

COUNTY NEWS

MAPLE LEAF.

Joe Kakac returned to his home near Bonair Wednesday after a visit at the A. Kakac home. Mrs. John Graf called on her daughter, Mary, who accompanied her home to visit over Sunday. Elsie Roman was a Maple Leaf caller Saturday, and on her way home called on Mrs. A. Kakac. Joe Shimek purchased a Ford auto one day last week. Now we'll hear Joe a whistling. Adolph Kakac delivered hogs at Elma last Saturday. Will Armstrong called on Mike Bigley Saturday afternoon. Fred Bartles autoed to Elma, Saturday to do some shopping. Fred Marshall was a business caller at Lime Springs Saturday. Henry Callahan drove to Elma one day last week. Tophy and Louise Herplink visited at the Joe Jacoby home Friday evening. Anton Roman Sr., called on Adolph Kakac Friday afternoon. Tom and Charlie McKnight, of Maple Leaf, were Elma business transactors Saturday. Pat Stevenson was a business caller at Elma last Saturday. Joe and Frank Kubicek autoed to Ft. Atkinson last Thursday to visit for a few days at the John Bohach home. Christ Groth and son Charlie delivered cattle to M. F. Bigley Friday. Albert Frana and wife autoed to Elma Thursday to do some shopping. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson were business callers at Elma Thursday. Will Diekmann Sr., of Elma autoed through our burg last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. John Graf was a pleasant caller at the Mike Bigley home Thursday. John Wacha was a business visitor at Elma Thursday. The dance at Mike Bronner's Tuesday night was a success and all had an enjoyable time. Agnes Kubicek called at the Jarosh home one day last week. Albert Biver drove through our burg Sunday last. Fred Bartles delivered cattle to Mike Bigley's Tuesday. John Krall drove to A. Kakac's Friday. Joe Shimek autoed to Elma Saturday with his son Will. Jim Stevenson Sr., drove to Elma Saturday to do some business. Roy Ritz has returned home from Dubuque where he spent a couple of weeks with his brother, Wess, and wife. Dick Lane made a business trip to Elma Saturday. Chas. Rohr and family autoed to Elma Saturday. John Wacha drove to Saratoga Monday afternoon. Fred Marshall called at the M. F. Bigley home Monday. A. Kakac and family drove to Saratoga Monday afternoon. Anna Koblikska has returned home after five weeks' stay with her sister in Minnesota. Anna and Mary Dusek called at the Horejsi home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Haskovec entertained a large number of relatives Sunday. George Kubicek and Jim Lipa made a trip to Cresco last week. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hutton called at the Joe Zobeck home Sunday afternoon. Joe Soch delivered six loads of hogs at Elma Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Koblikska and Jim Opat attended the funeral of Mr. Koblikska's brother near Alta Vista last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hutton called at the Joe Drtina home Monday. Joe Zobeck entertained company Saturday evening. A large number of friends enjoyed themselves at the Matt Koblikska home Sunday evening. Quite a few of our neighbors took in the dance at the Musel home near Elma Saturday night. Jimmie and Mary Dusek were Elma shoppers Friday. Dan Frank delivered his hogs to Elma Friday. Joe Michalec called at the Koblikska home two days last week.

GOLDEN RIDGE

Amanda Miller returned home Monday from her visit with her sister, Mrs. Herman Bigalk at London. Mrs. J. J. Scheurer spent Wednesday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Bronner. Those in the hunting party of last week Thursday are all glad to learn that Tom Dvorak, who had the misfortune to get shot, is getting along nicely. The Ladies' Aid of Florenceville will hold their next meeting, Thursday, January 29th, at the home of Mrs. Ann Keune. She will also entertain the W. M. S., Tuesday, February 3rd. All are cordially invited. Leslie Ely, Josh Scheurer and sister Elsie were Cresco callers, Saturday. Mollie Miller left Tuesday for Cresco where she will undergo an operation at Mercy Hospital. Josh Scheurer hauled hogs to Lime Springs, Friday. Bew and Mrs. Day were pleasant callers at J. J. Scheurer's, Wednesday afternoon. Meetings closed in the Evangelical church, Thursday evening. Mrs. J. J. Scheurer and daughter Elsie attended the Aid at Wm. Bigalk's, Thursday. Little Elizabeth Jones spent Tuesday with Mrs. Charley Bigalk. Fred, Alberta and Walter Keune called at C. W. Nast's, Friday evening.

For Sale.

White Plymouth Rock Roosters, weighing from 8 to 9 1/2 lbs. LEE KAPLER.

