

Holiday Opening Saturday, Nov. 29th

A Complete Stock of Holiday Goods will be in readiness for your inspection. And a better showing of Gift Articles will be difficult to find.

Attractive Christmas Presents for both young and old,

You will find it easy to make a selection and at satisfactory prices.

Come and See. Souvenirs for the children

The Wonder Store
Strother House Block

Mrs. C. Schemmel went to Dubuque, Monday.

Grace Friend was down from Bonair Saturday.

Read Baldwin's ad. and watch for the next one.

Holiday opening Nov. 29th at the Wonder Store.

Mary Fultz of Chester was a Cresco caller last week.

Mrs. Albert Leffler went to Lime Springs Monday.

Mrs. Fred Creger was down from Bonair Tuesday.

Carl Maehling was down from Lime Springs, Monday.

Father Wagner left Monday on a trip to Dubuque.

Dolls, games and books of all kinds at Fred Lowry's.

Mrs. John Metz was down from Chester Monday.

Mrs. Ellen Freemire was down from Chester Saturday.

Mrs. M. O. Libbey was up from Ridgeway Tuesday.

H. P. Anderson was down from Lime Springs, Saturday.

Dona Black returned Monday from Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. John Gessell and babe went to Ridgeway Saturday.

For Sale—A nice bunch of young ewes. M. W. Drew. 7-1f

A dollar saved is a dollar earned. Make your money at

THE NICHOLS' SALE.

D. K. Jones of Lime Springs was a Cresco caller Saturday.

Loretta Glass went to St. Paul Wednesday for a few days.

Mrs. H. S. Gue of Lime Springs, was a Cresco caller Tuesday.

Mrs. John Haima was down from Lime Springs Saturday.

WANTED—3000 bushels of corn. Inquire of C. D. NICHOLS. 13ts

Mary Maruska returned to her home at Alta Vista Wednesday.

A married man wanted to work on farm. Box 113 Cresco, Ia. 13tf

N. A. Blackburn, Lawyer, office over the Field's furniture store.

P. J. Orvald was a business caller at Adams the first of the week.

Marie Blackburn went to Monona Wednesday to visit relatives.

Matilda Johnson, returned Saturday to her school work in St. Paul.

FOR SALE—Corn fodder in shock. Enquire of N. Rowley, Cresco.

Alma Minkel and Viola Michel were down from Bonair Wednesday.

Sadie Miller left Wednesday for Waterloo to visit Jessie Smart.

Dr. Fiester of Austin was the guest of Mrs. M. M. Graf Wednesday.

Gladys and Charles Tillson returned Saturday from a visit in Decorah.

Marjorie Goocher went to Fayette, Monday, to visit her sister Maud.

Ladies' Cloaks at the greatest values ever offered at

THE NICHOLS' SALE.

A muff found in Cresco recently awaits an owner at the postoffice.

Mrs. Medhaug and little son were down from Lime Springs Saturday.

Everything in the store at the prices advertised at THE NICHOLS' SALE.

We have a large line of the popular books and gift books. FRED LOWRY.

FOR SALE OR RENT—New six-room house. Mrs. Thos. Gilmore.

$100.00 Coon Skin Overcoats for $85.00 at THE NICHOLS' SALE.

Viola and Esther Evans, of Lime Springs were Cresco callers Saturday.

Mayme Baker left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in New Hampton.

Herman Lidtke and Ruth Davis were down from Lime Springs Wednesday.

Mrs. O. Munsen left Wednesday for a visit with relatives at Finley, N. D.

Josephine Kovarik left Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Monticello, Ia.

Florence Swenson arrived Tuesday from Cedar Falls for a week's visit at home.

Alice Fjelstul and Mayme and Adele Hickey were up from Ridgeway Saturday.

Arthur Rucker left Saturday for a visit with his mother and brother at Osage.

Louise Salisbury went to Lime Spring Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Schacht.

