CITY NEWS.

—Cops for sale. Call the elevator.
—Masonic, special, Eagle, Tuesday, Oct. 17, 1916, 3rd degree, 7:30 o'clock.
—The directors of the Industrial association will meet tonight at 6 o'clock at the Hotel Iowa for their regular monthly meeting.

The Rev. C. J. Algott of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church received a call from the church at Chariton this morning. He is considering the call, but has not made a decision.

—Mrs. Rose L. Agy of 523 High street, has received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Garber, which occurred at Bethesda, Okla., yesterday morning. Mrs. Garber is survived by her husband and one daughter. Homer T. Orsborn of this city is a nephew.

—There was no meeting at Argyle yesterday afternoon at the community church as scheduled, because of the inclement weather. The local men who were to assist were not able to make the trip, but expect to go next Sunday. The next important event at the church will be the Halloween social to be given on Monday evening, October 30.

—Mr. Albert Kiedaisch sends a card to Keokuk friends that his party is passing through a very prosperous country on their automobile tour. They made 480 miles in two days. The card was sent from Poplar Bluff, Mo., the home of Mrs. Kiedaisch's parents, where the party is visiting.

—C. F. Sawyer, of Sioux City, was in Keokuk Sunday visiting with his family. Mrs. Sawyer accompanied him to Sioux City last evening and arrangements will be made for the removal of the family to Sioux City at a later date. Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer have many friends in Keokuk who will regret their decision to leave the city but business requirements demand the change, Mr. Sawyer being the secretary and manager of the Sioux City Tire and Manufacturing Co. He has quite a large acquaintance over the state, having served Lee county as representative.

—The Burlington Gazette has adopted the rule of the Des Moines Capital and will refuse to publish any free notices of any character whatever. The pinch that the newspaper publishers are feeling due to the high cost of print paper and other materials entering into the production of a newspaper is causing the publishers to adopt the same rule that the merchant applies to his business and his goods instead of giving any part of them away. In other words the newspaper men are learning that they are compelled to apply business principles to their business.

You'll Own an Electric Suction Cleaner Some Day

Because it will keep your home clean and sanitary for less money than you are now paying for brooms and the dust they leave.

You Should Choose a Bissell Electric Suction Cleaner

Because it moves more air in a given time than any other portable cleaner.

Because it does better work at the tool mouth than the costly built-in cleaners.

Because it is practically unbreakable and there is no limit to the demands you can make upon it.

Because it is adapted for use in the largest buildings as well as in the smallest homes.

Because in addition to its perfect work as a cleaner, it furnishes light power for all household purposes.

Let us show you all that the Bissell will do for you—there's no other cleaner can do as much.

Telephone us and we will clean one room for you free.

THE THEATRES

AT THE GRAND.

Frank Keenan in "The Phantom." A thrilling detective story—exciting, full of adventure and chuck full of surprises, quick action and tense moments is "The Phantom," the Grand's feature attraction, appearing for the last time tonight. Frank Keenan and Enid Markey star in this interesting play and Mr. Keenan, who has done wonderful work in "The Coward" and other great film-plays, here interprets the role of the Phantom in this story of silk-gloved criminality.

Fay Tincher, fast gaining popularity by her clever comedy work, appears on the same program in an amusing Key-Ke comedy entitled "Bedelia's Bluff."

"The Phantom" is a story based on the operations of a gentleman crook, who through his elusiveness and cunning maneuvers gains the sobriquet of the Phantom. For years he eludes the best detectives in the world. On one of his jobs a pretty girl upsets his calculations and he in turn assumes the role of a detective. The complications are rather original.

A special Lasky-Paramount picture is announced at the Grand tomorrow for the one day only, "Honorable Friend" is an absorbingly interesting drama featuring the powerful Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa, his wife Tsuri Aoki, and several other capable Japanese artists. The story is one of an Oriental's mysteriousness and the scenes start in Japan, but are very soon shifted to America.

Lasky has made a wonderful picture of "Honorable Friend" and it is truly one of the feature productions of the year.—Advertisement.

podrome theatre next Tuesday afternoon and evening, when Darwin Karr, handsome hero and gallant lover of a hundred big screen successes, will appear in the flesh and in person to greet "movie" fans at the Hippodrome theatre.

Darwin Karr will be remembered by theatre-goers of this city as the hero in the sensational screen production "The Little Girl Next Door," which was presented at this theatre some time ago. Mr. Karr is spending his brief vacation on a motor trip and has been induced by Manager H. H. Friedman of the Hippodrome, to appear at this theatre on next Tuesday at each and every performance, and to give a talk at the conclusion, on working of movies and film adventure.

Mr. Karr will also be in the lobby of the theatre to talk with, shake hands and answer questions of interested patrons, during the entire afternoon and evening.

Manager Friedman has arranged an exceptionally attractive program for this date—"Her Naked Soul," a startling society drama, being the feature attraction.

Mr. Karr incidentally is starred in "Her Naked Soul," which is by far the greatest play that he has ever appeared in.—Advertisement.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The colored vaudeville booked to play for today and tomorrow has been postponed, owing to the illness of one of the principle actors and will be staged on Thursday and Friday instead.

Tomorrow we present the great problem play "The Naked Truth."

The leading role in "The Naked Truth," that of Lolette, an artist's model, is taken by Mlle. Lydia Borelli, known on the continent as the most beautiful actress in all Europe. Her work was a revelation to the American critics who viewed the pro-

Famous "Movie" Idol to Appear in Person at This Theatre Tomorrow. A genuine novelty will be offered to the people of this city at the Hipduction when it was presented at the new Candler theatre, New York, last summer. It is safe to say that a more striking exhibition of dramatic talent never has been made in moving pictures, even in these days when the leading lights of the legitimate stage have turned to the silent drama. Mlle. Borelli, lithe, graceful and mobile of feature, runs the entire gamut of human emotions in her work in "The Naked Truth." Her portrayal of the character entitles her to high rank among the leading actresses of the world.

Today we show that wonderful dramatic picture, "The Bait" and on Saturday we will show that most famous of all comedians, Charlie Chaplin in the only 4 reel feature ever produced by him. The much discussed "League on Carmen"—Advertisement.
