

LIME SPRINGS.

Mrs. M. B. Davis and Helle Pettit went to Rochester Tuesday.

Libbie Jones returned from a several months' visit in Chicago Tuesday morning.

Merle Williams went to Austin Monday, after visiting at the home of Hugh Williams.

Mrs. L. P. Sanborn has returned to Cresco, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Griffith.

Belle and Frances Rose who have been visiting Alice Holly and other friends, returned to Cresco Tuesday.

W. H. Yunker came from Wisconsin last week for a short visit with his aunt, Mrs. A. Wells, and other relatives, enroute to his home at Meadville, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. Carpenter returned from Cumberland, Wis., Monday. They returned for an indefinite length of time.

Lloyd Sweet was down from Chester Friday.

Mrs. F. H. Luhman returned to Postville Thursday.

Edith Nagle returned from her visit in Nebraska Friday.

Laura Larson, from Rushford, is visiting Mrs. A. J. Baerman.

Leone Lusk returned to Chester Friday accompanied by Susie Chick.

Mr. Benson and two daughters, Blanche and Lillie of Ridgeway visited at the J. H. Jones home last Saturday.

Mrs. W. F. Kollman and children returned to Westgate Saturday, after visiting at the A. C. Johnson home.

Clara Drake returned from Montana where she has been on a claim with her brother George.

Rena Hungerford, who has been visiting friends in this village, returned to Chester Thursday.

Mrs. Geo. Walters and daughter Florence from Albert Lea, are visiting at the Maxwell home.

J. G. Roberts and daughters Irene and Marie returned from Seattle Thursday evening.

Marion Mattson returned to her home in Minneapolis Saturday after visiting with Margaret Cray.

Ethel Page came down from Austin Saturday to spend a few days with Belle Pettit.

Cora Morris returned to Chicago Friday evening after spending the summer at home.

Madge Snyder returned to her home in Granada, Minn., Thursday, after spending a few days with Ruth Howland.

Mrs. R. M. Roberts returned from Anamosa Friday where she has been visiting.

Mrs. R. W. Davis is in a very poor condition in a hospital in Appleton, Wis.

Mrs. G. A. Lee and son George, of Chester were Lime Springs callers Friday.

Geo. Slason went to Minneapolis Thursday and from there to Stanley, Wis., returning Tuesday evening.

The Boy Scouts from Le Roy are spending a week camping at the Old Town.

Mrs. Glen Johnson and little daughter came up from Bonair Thursday.

Mrs. C. P. Nash and daughter Florence went to Le Roy Friday to visit, returning Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh and children came up from Decorah Friday to visit their cousin, Mrs. C. J. Moar and family.

Mrs. Gilbert Moar and daughter returned from Le Roy Saturday where Mrs. Moar visited her mother Mrs. Howe.

Frank Schacht, P. Tibbals, Grant Jones, and Ed. O. Jones all autoed to Spring Valley Monday to take in the auction sale.

Mrs. O. C. Sheldon and son Carlton of Chicago are visiting at the A. R. Johnson home. Mrs. Sheldon is a sister of Mr. Johnson.

J. W. McLennen, the new principal for the Lime Springs public school arrived in town Thursday.

Mrs. Clark from Marshalltown and children are visiting with Mrs. W. F. Irvin for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Roberts came Monday evening from Montana to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Roberts.

Meta Salisbury came up from Cresco, Tuesday, to visit Mrs. Chas. Schacht, and departed for her home in Mankato, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Griffith departed for Minneapolis, Wednesday, for a short visit.

NORTH WEST CRESCO

Will Owen and wife are entertaining company from Wisconsin this week.

Ralph Dawes helped Emil Reutlinger make fence Monday.

Jack Kapler autoed to Festina, Sunday.

John Barthelme and wife entertained company from Calmar and Festina Sunday.

Mrs. Myer had company Tuesday.

John Drilling purchased a new auto last week.

John and Fred Lusson and wives autoed to Autoed to Alta Vista Wednesday, in the former's new car.

Mary McDermott is visiting at the John McDermott home this week.

John Leferink autoed to Rochester Wednesday.

The Rev. Fathers Jones and Bies, took supper at the John Lusson home Monday evening. The former is a cousin of Mrs. Lusson.

Susie and Mathilda Lusson spent Sunday with their friend, Frances Schneider.

Genevieve Daly entertained company last week.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by Fred Lowry.

PROTIVIN

Dr. R. E. Jameson, physician and surgeon, office, Zender's drug store.

John Bakken, of Ridgeway was seen here Wednesday.

