

COUNTY NEWS

LIME SPRINGS.

Mrs. Clarence Patrick from Rapid City, S. Dak., is visiting relatives this week.

Mrs. John Hoopman went to Chester Thursday to visit relatives, returning Friday.

Melton E. Jones went to Dubuque Wednesday on business.

Mr. White and Leslie Mitchell went to Cresco Wednesday and leave for Blooming Prairie Thursday.

Oscar Moen and Alfred Crawford were up from Cresco Tuesday.

Dave Davis returned home from Mahanomet Wednesday on a business trip.

Mrs. A. E. Marsh returned home from her visit at Chicago Wednesday.

Mrs. Prescott went to Arkansas City Wednesday for a visit.

Robert Miller, and Charley Foss who have been working for DeWitt Hughes returned to their home at Springfield Wednesday.

The Misses Lucile and Clara Johnson came Wednesday noon from Chester to visit their aunt, Mrs. John Hoopman.

Fred Seaton returned from Floyd Wednesday.

A. J. Cray, John Cray, J. A. Williams were Cresco callers this week.

Mr. McLennan was seen in our town Sunday.

Sam Roberts and David Roberts were business callers at Cresco Friday.

Dewey Webster and Chauncey Peck were up from Cresco Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hughes and daughter Adeleine were up from Cresco Sunday to visit relatives.

Paul Nagel returned home Friday from Fayette for a visit returning Monday.

Mrs. E. H. Omoth and daughters were Cresco callers Saturday.

Mrs. Price returned home Saturday from her visit at New York.

Mr. Platt returned home from Cresco Saturday.

Myra Buck returned home from Cresco Saturday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Will Knapp.

Loretta Glass, of Cresco attended the dance Friday night.

Toby Cray went to Chester Saturday.

Lester Moore returned home from Cedar Rapids Thursday.

Gertie Horton, Mr. Rhodes and Toby Cray, returned to Chester Friday.

Mr. Deckleaver from Osage attended the dance Friday and returned Saturday.

Mr. Beck, from Waterloo, was a business caller in town Thursday.

Mr. Rhodes came from Waterloo Wednesday on business.

Corra and Gertie Woods, Mr. Rhodes and Vincent Horton autoed to Cresco Wednesday.

Margaret Owens went to her home at Chester for an over Sunday visit.

Miss Drake came home from Cresco Saturday for an over Sunday visit.

Mrs. Robert Larson, of Chester, came to visit her cousin Mrs. Buck.

Earl Kintz, from North Dakota, came Wednesday to visit his brother D. J. Kintz, leaving for Viola, Wis., Friday.

Fred Halweg, of Davis Corners was a business caller in town Friday.

Alma Minkie went to Saratoga Tuesday to attend the wedding of her brother, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Minkie returned to Froelick, Ia., Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Minkie came Friday from Saratoga.

Harry Reece went to Saratoga Tuesday.

Ray Wells was down from Chester Tuesday.

Mrs. Marvin Marsh went to Cresco Friday to visit relatives.

Mrs. William Morris returned home to Minneapolis after visiting Gerabert Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Loughery and family were up from Cresco Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Ole Townsends from Mason City came Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Mary Helmar returned to Cresco Sunday.

Mr. Mozenko and family came Sunday where Mr. Mozenko fills the vacancy of principal in the High School.

Mrs. Herbert Engle and son, of Harmony were visiting her sister, Mrs. Dell Horton this week.

The G. E. S. gave a farewell for Rey and Mrs. Jones Friday evening. A very good time was reported.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will give a chicken pie supper Friday at the M. E. church.

Rev. Morgan returned to Minneapolis Monday.

Mabel Plummer came Monday from Spring Valley to visit at the home of her brother Dr. Plummer.

Mrs. Herman Parchman returned to Cresco Monday after visiting Henry Parchman.

Dr. Plummer went to Chester Monday on business.

Mrs. Obriham went to Decorah Monday.

Byron Converse was up from Cresco Monday on business.

Myrtle White and Helen Lent were up from Cresco Monday.

Thilo Motz went to Austin Monday to attend college.

Mrs. A. J. Chapman entertained a few friends Monday evening. Every one report a good time.

Honey Meighan returned from Kudd Tuesday.

