts from Lloyd-George's statement to the United Press warning neutrals to keep hands off.
