

COUNTY NEWS

OTTER CREEK CLIPPING.

The road superintendent had a number of men working on the highways, a number of days last week, west of the river.

Now that President Wilson has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, hurry up and get your turkey fattened for a feast.

Cecil Burnham, who has been staying with Frank Kuntz, since spring, is at present picking corn for parties a few miles south of Ridgeway.

Rev. F. A. Damerow, of Decorah, held preaching services in the German M. E. church here last Sunday morning, and at Howard Center in the afternoon.

The fall term of school in the Smith district will close this week, Friday.

Frank Kuntz has been making some cement walks around his residence, the past week. Carl Haakenson assisted him at the work.

The members of the W. M. S. of the Evangelical church, will hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. Chris Schild, next week Wednesday in the afternoon.

Grandpa Tom Blackburn, who had been reported on the sick list the past week, died at a high age at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis Schor, on the old home place, Sunday night. The funeral will be held on Thursday.

Little Norman Kuntz called upon Master Ralph Schild, one afternoon last week, to have an enjoyable time.

Indian Summer seems to be slow in coming our way this fall. We could use quite a bit of warm weather yet.

W. James Paley, of Ridgeway, was doing some plumbing west of the river, last week, on Mike Kratz's new residence.

Last week Saturday, we saw a number of persons driving a drove of hogs to town instead of hauling them. They were six hours on the road in coming about six miles.

The members of the F. W. M. S. of the German M. E. church will be entertained next week, Thursday, afternoon by Mrs. Fred Butz, near Ridgeway.

Moe & Sons have been busy the past week in painting the interior of the old D. Aker house for Olaf Ringen, and also the J. G. Kirschman house, west of the river.

Kuntz Bros. were threshing some clover for Alfred Peter, one day last week. This about completes threshing in our vicinity.

The Kirschman school began its winter session this week Monday.

Mike Kratz and a few others here and there have been marketing some of their surplus apples, the past week, to local buyers.

Rollin Baker, of Ridgeway, accompanied by a traveling man, autoed out this way last week one day, calling at various homes on business.

Rollie Kratz came home from Golden Ridge, last week, to help the folks pick corn.

Frank Butz is the first one in this vicinity to finish picking corn. Tuesday evening was the time he finished, being the earliest in years.

Frank Kuntz, family and school van autoed over to Ridgeway, Sunday, to visit Fred Butz and family near that town.

Mzik's folks called upon J. J. Kreitzer and family, last Sunday afternoon.

The Ridgeway Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church will hold their annual thank offering meeting, and campaign for membership, at the home of Mrs. Chris Schild Wednesday, Nov. 5th, at 2 p. m. Every-body welcome.

NORTH ALBION

Gottlieb Blatter and daughter Clara of Preston, called on George Volkman last week.

Chas. Mandelk and family visited at Philip De Geve's Sunday.

Newton Bigalk and W. Newland made a business trip to Marshalltown Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Goetsch and son Willie visited at A. A. Bigalk's Sunday.

Robert Crowell called at John Bigalk's Monday.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Belle Guldworthy to Mr. Henry A. Bigalk took place Oct. 22, 1913, at the bride's home, Kev. W. W. Smith, of Harmony officiating. After a wedding trip of a few days, Mr. and Mrs. Bigalk will be at home on his father's farm north of Cresco.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical church held an interesting and well attended meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lydia Kreuger. It was decided to give the annual "Autumn Dinner" in Cresco about the middle of November. The next meeting will be an all day gathering at the home of Mrs. Ed Schuman, Thursday, Nov. 6th.

Rev. H. J. Faust, P. E., will reach Cresco Friday and will preach at the Evangelical parsonage Friday evening. The Saturday and Sunday services will be held at the Evangelical church west of Ridgeway.

The Florenceville Evangelical Women's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Chas. Bigalk Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 2 p. m. "Mormonism as a Life," is the topic for study. No one can afford to miss this interesting lesson. This will be the annual thank offering meeting and any special offerings for mission work will be very acceptable. All ladies invited to attend.

CATARH CAN BE CURED
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Chamberlain's Catarrh Remedy is a blood-purifying medicine, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

LIME SPRINGS.

John Platt went to Cresco Wednesday.

Charles Hill went to Cresco Wednesday.

Mrs. Burley returned to her home at Port Byron Wednesday after visiting relatives.

Lyman and Cyril Carpenter returned home from Cumberland, Wis., Thursday.

Della Collingwood, Irma Brantner, Ellen Jones and Katie Hughes drove to Cresco Friday to take in the ball game.

Hattie Jones, Libbie Jones, Erna Duerdin, Carrol Elwood and Clint Jones autoed to Cresco Friday.

Prof. McLennan resigned his position as principal and returned to his home Saturday.