Eddie Sanborn came up from Cresco Tuesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Griffith.

Mr. Conway came over from Elma Tuesday.

Mrs. Hewitt returned from Brown-dale, Minn., Tuesday for a visit.

The J. C. C. held their tenth annual banquet at the home of Mrs. Oscar Tarakdon Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sanborn and Mrs. E. E. Griffith autoed to Little Cedar Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams went to Austin Friday on business.

Ladies Aid Society of the Presby-terian church met with Mrs. D. E. Horton Wednesday.

A basket social was held at Myrtle Tipton's school two miles west of town. A good time was reported by all.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Foss, Mrs. A. Miles, Mrs. Bert Miles autoed up from Saratoga Tuesday. They called on Mrs. Kintz.

PROTIVIN

Dr. R. E. Jameson, physician and surgeon, office, Zender's drug store.

A. J. Mikes was at Cresco, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pecinovsky left Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends in Anamosa, Prairieburg and Oxford Junction.

George Vachta and John Skoda returned home Friday from Independence.

Lewis Pecinovsky was a caller in Jackson, Thursday.

W. C. Dostal, Mrs. W. J. Kalishak, Josie Frey and Nelly Mikes autoed to Cresco, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haskovec, of Elma, spent Sunday here at the former's home.

Florence Canty and Rose Shekleton, of Lawler, called on Mrs. Charles Tucek, last week.

Fred Koch, of Ridgeway, was seen here Sunday.

James Kostka is reported to be very sick.

C. H. Zender went to Cresco, Sunday.

Joseph Junko left Tuesday for Burr Oak.

A dance is to be held in Beseda hall on Thursday evening, November 27, 1913. Music by the well known P. B. Orchestra which furnishes all the latest music. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this dance.

Henry Weist was down from Fort Atkinson, Monday, bringing a load of flour for Fred Lukes.

Hynek Dostal, of Little Turkey, was a Protivin visitor, Tuesday.

Rev. Vytisk, of Little Turkey, Rev. Dragon, of Fort Atkinson, and Rev. Balloon, of Spillville, are assisting Rev. R. Lakomy with a 40 hour devotion, this week.

John Junko, of Lawler, called on home folks, Sunday.

Frank Pecinovsky and family autoed from Cresco, Sunday.

Joseph Kubik was at Lawler, Tuesday.

John Tucek was a caller in Jackson Junction, Tuesday.

A Bohemian entertainment will be offered by our home talent in Beseda opera house on Sunday evening, November 16, 1913, commencing at 8 o'clock. Following is the

PROGRAMME:

1. P. B. Band.
2. Nuzé bratrů od severu. Male Quartet
3. Band.
4. Past na dedice. Drama
5. Band.
6. Ze penize svetej vladav. Solo
7. Band.
8. Oudny Destink. Drama
9. Band.
10. S Bohem Vlasti. Ms. Duet
11. Band.

All are cordially invited to attend.

ORLEANS.

Curtis Miller went to Chicago Tuesday morning with a car load of cattle.

Andy and Jacob Fuller, Will Cummings and Joe Walton were among those who attended the husking bee at S. A. Sutton's last Sunday.

Will Eddy went to Decorah Monday evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steinmetz autoed to Mr. Nast's near Granger Tuesday evening.

Arthur Walton visited a few days with Phillip and Richard Cummings.

Joe Steinmetz, Frank Walton and Will Cummings attended the husking bee at Mr. Morgan's last Tuesday.

Josef Neibauer went to Cresco Tuesday where she will assist in the M. Barrett restaurant for some time.

John Farrell spent Saturday night and Sunday at his brother's, Dan Farrell's.

Frank Farrell and Joe Walton attended the dance in the Armory Tuesday evening.

Jim Neibauer is hauling grain to Cresco.

John Cunningham drove cattle to town Tuesday.

Katie Walton spent Saturday night with Geneva Cummings.

Joe Steinmetz and family spent Sunday at Mrs. Steinmetz's sister west of Cresco.

Mr. Ollendiech and family spent Sunday at Herman Holthouse's.

GOLDEN RIDGE

Elsie Scheurer was a Granger caller Sunday.

Mrs. A. H. Bronner and family entertained company at dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Jeffers, from New Hampton.

