

Kimballton-Elkhorn

The directory is now ready. They will be at the Bank in Elkhorn, at the Jewellers in Kimballton and at the store in Poplar, after Monday, October 12. Those getting their mail at those places and being paid one year in advance may get one.

A new blacksmith shop is being built at Rorbeck.

Bachelors of Rorbeck had a supper and dance Saturday night.

At present there are five new buildings going up in Elkhorn.

Fred Skroder, of Elkhorn, lost his pony by sickness last week.

A dance is planned to be in Jacksonville next Saturday night.

Peter Nelson is preparing for the erection of a building in Elkhorn.

Harry Andersen left this week for Nebraska where he will shuck corn.

Peter Jensen, the Elkhorn clothier, was in Atlantic Monday on business.

N. P. Maier decorated the dining room of the Kimballton hotel this week.

Pete Paulsen and wife, of Hamlin twp, visited his relation in Sharon Sunday.

Hans Madsen, the Kimballton groceryman, was in Audubon Monday on business.

Charley Petersen, east of Elkhorn, left this week to shuck corn east of Audubon.

Rev. V. S. Jensen, of the Oakhill church, made a flying trip to Kimballton Monday.

Martin Sorensen, southeast of Elkhorn, is soon to have a sale and then move to Omaha.

Lars Krogh and John Schouboe, of Sharon, visited in the Copenhagen vicinity Sunday.

Henry Blohm, of Sharon, who had a horse to fall on him recently is improving steadily.

Mrs. Chr. Andersen, of Sharon, was quite sick last week but at this writing is improving.

M. N. Esbeck, of Kimballton, replaced a wind mill wheel for Jens Gregersen Monday.

Rasmus Wilson, north of Sharon, gave the young folks a dance in his barn Saturday night.

Jens Paulsen, of Sharon, who recently came from Denmark has been poorly for some time.

Soren Andersen, the Exira Miller, attended the silver wedding at Severin Jorgensen's Sunday.

Jens Hansen, southeast of Elkhorn, purchased a wagon of the Elkhorn Implement Co. last week.

Andrew Esbeck east of Elkhorn went to Walnut Monday to try his hand at corn shucking.

Chr. Andersen, of the firm of Andersen Bros. of Sharon, visited in Shelby county Monday.

Henry Johnson and Miss Anna Carstensen, south of Elkhorn, visited friends in Hamlin Sunday.

James & Hansen received a car of oil meal last week and expect a car of bran and shorts this week.

R. P. Larsen, Kimballton's harness maker, is gathering material for a new dwelling in Prospect park.

Olga Reyelt and Ida Nelson, of Harlan, rode their wheels to Kimballton Friday and visited with Hans Madsen and family and other friends till Monday morning.

R. J. Hansen the Elkhorn painter, finished the outside work of Drace Sorensen's house this week.

Fred Larsen, who has been helping H. P. Nelson south of Elkhorn, is at Hamlin now shucking corn.

Henry Paulsen and family and Jens Paulsen and family, of Sharon, visited in Shelby county Sunday.

R. J. Hansen, the Elkhorn painter, and family visited Sunday at Peter Nelson's home, north of town.

Peter Johnsen, of Pisces, finished hauling the lumber this week from Kimballton for his new house.

Chr. Rasmussen, of Sharon, is making preparation to accommodate those wishing the use of a livery team.

The parents of Fred and Hans Bladt, of Kimballton, are expected to arrive from Denmark at any time.

Nis Larsen, the Elkhorn butcher, is enjoying a visit from his brother and his children, of Avoca, this week.

Jens Carlsen, south of Kimballton, had C. C. Nelson, of Kimballton, to raise a new steel wind mill Monday.

Chr. Nelson, who has been with Nels Hoegh this year, went to Harrison county this week to shuck corn.

A daughter of Hans Rasmussen of Elkhorn is assisting in the household work of Andrew Andersen at present.

C. W. Christensen southeast of Elkhorn, finished the carpenter work on Nels Boose' large barn this week.

Louisa and Edia Olsen, daughters of Chris Olsen southeast of Elkhorn, returned home from Omaha last Thursday.

Geo. James, of Elkhorn, treated himself to a new windmill this week; put up by the Elkhorn Implement company.

Hans Larsen is the new clerk at Rorbeck, taking the place of Hans Rasmussen who is attending school at Cedar Falls.

Geo. Henningsen of Elkhorn, put a man this week plastering for Soren Johansen. He visited in Brayton and Exira Sunday.