Rev. Balloon, of Spillville and Rev. Vytisk, of Little Turkey assisted Rev. Lakomy with the High mass Wednesday.

Lewis Benda, of Spillville visited the Thomas Jira home Friday.

The bans of matrimony of Martin Tupy and Emma Mzik were announced at the Holy Trinity church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Frey and Emma Kovarik autoed from Cresco Sunday.

The harvest picnic Wednesday, Aug. 20th, was both socially and financially successful. In the ball game in the afternoon between Protivin and Saude, the visiting team was defeated by a score of 10 to 1. The dance in Beseda hall was a huge success.

Mrs. Minnie Griffin and two lady friends of New Hampton visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prochaska.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mikes and daughters, Clara and Tillie, Adolph Kalishek and Paul Landa came over from Rudd Saturday. They left Monday for Aita Vista where they will run the merry-go-round.

Chas. W. Prochaska, of New Hampton, visited home folks Sunday.

Thomas Chyle and son Wm. autoed to Jackson Junction Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Kalishek and son Benjie are at Toeterville visiting the T. W. Kovarik home.

James Cisar was at Lawler Monday.

Mrs. Frank Poupe and son Rudolph returned Friday to their home in Prairie du Chien, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckley, of Elma called here Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Martinek and son departed Monday for their home in Chicago, after a couple of weeks' visit here with relatives and friends.

Emma Skoda and Helen Dostal, of Fort Atkinson were seen here Sunday.

Lena Klimesh, of Spillville and Marcella Truhlar, of St. Paul are visiting the F. J. Klimesh home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Weigel, of Jerico attended the picnic here Wednesday.

Mr. Kos, of Chicago is visiting his sister, Mrs. T. M. Novak.

Mrs. E. J. Polashek and babe returned to their home in Monona, after a brief visit here. Adelaide Novak accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mueller came from Cresco Sunday and are visiting the latter's brother C. J. McCullow.

Frank Vachta lost a horse Monday.

Lewis Pecinovsky was at Jackson Monday and Tuesday.

The Misses Zender and Emma Novak were over from Cresco Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Landa is reported on the sick list.

L. M. Novak and William Polashek were at Cresco Friday.

Frank H. Chyle went to Cedar Rapids Saturday where he assisted the 53rd Regiment band at a concert Sunday. He returned Monday for a week's stay.

Albert Meirick, of Calmar called on friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson, of Saude were shoppers here Tuesday.

Mrs. Catherine McCullow returned from Minneapolis, after a visit there with her brother.

Leonard Snopek was at Cresco Tuesday.

Albina Lukes went to Mason City Tuesday to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krumm and sons of Fort Atkinson autoed through town Monday.

Mrs. Mike Kovarik and nephew Lewis Kubik visited relatives in Spillville Tuesday.

James Kubik was at Jackson Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Jameson and F. J. Klimesh autoed to Spillville Tuesday evening.

Ida Shores, of Lawler visited her grandparents here Sunday.

Josie Frey returned from Cresco Tuesday.

LOURDES.

Dennis Shanley and daughter Margaret were Elma callers, Monday.

Anton Kubik autoed to New Hampton, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neibaur Jr. and Susie Urban made a trip to Cresco, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. V. Kubik called on Mrs. John Walker, Monday.

Elizabeth Neibaur visited with her aunt, Mrs. John Viebrock, Friday and Saturday.

Anna Marech was seen in Lourdes, Sunday.

Willie Beaumaster and Jimmie Valvoda attended the dance at Acme, Friday night.

Bessie Nohale, of Schley, spent Sunday afternoon with Katie Falada.

Edward Neibaur attended the picnic at Protivin, last Wednesday.

The picnic at Lourdes, Monday, Sept. 1st, will be a success. Everybody invited to attend. Good time for all.

Frank Fisher, of Protivin, is working for Leo Holub.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Frank were seen in Lourdes, Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Urban and children, who have been visiting with her parents and other relatives here, returned to their home at Pukwana, S. D., Tuesday.

Frank Fisher, John Marshek and Willie Beaumaster called on Edward Neibaur, Sunday afternoon.

Peter Kovarik was a pleasant caller at the Tom Shimek home, Saturday evening.

Mary Dushek spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Frank McCarville and son Leo visited with Joe Neibaur's, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neibaur Sr. were New Hampton callers, Tuesday.

John Beaumaster made a trip to Cresco, one day last week.

Frank and Elizabeth Flaherty were Cresco callers, Tuesday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

KENDALLVILLE.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Lealie White, Aug. 20th, a fine little baby girl. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eddy spent Sunday at the Elmer James home.

