

First National Bank

Extends a cordial invitation to you, personally, to call and open a checking account. It is the BEST BUSINESS METHOD

S. A. Converse, Pres.
E. J. Thomas, Cashier

The Citizens Savings Bank

Has added many new names to its list of patrons. Extends special invitation to you to open a savings account. Our $1,500.00 offer is still open. We promise the best of service and satisfaction.

A. Converse, Pres.
Kakac, Cashier

Quick Safe Sure Cures

To prove our ability to cure you we will send you a month's home TREATMENT ON TRIAL, without cost. If the results are not satisfactory, you take no risk.

We Treat Successfully
Varicose, Hydrocele, Sexual Weakness, Nervous Disorders, Kidney Trouble, Lost Vitality, Bladder and Prostatic Trouble and Kindred Diseases.

Our reputation is backed by 21 years of experience in the successful treatment of thousands of cases. This reputation has enabled us to build the largest practice of any specialists in the West. People come to us because they have confidence in our ability. Because they know they will be fairly and honestly dealt with. We refer you to any bank in Des Moines as to our financial responsibility.

"606" and "914" For Blood Poison

Blood poison in any form can be cured in a short time with Professor Ehrlich's famous "606" or Salvarsan remedy. We administer the treatment at our offices without pain, danger or inconvenience. You can take the treatment and return home on the next train. Write for full information and booklet regarding this famous remedy.

76 PAGE BOOK FREE

"What Men Ought to Know" sent in plain envelope for the asking. If you can't call we will mail you the book. Full information regarding our treatment on trial free. Write for full information. Consultation free.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS
22 South Main, Des Moines, IOWA
West 6th and Walnut St., Opp. Kirkwood Hotel

IS THIS THE WAY

that tooth of yours seems to feel? Why suffer such pain when relief is at hand? You know there is decay somewhere that ought to be attended to at once. Don't put it off because you are afraid of pain or expense because neither will prove as great you think.

Dr. John J. Clemmer

Gust. Genshow's LUNCH ROOM

South Side
Market Street

Short Order Lunches at All Hours

A Good and Complete Stock of Confectionery, Cigars and Tobaccos.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM
Cures itching scalp, dandruff, and keeps the hair from falling out. It is the best hair dressing ever used. It is sold in all drug stores and by mail. Price 25c per bottle. Write for full information.

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt. — "We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would blot. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me." — Mrs. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

CRESCO FEED MILL

Grinding Every Day. Better Than Ever. We Satisfy Every Day. Give us a Trial and be Convinced.

HARRY POLLITT, Proprietor.

In The Market FOR ALL KINDS OF FURS

S. FELDSTEIN
N. I. Phone 376

SHIP YOUR HIDES FURS etc.

D. BERGMAN & CO.
ST. PAUL, MINN.
Deal direct with the largest and oldest house in the West. Highest prices and immediate cash returns. Write for price list, tags and full information.

IT'S DIFFERENT NO DUST SHINE STAYS

GET A CAN TODAY

You Can Make Good Income and become our Sale Manager in your town, establishing a steady, permanent business. Goods meritorious and needed in every family. (No canvassing.) Address Dept. D, P. O. Box, Grand Central 65, New City N. Y.

IOWA NEWS BRIEFS

Charles P. Turner, a pioneer of Estherville, is dead of heart trouble.

Des Moines cafes have united in the decision to close up at 9 p. m. on New Year's eve.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Trusty, of Ft. Dodge, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Like Sioux City, Des Moines had the biggest postoffice day in its history on Monday, December 22.

The Farmers' institute which is being held at Lost Nation is being well attended by farmers of the vicinity.

Rev. Father Fuesnell was presented with a $55 purse by his friends and parishioners of the Ledward church.

Chas. Harcourt, of Estherville, sold his farm at public auction for $218. The land was located just outside the city limits.

The dog poisoner at Ackley, who for several months has been inactive, resumed operations and four dogs are dead as the result.

Matt Meigen, proprietor of one of the leading hotels of Council Bluffs and well known among hotel men over the country, is dead.

After engaging a room at a Des Moines hotel, W. L. Sullivan, mysteriously disappeared without occupying it and has since not been seen.