Andreas Andersen east of Elkhorn, lost a horse last week by sickness. He replaced it by getting one of Rasmus Nissen.

Nels Sorensen, the plasterer that helped Geo. Henningsen this summer, leaves Saturday for Council Bluffs to work on a farm.

Jacob Andersen, the Kimballton carpenter, employed Peter H. Lauritsen to help him while he is caring for a severely sore hand.

Two men near Sharon have won a reputation of shucking corn by finishing twenty-five acres in a day. No names were mentioned.

Henry Petersen, Hans Hansen, Peter Jorgensen and Carl Petersen, of this vicinity left this week for Guthrie Center to shuck corn.

Estrayed--From my place 3 miles east of Elkhorn, red cow with star in forehead, slit in right ear. Notify L. N. Esbeck, Elkhorn, Iowa.

Peter Ahrenkeil, of Elkhorn, is now at work in Marnie for the Grodt Bros. and has won quite a reputation we understand as a horse trader.

John Christensen southeast of Elkhorn invited his friends and neighbors to his home Sunday and entertained them with his usual hospitality.

Louie Rasmussen who has worked for John Christensen southeast of Elkhorn the last two years, left this week to shuck corn near Audubon.

The Brayton Coal yards have pcheer Illinois, Centerville or Des Moines coal than you can buy in the country. If 10-22 T. J. McGovern.

Mrs. Rasmus Nissen, south of Elkhorn, visited her brother, Frank Marderssen, of DeSoto, the last week leaving Rasmus to run a bachelor's hall.

Mrs. Morgensen, who has been visiting her parents and friends in this vicinity for the last three months started last week for her home in New Jersey.

Miss Nettie Andersen, a teacher in the Elkhorn school, gave an oyster supper to a few friends Sunday evening after which a buggy ride was much enjoyed.

Julius Larsen, the Poplar blacksmith, was in this vicinity exhibiting a brake for a buggy. As far as we could understand the device was practical and one that is needed.

James Clemmensen and wife, of Elkhorn, are to leave this week for Minnesota to take a homestead in the Indian reservation which is to be opened about the 10th of November.

Elkhorn is compelled to bear the absence of most of her cheerful youths during corn shucking this fall as their industrious habits have drawn them to the work of the season.

Miss Julia Dahlstrom, daughter of Rev. Dahlstrom of Des Moines, arrived last week to take charge of the business branches in the college. This is a recommendation for good work in this department.

Several teams and men are at work grading for the foundation of the church which will beautify Kimballton and vicinity. A more descriptive explanation of the dimensions will appear later.

Severin Jorgensen and wife, east of Elkhorn, celebrated their silver wedding last Sunday and on the occasion invited many old acquaintances to partake of the specialties which they had prepared.

The Tanglefeet and Pansy Blossoms engaged themselves in a base ball contest Sunday. The only particulars we could get was that the Tanglefeet did not become enough untangled to win the game.

Oscar Sterling, of Harlan, was in Kimballton Monday looking after the probability of moving the old creamery building across the road from its present site, and will be converted into a dwelling.

P. Nelson, the Elkhorn photographer, is now well enough to attend to his studio again. His sister is to soon be with him to assist in his work and work will be furnished promptly.

Mike Nelson, son of N. H. Nelson of Kimballton, exhibited a fine horse and a new buggy on the streets of his town last week, he is now ready to entertain some worthy young lady with swift and safe buggy rides.

Prof. Jensen is taking a short time each day for riding in order to prepare himself for his trip to Minneapolis, his home. He is improving steadily and will soon leave the many and warm friends he has made during his short stay in this vicinity.

A clearing gang under the direction of Chris Thrasher chopped down all the willows on the college grounds last week and sawed them up for use in the school. Nothing but the maple can have the right of growth there from this on.

Lars Hansen, west of Elkhorn, returned last week from Friend, Neb., where he purchased a 160 acre farm. His son, Charley, will leave this week for that place to shuck corn for Fred Johnson. Mr. Hansen and family intend to move in the near future.

Lydia Madsen, daughter of Hans Madsen of Kimballton, had the misfortune to fall from her bicycle last Sunday while coasting down a hill and break her arm. It was immediately tended to and care and time will bring a perfect heal.

Elenora Miller, who spent a long time in one of the best studios in Des Moines and who has been attending an Art school recently for the purpose of doing first class work, will be in Elkhorn about Nov. 1st, to assist her brother in his art gallery.

