Work on the walls of Dr. Becker's hitching sheds is completed. The west wall was built of cement, but the other two are of hollow brick. When the roof is on, it will make one of the best hitching places in the country and ought to prove a winner for the doctors enterprise in building it. E. W. Williams has resigned his position with the International Harvester Co., and next week begins work for the Acme Harvester Co., which is a rival of the trust. Chas. Howard, whom Ed. succeeds on this block, is now the general agent for the Acme at Minneapolis and has induced him to "come over" to the independent concern. Ed. will have seven counties in west central Minnesota—Renville, Chippewa, Yellow Medicine, Swift, Big Stone, Kandiyohi, and LacQui Parle. This will doubtless mean the removal of the family to Granite Falls, one feature of the change which will not suit Le Roy folks at all.—Le Roy Independent.

Chickasaw Co. Fair

NEW HAMPTON, IOWA

September 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 1913

The Greatest County Fair of 1913

THE Chickasaw County Fair which will be held at New Hampton, Iowa, will wholly eclipse anything ever attempted in this line. No money or effort is being spared in outdoing any previous year in this or any other county. Everything is guaranteed as advertised. Premiums will be paid in full. Come—it will be the best and busiest County Fair you have ever attended. There will be large showings of exhibits in every department. September 9th will be entry day, followed by four days filled with the best and most Free Attractions that money can buy. Every feature will be a State Fair Attraction. Below we give a few things that will be pulled off daily on September 10, 11, 12 and 13:

$4,000 Paid For Free Attractions, $4,000

Jimmy Ward and His Aeroplane will make two flights every day. This attraction is guaranteed by a cash deposit of $400 in the bank. His failure to appear would cost him $1600. He will be at the Chickasaw County Fair. This feature alone is worth more than the price of admission.

$1,000 Base Ball Purs. Four games. There will be fast and furious games of professional base ball every day. The schedule is as follows:—Wednesday, Sumner vs. Tripoli; Thursday, Ossian vs. Elma; Friday, Lawler vs. Oelwein; Saturday, the winners of Thursday and Friday games.

The Wonderful Trained Seals will delight you daily with their intelligence and skill. You will marvel at their wonderful tricks and powers.

Blank Bros. The World-Famed Cyclists, will perform hair-raising events. Shooting the perilous chute and in somersault bicycle turn for life.

The Unsurpassed Acrobats Will do wonderful stunts on the mat. The trapeze performers will be better than a circus.

These and other events have delighted the people the world over. They will keep the breath of excitement rushing the flow of red blood every hour. The largest bookings of Live Stock, Poultry, Produce, Farm Machinery, etc., etc., ever in the history of this fair, has been this year, and more is still looked for. Come, you will uproariously join with 20000 other people in pronouncing the Chickasaw County Fair the Greatest Fair of 1913