A petition is being circulated for a new $40,000 public school building at Postville. The election to decide the matter will be held next month.

A man was killed at Lowden, and by a card found in his pocket was identified as Albert Dorn of Fremont, Neb. His head was severed from his body.

Dr. S. W. Stockey has resigned as president of Bellevue college to be complete affiliated with Coe college, Cedar Rapids, where he formerly was dean.

Senator Cummins, in an interview to the Register and Leader, found much fault with the currency measure, saying it gives the banks too much power.

E. G. Dunn, of Mason City, recent candidate for governor of Iowa on the democratic ticket, who underwent an operation for gall stones is slowly recovering.

The body of the late Congressman I. S. Pepper, lay in state in the rotunda of the Muscatine court house. The remains were taken to Ottumwa for burial.

C. E. Livingston, a telegraph operator, was arrested in Dubuque on a charge of shoplifting. Several hundred dollars worth of stolen goods was found in his room.

For alleged slanderous statements made from his pulpit, Rev. Father J. W. Ryan, of Barnum, is made the defendant in a $15,000 suit filed by T. J. Connors of that place.

Seven hundred employees of the Milwaukee road at Mason City gave as a remembrance to W. W. Collins, former superintendent a $450 diamond ring. He is now in California for his health.

The cement block and tile factory which was accidentally burned to the ground at Riggs last August, will be immediately rebuilt in time for the manufacture of cement blocks in the spring.

Checking up of the Des Moines saloon petition of consent has been completed. The board of supervisors checked off 9,845 names, considerably more than are needed to keep the saloons open.

Mrs. Jehn Galles, one of the oldest residents of Plymouth county, was buried at Le Mars. She lacked a few days of being 94 years old. She was a native of Germany and had lived in this country since 1878.

As a memorial of her husband, the late Judge H. W. Lacy, his widow has offered to erect in Jackson park at Dubuque a fountain to cost in the neighborhood of $4,000. The park board, it is understood, will accept.

Mrs. H. J. Bonfield, a pioneer of Marion county and one of the original charter members of the Seventh Day Adventists church which was organized in Knoxville during the early sixties, died at her home in Knoxville.

Business men of Ft. Dodge have been voicing their dissatisfaction at the refusal of the Illinois Central railroad to put on a train west, either to Sioux City or to Cherokee. Ft. Dodge is a big loser by the refusal, it is claimed.

The Des Moines taxpayers league threatens to file suit to prevent the Polk county board of supervisors from accepting an offer of $100,000 made by the Rock Island railroad in settlement of $23,000,000 taxes alleged to be due.

Serofino Calabrese, Italian proprietor of a fruit store in Cedar Rapids, has been locked up pending investigation of a fire which destroyed his place. It is claimed there is unmistakable evidence the work was that of a firebug.

James Cram, Clayton county pioneer, died at his home in Volga City. Mr. Cram came to the vicinity of Volga City from New York state in 1854 and he has lived in Clayton county ever since. He was a successful farmer and stock breeder.

Two deer supposed to be estrayed from the flock loose in Pottawattamie county near Avoca, have been seen near Hamburg. Lee Cowles discovered a lone doe going through his timber and the following day a buck was seen near Payne Junction.

Unable to agree on terms for a new franchise for electric lighting with the present owners, the city council of Dubuque is favoring municipal ownership and petitions are now being circulated to call an election to authorize the issuance of bonds up to $70,000 to buy the plant.

IOWA NEWS BRIEFS

Harlow Johnson, aged 35, was found dead in a barn at his home, five miles southwest of Eldora. Mr. Johnson was a bachelor and lived on the farm with a sister. Heart disease is supposed to have caused his death. It is not probable an inquest will be held.

The Hamburg electric plant is busy installing a new crude oil engine. This plant is the first anywhere in this section of the country to try out the crude oil engine for generating power and the outcome will be watched with considerable interest by other electric plants.

Olive Layton, 28 years of age, is in a dangerous condition in a Burlington hospital with a bullet in her head, fired by Charles Anderson, a cement worker. The woman says the shooting was accidental and the man said he was too drunk to know how it happened.

