Auto Service Packs Morgan Church.

All roads led to Morgan, the rural church with a broad program of community advancement. The people of Morgan church have a unique slogan. This was inscribed on the unique souvenir shields; it is "Something Doing, —Something Done,—Something done,—Something Done." As the cars from several neighboring towns began to pull up and stop at the church, it was evident that there was surely "something doing." Rev. Wm. Sylvester, the pastor, introduced the speaker, Rev. Mr. Soper, as follows: "We advertised this auto service in part by means of tags which we tagged onto the autos and innocent pedestrians. On the tag was printed at the top, 'Tag! You're It! That's my speech, Rev. Soper is IT! to-day.'"

It was as he promised, a sermon about automobiles from start to finish. His text was from Naham 2.

This, he declared, was prophecy. He contrasted the mechanism of the automobile with that of the human body. Men need "fixin'" just like autos. He spoke of the fast life of many who were going the speed limit and paying dearly for the consequences. He presented this conundrum, after giving the derivation of the word automobile: "When is an auto not an auto?—When it's stalled. Then he put this: "When is a man not a man?" No, not when he's a beast, for a beast would not get in that deplorable condition. "When is a man not a man?" When he is full of "booze"—he's stalled then.

He says every auto needs a crank. Self-starters are not as dependable as the good old crank. The world needs the right kind of cranks. John Wesley was a crank. Back in his century he started his crank and the machine is still moving, and millions of people are benefitted. "Be the right kind of a crank," he admonished.

Stand back of the man who wants to start something good. It will pay big. Special music by the Farmers' Quartette, a solo by Miss Juliette Howard, and the violin and cello accompaniments by the Howard boys and Leon Brown were greatly enjoyed.

The Quartette sang after the sermon, "Little Brown Church," but localized it by changing the words to "Come to the little white church on the hill."

At the close, Rev. Sylvester spoke of the need of doing definite things for the benefit of the social, recreational and intellectual life of the community. The spiritual is interwoven with these activities. The possibility of a rural center club house for the service of the community was favorably presented. In closing, he sang a ballad entitled "Make a little heaven here." The audience joined in the chorus and sang it several times.

In the near future, "Farmers' Day" will be held at the church, some Sunday afternoon. It will be the biggest event of the season in a special program.

Things Not Told From the Rostrum.

The first Teachers' Institute in Howard County was at my log house; reason, I had brought my school books from Vermont, others had not.

The first church was built at New Oregon. James Barnes, Wm. Ryan and M. B. Doolittle freighted 2500 feet of lumber from McGregor for cornish and water table and seats. This was the first work done. Elder Windsor was pastor and received the first donation of which J. J. Clemmer was clerk.

Mrs. Thomas Davies was society leader at New Oregon and Mrs. John Schoonmaker was society leader at Vernon. They met and Clemmer introduced them. Hands were presented. Mrs. Schoonmaker's in kid gloves. Mrs. Davies informed her that she did not wish to help shake the skin of a beast. Next, Mrs. Davies presented her hand in silk gloves, but Mrs. Schoonmaker objected, saying she did not wish to help shake the entrails of a worm. Gloves were laid aside, bare hands were shaken and they were friends. One moved to La Crosse, Wis., the other to Jennings, Louisiana. M. B. DOOLITTLE.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Every family without exception should keep this preparation at hand during the hot weather of the summer months Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is worth many times its cost when needed and is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Best Laxative for the Aged.

Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folks, but it must be safe and harmless and one which will not cause pain. Dr. King's New Life Pill are especially good for the aged, they act promptly and easily. Price 25c. Recommended by P. A. Clemmer.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

For the week ending June 22, 1913
Des Moines, Iowa.

Excessively high temperature and bright sunshine prevailed until Friday, when light to heavy showers occurred in nearly all parts of the state. In some localities the showers were heavy, while the rainfall was only a trace. Over a strip about two counties wide, from Polk to Fremont county, and over Mahaska, Washington, Johnson, Linn, Iowa, Scott and Clinton counties, the amounts ranged from one to more than three inches. Corn grew rapidly and the dry, hot weather checked the tendency to rankness in small grain. The dry weather cut the strawberry and cherry crop short, and was beginning to affect pastures, oats, potatoes and garden stuff, but the late rains will be of great benefit to all growing crops. Owing to cool weather at pollinating time apples are dropping badly. The following is a summary showing the acreage of staple crops as compared with last year: Oats, 99 per cent; spring wheat, 95 per cent; winter wheat, 102; barley 93; rye 94; flax, 93; tame hay, 99; wild hay, 97; alfalfa, 110; pasture 99.

Patriotic Celebration at Protivin.

The good people of Protivin are preparing for a Grand 4th of July Celebration. The program for the day commences with 50 guns at sunrise. Holy Mass will be celebrated at 9 a. m., and in the forenoon at 11 o'clock, there will be a grand street parade.

