

COUNTY NEWS

BONAIR

Leon Morgan, of Cresco, has hired to Paul Auringer for the season.

Miss Winnie Gibbons, who has been ill for some time, has recovered and is able to be around again.

Mrs. Sarah Lapham left Wednesday for Hartley, Iowa, where she will spend several weeks visiting her son Benjamin. From there she will go to Lake Park for a few days' visit with her little granddaughter.

Mrs. Glen Johnson has returned from Mercy hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul have moved into the Lewis Knudson house near Lime Springs and will remain there till a new house and outbuildings have been erected on their place near there.

Mr. Short, Sunday School Missionary for this district, was with us over Sunday. He is a very good singer and a fine violinist, and very creditably assisted with the music in both the Sunday school and church services, which was very much appreciated.

Mr. Taft of Monticello, Minn., an old settler of Howard county, and by the way, the oldest living settler, too, was in Bonair for several days' visit with old acquaintances.

Last Tuesday being the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Auringer, about fifty of their friends planned to take them by surprise. They were completely surprised when the friends showed up at their home south of town. Refreshments were served, various games indulged in, and all report a splendid time.

E. L. Fox of Cresco transacted business here for several days last week.

L. E. Grabau has had the pleasure of nearly a week's stay at home this month, but left Tuesday to take up his work.

The school is closed for the regular spring vacation.

Miss Leah Phillips closed her school in the Darrow district, after a successful term, and we understand she will resume her duties there for the spring term.

Low Phillips is assisting Charley Wells with his farm work this week.

Miss Mahla Albertson has been confined to her home by a severe sore throat.

CHURCH NOTES

There will be choir practice at the home of Mrs. James Nichols Thursday evening. All those who have been assisting in the church music, are urged to make an effort to attend.

All members of the League are urged to remember the meeting for Friday evening at the home of the president, Miss Mabel Bowden. The friends of the League are invited as well. The meeting will be of a business nature.

Regular services Sunday, Sunday School at 11:00 o'clock. League at 7:00. Evening service at 7:30. There will be special music at the evening service, appropriate to the season. There will also be reception of members, and any having church letters or certificates will be welcomed into our society. There will be public baptism service. The sermon will be an Easter sermon. Everybody most cordially invited to all of these services.

SARATOGA

Mrs. Neils Hanson is on the sick list, also Mrs. Howard Watson.

Clark Miles of West Concord, Minn., is visiting grandpa and grandma Miles and other relatives.

C. F. Viebrock and Carl Johnson made a trip to St. Paul Friday.

We understand that Henry Foss has sold his place to Will Armstrong.

Mrs. Henry Schahn of Le Roy, called to see her sister, Mrs. W. Schaal Thursday.

Leon Linda closed a successful term of school in Dist. No. 7, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alby Vail and son took dinner at the Jesse Miles home Sunday.

There was no church last Sunday on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. Schaal was unable to make the trip to Cresco Saturday on account of the bad roads.

Fred Groat made his first trip out on the Cresco route Monday.

Henry Henning is going to paint the Thos. Kakac residence and store on the out side and inside.

Emil M. s of Cedar Rapids, is visiting his cousin, Wesley Mooes, and other relatives.

August Madause who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Schaal, went to Le Roy last Thursday to visit his sister, Mrs. H. Schahn.

The rumor is that the diptheria has spread out some of the surprise parties around here.

Mrs. Joe Kakac of Bonair spent last week at the F. Kakac home, also at the Thos. Kakac home.

WEST VERNON

Mrs. Fred Fish spent Tuesday with relatives in Cresco and attended the Royal Neighbors entertainment.

Miss Black spent Tuesday at the Henry Wilson home.

Peter Lickteig was a business caller in our burg Tuesday.

Mike Kearney and daughter Margaret called at the Fred Fish and Leslie Sebastian home and began school in Vernon Springs Dist. No. 1, Monday. Miss Nellie returned home with her father after closing a successful term of school in Dist. No. 2.