John Keune delivered hogs to market Monday afternoon.

Herman Weinkauff was a Granger caller Sunday.

Don't forget the dinner Saturday, Nov. 15th at Cresco served by the Evangelical women.

Leslie White and Elsie Scheurer were business callers at Cresco Monday.

We are sorry to report Herbert Walter is still on the sick list.

Dr. Tierney made a professional call at J. J. Scheurer's Friday.

Leslie Bly is again on the gain after a week's illness at J. J. Scheurer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bigalk and son Clinton spent Sunday at Mrs. Bigalk's folks.

Leona Bigalk spent Sunday evening at C. W. Nast's.

Louise Walter and John Keune were early Monday morning callers at Josh Scheurer's.

J. J. Scheurer who had the misfortune to have a rib cracked is slowly improving at this writing.

MAPLE LEAF.

Frank Kubicek and James Vit were Davis Corners callers, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jarosh and Anna Mussel and Frank Fick attended the barn dance at John Slifka's, Tuesday evening.

James Vit finished his carpenter work for Joe Bilek, and is helping Frank Kubicek pick corn. Now look out boys.

Will Jarosh was a Cresco caller, Saturday.

Frank Dushak called at the John Kubicek home, Tuesday evening.

Frank Horejsi and Anna Zobeck attended the wedding dance at Saratoga, Tuesday evening.

Elsie Roman spent a week with her sister, Mrs. John Wach.

Will Jarosh and Frank Fick called at the Bronner home Saturday evening.

Frank and Anton Horejsi entertained company Saturday evening.

Albert Frana and family autoed to Spillville Sunday.

Tom Shimek was an Alta Vista shopper Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Chihak visited at the John and Joe Wach home Sunday.

Agnes Kubicek called on her friend Elsie Roman Sunday, and Elsie accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Slifka and family visited at the Will Jarosh home Sunday.

Elsie Roman and a gentleman friend called at the Kubicek home, Sunday evening.

Charlie Zobeck autoed through our neighborhood one day last week.

W. Jarosh autoed to Elma one day last week.

Alber Frana made a business trip to Elma last Saturday.

A. and F. Kakac drove to Saratoga Friday afternoon.

Anton and Frank Roman and Frank Bigley and Walter Bachman, of near Bonair, were the visitors at the A. Kakac home Sunday.

Arthur Hart purchased a driving horse one day last week.

John Bronner and Anton Horejsi autoed through our burg last Sunday.

Fred Marshall and family of Maple Leaf visited at the Albert Lockie home in Saratoga last Sunday.

Frank Kakac has been working for M. F. Bigley for some time.

John Fogarty, of Elma, called in our neighborhood Monday last.

A large number attended the wedding dance at Saratoga last Tuesday, of Miss Andetlik and Minkel, both of Saratoga, and all report a good time.

Frank and Agnes Kubicek and Elsie Roman visited at the Adolph Kakac home Sunday evening.

Fred Marshall drove to Cresco Monday last.

A stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bartels Sunday morning and left them a pair of twin girls. Now when Ernest is in the yard he is always looks towards the house and listening if he can hear the sound of "papa."

John Zak had a lumber bee Monday for his new residence.

Mike Bronner made a business trip to Elma last Monday.

Anton Roman Sr., made a call, at Elma Monday.

Will and Frank Jinderlee autoed to A. Kakac's Monday last.

Boss, to Mr. and Mrs. Lou Urban, a son, on Thursday, Nov. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Negerati called at the Opat home Saturday evening.

Anna and Mary Dusek arrived home Saturday after a couple of week's visit in Minnesota.

Katy Filada is assisting her sister, Mrs. Lou Urban, with her household duties.

Mrs. S. Kubicek and Mrs. F. Kubicek visited friends and relatives in Cresco last week.

The dance at Geo. Franklins was well attended and all report an enjoyable time.

Grandpa Krall of Cresco stayed at the John Kral home last week.

Jimie Lips was busy hauling corn to Mike Haskovec's last week.

A surprise party on Mrs. Will Frank was a great success. A number of friends and relatives attended and report a good time.

Mrs. Joe Zobeck called at the L. Urban home Saturday afternoon.

Frank Hutton was hauling corn to Cresco from our vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Drtina entertained relatives Sunday.

