DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. LeClear's Health—Her Own Statement.

Detroit, Mich.—"I am glad to discover a remedy that relieves me from my suffering and pains. For two years I suffered bearing down pains and got all run down. I was under a nervous strain and could not sleep at night. I went to doctors here in the city but they did not do me any good.

"Seeing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, I tried it. My health improved wonderfully and I am now quite well again. No woman suffering from female ills will regret if she takes this medicine."—Mrs. JAMES G. LECLEAR, 336 Hunt St., Detroit, Mich.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is all you claim it to be. About two or three days before my periods I would get bad backaches, then pains in right and left sides, and my head would ache. I called the doctor and he said I had organic inflammation. I went to him for a while but did not get well so I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking two bottles I was relieved and finally my troubles left me. I married and have two little girls. I have had no return of the old troubles."—Mrs. CHAS. BOELL, 2650 S. Chadwick St., Phila., Pa.

ALL POWERS MAY ACT IN CONCERT

Great Britain Inactive on Mexican Situation. WAITING FOR UNITED STATES

Intimations Are Persistent That American Government is Planning Note to Other Nations Which May Result in a Concerted Mexican Policy for the Future.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Reports from the British foreign office that Great Britain would do nothing in the Mexican situation without consultation with the United States aroused interest in official circles here and added strength to the persistent intimations that the American government plans a note to the powers which may result in a concerted Mexican policy for the future.

Secretary Bryan, when shown dispatches from London which asserted that Great Britain's recognition of Provisional President Huerta was given to extend only until the elections, said that such had been the understanding here all the time. When asked if a note was in preparation which would open the way for negotiations with the foreign powers he said no statements or intimations along this line would be given at this time.

In the absence from Washington of President Wilson nothing definite could be learned about the future plans of the government, but it was generally asserted that nothing would be done until there was official announcement from Mexico City on the outcome of Sunday's elections.

Some Initiatory Move Soon. Secretary Bryan said that no declaration had been received as to the result or the probable outcome of the election for president since the votes were cast. Whatever happens the United States is bound by its declaration not to recognize the government as it will be constituted and because of this situation it is deemed certain that some initiatory move on the part of this government must soon be forthcoming.

Secretary Bryan plans to consult with President Wilson on the subject as soon as the latter returns from Mobile. The president's speeches of the last few days with relation to a general Latin-American policy, with the comments of the British press generally favorable to the American attitude in Mexico, gave rise to expectations of important developments before many days.

Secretary Bryan said the department had heard nothing of a report that the German government has dispatched other warships to Mexican waters.

RESULT REMAINS UNCERTAIN

Some Time Will Lapse Before Returns Are All In.

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—There is no indication as to what has been the result of the elections. The hope is held out that the ayuntamiento, a body resembling in small degree a board of aldermen, will have prepared its report for the federal district by the end of the week.

REMARKS CREATE SURPRISE

Pastor Says Half the Churches Ought to Close.

Minneapolis, Oct. 28.—A bomb was thrown into the Charities and Correction conference at the Church of the Redeemer when Rev. James W. Cool of the Lynnhurst Congregational church, Minneapolis, said that when half the churches now existing in Minnesota close their doors then the socialization of rural communities can begin and not until then.

"We have no use for anything in any community except a Catholic, Lutheran and Protestant Evangelical church," said Dr. Cool. "I don't care what the other denominations may be we have no use for them."

CONTRACTOR FOUND SLAIN

Man Connected With Federal Reclamation Service Murdered. Huntley, Mont., Oct. 28.—Clyde H. Murray, a well known irrigation contractor, connected with the federal reclamation service in the construction of the Huntley irrigation project, was found murdered, with his left eye out and a bullet in his brain. The contractor had trouble with two men, formerly in his employ, over a question of wages and these two have been taken into custody.

Man Killed by Mad Bull.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 28.—William D. C. Robertson was killed by an infuriated bull on the farm of Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Robertson has been caretaker at the Robinson summer home for twenty-five years. The bull had escaped and in attempting to drive it back the man was attacked. He was crushed against the pen.

KATHERINE ELKINS. Daughter of Late Senator Becomes Mrs. W. F. R. Hitt.

MISS ELKINS IS MARRIED

Notifies Relatives of Ceremony Only Few Hours in Advance. Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 28.—Although intimate friends and the family had expected it for two years the wedding of Katherine Elkins, daughter of the late United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins, to William F. R. Hitt of Washington was a surprise throughout this section. Not even the mother of the bride was aware that preparations for the wedding had been made by the couple until several hours before it took place.

The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family at Halleyhurst, the Elkins home here. Former Senator Davis Elkins was the attendant of the groom and Mrs. Blain Elkins, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Rev. F. H. Barron, pastor of the Davis Memorial Presbyterian church here, was the clergyman.

MORALITY TO BE WILSON'S GUIDE

President Announces Foreign Relations Rule.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 28.—President Wilson announced to the world that the governing motive of the United States in its relationships with the countries of this hemisphere would be "morality and not expediency."

"I want to take this occasion to say," he declared, "that the United States will not seek again to secure one additional foot of territory by conquest."

The president in a speech before the Southern Commercial congress delivered a veiled attack on what he termed "the material interests" that had influenced the foreign policy of some governments in their relations with the nations of Latin-America.