DAVIS CORNERS

Cresco shoppers from Davis Corners, Saturday, were George Niewald, Ed Kovarik, John Nast, John Aberly and D. Ahrens. Mayme and Clara Ranc called on Bertha Ahrens, Sunday afternoon. Bertha and Rose Ahrens called on Mrs. Louise Jarosh, Saturday afternoon. Will Aberly had the misfortune of smashing one of his fingers, one day last week. Lester Gardner called at Kubicek's, Sunday. John Drtina and Johnnie Dunt were Sunday afternoon callers at the Ranc home. Joe Horejsi returned to Montana, Monday, after spending a couple of weeks with his mother, Mrs. K. Horejsi. He was accompanied by his brother Frank who intends to take up a claim there. Elsie and Lester Gardner called on the Ranc young people, Friday evening. Michael Bronner, Joe and John Drtina and Frank Necas called at D. Ahrens', Wednesday evening. Joe and Frank Horejsi called on the Ranc brothers, Thursday evening. Bertha and Will Ahrens called at George Niewald's, Saturday evening. Pete Milota, of Schley, attended the dance at M. Bronner's, Tuesday evening. Frank Ranc and Fred Halweg traded horses, one day last week. Mayme and Clara Ranc and Agnes Kubicek spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Louise Jarosh. Joseph and Frank Kubicek spent a couple of days last week at Ft. Atkinson. S. Pistulek and Mr. Veseli autoed from Lime Springs, Wednesday, and spent the day with M. Ranc and family. Rose and Emma Horejsi called on Agnes Kubicek, Thursday. George Gardner and wife called at Ranc's, Sunday afternoon. M. Bronner was a pleasant caller at the Gardner home, Sunday evening. Frank Jan and John Kubicek called at the home of M. Ranc, Sunday morning. Bertha Ahrens spent this week with Mrs. Louise Jarosh. Wm. Jarosh called at John Musel's Thursday. Charles and Michael Ranc drove to Davis Corners, Monday evening. The Dusek and Ranc young folks, Jimmie and Albert Haskovec, Lewis Ondrasek, Johnny Voves and Jimmie Vit called at the Horejsi home, Sunday evening. The evening was delightfully spent and everyone enjoyed a good time. There will be a dance at Prochaska's, Saturday night, the 24th. Everybody come.

CHESTER.

D. J. Ferris, sheriff, was up from Cresco on Tuesday. G. E. Reidel, of West Union, Ia., was a guest of his brother-in-law Ed. Capper for several days. He returned to his home Wednesday. Earl Benson, who has been visiting his brother near Chester, returned to Cresco Thursday morning. Joe Enos and wife, of Saratoga were in Chester Thursday. E. Richardson, of Decorah and J. C. Webster, of Cresco were transacting business in Chester Thursday. Will Breedlove has been confined to his bed with rheumatism for several days. Mrs. Wilbur Wells and Mrs. Marsh, of Lime Springs were calling on Chester friends Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Maude Cutting, Deputy Grand President, assisted by Mrs. Amy Converse, Deputy Grand Marshal, of Cresco, came to Chester to install the officers of the Rebekah lodge on Thursday evening. The installation was followed by a social program, games and music, after which refreshments were served to the Rebekahs and their invited guests. Every one seemed to enjoy the occasion. Mrs. Jennie Ellis, of Britt, Ia., is visiting her sister Mrs. Hastings and her brother Robert Hall and family. Geo. Breedlove came to Chester Friday to see his brother Will who is in bed. Mrs. Will Blade went to Rochester, Friday for treatment. S. V. Moen is confined to his home with erysipelas. Art Obert and wife, of York, N. D., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Wells Eaton. It is reported that Mr. Worthwein has sold his farm to G. E. Reidel, of West Union. C. G. Lake was in Charles City last Saturday. Dr. Plummer and family, of Cresco were in Chester Sunday.

ALBION.

Josie Henke is spending a few days with her parents. Alex Turnmire, of Lime Springs, is sawing wood in Albion these days. Sorry to note that the E. L. Phillips family has been quarantined for scarlet fever. May Ashley visited in Cresco from Saturday until Tuesday. Don't fail to hear Uncle Ho, one of Iowa's greatest poets and readers, at the Albion church Tuesday evening, January 27. Dr. Cooper, president of the U. I. U. of Fayette, preached a very interesting sermon Sunday at the Albion church. The report of the meeting of the L. A. S. at the Ashley home last week Wednesday, was a full house and a regular good time. The next meeting will be at the C. V. Johnson home Thursday, Jan. 29. Every body welcome. Sorry to note that Leslie Wells is not able to attend school at this writing. We learn that Mrs. Willie Bigalk, who is seriously ill at the home of her parents in Cresco, does not improve as fast as her many friends wish she might. We hear that Wm. Keune remains about the same.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPING.