Frank Benedick of Cedar Rapids, arrived Saturday to visit relatives, returning Monday.

Anna and Agnes Zobeck entertained friends Sunday.

Stacia Ludweg assisted Mrs. John Krall with household duties.

Will Frank and family called at the Dinger home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tucek, who visited at Anton Zobeck's, returned to their home in Protivin Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Haskovec called at the Milota home at Schley one day last week.

Helen and Joe Kubicek assisted John Drtina with corn husking last week.

James Dusek and Charlie Zobeck are busy shredding corn in our vicinity.

A host of friends called at the Will Frank home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Barbara Hutton and children of Bluffton are visiting at the Joe Zobeck home since Monday.

A Consumptive Cough.

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stop the cough, loosen the chest, banish fever, and lets you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Write: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six week's doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50c and $1.00. All druggists, by mail, H. E. Bucklin & Co. Philadelphia or St. Louis.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPING.

Edna Meyer, of Calmar, started her school in District No. 5, known as the Weamark school, last week Monday.

A couple of wolves were prowling around here, one day last week. Owrig to the busy times with us, they went on their way unmolested.

Charley Hornberger now has prestolite light on his car, having discarded the carbide tank.

Gilbert Nelson autoed to town, Saturday, with his home made auto. Gilbert certainly is a genius in the line of machinery.

Fritz Ramseyer and Pauline, of Ridgeway, were callers at the Chris Schild home, last Sunday afternoon.

Tom Moe and son Oscar, of Ridgeway, autoed out this way, one day last week on business and pleasure.

Frank Kuntz took an auto joy ride to Ridgeway, etc., last Sunday.

Walter Hoyt, of Madison Twp., sold his farm near the river. Consideration, $80 per acre.

Frank Bacach and daughter, of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hruska, for a number of days recently. They also visited friends at Calmar, etc.

The next meeting of the members of the W. M. S. of the Evangelical church will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Kratz, of Cresco, the first Wednesday in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoyt and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oen are among those who will move from our midst in the spring. We are sorry to see them go, as they will be greatly missed by many.

The L. A. S. of the United Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. Chris. Haakenson, this week Thursday afternoon.

The illumination caused by the burning of the depot at Calmar, last Wednesday evening, was observed by many of us in this vicinity.

Rev. L. N. Day, of Cresco, will hold preaching services in the Evangelical church here next Sunday, morning and evening.

Mrs. Srama, of Calmar, was a guest of Mrs. Mike Hruska for a few days recently.

Philip Pfister and daughters drove up here from Decorah last Thursday to visit at the Mike Kratz home, returning the next day.

Prof. F. W. Umbreit, of Naperville, Ill., made calls through here last week among the members of the Evangelical Association in the interest of Northwestern College of which he is treasurer. Rev. Day, of Cresco, accompanied him on his rounds.

Wm. Kuntz is the owner of the John Aga house and lot in Ridgeway, having traded his Minnesota land for same.

Mrs. Lawrence Glass and Miss Mary Glass, of Strawberry Point, arrived here last Friday for a visit with Mike Kratz and family a number of days.

Rev. L. N. Day, of Cresco will give an illustrated lecture in the Evangelical church Thursday evening of this week. Subject, "My trip through Yellowstone National Park and the west." Everybody come, you will be entertained from beginning to end.

Philip Smith assisted his brother Henry in shredding fodder the first of the week.

Frank Kuntz and family took an auto trip to Decorah Sunday evening in spite of the cold weather. They returned late in the night.

Charley Earnst had a runaway in town Saturday. Both he and his wife were thrown out of the buggy and Mrs. Earnst had her face cut so bad that it required several stitches. The horse got scared at an auto according to our information.

Dr. Byron Lewis was called by telephone to the Mzik home Monday morning to administer to Mr. Mzik who was quite sick at the time. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Koch's young folks went to spend Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Fred Falck, who lives near Ridgeway.

Rollie and Deno Kratz have been hauling cord wood to Cresco a few days this week.

NORTH ALBION

Mrs. Wm. Wolf and daughter Esther called at Wm. Bigalk's, Wednesday.

Laura Barth and Geo. Volkman were Cresco callers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amil Keune and son Gordon spent Sunday at Albert Bronner's.