Mrs. John Petersen, wife of the Elkhorn banker, and Mrs. Ole Petersen, left Wednesday for Omaha. Mrs. John Petersen will visit her son, Hans Peter, who was recently married in Lincoln; this being the first visit she has made him since he has settled to housekeeping.

DIED--Mrs. Lars A. Christensen died at her home, four miles northwest of Kimballton, on Thursday, October 22, of lung fever and was buried Saturday at 2 o'clock in the Kimballton cemetery. Rev. Gregersen, of Kimballton, conducted the funeral exercises. The deceased leaves a husband and three children without the guidance and help of mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Andersen, southeast of Elkhorn, are called upon to mourn the loss of their infant son which occurred Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock. The funeral services were held Thursday at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. L. A. Christensen. The little body was laid to rest in the Oakfield cemetery. The sympathy of the community is with the grief stricken parents.

A flag was hoisted one day last week over the store of James & Hansen, of Elkhorn, and a merry crowd gathered in that part of town to have a few hours of social enjoyment in honor of Dr. Soe's forty-second birthday. Time glides by, dragging into forgetfulness, pleasure and sorrow alike, but may we cheerish and accept the pleasant memories that are brought to exist on such occasions.

DIED--Nels Paulsen died at his home, 3 miles west and 1 mile north of Kimballton, Sunday morning at 5:30 o'clock, from injuries received in a runaway. Mr. Paulsen was in Poplar Thursday and started home with a light load of lumber on his wagon, the lumber slipped from its place and frightened the team so they became unmanageable which ended in fatal injuries to him. He was unconscious from that time until his death. The funeral services were held Tuesday and his body was laid in its last resting place in the Lutheran cemetery west of Jacksonville. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn the absence of a father and husband caused by a sudden death. The bereaved wife and children have the sympathy of the entire community which feels more than ever that life is a chain of mysteries which can only be explained in the great Beyond.

Tags and Coupons.

Bring in your tobacco tags and coupons and get smoking and chewing tobacco, candy, cigars, drinks and lunches or anything in trade at THE BLUE RIBBON LUNCHEON, 10-15-4w Elkhorn, Iowa.

Republican Rally.

One of the largest political meetings ever held in Kimballton was that held last Wednesday evening, the hall being crowded to overflowing.

The meeting was called to order by Martin Esbeck who delivered the address of welcome. Then the Republican county candidates were presented and Mr. Mott spoke briefly and Charley White concluded by introducing the speaker of the evening, Hon. Walter I. Smith. Mr. Smith's speech was eloquent and persuasive and was listened to with intense interest. He spoke principally on the tariff question and trusts, also touching on the negro problem. A number of Audubon people were out to here him.

Charles White Admitted to the Bar.

The friends of Mr. Charles White can now rejoice with him in the accomplishment of his first great task, that of being admitted to the Iowa Bar. Mr. White has taught school with great success near Kimballton for some time and has utilized every spare moment to obtain his degree. He attended school at Ames with great distinction and then took up law at the Iowa College of Law. He is now admitted though will have to wait for his diploma till June, when the next class graduates, he attended Summer school and finished this much ahead of his class. None but those that have had such task can realize the work and grit it takes to hold on to this kind of an undertaking with nothing but time and ambition for backing. Mr. White has not decided as to his place of location but many localities are anxious to welcome a man of pluck and will power and we hope he will have the fortune to settle where one of his type will be appreciated.

A Cure For Dyspepsia.

I had Dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most all the time. Did not enjoy eating until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which has completely cured me.--Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Sold by Nick Doffing & Co., Exira, and F. H. Franklin & Co., Brayton.

Farm For Sale, Cheap!

My farm of 120 acres, one mile south and four miles east of Elkhorn, will be sold cheap if sale is before September 25, 1903.

CHRIS P. RATTENBORG, Atlantic, Iowa. Box 4.

Mustard Bath For Children.

When your young hopeful comes in from his playtime sneezing and coughing and showing various indications of having caught cold, leave the usual drugs and try a mustard bath for warding off future trouble. Tie two tablespoonfuls of ground mustard in a small piece of cheese cloth and put it in a tubful of water as hot as one can comfortably bear. Rub thoroughly afterward and get the patient to bed as soon as possible to guard against more cold.

This plan of taking a mustard bath when the usual indications of a severe cold present themselves is equally good for adults, but it is especially recommended for the little tots who so often expose themselves thoughtlessly during playtime and who should not be allowed to become accustomed to drugs in any form unless prescribed by a physician for severe cases.

Is Your Face Clean?