According to Ole O. Roe, state fire marshal, Iowa has gone through December and Christmas time with an exceptionally low fire loss. In both the number of fires and the value of property destroyed, the December reports show a material decrease over those of recent years.

Col. Charles A. Clark, prominent lawyer of Cedar Rapids, and a veteran of the civil war, is dead. He was known all over the state. His first fee as a lawyer was $75,000, earned when he won in the old Savery hotel litigation in Des Moines. He once was mayor of Cedar Rapids.

A Longman celebrated his 82d anniversary at Logan. Mr. Longman came to Harrison county in 1853, settling south of Logan, where he accumulated large realty holdings. After retiring from the stock and farm work, Mr. Longman came to Logan and has since served as vice president of the State Savings bank here.

Four boys are under arrest on complaint of Maj. Ira J. Adler that they threw a piano stool through the window of his law office. Major Adler asked that they be sent to the reform school. He asserted that he had been systematically "baited" by the youngsters, who admitted calling him names in order to anger him.

Because a member of the Trinity Methodist church of Des Moines refused to withdraw his name from the saloon statement of consent, Rev. E. M. Evans, pastor of the church, accepted the member's resignation from membership. It is the first time the church discipline has been used to dismiss a member for this cause.

George M. Netzer, for the past fifteen years connected with the Mason City Globe-Gazette, has received the appointment of income tax collector for this district, and will enter upon the discharge of his duties on January 1. The appointment is regarded as highly satisfactory. Mr. Netzer has been a consistent democrat for many years.

Joseph Lamare, arrested on complaint of County Attorney MacLaughlin, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve thirty days in the county jail at Logan. Mr. Lamare, it is said, was on his way to join the navy and stopped off at Missouri Valley, where his revolver got him into trouble.

H. F. Liebbe, state architect, is completing plans for the "custodial building" at the state institution for inebriates at Knoxville, which is a polite term for a jail in which to keep the refractory ones who don't want to be cured. It will be a handsome building well fitted to take care of the boozers who are unwilling to be of any assistance to themselves.

A. A. Slade, superintendent of schools at Iowa City, returned to his work today, cured of tuberculosis through treatment in the Iowa state sanitarium at Oakdale, and in a private sanitarium at Asheville, N. C. Mr. Slade went to Oakdale a year ago, and regained his health rapidly. In September he went to the Carolina institution for a treatment of tuberculin injections.

The members of St. Albans lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Council Bluffs, has just purchased a large lot in the business section of the city, on one of the most slightly locations to be had, overlooking and facing First avenue, and will erect thereon a fraternal building of three stories. The lot cost the lodge $5,000, and a fine building will be erected. The ground space is 70x140 feet.

The Hartel Auto company of Sac City has just finished its fine new garage on North Fifth and Williams streets. The structure is of brick with cement floor. The basement is 50 by 80 feet in size while the first floor averages 75 by 132 feet. The beams are of heavy steel and the building will admit of the addition of two more stories as the business of the firm shall demand more room. The garage has cost approximately $18,000.

The ban on the tango was forgotten when over a hundred society folks of Keokuk tangoed for charity in the Elks club ball room, while their elders looked on and applauded. It was Keokuk's first experience with a tango tea and proved successful. The entire receipts went to the community tree fund. This also is the first real recognition of the tango since it was barred from the Country club floor last summer.

Eye witnesses were horrified to see a Great Western train plow into an automobile in which were sitting F. Willis Jenks' four children, aged 2 to 12 years. The frantic father tried to crank the machine, but was too late. The car was carried nearly one hundred feet on the pilot, being badly demolished, but the children escaped without a scratch. Engineer H. W. Blake of Des Moines, who was in charge of the engine, said it was the most awful moment of his life. He expected to find the little ones ground beneath the train.

IOWA NEWS BRIEFS

A new Catholic church will be erected at Centerville.

A corporation with a capital of $20,000 is to be formed to build an armory for Company H at Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Freeman, residents of Le Mars for thirty years, celebrated their golden wedding.

The James Black Dry Goods company of Waterloo are preparing to move into their new eight-story building.

The 58th anniversary of the great blizzard, which costs three lives in northern Iowa, was observed in Mason City.

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bothell of Iowa City was observed with their children and grandchildren.