Leslie Mitchell and Mae Jolly called at the Fye home Sunday.

Albert Fye is assisting Wm. Reinhardt with his work.

Mrs. Frank Bouska left Monday for Chester to help care for her little nephew who is sick.

Leslie Sebastian called on his father in Cresco Saturday.

James Miller left for Waterloo to spend a few days.

C. M. Eldridge and Fish kept a number of our people busy hauling corn Tuesday.

Frank Montague called at the Henry Novak home Tuesday.

Helea and Eddie Bouska entertained friends Sunday.

LIME SPRINGS

Mrs. Tistleson had a bad accident; she fell Tuesday breaking her hip bone; the break is a bad one.

Misses Clara Bird and Mable Bowden, of Bonair, came Wednesday to visit Harriet Jones.

C. P. Nash and Bill M. Jones went to Cresco, Wednesday.

Mrs. Guy Benson and Mrs. Irwin Obriham went to Minneapolis, Wednesday.

William Fruechte, of Faribault, came to make some repairs on the Will Damm place, returning Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Hall came Saturday from teaching her school, having spring vacation at this time.

Del Horton and wife returned Saturday from Ft. Atkinson where they had been visiting friends.

A. Banning and wife, who have spent several weeks visiting friends here and Cresco, left Monday for their home in North Dakota.

After a short visit at the home of W. W. Sanborn, Mrs. McGonigle returned to La Crosse Wednesday.

The new Easter bonnet met with a cold reception at the millinery opening Saturday. The blizzard made folks believe that winter was just beginning.

We have got to quit kicking the ground hog around.

Mr. Dyer and family, who have been living in Minnesota, have located on the farm one mile south of town, where Mr. Harvey lived last year.

Henry Owens is going to begin the erection of a fine new house, east of his blacksmith shop.

Lou Umhoefer and wife expects to be located in their new home in a few days.

Rev. Griffith is still patiently suffering, looking hopefully to the time when his suffering shall end.

The Misses Ruth and Jessie Gue came Friday from Fayette to spend the Easter vacation with the home folks.

John G. Roberts went to Austin, Saturday.

Ed Gibbons, of Bonair, was calling on friends in town, Saturday.

Miss Hiller, of Decorah, came Saturday to visit at the Hewitt home a few days.

Miss Mable Hewitt returned Saturday from Wisconsin where she had been to attend the funeral of an aunt.

Editor Sheets and Mr. Joseph Cray visited in Chester, Saturday.

John Cray and Carl Maehling were Cresco visitors, Tuesday.

Miss Minnie Smith is employed in the Wells restaurant, coming from Cresco, Friday.

Miss Florence Cray, after an over Sunday visit with her aunt, returned from Cresco, Monday.

On account of the high water, we did not have electric lights for a few nights last week.

Some of the farmers were complaining of the lack of moisture sometime ago. Now they are complaining of too much.

Edward Craig left Thursday for Minneapolis.

Clara Knudsen arrived home from Rose Creek, Thursday, having closed her school for a month's vacation.

Frank Fick, who has been farming south of town, shipped his goods to North Dakota, and with his family left for that place Friday.

Robert Griffith and family left for Canada Friday, his goods going on the morning freight.

Win Sanborn came Friday to spend Sunday with his family.

Forrest Sanborn was over from Little Cedar Saturday, calling on friends.

Robert Lean, who has been visiting his brother a few days, left for Wisconsin Saturday.

Augustus Prescott and Harry Billman were Chester visitors Saturday.

Miss Flossie Cray went Saturday to Cresco to visit friends over Sabbath.

Frank Schacht was a Cresco caller, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scott came up from Cresco, Monday, to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Kintz.

Mrs. Frank Paul was a Cresco visitor, Thursday.

The High School Play is to be Friday evening; a great deal of training has been done for the occasion.

Mrs. Omuth has been on the sick list, this week.

