The Decorah Journal states the indebtedness of Winneshiek county to be $268,068, of which $82,500 is owing on the court house, and $95,000 on bridge bonds, the balance being made up of overdrafts and bridge warrants. Quite a contrast to Howard county, which has no indebtedness and a cash balance in the treasury on Jan. 1st of $44,204.79.

The B. P. Norton sale on Tuesday was a great success and attracted a large number of buyers from a distance. The grade Holstein dairy cows were the big attraction and we regret very much that Howard County dairymen allowed all but three to be sold to parties at a distance, four car loads being shipped Wednesday to Nashua, Postville, Calmar and Jackson Junction. H. W. Shuttleworth, of Cresco, bought one cow, and Chas. Rohr, of Elma, bought two, also the registered herd bull for which he paid $140. The cows and heifers sold for from $61 to $120, and averaged a little less than $90. The yearlings sold for an average price of $55.