For Sale—A good, yearling Berkshire boar. Fuller Bros., Rt. 6, Cresco, Iowa.

Laura Cameron arrived Wednesday from Iowa City, to spend Thanksgiving at home.

The Misses Lettie Mogen and Johnson of Ridgeway were Cresco callers Saturday.

Do you know Cresco has no place to hold an entertainment, except in the churches?

A. L. Catton and family left Wednesday for a visit with relatives at Arlington, Ia.

Harley Gill came down from Hamline University for a Thanksgiving visit at home.

Mrs. Dan McGee and two children went to Chester Monday for a visit with relatives.

John Hansen and wife left Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in Minneapolis.

Those $13.95, Men's Business Suits are biggest values ever offered in Cresco at THE NICHOLS' SALE.

A carpet rug left at my place about six month's ago for cleaning, must be taken away at once or storage will be charged.

Robt. Knopf.

Mrs. C. M. Plummer of Chester, was an over Sunday visitor with her son, F. A. Plummer

Dr. Jinderlee, wife and little daughter Loretta, left Wednesday on a trip to Minneapolis.

Dr. Norbert Lowry came up from Ely, Ia., Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving at home.

Mrs. Ida Webster came up from Decorah Monday, to be the guest of Mrs. Lizzie Webster.

Mrs. C. E. Pitts, of Hawkeye, was an over Sunday visitor at the Bert Monesmith home.

Amelia Knoke came up from Decorah Wednesday for a visit at the Fred Woelstein home.

Mrs. Hannah Boyd left Saturday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Wilson in Austin.

Mrs. I. A. Courtney went to Chester Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. T. McWilliams.

Mrs. M. Barrett left Wednesday for Minneapolis to spend Thanksgiving with her daughters.

If you want a farm loan at a low rate of interest, see American Loan & Trust Company, Cresco, Ia.

N. Carman returned Tuesday from a visit with a son and daughter residing at Buffalo, N. Y.

Delia Gleason who has been visiting at the W. A. Gleason home returned Wednesday to Otranto.

Stewart Wilson and wife went to Minneapolis Wednesday for a visit at the John Rastratter home.

V. Croatt, wife and daughter Rose, left Tuesday for St. Lucas to attend the wedding of a niece.

Mrs. Geo. Edwards returned to her home in St. Paul. Leota Kellogg accompanied her for a visit.

Sadie Wilhelm, of Dell Rapids, S. D., who has been visiting in Chester, was a Cresco caller last week.

Anna Brown returned Wednesday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Robinson, at Hawkeye.

Do you know there is hardly a town the size of Cresco that does not possess a better public hall?

B. M. Graf and wife, of Marshalltown, Iowa, arrived last Friday for a visit at the John Graf home.

A complete line of Parisian ivory hand mirrors, trays, brushes and combs and novelties. Come and get our prices. FRED LOWRY.

J. Lundgren, the express agent, was thrown from a horse which he was riding, Tuesday evening, and sustained a fracture of the right leg below the knee.

Mabel McClaskey, who has been visiting her aunt, Miss Dana Mason, returned Saturday to Decorah.

Mrs. Bert Foye and children arrived Tuesday from Rapid City, S. D., for a visit with relatives and friends.

Peter Lickteig and family went to St. Lucas Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with the latter's parents.

Mrs. Charles Wilson who has been visiting relatives and friends here, left Saturday for her home in Osage.

Gannon & Gager, all kinds of carpenter and cabinet work. Phone 218. Shop next to Alexander's Yard. 13tf

Clarence Miller who has been visiting at the O. H. Stevens home, returned Tuesday to his home in Decorah.

Mrs. J. C. Webster went to Riceville Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. P. Yager.

On Saturday the 22d there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, a bouncing nine pound girl.

Alfred Harnoss went to Strawberry Point Wednesday to visit his grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hegge.

Laura Lidtke arrived Tuesday from Fox Lake, Wis., for a visit with her cousin, Arthur Lidtke and wife.