The afternoon program will commence at 1:30 with orations by Charles Pergler in English, and Dr. Habenicht in Bohemian. There will be a base ball game at 3 o'clock, and racing and other sports at 4 o'clock. Dinner and supper will be served and refreshments furnished throughout the day.

The Protivin bands will furnish music throughout the day. At 9 o'clock in the evening there will be a display of fireworks, and two big dances afternoon and evening.

Following are the officers of the day: President—J. F. Pecovsky; Vice Presidents—J. Sobolik, Cresco, Ole Natvig, Saude, A. A. Nowak, Spillville, and Frank Landis, Little Turkey; Marshals—J. J. Lukesh and Robert Klimesh.

Obituary.

SCULLY.

Mary, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Scully died at her home in Elma on Saturday, June 7, 1913. Mary was born near Lime Springs on March 1, 1901. She was a bright little girl, greatly beloved by her parents and all of her playmates. A few weeks before her death she was taken ill with measles which was followed with pneumonia. Her weakened condition was unable to withstand the strain and she died on the 7th inst. The funeral was held from the Immaculate Conception Church on Monday, June 9th. Interment in the local Catholic cemetery.—Elma New Era.

Undergoes Surgical Treatment.

Fred Graef submitted last Sunday to the surgeon's knife in an endeavor to regain a normal state of health. The operation was for gall stones, an ailment with which he was afflicted. The case was in charge of Walker & Walker, assisted by Dr. Kessel and Dr. Daly of Cresco with a competent surgical nurse from Cedar Rapids.—Riceville Recorder.

IN CRESCO.

The Evidence Is Supplied by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Cresco, what can it be?

Mrs. Mary Pecoy, Cresco, Iowa, says: "I suffered for years from kidney trouble, so severely that I could not do anything. I tried every remedy that came to my attention but did not get much benefit. Sometimes by back was so painful that I could not stoop or stand erect. I was nervous and at night could not sleep well on account of the dull backache. In the morning when I got up, I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly move. My sight was affected and I suffered intensely from headache. At last I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Milz Drug Co. They gave me prompt relief, and in a short time I was free from every sign of the trouble. I have never had a bad attack since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Two men, believed to be Clarence Homme of Erie, Pa., and E. T. Schlimer of Blue Island, Ill., were killed in a freight wreck on the Rock Island at Rock Island. They were riding in a car of steel, on a train of fourteen cars of steel and five cars of coal, when the train was derailed. The cause of the wreck was a spreading rail.

As a result of eating a dish of strawberries at the evening meal, Mrs. Gerta Lindberg, aged 32 years, died at her home in Muscatine. The woman appeared to be in excellent health during the day, but the luscious fruit brought about acute indigestion, which proved fatal. She became critically ill during the night and died several hours later.

Following the official naming of the lake created in the Mississippi by the building of the dam at Keokuk "Lake Cooper" by the war department, it is being advertised under this name by steamboat lines. Many different names have been suggested in different river cities for the lake, but it will now carry the name of the engineer who built the dam.

"Professor" Wells, the oil stove demonstrator, who was arrested on a charge of "jumping" his oard bill at the Montrose hotel at New Hampton, proved to be Ben Schooling, a paroled convict from Stillwater. By getting into jail he violated his parole and was taken by State Agent Whittier to Stillwater to complete his three year term for highway robbery.

Bouncing for twenty miles, in the tonneau of a big automobile going at an average rate of a mile a minute, Miss May Allday of Keokuk won a race with death. Miss Allday received news that her old mother, who lives in a little Illinois town twenty miles from Keokuk, was dying. Harold Hart drove the automobile in which she took the thrilling night ride. She arrived at her mother's bedside in time.

The first automobile accident of the season occurred near the four corners west of Dallas Center when the car driven by Robert Whitaker, grain and coal dealers, turned turtle. Mr. Whitaker tried to turn to the right side of the road for a team and ran off the grade. In the car with Mr. Whitaker were his wife, his daughter-An-law, Mrs. Charles Brackett of Wing, N. D., and Miss Jennie Small. Mr. Whitaker was pinned under the car and quite badly injured. The women, except Mrs. Whitaker, escaped almost without injury.

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Hilbert Tells of Her Distressing Symptoms During Change of Life and How She Found Relief.

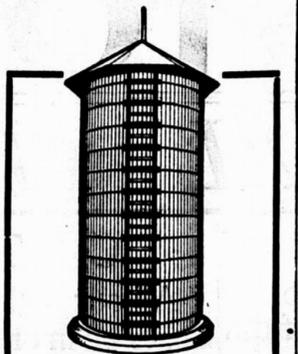

Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do."

"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine for a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried many women safely through this crisis.