F. H. Matthews, the California land man, who has been successful in interesting some of our citizens here and at Chester in the Sunny South, was in town, Monday. He does not have much to say about the late freeze in that state.

W. W. Cray was down from Chester, Thursday, on business.

Peter Leland was a Chester visitor, Thursday.

Geo. Owens, the grain merchant, of Chester, and Geo. Harris, of Aberdeen, S. D., were calling on friends Saturday between trains.

William Jones and family left this week for Canada; they have been living in Bristol and will be greatly missed.

Will Obriham who resides in Montana came Monday to visit friends, a few days.

Mrs. Jones, of Bristol, went to Mercy Hospital in Cresco to be operated on this week.

Editor Sheets received word that his wife, who had been in the Hospital, had a relapse, and left for St. Paul on the early train, Sunday.

Mrs. H. Morrison returned from Burr Oak, Tuesday, after a few days visiting friends.

It is quite popular in these parts to have the mesales; among the afflicted ones is Mrs. Renny Sanborn.

Evan Williams has returned from Rochester fully recovered from the operation.

Miss Margaret Jones was a Chester visitor, Thursday.

After a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Del Horton, Mrs. D. F. Reid, of Monticello, returned home, Monday.

Mr. Paul Thomas, who was sick is much improved, and he believes now that he is going to reach the century mark.

Frank Hewes at Dickinson, N. D., was in town this week on business.

He sold his property in the Old Town to Mr. Foy who now resides in it.

A new real estate firm has decided to locate in our village, to come from Floyd Their office will be in the Morris building, opposite the creamery.

Among the new comers is Mr. H. F. Atwood and family who come from McIntire and are located in Mrs. John's house, east of town.

Mrs. Fred Hill enjoyed a short visit from a brother, Archie Kniffin, of Wisconsin, this week.

H. A. Taft, an old resident of these parts, was calling on friends on his way to Monticello, Minn., this week.

Miss Mary Morrison, who came from Decorah to assist in the telephone office for a few days, returned home Tuesday.

Dr. Patton, of Cresco, was a professional caller, Thursday.

Misses Frances Elwood and Lillian Maxwell returned Friday from Cornell, for the Easter vacation.

Mr. Hauck was in town this week, consulting the carpenters about the erection of a new house to take the place of the one partly burned.

Martin Billman and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home.

Fred Elwood and brother F. D. returned Tuesday from Wisconsin where they went to attend the funeral of a brother.

Mrs. Spencer, who resides south of town, has been sick this week.

C. P. Nash, of Minneapolis, is spending a few days visiting friends; also Mr. McCulloch, of the same city, is visiting at the A. Nash home.

Rev. Williams and the members of the Welch congregation worshipped with the Methodists, Sunday evening; Rev. Jones of the Presbyterian church was also present.

Elmer Bush and Miss Alma Letz were united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clarence Hughes, in the Old Town, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Maxwell performing the ceremony. The bride and groom are well known in Lime Springs, having lived here all their lives. They start for Canada in a few days to commence married life on a farm.

CHESTER

Julius Moe, of the firm of Moe & Ness went to Minneapolis Tuesday morning, to purchase new spring goods.

Charlie Plummer, and Frank Freeman went to Owatonna.

Rev. Charlie Marshall, of Corning, was here several days looking after his farm interests.

Editor Prescott, of the LeRoy Independent, was a Chester caller Tuesday.

Mr. Shuttleworth was in Chester between trains.

Miss Margaret Owens left on the Tuesday evening train for Wisconsin to visit her mother.

Howard Hasting was an Austin visitor Wednesday.

C. T. McWilliams is slightly indisposed.

Tom Kelley's children are having the measles.

It is reported that one of Fred Ekstein's little boys is afflicted with infantile paralysis.

Godlove Bouska's little daughter is sick with pneumonia.

The following persons from Lime Springs were in our burg Saturday: Augustus Prescott, D. E. Horton, Joseph Cray, and Mr. Sheets the new editor of the San-Herald.