The second annual short course for Adair county is being held at Greenfield and prizes amounting to $600 have been provided.

Miss Ary Hill of Webster City left a few days ago for New York City where she was married to Glenn Kirby, a former resident.

David Short was killed at Pledon, six miles west of Correctionville, when his buggy was struck by an auto driven by Ed Miller.

Another pioneer of Keokuk, Benjamin Maynard, has passed away. Mr. Maynard was ninety-one years old and came to Iowa in 1857.

H. B. Sturtevant, foreman in the Twiner office at Woodbine, has leased the Churdan Reporter and will edit the same in the future.

Jacob Bergstrom of Cedar Falls, 70 years old, dropped dead of heart failure upon his return home from a visit at one of his neighbors.

A petition is being circulated for a new $40,000 public school building at Postville. The election to decide the matter will be held next month.

Oliver Watts of Hiteman had his skull fractured and his back wrenched by a fall of slate. He was brought to the miners' hospital by Dr. Marney.

E. W. McManus, an attorney of Ottumwa, will speak to the Knights of Columbus at Iowa City, the lecture to be given about the middle of January.

A brindle bulldog owned by C. B. Rhodes of Keokuk has been found at Springfield, Ill., and returned to its owner. The dog was stolen by William McDowell.

Mrs. Martha Dougan, a widow, residing near Fairfax and pioneer of this vicinity is dead, following a two weeks' illness. She settled on the old homestead in 1876.

Albert Bergland, a night operator at the interlocking tower of the Northwestern and M. & St. L. railroads at Ogden, died of burns received when a lamp exploded in the tower.

Prof. Ross, who has been principal of the high school at Earlville for many years, has tendered his resignation, as a direct result of an assault on him of two of his students.

Will Schroeder, cashier of the Goose Lake Savings bank has accepted the position of vice-president of the First National bank at Preston and resumed his duties the first of the year.

Miss Sara Herzberg and John Harms of Yorktown eloped to Clarinda and were married. The bride came to Yorktown three months ago from Dodge City, Kansas, to visit relatives.

Will F. Smith, former captain of small arms practice in the Iowa National Guard, and a pioneer newspaper man, died at his home at Webster of heart disease, after three days' illness.

News has been received of the death of Mrs. George R. Smith in Denver, Colo. For over fifty years Mrs. Smith was a resident of Keokuk, and only recently went to Denver for her health.

With a hoisting capacity of 800 bushels per hour the elevator is now ready for business at Woodbine. The elevator is a decided acquisition to the town and a great convenience to the farmers.

Mayor Lyons of Dubuque will veto the ordinance passed by the council of that city compelling street cars and other conveyances to stop on near side of street intersections to load and unload passengers.

With the home elaborately decorated for the christening of the infant son, Christmas afternoon, Mrs. Henry Ruschmeyer, wife of a northwestern railroad man, awoke to find her babe dead in her arms.

Miss Hurd, teacher of science in the Monticello schools has been offered a fine position, that of critic teacher in the Cedar Falls college. She has resigned her position at Monticello, to take effect immediately.

The University of Iowa graduates in Ida county will hold a rally at Ida Grove, at which time Prof. A. G. Smith of the university will show moving pictures of the Iowa-Ames game and views of the university.

The government has not yet responded to the offer of the Dubuque county board of supervisors to furnish $60,000 on the government's offer of $20,000, the total to be used toward the development of the Hawkeye highway.

Eugenic marriages were introduced to Grinnell by the marriage of Miss Bessie Harris of this city and G. C. Russell of Urbana, O. The bride and groom both furnished physicians' certificates as to their physical fitness. This was the first marriage of the kind in Grinnell.

Mrs. Phonal Johnson, a negress, is near death with both her feet blown off and her daughter Ophelia, aged 11, has had one of her feet amputated as the result of a malicious explosion of dynamite under the foot of their bed at Gilberttown. The fuse extended through a window.

IOWA NEWS BRIEFS

The new fire modern school building at Ellsworth is completed and ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Minnick celebrated their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary at Keosauqua.

Miss Lydia Yeager of Estherville, while riding on a motorcycle with S. Nelson, collided with an automobile driven by Robert Bauviard, and the wheels of the heavy car passed over her body. It was thought an arm and several ribs were broken, in addition to internal injuries.