Do you know Cresco has to pass up conventions of the different kinds, for the want of a place to hold them?

S. Stinson and wife left Wednesday for Warwick, N. D., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Morton Anderson.

Eugene Mullen, of Antigo, Wis., came for a Thanksgiving visit with his parents and other Cresco relatives.

Come and look at our Holiday goods—they have the merit—they will please you. FRED LOWRY.

Do you know, Cresco has no place at the present time to hold a public meeting except at the Court House?

See the largest line of Ladies' Furs shown in Cresco, at reduced prices, at THE NICHOLS' SALE.

For the kind o' meal that'll make you smile, try Old Gust, on Market St. and get satisfaction. GUST. GENSHOW.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brantner and daughter, Mrs. R. L. Scott, of Lime Springs, were Cresco callers, Monday.

John M. Farnsworth leaves today for Becker, Minn., where he has purchased a farm. His family will follow him.

For Sale—Auto seat top buggy with convertible top and leather cushions. Price reasonable if taken at once.

R. L. Banning, 413 2nd Ave East.

H. S. Schlader, residing on the former B. P. Norton farm will on December 1st, commence a milk route in Cresco, delivering milk at 6 cents per quart.

Mesdames Geo. Ferry and Joe Anderson went to Decorah Tuesday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blomgren.

G. J. Hoopman and family went to Lime Springs Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving at the R. Hoopman home.

An elegant line of Colonial Service Trays, latest novelties, $2 values, our price $1.39—W. O. Swenson, the Jeweler.

Mrs. M. Hammer who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. V. N. Zander, returned Tuesday to her home in Calmar.

For Rent—240 acres, good buildings, 3 1/2 miles from Lime Springs. Call at Cresco Union Savings Bank, or M. W. Drew. 7-1f

FOR RENT—80 acres five miles east of Cresco. For terms and particulars enquire of GEO. BREEDLOVE, Cresco, Iowa. 7-1f

Mrs. H. S. Crittenden, who has been visiting at the C. E. Fields home, returned Monday to her home at McIntire.

Mrs. Wm. Gurnett arrived Wednesday from Fairfax, Iowa, for a visit with her sister, Mrs. B. McAlister and family.

F. A. Schaffer and wife went to Lime Springs Tuesday to attend a farewell party given for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hall.

Mrs. L. C. Osland and Mrs. Emily Osland of Ridgeway visited Mrs. Peter Klingensheim, a patient at Mercy hospital Monday.

Steve Hughes and wife and daughter Gertrude, and Will Hughes and wife of Lime Springs were Cresco callers Wednesday.

A. P. Moshier and wife left Tuesday for Mankato, Minn., to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Hattie Caldwell.

Jennie and Raymond Shugrue, and Bessie Bundrick, who were visiting here last week, returned Saturday to Lime Springs.

Frank Huntting and wife came down from Fairmont, Minn., to spend Thanksgiving with the Hunting families in Cresco.

John Stockman, who is attending Northwestern University at Chicago, spent Sunday at Fayette, returning home Monday.

Mrs. A. Ellingson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. I. S. Grinde, returned Saturday to her home at Flandreau, S. D.

Carl Stienmetz and mother, Mrs. John Byrnes and little son returned Saturday from a visit with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Keihle, at Dubuque.

The Day to Buy Your Furs
Monday, Dec. 1st

Mott & Co

ONE PRICE CASH DRY GOODS STORE

Sale Lasts Only One Day
Monday, Dec. 1st

FUR SALE Monday, Dec. 1st

On the above date we will have with us Mr. Fred L. Russel representing one of the largest eastern fur companies. He will have every thing in Furs and Fur Coats—Mink, Beaver, Fox, Marmot, Muskrat, Opossum, Raccoon, Coney and all the good wearing Furs. Come in and see this beautiful display of Furs whether you intend to buy or not. Remember the date, Monday, Dec. 1st.