Gilbert Hopperstad was listed with the sick a few days last week. Bonnie Mzik, who has been attending school at Protivin for some time, Sunday at home. Albert Mzik and Miss Louise visited Martin Tupy and family near Protivin a few days the latter part of last week. Master Ralph Schild was sick one day last week making it necessary to call a physician. Mrs. Odden, from near Decorah, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Oen, a few days the other week, helping to take care of the little stranger who arrived there lately. Dr. Byron Lewis, of Ridgeway made a professional call west of the river, recently, in his Ford car. J. J. Kreitzer called at the Vrba home one day to help the folks with their work. If any of our readers have any news of interest they will confer a favor on us if they will tell us about it so we can give it to others. Victoria Kratz has been on the list of the sick for the past two weeks, making it necessary to absent herself from school. Mike Hruska arrived home from Chicago the other day where he had been for nearly two weeks. He surprised his many friends by buying an automobile there, which he drove home from town the other day. Two wolves have been making periodical calls through here of late. So far they have avoided our expert snorers. John Hruska, who has been staying with his uncle, Mike Hruska, for some time returned to his home at Calmar Saturday. Hattie Kratz arrived home from Burr Oak, Locust, etc., last Saturday, where she had been the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives. Wesley Kratz hauled his last load of cord wood to Cresco last Saturday. Carrie Goth and her sister, Mrs. Lee Robinson, called on Fred Butz and family last Sunday. Mrs. Jim Wagner's brother, Frank Mikesch, of Spillville, died the fore part of the week, having been sick but a short time. Merrill Foltz, of Burr Oak, has been the guest of her friend Hattie Kratz since last week Saturday. Malanna Kratz has been listed with the sick since last week. Grandpa Goth, who is 84 years old, called on his neighbors one day last week in company with his daughter Carrie. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kratz dined with Chris Schild and family last Sunday. Hattie Kratz, brother Wesley and Merrill Foltz went to Calmar and Fort Atkinson the fore part of the week to visit friends and relatives, returning home later in the week. Good natured Joe Wagner and wife will occupy the Thom Siem farm next week. We welcome the young couple in our midst. Grandpa Dukelow and daughter, Mrs. Charley Goth, were callers at the C. Schild home last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kuntz were Cresco shoppers the fore part of this week. A number of young and old people had a shower of miscellaneous articles on Edna Kratz last Tuesday evening. Owing to the stormy weather, the crowd was not as large as it would have been if the weather had been more pleasant. A party was held at the home of Joe Novak's last Sunday evening, but we are unable to state any further particulars. Last Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kratz, their daughter Edna became the wife of Oscar Moe, Rev. L. N. Day, Cresco tying the nuptial knot, that made these two hearts beat as one. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present to witness the ceremony. May prosperity, a long and happy life and all their efforts be crowned with success, etc., is the wish of their numerous friends and relatives as they travel hand in hand along the rugged lane of life.

PROTIVIN

John Bouksa is hauling lumber from Jackson Jc. for his new residence—another new one for Protivin. John Junko, of Lawler, visited friends at Protivin, Sunday. Dr. R. E. Jameson was called Saturday out to Joe Tupy's who was very sick. The Doctor reports him much better at this writing. Protivin's new garage is doing a splendid business. J. D. Bouksa, the manager, sold another car to J. J. Mikesch. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vachta were shopping at Cresco, Monday. Mike Kovarik drove to Spillville, Tuesday. Frank Kaderabek, who has been working at Mason City, arrived here Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with his brother James. Another popular dance will be held in Beseda, Monday, February 2, 1914. A party of Protivin business men attended the Charles City and Cresco R. R. Booster's Meeting, going over in Albert Mikesch's new auto truck. A surprise party was given, Tuesday evening, upon Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kalisek. All report a pleasant evening. Helena Jira and Nellie Mikesch left for Cedar Rapids, last Thursday. Joseph Vopava was a business caller at Protivin, Tuesday. James Cisar was a business caller at Lawler, Tuesday. Mrs. Louis Tucheck visited at her parents' home near Maple Leaf, last week. Jacob Sveatka visited at Schley, Thursday. Claude Weatherford came from Cresco, Thursday, to put up some tomb stones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy has no superior for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take it contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by Fred Lowry.