T. J. Richards returned from Rochester Thursday.

Clara Drake returned home Saturday for an over Sunday visit.

Ray Hughes spent Sunday at home.

O. J. Thomas is visiting at the Rowland home.

Mrs. John H. Roberts is visiting her son at Bristol.

Mr. Rhodes was seen in our town this week.

Rachel Kintz is on the sick list this week.

Harriet Owen, Kathryn Sullivan, Margaret Sullivan and Margaret Owen autoed to Cresco Friday to take in the ball game.

Rev. Jones returned Wednesday from Denver, Colo., where he has been visiting.

Mrs. R. W. Hughes went to Ridge Field Park, N. Y., Monday.

Ida and Elizabeth Jones came from Minneapolis Friday.

Maggie Lewis was a caller from Cresco Friday.

T. J. Richards went to Bonair Thursday.

Bob Jones returned from Granada Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sanborn returned to Cresco Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hoopman and family returned to Cresco Sunday.

Tom Devorik was down from Graner Sunday.

John Ruesink came down from Chester Saturday to spend Sunday at home.

Honey Meighan and Erna Duerdin went to Fayette Monday.

Alma Minkie and Louis Scharnweber, of Chester visited near Saratoga Sunday.

Helen Lent was up from Cresco Monday.

Mrs. O. Shaw returned from Dixon, Ill., one day last week.

Mrs. Rose returned to her home at Cresco Monday after visiting friends.

Mrs. J. P. Williams went to Madison, Wis., Monday.

Mrs. Frank Burns is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Maxwell and daughters Eva and Florence, returned from Albert Lea Monday.

Edna Anderson came down from Northfield for an over Sunday visit at home.

Honey Meighan returned from Fayette Tuesday.

Mrs. S. H. Hall returned home from Cresco Tuesday.

Laura Latham, Ruth Gue and Viola Evans went to Cresco Tuesday to take teacher's examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elwood and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Elwood and daughter autoed to Elma Tuesday.

PROTIVIN

Dr. R. E. Jameson, physician and surgeon, office, Zepser's drug store.

Dr. Doetal, Robert Klimesh and Mrs. Joseph D. Bouska autoed to New Hampton Wednesday.

Thomas Novak, of Spillville, called here Wednesday.

A new gas light has been installed on our street opposite the bank. More lights will be installed in the near future.

C. J. McCullow, James Kaderabek and C. H. Zender were business callers in Cresco Wednesday.

James Jankovsky returned Wednesday to his home in Sedgwick, Colo.

Mrs. Catherine McCullow and son C. J. moved last week into the residence recently vacated by T. M. Novak.

James Cisar was at Lawler Friday.

Jacob Capp and his crew of carpenters from Fort Atkinson are building a new house for Frank Vrba.

Robert Klimesh and Joseph D. Bouska were business transactors in Waterloo Saturday.

Fred L. Lukes autoed to Fort Atkinson Saturday.

Matt Kovarik was at Lawler Saturday.

Dr. R. E. Jameson was summoned Wednesday to the home of John Mikesh, Mrs. Mikesh being quite sick.

Sisters of St. Francis were at Fort Atkinson Saturday.

Lena Klimesh, of Spillville is visiting her brother, F. J. a few days.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Landa, a son, Sunday, October 26, 1913. Congratulations are extended.

W. J. Kalishek was at Lawler Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Weigel and son of Jerico were here Monday evening.

On Sunday, Oct. 26, 1913, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zahasky was the scene of a very enjoyable gathering when a number of relatives and friends met to help Mr. and Mrs. Zahasky celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary.

The dance in Beseda hall Monday evening was a success. A good time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holub were at Cresco Monday.

Quite a number from Lawler attended the dance here Monday evening.

J. L. Kobliaska and daughter, of Weyerhaeuser, Wis., are guests at Frank W. Jirak's home this week.

They Make You Feel Good

The pleasant purgative effect produced by Chamberlain's Tablets and the healthy condition of body and mind which they create make one feel joyful. For sale by Fred Lowry.

MAPLE LEAF.

Some of our farmers are nearly through husking.

Mike Bronner has his residence nearly completed. Wonder what is going to be doing the next?

F. Kakac was a business caller at Cresco Saturday.

Ed Bigley delivered hogs at Alta Vista one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kubicek and daughter Agnes, were Cresco callers last Saturday.

Mike Dvorak and son Frank, C. Malek and Frank Kubicek were Alta Vista callers Friday afternoon.

Frank Kubicek called on A. Kakac Thursday.

Joe Wachta drove to Elma Wednesday.

Frank Krall drove to Alta Vista Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kakac and babe, Mr. and Mrs. C. Malek and M. Dvorak and family were pleasant callers at the John Kubicek home Friday evening.

Nick Frank and Fred Marshall autoed through our neighborhood Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shifka called at the Will Jorosh home Sunday.

