Music at the Lecture

Many Added Attractions in Connection With the Sleeve Valve Lecture at Grand Tomorrow Evening.

Arrangements have been completed for the motion picture lecture on the Knight sleeve valve motor to be given tomorrow night at the grand theatre by the Overland-Irwin Co.

Mr. Cooper is scheduled to arrive in Keokuk early tomorrow morning and during the day he will meet Overland dealers, who are coming here from various parts of this territory.

As an added feature for Wednesday's entertainment it was announced today by Mr. McLoney that a musical program will be played by a six piece orchestra, and a number of vocal selections will be rendered by a local baritone singer.

The lecture itself, according to McLoney, is calculated to interest women as well as men and the motion pictures which Mr. Cooper is to show are regarded by film men as being the best of their kind ever produced.

"Imagine yourself standing inside an automobile motor," says Mr. McLoney. "Picture yourself gazing at close range upon the heretofore mysterious 'ways and wherefores' of what makes the wheels go round in that small but formidable space underneath the hood of the car you drive. This is a thrill that will be experienced by those who attend the lecture. The Knight motor in some of the scenes in the films used by Mr. Cooper has been photographed in magnified form, the effect being a giant like appearance on the screen.

"In this manner every detail in the construction is brought out sharply and clearly and the various points of interest are explained to the audience in language stripped of all technicalities. How an automobile engine develops power at any given speed is graphically illustrated and in addition to these there are a number of other features including a close up view of a girl at the wheel of a Willys-Knight car and in which picture is shown the ease with which a woman may operate an automobile. There also are some clever animated cartoons and a birds-eye view in panoramic form of the largest automobile factory in the world."

Demand for tickets has been such that Mr. McLoney fears that the 1,000 seats in the Grand theatre will not be sufficient to accommodate the crowd. In every other city where Mr. Cooper has talked a similar condition has been confronted.

and other stories that they could not vote, brought the comment from Cosson: "Gamblers are always trying to neutralize their bets and guesses."

PASTORS WILL HAVE MEETING

Evangelical Ministers of Southeastern Iowa Will be in Session at Primrose.

The semi-annual pastoral conference of evangelical ministers of southeastern Iowa will meet at Primrose this week. The preachers from Sutter, Toga and Warsaw, Ill., and from Anokha, Mo., will meet at Keokuk to drive to Primrose by auto. Rev. A. C. Ernst of this city is to report on the National Evangelical Brotherhood convention which he attended in St. Louis last week and tentative plans for the extension of brotherhood organization in Iowa will be discussed. Rev. A. F. Schemmer is pastor of the church which will entertain the conference. Two new ministers have come in since the last meeting; Rev. E. Stech, who has taken charge of the Ft. Madison congregation and Rev. G. A. Abele, now of Latty, Iowa. Mr. Abele is the son of the president of the Nebraska district. The Evangelical Brotherhood meeting of Christian laymen at the St. Paul's church, which had been announced for tomorrow evening will not be held until after this conference, some time next week, all the members will be notified by postal card.

Program for the conference: Opening and exegetical study of a New Testament passage; Rev. A. C. Ernst. Business session, minutes by Secretary pro tem Rev. W. Kreis. Thesis on "Atonement," by Rev. K. Michels of Burlington. Report of resolution committee. Thesis, "A Successful Pastor," by Rev. C. Rasche of Burlington. Open discussion. Closing service by Rev. W. Bechtold of Kahoka. Rev. J. Erdman of Burlington, will preside at the meetings.

High School Crowded. [United Press Leased Wire Service] OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Falling twice at the polls to secure a favorable vote on a $125,000 bond issue to finance an addition to the local high school building, the school board today made arrangements to house the overflow from the high school at Christmas time in rooms in the business district. Enrollment in Ottumwa schools has greatly increased in recent years and every possible bit of space in the high school building has already been utilized.

Don't Have to Answer. [United Press Leased Wire Service] DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 17.—The census law is held not to be broad enough to include questions regarding the incumbency on land, in a decision by the Iowa supreme court today. The lower court held that Harvey Detrich, appellant of Clark county, should have answered such questions, but the decision was reversed by the supreme court.

THE STRICTEST ATTENTION

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do any good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when removed, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Roosevelt's Five States Trip. [By J. P. Yoder, United Press Staff Correspondent.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Republicanism today drew out for play its left bower—Theodore Roosevelt. The colonel left at 10:30 for his big western trip. He is to speak in five states—Kentucky, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Illinois. The major part of the colonel's effort will be made in Kentucky, where he is scheduled for thirteen stops, and short platform speeches before swooping down on Louisville for his first real offensive of the tour. Offensive is meant both ways. The colonel, said, upon leaving today, that he intends to make it as much that way as possible to the democrats. The colonel will begin his speaking at Falmouth at 8:30 tomorrow morning. He will have mighty scant intervals of rest until he concludes the short talks at Lebanon Junction at 6:48. He arrived in Louisville at 7:30 in the evening for a three hour and a half stop, where he delivers a carefully prepared address. The question of a New York state trip and a trip to Pittsburgh, and perhaps a few places in Indiana and Ohio will not be decided until the colonel's return to New York Saturday, October 28.

Criticism of Pledges. [By Perry Arnold, United Press Staff Correspondent.]