Nicolena Rasmussen, of Sattre, is visiting her uncle, Ed Hoines and family.

Mrs. Ed Miner, of Kenmare, S. D., came Saturday and from here went to Rochester to be with her mother, Mrs. Adah Stephenson, who has recently underwent an operation there. Her many friends are glad to hear that she is improving rapidly.

Chas. Curtis went to Chicago, the latter part of the week, with a load of sheep.

The sociable at the Moore home, for the benefit of the Orphan's Home at Council Bluffs, was very well attended.

Walter Ahlstrom, of Onalaska, Wis., is a guest at the Todd home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eddy spent Sunday at the Edson Eddy home.

Mrs. Allie Daskam is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Yates, near Canton.

Mrs. Sidney Culbert and daughter Lucile spent the latter part of the week with relatives at St. Paul. Mrs. Culbert returned Saturday, and Lucile returned for a longer visit.

The house on the Mrs. Mary Safford farm, north of town, burned last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan were occupying it at the time and were lucky to save all their things except a few articles upstairs.

Mrs. Henrietta Daskam and Max spent Sunday at the Jno. Clink home.

Mrs. Jno. Pierce and little son is spending this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Handke, of Cresco.

Amy Barnes, who is a nurse at Mercy Hospital, Cresco, is having a two weeks' vacation at home.

Geo. McEville and daughter, of Monticello, are visiting friends and relatives here, this week.

Geo. Stephenson left for his home in Spencer, last Sunday, after a short visit with his brother Elmo.

Mrs. Ada Young is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goldsworthy, north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Fifield visited at the Walter Daskam home, Sunday.

Sam Moore came up from Decorah and spent Sunday with the home folks.

Miss Minnie Hanson, of Enderlin, S. D., is the welcome guest of her sister, Mrs. Pete Ellingson, since Friday.

Our young people spent a very pleasant evening at a party dance in the hall, Friday evening.

The L. A. S. meets with Mrs. Cora Soltow, Wednesday afternoon, August 27th.

Mrs. Lottie Post, of Madison, Wis., spent Tuesday visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Luana Ellingson, of Plymouth Rock, is spending a few days with her cousin, Myrtle Ellingson.

Mrs. Carrie Handke returned to her home at Cresco, last Wednesday, after a two weeks' stay, helping care for the little grandson at the John Pierce home.

BONAIR.

Doris and Lois Wentworth, of Cresco, have been visiting several days with Mable Albertson.

Gertrude Kaiser, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, has been visiting old friends in this community. She has many old friends and school-mates here, who are glad to know of her success in the socialistic world.

Miss Mable Bowden was taken suddenly and seriously ill early Friday morning with acute appendicitis. She was quite ill for several days and suffered much pain, but we are glad to report that at present she is resting much easier.

The service at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, was well attended and much interest shown in the sermon, "Welfare of Farm as Related to the Church." Next Sunday night, the pastor will preach on the topic, "Mastering Units." It will be a sermon on Education. Sunday school at 10:30 a. m.; League service at 7:30 p. m., and preaching at 8 o'clock p. m. Everybody welcome.

Mr. Service, who has been visiting at the Jesse Bowden home for some time, returned Saturday to his home Warren, Ill.

Mrs. Lapham is expected home from Ohio, this week, where she has been visiting for several months.

DAVIS CORNERS

Carl Mohs hauled a load of hay to Cresco Saturday.

Marie and John Jensen and Miss Nance spent Sunday afternoon at the Thoe, Hauck home.

Sophie Henning of Cresco spent Sunday with Rowena Henning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vagts and Vagts autoed to Cresco Sunday.

Marie Jensen and Miss Nancy spent Thursday afternoon with the Emma Mohs Henry Meyer was a Cresco caller Friday.

Elizabeth Nibaur of Lourdes spent Saturday with Mrs. J. Viebrock.

Bertha Ahren is helping Mrs. Aug. Aberly with household duties.

Emma Mohs, Bertha Ahren and Elizabeth Nibaur enjoyed a very pleasant ride Saturday evening.

Henry Bunge, wife and children, spent Sunday evening at the Carl Mohs home.

John Nast, Aug. Aberly and sons John and Willeam, autoed to Cresco Saturday evening.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. G. Niewald, a daughter, Aug. 19th. Congratulations.

Henry Aberly and wife spent Sunday at the Wm. Reikmann home.

Emma Mohs visited Sunday with Bertha Ahrens.

John Eberling and wife entertained company from Postville Sunday.

Rowena Henning was a Cresco caller Friday.

