MRS. L. P. HANSEN DEAD

The sad news reached here of the death of Mrs. L. P. Hansen, who passed away one day last week at her home in Cordova, Nebraska. The Hansens were formerly residents of Elkhorn, where Mr. Hansen was a partner in the firm of James and Hansen, but selling out his share to George James, he moved with his family to Cordova, Nebraska. Before moving to Elkhorn, Mr. Hansen resided in Atlantic, where his first wife passed away. Mrs. Hansen was a sister of Mrs. Soren Tygesen of near Sharon, and leaves her husband, four children and two step-children to mourn her demise. We extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

THE CITY'S WATER SUPPLY STILL INADEQUATE

The well diggers are still with us and to the present have failed to get an adequate supply of water. The men have worked faithfully under the skillful guidance of Mr. Reynolds, the contractor, who oversees the work every few days.

The council has done their best to the present time to supply the demand of the town.

As another stage of the proceedings the machine and three men have been hired by the city for thirty days at a stipulated amount, and the council is resolved into a committee of two, in whose hands the entire question of obtaining water is submitted. The machine is now setting a new strainer point in one of the wells and we hope to increase the flow thereby.