MITCHELL, S. D., Oct. 17.—Speaking before a farmer audience of 2,000, Nominée Hughes today analyzed in terms of sharp criticism the democratic platform pledge as to the tariff and solemnly warned his auditors that the present plan of great appropriations and decreasing of the revenue through import duties, "couldn't go on indefinitely as though there was an inexhaustible supply of money."

Hughes produced figures showing that in 1913 under the Payne bill, the total of imports was $1,813,000,000 against $2,197,000,000 in 1916 under the Underwood bill. Notwithstanding this vast increase, he declared the actual revenue to the government in duties on these imports was only $212,000,000 in 1916, as against $319,000,000 under the republican protective policy.

As against these figures Hughes read the democratic platform endorsement of the Underwood bill and the democratic assertion that it stood for tariff sufficient to provide for a government economically administered. He denounced the administration for wasteful extravagance in government. "The mere existence of resources and the mere existence of men capable of handling and developing these resources, are not sufficient to insure prosperity," he declared. "We must have adequate government policies for maintaining the advantages of our markets. We must have protection for American agricultural industries, otherwise our plans for departmental regulation will be mere barren forms."

The audience in this city of about 2,000 was mostly of farmers, many of whom had travelled long distances since daylight to hear Hughes expound his principles. The day was cold and Hughes shivered frequently in his breezy ride to the hall.

British war offices. The French announced the capture of another group of houses at the cross roads village of Sully-Sallisse, where sharp fighting has been going on for two days. The British pushed out north of Ancre brook last night for the first time since the opening day of the Somme offensive and penetrated German trenches.

On the Macedonian front the situation generally is unchanged. The Bulgars counter attacked violently southeast of Monastir, but were repulsed by the Serbs.

CAMPAIGN TO CRUSH RUMANIA

attacks in the Cerna river region, southeast of Monastir, it was officially announced today.

Attacking Fiercely. LONDON, Oct. 17.—Von Hindenburg's widely heralded eastern front offensive apparently is under way. Teutonic forces are attacking fiercely on a sixty mile front along the northwestern Rumanian frontier. At the same time they have opened heavy assaults against the Russian lines north of the Carpathians.

An official statement from the Rumanian war office this afternoon admits some Austro-German successes in this new offensive. The Teutons have pushed down the Trotus valley to the town of Agas, where they are engaged in battle with the Rumanians. Berlin dispatches yesterday reported that the Germans had broken through Gyms pass, leading into the Trotus valley and were driving eastward toward the main railway supplying the northern Rumanian armies.

The Russian war office, however, announced the repulse of all Teutonic attacks near Dorna Vatra. It is in this region that Von Hindenburg is delivering his hardest blows, apparently planning to drive a wedge between the Russian and Rumanian armies. The Austro-German attacks north of the Carpathians, apparently are to prevent the shifting of Russian troops southward to meet the new attack.

In Dobruja, fighting has been resumed between the Russo-Rumanians and the German-Bulgarian armies all along the front.

Pushing Eastward. BUCHAREST, Oct. 17.—Enemy forces advancing for an invasion of northwestern Rumania have pushed eastward in the Trotus valley as far as Agas, it was officially announced today. Fighting is proceeding at that point.

Battles Are Proceeding. BERLIN, Oct. 17.—Repulse of British attacks near Guedecourt and French attacks near Salley and Fresnoes were reported by the war office this afternoon. South of the Somme, fighting continues. All along the eastern Transylvanian frontier, northward to Dorna Vatra, battles are proceeding. The Rumanians are stubbornly resisting the roads leading through the mountain passes. South of Dorna Vatra the Teutons have captured heights east of the river Neagaa.

On the Russian front, the Slavs continue their violent storming attacks on several sectors. West of the fortress of Lutsk and on the Bukovka, they advanced in dense masses, but were thrown back with unusually heavy losses. Between Siniavka and Zublino and southwest of Zaturye the Russians vainly stormed Austro-German positions ten times. Three attacks near Pastomyty on the Bubnov sector also failed. The Teutons took 1,936 prisoners and ten machine guns.

I expect also to further the work by reducing some of my lectures and other data to text book form. "Depend upon it, the honor system may be hindered, but it cannot be hurt by its enemies. It will go right along whether I am at Sing Sing or in the grave."

WEDDING IS OF INTEREST

William M. Loftus, Former Keokukian, Was Married Last Week in Los Angeles.

A wedding of interest to Keokuk people occurred in Los Angeles last week when William M. Loftus and Mrs. A. J. Chandler were married. The following is from a Los Angeles paper: Friends of William M. Loftus, Los Angeles merchant, and Mrs. Julia P. Chandler, former wife of A. J. Chandler, wealthy real estate operator, learned today that the couple had given them the slip by making a quick journey by automobile to Santa Monica, getting married, and departing almost immediately for a honeymoon-trip that will carry them across the Pacific ocean. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Sidney Madson within an hour after the license was issued. Even near relatives of the couple were not taken into their confidence. It was stated today that Loftus is fifty-one years old and his wife is six years his junior. Mr. Loftus is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and other clubs. He is a partner in business with his brother, Frank L. Loftus. The bride and groom will make their home at the Chandler residence, 1327 South Vermont avenue, after their tour. Louisville Courier-Journal: The stock market behaved like a girl in the presence of a mouse when a German submarine unblinded on guns. Mice are more alarming than danger.