Willie Kubicek visited with his brothers, Joe and John, for a week and returned home Sunday.

Mamie Ranc called on Agnes Kubicek last Saturday evening.

Joe Wachta drove to Elma last Saturday.

Mike Bronner Sr., was an Alta Vista caller last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buresh made a business trip to Alta Vista Monday.

Mike Bronner and Albert Lokie were callers at the Ranc home Friday evening.

John Bronner and Carl Potts autoed to Cresco Saturday last.

Joe, Frank and Agnes Kubicek and John Bouska autoed to Adolph Kakac's Sunday.

Frank Duchek and Charlie Ranc were pleasant callers on Frank Kubicek Thursday evening.

Charlie Zobeck made a trip to Alta Vista Saturday.

Elsie, Joe and Barbara Kubicek visited at Thomas Kakac's at Saratoga Sunday.

Tillie Milota is staying at the Mike Haskovec home for awhile.

Mrs. Francis Kubicek, of Pine City, Minn., arrived at the S. Kubicek home last week and will remain for sometime.

Mrs. Y. Buresh called at the Beran home last week.

Mrs. Will Frank and Pearl assisted the Dunegans at threshing Monday.

Mrs. Anton Drtina, of Lourdes, is staying at the Joe Drtina home this week.

Mrs. S. Kubicek and Mrs. F. Kubicek, of Pine City, Minn., visited at the John Kubicek home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Drtina and Mrs. A. Drtina called at the Joe Zobeck home Sunday.

John Drtina called at the S. Kubicek home Sunday afternoon.

LOURDES.

John Beaumaster and daughter Mayme were Cresco callers Thursday.

Johnnie Marshek and Russell Shelly visited with Edward Neibauer Saturday evening.

Petes Kovarik was an Elma caller Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshek visited at the Frank Krall home Thursday.

Joseph Neibauer, Jr., was an Elma caller Saturday.

Pat Waldron delivered a couple of loads of sheep at Lime Springs Saturday.

Wm. Beaumaster visited with Edw. Neibauer Thursday evening.

Joe Urban called on his brother Lou Tuesday.

Frank Krall and son Frank visited at the John Marshek home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Seery and baby visited at the Flaberty home Friday evening.

Joseph Neibauer made a trip to Elma Monday after a load of lumber for his new corn crib.

Edward Neibauer, Johnnie Marshek and Russell Shelly attended the Hron-Marshek wedding Tuesday evening.

Clarence Barnes, of Schley, was seen in Lourdes Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Shanley were Elma callers one day last week.

Frank Bigley, of Maple Leaf drove to Lourdes Friday afternoon.

Joseph Neibauer, Sr., called at the J. Truka home Tuesday evening.

Frank Fisher of Protivin was seen in Lourdes Saturday.

Mrs. John Viebrock and children were pleasant callers at the Joe Neibauer home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knutson moved on to the Holub place last week.

John Herman of Maple Leaf was seen here Friday.

Verona and Addie Conry spent Sunday with Elizabeth Flaberty.

Leo and Jim Holub, of Protivin, autoed through Lourdes Sunday afternoon.

Joe Kelley and Mayme Beaumaster attended the dance at Elma Friday evening.

OTTER CREEK.

Agnes M. Markovetz is helping her sister, Mrs. Chas. Vopava, with the housework. Don't stay too long Agnes for you know now is coming.

Frank Kostohryz is far along with his house, and will soon be living in it.

Agnes and Joe Novak visited at home over Sunday.

T. Kratz was a Cresco shopper, one day last week.

JOLLY JOKER.

A Marvelous Escape.

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. A luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger. Sold by Fred Lowry.

BONAIR.

Albert Albertson returned Monday from his trip to Ft. Dodge and Sargents Bluffs. He was also a Cresco visitor Tuesday.

While leading a team of horses Monday, Porter Setchell was pulled from the wagon striking the ground quite quite badly. The knee of one limb and the ankle of the other were quite badly bruised.

Mayme Buffon is assisting Mrs. Rodman this week.

Bessie Smith was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Meyers Tuesday and Helen visited Mahla Albertson the same day.

James Nichols and wife were in Cresco Tuesday.

Barney Thorne was a Cresco visitor Tuesday.

There will be a chicken pie supper in the Woodman Hall Saturday evening to which everybody is cordially invited. The proceeds will go to the parsonage association.

Tuesday evening there was a League meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Meyers. Some business was transacted and a social hour indulged in afterward. Refreshments were served and all present report a fine evening spent.

Leon Morgan was elected president of the League. It was decided at this meeting to start a contest to raise some funds to be applied to church improvement. The intention is to launch into raising as many feet toward a mile of pennies as possible. The League is divided into two departments: the Reds and the Blues, contest begins Nov. 1st and ends Nov. 28. Leader of Reds, Neva Bawden, of the blues, Eva Grabau. Every penny helps.

