Our Washington Letter.

Secretary of State Bryan returning from his recent trip to Iowa brought a hopeful report to President Wilson of conditions as he found them in the state. Mr. Bryan told the President that he talked with representative citizens gathered from all parts of the state and found them in hearty accord with the administration's policies and that they had unbounded confidence in the President's ability to put through the legislative plans he is furthering to carry out the comprehensive policies to which the Democratic party is pledged.

Secretary Bryan found a strong undercurrent of opinion among the Democratic leaders that a Democratic Senator would be elected in Iowa next year to fill Senator Cummings' seat. He found this to be true for two reasons. First, because the party is stronger in the state, has abler leadership and is fortified by the confidence gained in the election last year when the state was carried for President Wilson. And, second, because there is a strong protest against Senator Cummings in his own party. The Senator lost his conservative support when he bolted the Taft nomination last year and supported Roosevelt for the Presidency. He alienated much of his Progressive support because, in effect, he supported the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, which previously he had classed as a crime, by voting to continue it on the statute books when the Underwood tariff bill was up for adoption in the Senate. There is more popular approval among Progressives to the course of Senators La Follette, Republican, and Poindeexter, Progressive, in this particular, as both showed consistent action by voting for the Democratic bill when it carried the provisions for which they had been contending.

On two occasions during his Iowa visit Secretary Bryan paid high compliments to Congressman Maurice Connolly and to urge the people of the third district to send Mr. Connolly back to Congress.

Congressman Pepper was honored last week in being appointed as one of the fifty-six members of the House to attend the dedication of the restored Congress Hall in Philadelphia where the first Congress held its sessions. There were only fifty-six members of that Congress and Speaker Clark selected the same number out of a House membership of 435 to be present as official guests.

Letters reaching Congressman Kirkpatrick from old soldiers in the sixth district, who, though Republicans, voted for Mr. Kirkpatrick, declared that President Wilson has won many friends by his fidelity to duty in remaining on the job all summer to urge the measures which he believed the people are demanding.

"From the letters I am receiving I am amazed how strong the President is with people of all classes," says Congressman Kirkpatrick. "He is receiving enough Republican support for his policies to indicate that the people hold him to be bigger than his party. The people have faith in the President and his policies and can be depended on to back him in his fight for currency reform."

The Youth's Companion in 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practiced in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stannwood Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia. "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by Fred Lowry.

A Lovely Face--But Ugly Hair.

How often you see an otherwise lovely face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity!—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull, lifeless-looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, silky and beautiful as the heart could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It is not a hair dye or hair oil—it is just a dainty, rose-perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—Edward T. Lomas, Cresco, Iowa.

Burns Result in Death.

Miss Esther Christopherson died at the local hospital Thursday night where she had been brought several days previously to be treated for severe burns received a couple of weeks ago, and which refused to heal.

The deceased, who was about 17 years old, was working in the Ole Johnson home; down in the Ferris mill neighborhood in Hanover township, when the accident occurred. She had been presented with a celluloid comb. It was too small and some one told her that if she heated it it could be stretched, meaning that it should be put in hot water. The girl undertook to heat it over a lamp when it caught fire. She tried to smother the fire with her clothing, which also took fire and before it could be extinguished she received severe burns on the lower limbs and body.

The dead girl had no immediate relatives in the neighborhood, the mother being dead and the father living at Decorah. The funeral was held yesterday, the services and burial being at the Iowa River Norwegian church—Waukon Journal.

Auto Accident Near Calmar.

O. D. Ode of Calmar started out Saturday night with his wife and family and a gentleman friend to get some coons down on the Turkey river. When they got down near Festina they struck a piece of road that had recently been rebuilt and was very soft. Mr. Ode eased up his machine and was going at a very slow pace when the machine slid into a ditch seven or eight feet deep, overturned and pinioned him to the ground. None of the rest of the occupants were injured. Fortunately there were a number of autos following and he was soon released and brought to Calmar where the doctors were called. It was found that his shoulder was broken and he was otherwise bruised somewhat. At last accounts he was resting as easily as could be expected and his early recovery is expected.—Decorah Republican.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.
If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds of breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by Fred Lowry.