WEST VERNON.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Fish visited at the E. M. Eldridge home Sunday and Charley visited with James Miller. Ed Bouksa and sister Helen called on friends Monday. Mrs. Frank Bouksa and son Raymond attended the funeral of a relative at Ft. Atkinson Wednesday. There was a grand surprise on James Barnes Monday evening. Boys and girls better try this over. Wm. Slika entertained a few of his neighbors Tuesday evening. A few of the gentlemen from this burg attended the R. R. meeting at Cresco Tuesday evening. Hazel and Midge Eldridge attended the dance at Cresco Friday evening. E. M. Eldridge assisted Fred Fish in butchering Monday. Mrs. Mike Slika and children visited at F. R. Bouksa's Sunday evening. Wm. Slika and family called at the home of his brother Frank Sunday. Aug. Degroot and family are entertaining company. Wm. Woods and family and Charley Fish attended a party at Wm. Rinn's Friday evening. We understand that Julia Doolittle is getting along fine at the hospital and Mrs. Doolittle and Ralph are getting along fine with the farm work. Peter Hanson is better at this writing. The Gleaner people held a meeting at the No. 2 school house last Saturday evening, and we understand they took in a few new members. Wm. Coughlin and wife called at the F. A. Miller home one day this week. Joe Lickteig and family entertained relatives this week. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Peters were called to Cresco on account of the illness of the latter's father, Mr. Schultz. The assessor, Mr. Foote, called in our burg this week. John Dell called at the F. Miller home Monday. The trustees and clerk were notified of a case of scarlet fever near Davis Corners, a few days ago.

SCHLEY

Wm. Rethamel purchased a new Ford auto at Cresco last week. Quite a few around here attended the hard time dance at Johnnie Derr's, Saturday night, and all report a good time. Fred Decker and wife were Cresco shoppers Thursday. Wm. Hintspeter delivered cattle at Elma last Saturday. Geo. Price purchased a valuable horse from Bert Fravel last week. Thos. Hooper and wife spent Sunday in Cresco, the guests of his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Hooper. Wm. Hoppie and wife spent Sunday at the Fred Decker home. Henry Rethamel and Frank Rethamel and their wives attended the Rutach funeral at Cresco last Sunday. Fred Amman was an Elma caller, Saturday. John Malek returned home last Saturday, after his recent operation. M. A. Derr was a Cresco caller, last Saturday. Anna Lentz, from Spillville, is spending the week with her sisters, Mesd. John and James Malek. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Amman and daughter spent Sunday at the John Ohmore home. A large number attended the dance at Wm. Rinn's, Friday night, and reported a delightful time. Mrs. Wm. Rethamel spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moravec. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Elsner are enjoying a visit from his brother from Wisconsin. Mr. Miller and John Wessel autoed through here Saturday evening enroute to Alta Vista. Among those who went to the railroad meeting held at Cresco, Tuesday night, were: H. Kull, Thos. Hooper, James Ondrasek, Louis Derr, Michael Derr, Frank Harris, James Malek, A. Fosse, Wm. Hein, Chas. Frank, Ed Stander, Adam Frank, Julius Frank and J. Nohale.

ORLEANS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stinson spent Sunday at Wm. Eddy's. Annie and Sophia Neibauer spent Sunday afternoon with the Cummins girls. Genie Walton is on the sick list this week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCabe visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burgess one day last week. Albert Rakow and Willie Shultz spent Sunday at Walton's. Joe Walton spent Sunday with home folks. Wm. Cummins and daughter Naomi visited Mike Doherty and family Sunday afternoon. Leonard Clinton and Luella Steinmetz attended the party at Millers' Tuesday evening. Emmet, Naomi and Eva Cummins, Roger Jolly and Will Burr spent Sunday evening at Walton's. Vera and Ellen Burgess were on the sick list last week. Charley Burgess spent Sunday afternoon with Roy Burr. Orrick Fuller, John and Willie Walton, Leonard and Clinton Steinmetz and Will Burr spent Sunday afternoon with the Cummins' boys. Wm. Eddy and family spent Thursday evening at Christen's. Florence Eddy was on the sick list Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pollitt and daughter Vera are visiting at the Dan Farrell home this week. The sale held Wednesday on the late Jay Watros farm was quite well attended. Mrs. J. Q. Kowlee is spending a few days with her daughter, who is on the sick list.