Mrs. Roberts, who came from North Dakota to attend the funeral of her son-in-law, Mr. Davis, is visiting her son Jay Roberts.

Mr. Harris, of South Dakota, is visiting George Owens.

John Graf, the salesman, who represents Bell Bros., of Dubuque, was in town Monday.

Henry Buresh was in town the first of the week.

John Lonigan went to McIntire Monday to take the first train to Marshalltown, in response to a telegram stating his brother was very low.

Mr. Spencer returned to his home in North Dakota, after visiting his brother and family.

Mrs. W. A. Hungerford and daughter returned, after a two week's visit in St. Paul.

The young people of Chester were entertained at the C. T. McWilliams home on the evening of March 17. The house was prettily decorated in shams-locks. All report a fine time.

Miss Alice Turner is home for a vacation.

Mrs. Frank Bouska, of Cresco is visiting at Godlove Bouska's.

ALBION

It is evident that old winter has not forgotten us after all, last Saturday being the first day our mail carriers were prevented from making their usual rounds on account of a storm.

C. A. Wells and family spent Sunday at the J. E. Wells home in Cresco.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick stopped off for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Chubbeck, while on their way from Montana to their home in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Libbie Wells and son Orson, are visiting relatives at Woodbine, Ia.

Low Smith of Bonair came down Sunday for a few days visit at the C. A. Wells home.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the Ladies' Aid at the Otto Stevens home Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Downy of Mason City, returned to their home Monday, after a weeks visit at the Joe Becker home.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Wm. Bigalk, Sr., had the misfortune to have her limb broken by being kicked by a cow.

Olive Richards is overseeing the household duties at the C. A. Wells home during the absence of Mrs. W.

Jim Holcomb is reported quite poorly these days.

Albert Weinkauff had the misfortune to have a horse taken seriously ill Tuesday while driving on the road. A veterinary was called and it is reported some better at this writing.

At the Farmers' Telephone meeting held Tuesday, it was decided that the old officers hold over, also to levy an assessment of one dollar for the ensuing year.

Dr. Precious was called to the Albert Nichols and John Livingston homes Wednesday.

LOURDES

Jim Norton spent Sunday at the Dan Farrell home.

Mrs. James Nibaur had the misfortune to fall down celler one day last week. Dr. Daly was called and found no bones broken, but she received a severe shaking up and is still quite poorly.

Mrs. Burr entertained her brother, Will Glenn, one day last week.

A few from here attended the sale at J. Hovey's, Tuesday.

Florence Eddy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ira Stinson, in Cresco this week.

Willie Walton assisted Bert Perry with his work Monday and Tuesday.

Emily Fitzgerald closed a very successful term of school March 13th.

Mr. Cummings and son Willie called at the Mike Doherty home one day last week.

Katie Walton visited her cousin, Mildred Klinge, a couple of days this week.

ORLEANS

Jim Norton spent Sunday at the Dan Farrell home.

Mrs. James Nibaur had the misfortune to fall down celler one day last week. Dr. Daly was called and found no bones broken, but she received a severe shaking up and is still quite poorly.

Mrs. Burr entertained her brother, Will Glenn, one day last week.

A few from here attended the sale at J. Hovey's, Tuesday.

Florence Eddy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ira Stinson, in Cresco this week.

Willie Walton assisted Bert Perry with his work Monday and Tuesday.

Emily Fitzgerald closed a very successful term of school March 13th.

Mr. Cummings and son Willie called at the Mike Doherty home one day last week.

Katie Walton visited her cousin, Mildred Klinge, a couple of days this week.

TWIN VILLAGES

Harry Serfling called on Herman Serfling last Wednesday.

Wm. Leitz was a Cresco caller last Wednesday.

Della Ludwig was a Cresco caller last Tuesday.

Otto Serfling and Carl Martin assisted Grandma Grant a few days last week in shingling.

Elmer St. John went to Mercy hospital to have an operation for appendicitis last Wednesday. Mrs. St. John accompanied him.