Carl Johnson and Earl Michelson of Saratoga were seen in Davis Corners Sunday evening.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPING.

Colds, sore throat, etc., seem to be fashionable with a number of us at present.

W. F. Lukish and daughter Louise were callers at Cresco Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Krueger, babe and others drove down here from Golden Ridge and Cresco last Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Krueger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kratz. In the evening twilight they all returned home.

Frank Butz and some of Goth's folks drove to Cresco Monday to do some shopping in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falck from near Ridgeway called upon the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amel Koch last Sunday.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schild, Mr. and Mrs. John Aelgerter and daughter Elsie, autoed to Sumner, Iowa, last Tuesday the former home of the latter to spend the day visiting friends and relatives.

J. G. Kirschman drove to Cresco last week one day to get some fixtures for his new house that he is building. He will have all the modern improvements when same is furnished, electric light, etc.

H. A. McIntosh, of Cresco was down our way one day last week doing some repairing on the Otter Creek telephone line, that was partially put out of usefulness by the storm.

Grace Hogevoil and her sister Anna returned to their home at Decorah, after spending a number of days as the guest of Myrtle Schild.

A few more weeks of dry weather will just about finish threshing in this vicinity.

Mike Kratz left for Grand Rapids, North Dakota, last week to spend a few months running a threshing rig up there that he recently purchased.

Labor Day next week Monday, no rural free delivery on that day, so just wait for your mail another day without murmuring.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuntz and the boys autoed to Decorah, Sunday morning, to go to La Crosse. At the former town they took as passengers Mr. and Mrs. Otto Solberg and others, and all took the overland trip for the badger city on the river. They returned Monday evening well pleased with the trip and the sights they saw.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oen were at Cresco callers last week Friday.

Rev. F. W. Koenig, of Wilton, Ia., will hold preaching services in the Evangelical church here next Sunday morning, and at Florenceville in the evening. Rev. Koenig used to be pastor in this field in former years, and is the last of the visiting ministers during Rev. L. N. Day's absence.

Charley Kuntz was a Cresco caller last week and while there purchased a new plow of the dealers there.

A gentleman selling stereoscopic pictures passed through here last week.

Leano Koch who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Fred Falck near Ridgeway the past week, returned to her home Sunday.

Abbie Lucas, who has been spending several weeks at home enjoying her vacation, went to Gladbrook, Monday to visit her sister Anna until school reopens at the Waterloo Commercial college where she has been attending the last few years.

A car load of Cresco belles passed through west of us enroute for Protivin, Spillville, Ft. Atkinson, Decorah, etc. They seemed to be enjoying themselves greatly, probably because there wasn't any "horrid" man in the bunch.

NORTH ALBION

John Michel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bronner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bronner and son Kenneth, Geo. Volkman and sister Clara were entertained at the Amil Keune home Sunday.

Wm. Bigalk and family visited Mrs. Kramer Sunday.

Mrs. Theo. Michel and Mrs. Paul Bigalk, of Harmony, visited Mrs. Jno. Bigalk Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Goldsworthy and daughter Belle visited at A. A. Bigalk's Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Schuman and son visited at John Walters' Sunday.

Joseph Hayes returned from Kansas one day last week.

Geo. Michel and family visited at Albert Weinkauf's Sunday.

Florence Bronner, of Cresco, spent Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Amil Keune.

Mrs. Joseph Hayes and sons Phil and Todie spent Sunday afternoon at Harmony.

Cade Griesy and sisters, who have been visiting relatives in this vicinity, returned to their home at Belmond Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bigalk visited at Albert Bigalk's Wednesday.

A. A. Bigalks were Cresco callers Tuesday.

Geo. Volkman attended the dance at Granger Thursday evening.

A. A. Bigalk and son Henry called at Chas. Nast's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amil Keune spent Sunday evening at Geo. Volkman's.

The new Studebaker car of John Bigalk was seen pulling an E. M. F. car home one night last week.

Esther Mae Bigalk called on Clara Blatter Thursday.

Ether Mae Bigalk returned from Lake Mills one day last week.

Florence Gager, Mamie McGee, Oney Alfred and Willie Goetsch spent Sunday evening at A. A. Bigalk's.

Mrs. Albert Ludwig visited Clara Blatter Tuesday.

Nettie Slawson was a Cresco caller Thursday.

Mrs. Joseph Hayes spent Wednesday at A. A. Bigalk's.

Mrs. Fred Bigalk is entertaining company from Calmar.

The John Bigalk and Amil Keune families spent Tuesday evening at Cresco.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

ALBION.

Roy Richards has commenced work on a new hog house.