This is a question which the average woman would meet with a haughty look. Yet nine times out of ten it would prove more than pertinent. The girl who uses gallons of water daily for washing purposes and who scrubs and scrubs most diligently with soap will be surprised how much cleaner her skin could really get. A bit of cold cream will show her whether her face is clean or not. Rubbed softly into the face with the tips of the fingers, the cold cream will take up every atom of dust or soot from the skin, and with a soft cloth gently wipe the face over and over. Then have a look at the cloth. You will be amazed to see how grimy it is, realizing that your face had not had the proper sort of bath, despite soap and water used so freely.

Mrs. Emily Fish.

Mrs. Emily A. Fish is keeper of the lighthouse at Point Pinos, Cal., four miles from Monterey. On the death of her husband, an army surgeon, she applied for the place and secured it through a competitive examination. The lighthouse is delightfully situated on a point jutting from the mainland, and Mrs. Fish is able to engage in additional pursuits. She raises numerous varieties of sweet peas and makes a business of breeding colts and fancy French poodles for market.

A Perfect Painless Pill

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clean the complexion, cure headaches and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectively are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by Nick Doffing & Co., Exira, Iowa; F. H. Franklin & Co., Brayton, Iowa.

Adorn Your Books.

A charming way of beautifying little books, such as diaries, engagement books, almanacs, etc., is to cut a piece of rough surfaced drawing paper or vellum to the exact size of the cover and fix it on with gum, a little practice insuring success. You can write some appropriate line from your favorite author across the cover and then fill in the remaining portion with a pretty design. A daybook would look charming with a brown paper cover, a red sun rising from a background of a few clouds and the words, "Pack clouds away and welcome day." An address book could have a row of quaint red roofed houses and the words, "Where is it?" and a diary covered in black paper with the words, "Silence is golden," an hourglass and a key. All these put in with gold paint would be uncommon.

His Idea of Pleasure.

"Yes; we went all over the continent, but papa really only enjoyed himself in Venice."
"Ah, yes, no wonder! The gondolas, St. Mark's, the--"
"Oh, it wasn't that. But he could sit in the hotel, you know, and fish out of the windows."

Easy Enough.

"Johnnie," asked a gentleman of a little kindergarten pupil, "do you know how to make a Maltese cross?"
"Yes, sir; I sho' do."
"Well, tell me how you do it."
"Why, you just step on her tail!"--Exchange.

The Patient Ones.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "sits down an' does a day's loafin' an' calls it bein' patient an' resigned."--Washington Star.

Back Home

The Rock Island will run Home Visitors Excursions to many points in Ohio and Indiana on September 1, 8, 15 and October 6. The rate will be one and one-third fare for the round trip and tickets will be good thirty days from date of sale. Let the Rock Island Agent plan your trip and show you how comfortably it can be made.

Are You Going?

Write or call on the undersigned for full information as to cost of tickets, train service, etc.

JNO. G. FARMER, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

WHY KINLOCH PASTE IS THE IDEAL HOUSE PAINT

The purpose of House Paint is to Protect and Beautify. "Linseed oil is the life of paint" because it is the binder, the mucilage, that holds the pigments (the dry paint) to the surface; and only when the oil loses this binding quality through its disintegration by atmospheric influences does the loosened dry particles of pigment come off. The office of the pigment is decorative and also preservative, in prolonging the life of the oil by protecting it from the elements.

Absolute certainty of the purity of the linseed oil constitutes the chief economy in paint buying, for to exactly the extent that the binding quality of the oil is weakened by the use of adulterants or cheap "fillers," the durability of the whole paint is diminished.

You have this absolute certainty of the quality of the oil in the paint put on your house when you buy Kinloch Paint, because you buy the oil separately and give your paint this absolutely certain durability by mixing this oil gallon for gallon with the thick "Kinloch" paste in which, for your convenience and the certainty of proper proportions, all the pigments, tinting colors, "turps" and driers are ground together and sold you ready for the admixture of the pure raw oil by yourself.

These facts alone make "Kinloch" the ideal paint; but besides this guarantee of durability through your personal knowledge of the purity of the oil, is the fact that when you buy two gallons of the ordinary ready-mixed paint--the "ready for the brush" sort--you pay the ready-mixed paint price for the one gallon of oil therein, regardless of its purity, or 2 1/2 to 3 times more than for the fresh pure oil in your local dealer's barrel.

We invite correspondence from those who use or buy House Paint. We sell through the dealer only; but he will get "Kinloch" for you if you show him this ad.