Amos Cameron, a farmer near Waterloo, killed himself with a shot gun. He had the gun fastened in a vise to his workbench with a cord attached to the trigger. He stood in front of the gun and pulled the string, the charge striking him in the neck and causing instant death.

Nathan and Charles Jagger, once prosperous Ringgold county farmers, recently decided to locate in Louisiana. They returned after having lost several thousand dollars. They report that the Louisiana land is so that a team will mire almost anywhere. Several families from Mt. Ayr have gone to the new country. Only these two returned.

Louis Noonan, a Clinton mute, arrested on a charge of purloining parcel post mail matter from the Burlington railroad depot in Clinton, was arraigned before Commissioner Bush, of the United States district court at Davenport. The testimony of Clinton witnesses was heard and Noonan was held under $300 bonds to the federal grand jury to meet in Davenport in April.

The commissioners of Ottumwa passed the resolution authorizing the mayor to call a special election for the purpose of submitting to the people of Ottumwa the question of whether or not the city shall issue bonds for $100,000 for constructing concrete dams that will furnish power for an electric lighting plant. Monday, Feb. 2, was set as the date for the special election.

Those who imagine that small fur-bearing animals are becoming scarce in Iowa should examine the books of the Knoxville Fur company. M. W. Conwell, manager, shipped out a consignment of furs consisting of the skins of 301 muskrats, 275 of the large species of striped skunk, 138 of the civit cat or spotted skunk, 42 mink, 20 raccoons, 36 possums and one fox. He has another shipment of almost equal size ready for the market.

City Attorney Charles P. Hanley of Muscatine has definitely announced his candidacy for the office of congressman in the Second district on the progressive ticket. Back of Mr. Hanley stands the Muscatine county progressives almost to a unit. In 1912 Mr. Hanley was talked of as a candidate against Mr. Pepper but he declined to accept the nomination against his fellow townsman. Mr. Hanley won the city attorneyship on the progressive ticket in Muscatine last spring in a three cornered fight.

Frank Fontana, 4 year old son of Antone Fontana was instantly killed at Enterprise by the discharge of a shotgun. The cause Coroner Lee has been unable to discover. Joe Sciaero, aged 20, who was with the boy when he was shot, ran up stairs and jumped out of a window and broke a shoulder, in a frantic search for help. Antone Fontana, the father, seized a knife and attempted to cut his own throat when he came home and found his boy dead. Italian miners pinned him to the ground and took the knife away from him.

Will Pointer, the Cambridge man who shot and killed his wife and afterwards shot himself with suicidal intent, and has since been at the Iowa Sanatorium, where he underwent an operation for the removal of a piece of the bone of the skull from the brain, is now reported by the attending physicians to be getting along very well, and while it is not thought that he will be sufficiently recovered to answer to the court for his crime at the January term, it is thought that he will be in shape for trial by the March term.

At the last meeting the Keosauqua school board selected Miss Mary Shafer of Sibley, Mich., as teacher of domestic science in the high school for the last semester. She is a college graduate and has taken a special course in domestic science. She will begin her work about the middle of January, and in addition to domestic science will teach such other branches as may be required by her. The establishment of the domestic science department is made necessary if the school district is entitled to the state aid of $700 per year, or $350 for the half year.

An automobile owned and driven by Mont Christmore, of Washington township, was entirely destroyed by fire on the roadway near the L. L. Bybee farm south of Knoxville, on Christmas evening. When the auto with its load of passengers passed the Bybee tenement house persons in the barnyard noticed that a large sheet of flame was streaming out behind. The occupants ran the machine fifty yards further down the road, made a hurried getaway from the burning vehicle and could do nothing but stand helpless near the place and watch the machine burn.

From December 1 to December 24, more chickens were sold on the Cedar Rapids grain market than were sold in that length of time in the history of the market. The chicken receipts during this year's days of Christmas trading amounted to more than 12,000 chickens. About ninety out of every 100 pounds were shipped out of the city, for the demand here is unable to take so heavy a supply of chicken meat. The prices were steady throughout that period, the farmers getting 11 and 11½ cents per pound for their chickens.