Standing Timber for Sale.

Will sell good standing timber by the acre or in lots to suit purchaser. Also wood choppers wanted. Everett Smith, Rt. 1, Cresco, Ia.

BONAIR.

Harry Axtell, of Iankin, N. D., was the guest of Barney Thorne, Monday of last week. These men were boys together and it was a surprise to Barney to have his old friend drop in on him. Mr. Axtell left for Strawberry Point, Monday, where he will visit his mother. Frank Thorne has been visiting relatives and friends here for several days. He left for his home at Henkle, Minn., last week. L. E. Grabau was home last week and occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church, Sunday evening. Gens Schmidt left last week for Germany. He will make several months' visit. Dr. R. Watson Cooper, of Fayette, president of Upper Iowa University, was in the village between trains, Saturday. Quite a change of pulpits was arranged in this vicinity for Sunday. Dr. Cooper, of Fayette, occupied the pulpit at Cresco, morning and evening. N. A. Mershon at Chester Sunday morning and at Lime Springs in the evening; Rev. Maxwell at Ridgeway, Morpagan and Libby all day, Rev. Casper at Lime Springs in the morning, Dr. Cooper at Albion in the afternoon, and L. E. Grabau at Bonair in the evening. Jesse Bawden went to Chicago, Monday morning, with several cars of stock. He is shipping a good deal of stock. A goodly portion of shipping is done from the markets here. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:45. Everybody welcome. Porter Setchell fell from a wagon, some months ago, and injured one of his knees. He just discovered that one of the bones was shattered. It had given him considerable trouble, and has finally necessitated treatment. Everybody hereabouts is interested in the interurban railroad proposed from Charles City to Cresco. Get ready for "Uncle Ho." See Cresco Circuit Announcements.

LIME SPRINGS

Barny Farnum went to his home at Sumner Wednesday, returning Thursday accompanied by his sister Lila. Price Owens of Dakota is visiting relatives and friends in town this week. Theodore Kramer was a caller in town Thursday. He is from Dexte. Lillie Mow, who is attending school in Austin was home for a short visit the last of the week. Ray Hughes was up from Cresco on Sunday. Charlie Schacht, Will Roberts, and Matt Owens autoed to Cresco Wednesday on business. Fred Elwood went to Texas Tuesday on business. Bob Jack Williams returned home from Dakota Tuesday, where he has been on his claim. Mrs. P. M. Woods had the misfortune to burn her hand quite badly Tuesday. Lila Farnum returned to her home at Sumner Sunday. Hugo Hauck came up from Postville Wednesday for a short visit. Zeila Woods gave a party Saturday evening after the show and a very good time was enjoyed by all who attended. Mrs. Hewitt has returned from Brownsdale, Minn., where she has been helping care for her mother, who is ill. The Lime Springs basket ball teams went to Calmar Friday, where the girls won and boys lost. Mr. and Mrs. Art Howland spent Sunday at Cresco with R. O. Hughes and family. Mrs. Prescott was a Cresco caller on Wednesday. Mrs. R. J. Williams went to Cresco Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Atwood went to Bonair for a visit Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones of Granda are visiting in town this week. The high school students will give a basket social in the opera house Friday evening, to which everybody is invited.

KENDALLVILLE.

Mrs. Minnie Todd is spending a few days with Cresco relatives this week. Mrs. Clifford Eddy a little son went to Canton Friday to stay over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Bert Yates. Frank Wallace and wife spent Sunday at the Dave Easler home. Miss Wells, of Hesper, is spending a few days with her friend Lillie Moore. The masquerade dance Friday night was well attended and a good time reported. Marie Ellingson returned to her school duties at Austin Monday. A. Anderson of Decorah, was a business visitor in Kendallville Saturday. W. A. Clink is selling nursery stock for the Bents nursery these days. Miss Betsy Pederson has moved her stock of goods into the store recently vacated by J. Young. Nick Alson and Emil Anderson are busy moving the switch board from the N. Olsson building to the one across the street where Miss Pederson is now comfortably located. Wm. Sanders and Bert Gribben have purchased a new wood saw rig and they sawed for Frank Wallace Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Alson Daskam visited at the Everett Smith home Sunday. Frank Pierce of Canton, visited his brother John Friday night and took in the dance. Mrs. Eda Young had a phone installed in her house one day last week. Quite a few from here attended the railroad meeting at Cresco Tuesday. Everett Clark was a business visitor here Monday. A Good Plaster. Meritol White Liniment is a splendid application for Sore Throat, Cold on the Lungs, Croup and Pains in the Chest. Saturate a piece of flannel cloth with the Liniment, and use as a plaster. It is very penetrating, will not blister and is very effective. Fred Lowry, Exclusive Agent. Seed Oats for Sale. "Gold Mine" oats, pure and clean. Enquire at my place 2 miles west of Cresco. A. L. Deidrich.