Obituary.

CUMMINGS.

Margaret Viola, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings, was born in Howard County, Iowa, June 21, 1903, and on October 20, 1913, she departed this life to join her little sister Irene in that Home of the Blessed.

Few and short were the years allotted to her, in which to brighten the home of her loved ones. God in His mercy called the loving one to Him, away from this world of strife and sorrow and pain, and though we miss her and our hearts are sad, we would not recall her again.

Margaret was a bright, loving child, and by her cheerful disposition won the hearts of all who knew her. Though she had been ailing for some time, her untimely death was a sudden shock to her loved ones. She bore her sufferings bravely, seldom uttering a complaint, and not until Sunday, when the last spark of celestial fire was at its lowest ebb did she give up. All that loving hands could do was done, but all in vain. She gradually grew weaker until Monday night, when death came to her softly as sleep to a babe. Little we deemed it possible, as we looked upon her radiant with joy and happiness, a short time ago, that the seared leaves of autumn would be rustling over her grave.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a sorrowing father, mother, three sisters and five brothers, many relatives and a host of friends.

After a Requiem Mass and an eloquent sermon as a last loving tribute to the departed, by Rev. Father Murtagh, all that was mortal of dear Margaret was laid to rest beside her little sister in Saint Joseph's Cemetery.

IN MEMORY OF MARGARET.

Dearest daughter, sister, loved one,
Laid in life's young hours to sleep;
May the Angels sweet protection
O'er thy peaceful slumbers keep.
Loving hands would fain surround thee,
Crown thy life with sweetest flowers;
With fond hopes and memories tender
Of the childhood's happy hours.
Nearby loved ones gone before thee,
Gently breathing: "God knows best."
We will sadly, sweetly leave thee
In thy long, eternal rest.
When the vesper bells are pealing,
And the stars gleam high above;
At thy grave, so fondly kneeling,
We will whisper words of love.
And when life's long, weary autumn
Waits us to that Other Shore,
Will you meet us? Will you greet us?
Where we meet to part no more.

—A FRIEND.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all those who assisted us during our recent bereavement.

DEGRO.

Christian C. Degro, who has spent the greater part of his life in America at Ridgeway, working at his trade as mason, died suddenly Monday afternoon, Oct. 20, 1913. He had gone out to the farm home of Mrs. Olea Bergan to do some cement work. While stooping down for a hammer he fell dead from heart trouble. He had been in poor health all summer, and this is the first work he had attempted for some time.

Christian C. Degro was born in Kongsvinger, Norway, April 4, 1844. In 1861 he came to America and was married in 1869 to Maline Olson. They spent the first year of their married life on a farm north of Ridgeway, and then moved to town where they have lived ever since.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and seven children. They are Mrs. Hans Gulbrandsen of Mason City; Mrs. H. E. Grimes of Duluth, Mr. C. A. Fosse and Charles of Schley, and Josie and Casper at home.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon from the Lutheran Synod church, of which he was a member, Rev. Jordahl officiating, and interment was in Lincoln church cemetery.—Ridgeway Review.

IN CRESCO.

The Evidence Is Supplied by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Cresco, what can it be?

Mrs. Mary Pecoy Cresco, Iowa, says: "I suffered for years from kidney trouble, so severely that I could not do anything. I tried every remedy that came to my attention but did not get much benefit. Sometimes by back was so painful that I could not stoop or stand erect. I was nervous and at night could not sleep well on account of the dull backache. In the morning when I got up, I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly move. My sight was affected and I suffered intensely from headache. At last I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Mitz Drug Co. They gave me prompt relief, and in a short time I was free from every sign of the trouble. I have never had a bad attack since."

For Sale by all Dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States.

Praises This Remedy for Lung Trouble

Many people are led to believe that Lung Trouble is a disease which cannot be conquered. This is wrong, as many have fully recovered their health. A change of climate has helped some, but many more have been restored to health by breathing the freshest air, eating well-cooked, wholesome food, being temperate in their habits and adding the tonic qualities of Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles. Investigate this case.

(Advertisement) A. C. BETTERTSWORTH. (Above abbreviated; more on request.) Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.