There is no Substitute

KINLOCH PAINT COMPANY, 510 Pine Street, Saint Louis, Mo.

MODERN ELOQUENCE

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed's Splendid Library of the Best After-Dinner Speeches, Classic and Popular Lectures, Famous Addresses, Reminiscence, Repartee, Anecdote, Illustration, and Story, in ten handsome volumes, illustrated by fine photographs and color plates.

A FEW OF THE MANY CONTRIBUTORS:

Theodore Roosevelt	Sir Henry Irving	Champ Clark	Joseph Chamberlain
Charles Dudley Warner	John Tyndall	Russell H. Conwell	Mark Twain
John Morley	Charles Francis Adams	John M. Allen	John B. Gordon
William E. Gladstone	Henry Ward Beecher	Chauncey M. Depew	Oliver Wendell Holmes
Andrew Lang	Joseph H. Choate	Wendell Phillips	Wu Ting Fang
Canon Farrar	George William Curtis	Henry W. Brad	Hamilton Wright Mabie
William Cullen Bryant	John L. Spalding	Jonathan F. Dolliver	Joseph Jefferson
Lytton Abbott Eggleston	Edward Eggleston	Robert J. Burdette	Arthur L. Balfour
Robert C. Ingersoll	Lord Beaconsfield	Horace Porter	John Ruskin
John H. Gowley	John Billings	Artemus Ward	Henry W. Stanley
Charles A. Dana	William M. Everts	Newell Dwight Hills	Seth Low
	John Hay	Grover Cleveland

"Modern Eloquence" as a Guide to Success

EVERY young man wants to succeed. Obviously the way to learn is to study the methods of men who have succeeded. Guides to success are many. What do they say? Be honest. Tell the truth. Work hard. Save money. Do $20 worth of work for wages of $5. Such advice is good, no doubt, as far as it goes--but is not something more needed? Did these methods alone make HILLIS, and BOK, and REED, and CARNEGIE, and CURTIS, successful?

Young men are not fools. They see that there is a secret of success, and that it is more than honesty and hard work, else every honest hard worker would be successful.

The secret lies in controlling the minds of men. How to make others believe you, trust you, and do what you wish--this is what you must learn. To be sure, few will learn it but those who also work hard and tell the truth. These come first--but they are not all.

As a guide to the highest success, "MODERN ELOQUENCE" has no rival. It is a splendid series of object-lessons by masters in the art of influencing men's minds. And the success aimed at is far more than mere money success. Fame, power, honor, the gratitude and love of generations to come--these are the rewards which have spurred to such efforts the men whose words are gathered in these ten rich volumes.

In "MODERN ELOQUENCE" the men who have won success in every line speak for our instruction:--

In Law, there are Everts and Phelps, both the Choates, Coudert, and David Dudley Field.

In Journalism, Dana, Halstead, Watterson, McClure, McKelway, and Whitelaw Reid.

In Politics, Cleveland and Harrison, Blaine and Conkling, Sumner and Seward; we listen to the eloquence of Gladstone, then to that of his great rival, Disraeli.

Literature, we have the best thoughts of Dickens and Thackeray, in contrast with the more modern humor of Howells and Mark Twain; or Carlyle, Froude, and Morley speak to us from across the sea, for comparison with our own Emerson and Curtis.

Among the heroes of War are Grant and Sherman, Sampson and Schley, Miles, Wheeler, and Lew Wallace.

Among great Educators are Eliot, Gilman, and Hadley. Among great Scientists, Huxley and Tyndall, Herbert Spencer and Agassiz.

Among successful men of Business are Carnegie and Depew, E. W. Bok and Cyrus W. Field. President Eliot's address on the "Uses of Education for Business," and Gladstone's "Modern Training for Life," are guides for the beginner to learn by heart; and Bok's lecture on "The Keys to Success" is of the greatest practical value to every young man ambitious to succeed.

John D. Morris and Company Philadelphia Publishers

Jack Frost IS HERE

and you will need some heavy underwear. I have some of the best fleece lined that you can get any place.

OUR OVERCOATS

are on hand for your inspection. We have the best dress overcoats made. Also have the furs in all sizes

We have Overshoes at $1.35 These are good ones too.....

Peter Jensen, Elkhorn, Iowa.

Coal! Coal!

I heard you was out of the coal business. Why, no! We don't sell coal two or three months of the year when there is a PROFIT. We keep it ALL the year round. Call and see us when in need of coal. :: :: :: ::

Brayton Iowa Green Bay Lumber Co.