Though Mr. Wilson did not mention Mexico as the afflicted country he devoted his entire speech to a description of the degrading influences which foreign concessionaires had had upon the internal affairs of some of the Latin-American countries.

With the Mexican situation uppermost in the president's mind at this time his address was interpreted as an arraignment of those financial influences which, it has been charged, have secured in some cases recognition for the Huerta government.

The president in his speech declared that it would be the duty of the United States to assist the nations of this hemisphere in an "emancipation" from "the material interests of other nations," so that they might enjoy constitutional liberty unrestrained.

Washington, Oct. 26.—All big express companies have advised the interstate commerce commission that they had decided to drop their opposition to the commission's orders radically reducing express rates over the entire country. "The block system of rates will be put into effect at the earliest possible time," the commission announced.

MAY CONTINUE TO RETAIN POWER

Huerta Will Declare Mexican Election Illegal. FEW BALLOTS WERE CAST

Returns Indicate That a Very Small Minority of the Voters Went to the Polls.

Mexico City, Oct. 28.—Returns from the Mexican election showed that less than 5,000 votes were cast in the federal election, including this city, where there are 80,000 voters.

In spite of the meager voting it was expected that the congressional candidates, with the approval of General Huerta, would declare themselves elected and their first act, it was declared, would be to declare the presidential election void, because the total vote cast was not enough to make a constitutional majority for any candidate.

They are then expected to "request" Huerta to remain president ad interim until another election can be held, which will be when Huerta chooses. The stumbling block to this program is in Huerta calling the congressional election legal while declaring the presidential election void, while the same ballot was used in both.

Those knowing Huerta say a little thing like that will not faze him. The Mexican constitution sets forth that there are approximately 3,000,000 voters in the republic and that one-third of them must vote to make an election binding.

The Diaz leaders and the Catholic party, of which Frederico Gamboa was the candidate, requested their partisans not to vote. Few of them did.

In some polling places no votes were cast all day, and it was reported that at several voting tables even the election officials failed to show.

Huerta has issued a decree raising the federal army from 80,000 to 150,000. It is said that conscription will be necessary to carry out this order.

ELECTION DAY IS PEACEFUL

Expected Disorders in Mexico Fail to Materialize.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The administration was all primed for a disastrous explosion in Mexico on election day, but it got a "fizzer."

There was no serious rioting reported south of the Rio Grande. Foreigners were not molested. And, so far as this government is concerned, there was no election.

All advices here agree that no candidate for the Mexican presidency received a majority of all votes cast. And not even a majority of the registered voters went to the polls to record their choice.

Under the Mexican constitution this means that there was no election for president and vice president. Huerta will be indefinitely dictator. On next Sunday he will have a congress that will do his will. That is the one thing that stands out most clearly from the mass of dispatches from the consulates and embassy in Mexico.

Will Increase Army to 150,000.

It will increase his army from 80,000 to 150,000, or as much more as the dictator may wish. It will uphold him in every action he may wish to take. And it will, if necessary, oppose all measures taken by this government to restore peace in Mexico.

This government is not expected to accept the result of the election. There is to be no recognition of Huerta and no attention paid to a minority congress. But whether the president's expected action in issuing his statement regarding the Monroe doctrine will materialize this week will depend upon the diplomatic corps in Mexico City.

This diplomatic corps will get together this week. It is expected to suggest a plan for action by the United States in Mexico. If this suggestion is along the line of the present policies the president may decide that there is no necessity for any further dictation from the United States.

SHOWS SIGNS OF FATIGUE

Mrs. Eaton is Undergoing Severe Cross-Examination.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 28.—Cross-examination of Mrs. May Jennie Eaton, charged with poisoning her husband, Rear Admiral Eaton, was uncompleted when court adjourned.

The witness showed signs of fatigue. Much of the examination had to do with numerous letters written by the defendant. Regarding one of these, written in 1905, the witness said: "The admiral's brain was full of drugs. He was almost childish at times and should have been operated upon. If he had he would be alive today."

MRS. C. W. FAIRBANKS. Wife of Former Vice President Dead at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Charles Warren Fairbanks, wife of the former vice president of the United States, is dead.

She was suddenly stricken with pneumonia on Oct. 15 and hope of her recovery had been abandoned almost from the outset.

Mrs. Fairbanks is survived by her husband and five children, all of whom, except Frederick, who is on his way from California, were at her bedside.

Mrs. Fairbanks served two terms as president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

ENTOMBED MEN ARE ALL DEAD

Casualties in New Mexican Disaster Total 263.

Dawson, N. M., Oct. 27.—Positive assurance that none of the 284 miners caught in the explosion of Stag Canon mine No. 2 last Wednesday remain in the mine alive has been obtained. The entire workings have been explored by helmet men. It was definitely learned that bodies which have not been located are lying buried beneath tons of debris.

Two hundred and sixty-one, the original death total, was increased by the death of two helmet men in their heroic efforts to save life. Twenty-three lives were saved after the explosion.

Dawson, N. M., Oct. 28.—Rescuers increased the total number of bodies recovered from the Stag Canon mine No. 2 of the Stag Canon Fuel company, which was wrecked by an explosion last Wednesday, to 201. Sixty-two bodies are yet to be recovered.