The first quarterly conference will be held at Cresco on the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 1, at 2:30 at the M. E. church. All members urged to be present.

Dr. Mershon will be with us Sunday evening, Nov. 2, and will preach and administer the Lord's supper. Everybody invited to this and other services of the day. S. S. 10:30 a. m., League at 6:45 sharp, Leon Morgan leader. The Sunshine club will meet next Friday afternoon after school.

There is to a Hallow'en party at the home of Bessie and Helen Smith.

L. E. Grabau has returned to his work after several days at home. Monday he attended the funeral of a niece in Minnesota. This week he will be in attendance at a conference of S. S. missionaries at Sioux Falls, S. D.

Mrs. Geo. Buchanan's father is with them for the winter.

Did you say Sunday, Nov. 30?

ALBION.

The numerous changes of the weather all seem to indicate the approach of winter.

Miss Perry closed a very successful fall term of school in the Darrow district Friday, for a two week's vacation when she will again resume her duties for the winter term.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Davis Corners spent Sunday at the Ed Hanneman home.

J. E. Wells of Cresco was a Sunday caller at the home of his son, J. W.

Edna Fairbank of Cresco was an over Sunday visitor at the Richard's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nichols entertained relatives of Cresco Sunday.

C. A. Wells and G. Blatter shipped stock to Chicago the first of the week.

Rumor says the American Loan & Trust Co. have purchased of A. R. Hansell of Chicago the part of the Verbeck farm known as the Huse estate and will begin building as soon as the weather permits in the spring if not this fall.

NORTH WEST CRESO

John Leferink and family visited at the Dan Kapler home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lydon spent Sunday with Will Appel and family.

John McDermott went to Mason City Saturday to visit with his brother.

Ted Lussan and family and Mrs. Joe Nic, spent Sunday at the John Lussan home.

Mrs. Elias Ferrie called on Mrs. Will Owens Wednesday afternoon.

Nic Grotzman and friend autoed from St. Lucas Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the John Lussan home.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Grant Walker is on the sick list at this writing.

Anna Nast is working at the Charlie Miz home for a few weeks.

Julia McDermott left for Richland Center, Wis. Tuesday morning to visit relatives.

GOLDEN RIDGE

Josh Scheurer visited at the John Dotzler home Sunday evening.

Leslie Bly and friend Elsie Scheurer were pleasant callers at the John Dotzler and J. Scheurer homes Sunday.

Mrs. John Michel and daughter Mamie were pleasant callers at the A. H. Bronner home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Walter assisted their daughter, Mrs. John Keene during threshing Monday and Tuesday.

Amanda Miller has been spending a few days with her sister at Landon, Minn.

John Dotzler was a Minnesota sight for a few days, but Iowa still looks good to him.

Mrs. A. H. Bronner entertained the Cradle Roll Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. J. Scheurer was a pleasant caller at the Tom Jones home at Cresco Monday and called on her daughter who was working there.

The District Convention of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held at Waukon Thursday, October 30. The district comprises the counties of Winnebago, Howard, Clayton and Allamakee, and it is expected that twenty camps will be represented. The ladies of the Waukon camp have been hard at work for some time rehearsing the work of the convention and arranging for the entertainment of the visiting delegates.—Waukon Journal.

CHESTER.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas is visiting her two daughters at Lily Lake, Ill.

Dr. J. D. Lyon and family departed last Tuesday for Minneapolis, Minn., where they are to locate.

Mrs. Aaron Cagel and daughter returned from their Ill. visit Thursday.

Mrs. Al. Fairbanks of LeRoy, Minn., was a Chester caller Thursday.

Harry Baldwin went to Cresco Friday.

Mr. Kelsey of Saratoga drove over to Chester Saturday.

Cemetery Association gave a dinner in the Jones building Saturday.

Mrs. Horace Nichols has been quite sick.

Fred Conklin of Dexter, Minn., was over Sunday visitor.

Sheriff Ferrie was in Chester on business Saturday.

Ham Brown and crew were in Chester on their way home to spend Sunday.

Chas. Plummer autoed to Cresco Sunday.

Joe Enos of Saratoga was in Chester Monday.

There was a terrible auto accident near LeRoy, Minn., on Monday. A party of three men from Waterloo, Iowa, and Jerry Cashman of Riceville, were driving an auto north of LeRoy at a very high rate of speed the auto went into a little rut and turned turtle. One man killed, another fatally injured. It is thought Mr. Cashman and one man from Waterloo will recover.

C. G. Lake was in Le Roy Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conklin returned to their home in Dexter, Minn., Tuesday.

Appointed Postmaster at Lansing.

The first change in an Allamakee Co. postoffice under the new administration will be at Lansing, Editor John Dunlevy, of the