Cresco Circuit Announcements.

Lincoln's Birthday, Sunday, will be observed the 15th of February. Plan to attend. A special service will be arranged. Speaking of Homer P. Branch—"Uncle Ho"—C. B. Cunningham, Sec'y. of the Retail Businessmen's Association, Farmville, Va., says: "Mr. Branch delivers his stories in a voice that is as musical as the ripple of his rhymes with the compelling force and thrill of a skilled actor, and the winning manner of a born story teller. Not a dry minute in his program. Time flies. You forget about everything but the people and the things in the story being told." Arrangements are being made to have "Uncle Ho" go over the circuit next week. He is to be at Albion, Tuesday evening, Jan. 27th; Kendallville, Wednesday, 28th; and Bonair, Thursday, 29th. Come and hear him. KENDALLVILLE. There will be a Chicken Pie Supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Easler, Tuesday evening, Jan. 20th. Everybody come and have a good time. K. L. S. will meet Saturday evening in regular session. Good program and good debate. L. A. S. gave a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce, Tuesday of last week. There was a goodly crowd. Sunday School officers were elected Sunday at the M. E. Sunday School as follows: Superintendent—Joe Goldworthy. Assistant Superintendent—Mrs. Carrie Culbert. Secretary—Ruth Ludden. Treasurer—Lilly Moore. Organist—Lois Soltow. ALBION. "Uncle Ho" will be at the church Tuesday evening, Jan. 27th. Admission, adults, 25c; children from 8 to 15, 15c; under 8, free. Everybody welcome. We had a splendid treat, Sunday afternoon, in a sermon on "Friendship," by Dr. R. Watson Cooper, president of Upper Iowa University. It is seldom that the good people of Albion hear such splendid sermons in their church here in the country, and Dr. Cooper was intensely interesting, as always. There are more good treats for us in the future, but in order to take advantage of them one must be in attendance at the services. Come. You will always be welcome. The "Penny Slip" contest will be closed Saturday evening, Jan. 24th. All contestants are requested to cease soliciting by 12 o'clock that night. Please abide by that rule. The money will be counted as soon as it can be gathered in. The contest closes Saturday evening, but each one is given about a week in which to gather in their money. Announcements as to outcome later. The losers in the class contest, Class 4, will entertain the winners Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels. Peckham. Last Sunday afternoon a new ovation was launched. A whistling chorus was organized. We can expect a treat from them soon. Thursday last there was an Aid dinner at the Ashley home. There was a large crowd and everyone enjoyed the occasion.

Horses Wanted.

Two car loads of horses wanted for Eastern market, from 4 to 9 years old, weighing 1100 to 1800. Must be in good flesh. Bring in your horses. Will pay highest market price. Will be at Cresco, Iowa, Saturday January 24, 1914. ANDERSON BROS.

NOTICE!

I will teach anyone the barber trade in a few weeks and put them to work at good wages. This is a bonifide offer. Write me. A. B. MOLER, Pres. Moler System of Colleges, 105 S. Fifth Ave., Chicago. 21t2

Custom Shelling.

I have a power corn sheller and will do shelling at your place after January 1st. Phone or write JOHN M. MUSEL, Rt. 3, Cresco, Ia. 19t4

COZY THEATER

SPECIAL FEATURE Every Tuesday and Friday Night

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23 "The Taking of Rattlesnake Bill." TUESDAY, JANUARY 27 "The Pirates."

These are all good, strong dramas. We guarantee a first-class show every night. Bring your friends and entertain them at the show. MATINEE SATURDAY 2:30 P. M. Admission 5c and 10c Doors open at 7:00. Pictures start 7:30

Mlle. ZARA

NEW YORK'S FAVORITE Palmist and Clairvoyant

has just returned from Europe, where she has met with remarkable success in the foretelling of coming events.

THIS WONDERFUL WOMAN can tell you all about your business and love affairs—anything you would like to know.

SPECIAL OFFER

Bring this ad, and 25c and Mlle. Zara will give you a $1.00 reading, or for 50 cts. a $1.00 full life reading. You will find her at ARLINGTON HOTEL from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., including Sunday. This offer is good for a few days.