Clarence Serfling spent Wednesday night with Manley St. John.

Mrs. Newland called on Mrs. Gates last Tuesday afternoon.

Albert Bronner was a Twin Village caller last Thursday.

The ice went out last Thursday night.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. George Ludwig last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leitz and little son, and Mrs. Henry Bastian spent Tuesday with Mrs. Christ Leitz.

Herb Brak and family returned home after keeping house for Wm. Hutchinson.

Ed. and Gustav Knuth spent Thursday evening with Mrs. Kramer.

S. J. Serfling and son Harry spent Thursday with Mrs. Frank Linderman.

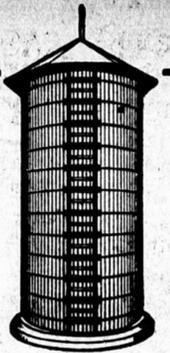

While milking last Saturday evening Frank Linderman had the misfortune to have a cow kick him and break some of his ribs. However he is doing nicely.

Albert Ludwig was a Cresco caller last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aim Bigalk were Twin Village callers Saturday.

FOR SALE

Nearly new six room residence, located 3 1/2 blocks from the Postoffice, near the High School. Fine location, and a desirable property, at a moderate price. For particulars see LUERS & CLARK LAND CO.

WATERLOO SILO GET MY PRICES!

Buy Direct and Save from $25.00 to $75.00. Made from the Best of Material and shipped on approval. Absolutely Guaranteed as Represented. A post card will bring free catalogue and price list. Write to-day.

Place your order early and get the advantage of our building proposition. We furnish our own staging and concrete crate and will have a competent man to oversee erection and building foundations.

WATERLOO SILO COMPANY J. C. BIEL, District Manager. Cresco, Iowa

Dike's Blood and Skin Remedy

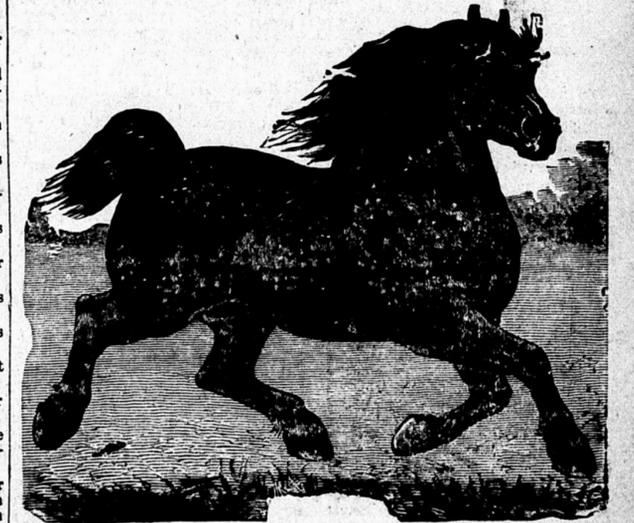

Sluggish blood, tired, exhausted feeling, lassitude, show that your blood is not in proper condition. A first-class blood remedy is what is needed.

You may not show the impurities in your blood, as some folks do, by facial blemishes and eruptions. Those signs are often easier to understand than your debilitated condition.

Dike's Blood and Skin Remedy is what you should take for your condition. It makes the blood right. Price $1.00 the bottle. Sold only by Market St. Drug Co., W. F. Scholz, Mgr.

Ladies' Can Wear shoes one size smaller by using Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder for swollen, tender, aching feet. It makes walking a delight, relieves corns and bunions of all pain, and gives rest and comfort. Sold everywhere, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Sample FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. 29w4

2 CARS OF HORSES WANTED!

Car of Old Horses Car of Good Horses

WILL BE IN CRESCO Saturday, Mch. 22

If you have any horses to sell now is the time to bring them in, as the three undersigned buyers will be here and competition will be sharp.

GREENSFELELER, St. Louis, HARRISS, Boston, LEVY, Chicago.