Blanche Trouten and Ernest Goldsworthy visited at E. E. Bigalk's, Sunday.

Wm. Wolf called at Wm. Keune's Monday.

Little Willie Bigalk spent Sunday with little Jodie Hayes.

Geo. Volkman marketed hogs at Lime Springs one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeGreve spent Sunday at Chas. Bigalk's.

Revs. Day and Faust called at John Walter's, Thursday.

George Mae Bigalk spent a few days the former part of the week with Mrs. Henry Bigalk.

Gottlieb Blatter and daughter Clara, of Preston, were over Sunday visitors with George and David Volkman.

Laura Barth, who was on the sick list a few days last week, is reported better at this writing.

Wm. Wolf had a steel corn crib put up last week.

Willie Bigalk spent Saturday evening with David Volkman.

Henry Bigalk called at John Bigalk's Monday.

BONAIR.

Nellie Buffton was an over Sunday visitor with her sister Mayme at the Methodist parsonage.

The men of the M. E. parsonage association put in a day or two repairing about the parsonage property.

Barney Thorne and Rev. Meyers were Lime Springs callers one day last week.

There will be a meeting of the Sunshine Band Thursday afternoon at 2:30. All members come. If there are 18 present there is to be a treat for them.

There will be a special temperance service and sermon at the church Sunday evening. The Sunshine chorus will sing and other special music will be rendered. Everybody welcome.

Jesse Bawden accompanied several cars of stock to Chicago Monday.

The school children are enjoying a week's vacation.

You are cordially invited to the Methodist Church for the evening service, Sunday, Nov. 30th, 7:30 sharp. Something Different. Something New. Everybody welcome. Better Come. Sunday, November 30th, 7:30.

Cause of Insomnia.

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by Fred Lowry.

CHESTER.

E. A. Hoopman, County Auditor, came up from Cresco Monday.

C. G. Lake was in Lime Springs Monday.

Dr. Kessel was in Chester on Sunday and on Wednesday on professional business.

A telegram was received by relatives in Chester announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Elizabeth Bullis of neuritis of the heart at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Rugar of Ottawa, Ill. The remains were brought to Chester where the funeral was held Monday.

Wells Eaton was a Cresco visitor Thursday.

Henry Timmerman of Saratoga, was in our city Friday.

Tommy Edwards, our new blacksmith is very busy these days.

Mrs. Jerusha White was visiting friends in Chester this week.

Josie Breedlove of Cresco was visiting Chester friends Saturday.

Gaylord and Levi Bullis, who had been to Illinois for the remains of their mother, arrived in Chester Sunday morning.

Mrs. Beulah McCarty, of Zumbrota, Minn., and Mrs. Dr. George Plummer came to Chester Monday to attend the funeral.

Win Gray was brot home from Fayette sick, recently.

Mrs. E. Meighan and Ralph Bullis of Donnybrook, N. D., came to Chester Sunday evening to attend their mother's funeral.

Mable Plummer of Spring Valley, Minn., and Mrs. Dr. George Plummer came to Chester Monday to attend the funeral.

Tom Kelly departed for his home in N. D. on Tuesday.

House and Lot for Sale.

Lot 11 block 14, Beadle & Strong's addition to Cresco, Iowa, known as the Sturgis property. Enquire of 1013 A. E. BARKER, Guardian.

OUR GREAT FUR SALE!

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NOVEMBER 21 AND 22

WE HAVE made arrangements with one of the Largest and Best Fur Manufacturers in New York to come to our store on the above dates with their entire surplus stock of Medium and High-Class Furs. They will show here two days, giving you plenty of time to select your Furs.

This gives you an opportunity to select from one of the Largest Assortments of Furs ever shown in this city, and as we have given this firm large business the past two years, they agree to sell Furs, in this sale, at almost Wholesale Prices, and to hold up our reputation as the Place For Values.

You will find in this display all the New Shapes and any Desirable Furs that you could mention, in sets or separate pieces.

- Full Sets at from - $5.00 to $200.00
- Separate Muffs at from - $2.50 to $100.00
- Separate Shawls at from - $2.50 to $100.00

We will also have in this sale some very select New Style Cloth and Fur Coats at Low Prices.

Alliance Mercantile Assn. Cresco, Iowa

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA