

COUNTY NEWS

MAPLE LEAF.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dusek called at the Art Harnack home Tuesday evening.

Fred Buresh, of Saratoga, made calls at the Y. Buresh and S. Kubick homes this week.

Anton Kubic entertained company Tuesday evening.

Frank Kobliska was an Elma caller Wednesday.

Charlie Haskovec entertained company Thursday evening.

Joe Michalec was a pleasant caller at the Matt Kobliska home two days last week.

Stacia Ludweg called on Mrs. John Krall one day last week.

Mrs. Y. Buresh called at the Joe Soch and Joe Zobeck homes last week Tuesday.

Among those who were present at the Joe Zobeck home last week Thursday were: Mrs. Joe Zobeck and children and Dave Hutton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novy moved last week on their new farm which they bought about 1 1/2 miles south from Maple Leaf.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fishback moved onto the old Dick Ahrens place last week.

Frank Dusek called at Elma Monday.

Among those who called at the S. Kubick home Sunday evening were: Anna, Christina and Lizzie Kobliska, John, Agnes, Frank and Chas Voves, Jim, Vit and Josie Roucky.

Agnes Kubick was an Elma caller Monday.

Johnnie Benedict is visiting at the Joe Zobeck home this week.

Frank Zobeck called at Joe Drtina's place Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Cenek called at the Anton Zobeck home one day last week.

Josie Roucky called on Mrs. Jim Opat one evening last week.

Charlie Zobeck and sister Anna autoed to S. Kubick's one evening last week.

Willie Soch left for Cedar Rapids Saturday where he intends to work the coming summer.

Johnnie Voves is assisting Joe Kubic with his work this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Frank called at the Derr home Sunday.

Little Victor Kubick has been sick with lung fever, but is improving at this writing.

Anna Dusek who has been assisting Mrs. Musel with her household duties, returned home last week.

Frank Dusek made a trip to Cresco one day last week.

Frank, Anna and Nettie Zobeck called at the Joe Soch home Friday evening.

Charlie McKnight and Roy Ritze, of Maple Leaf, called at the Roman home Wednesday afternoon.

Mary Graf spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. Graf.

Jim Beran was a caller at the Anton Roman home Thursday evening.

W. H. Dinger autoed to Elma Friday last.

Anton Neibauer was a business caller at Cresco last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zak visited at Joe Wacha's Monday.

W. Jarosh was a caller at the Joe Wacha home Saturday last.

Louis P'eterding was an Alta Vista caller Friday last.

Mrs. Joe Wacha visited at Tom Shimek's one day last week.

Harry Herpink was an Elma business caller on Wednesday last.

Fred Marshall and family drove to Saratoga Wednesday.

Elsie Roman called on Mary Graf Saturday.

Joe Haskovec was an Elma shopper Saturday last.

Mrs. J. Kubick and son Willie visited at the Adolph Kakac home Friday.

Joe Wacha purchased a Ford car Monday last and is now wearing a grin.

Henry Johnson called at Elma on Wednesday.

John Bronner autoed through our neighborhood Ash Wednesday.

Albert Frana attended church at Lourdes on Ash Wednesday.

Frank Prochaska and mother were Elma shoppers Wednesday.

Fred Marshall is on the sick list these days. We hope for his speedy recovery.

John Zak autoed to Joe Wacha's Tuesday last.

Joe Wacha called Monday afternoon at the home of A. Kakac.

Anton Roman called at the Souhrada home Monday.

Joe Wacha and wife visited at the Frank Krall home Sunday last.

Mrs. A. Kakac called on Mrs. Joe Wacha Tuesday.

A. Kakac called at the W. Bigley home Tuesday afternoon.

Lizzie and Mary Dinger called at the Willie Frank home Monday.

Jim Opat was elected as the new director for the school Dist. No. 8.

John Benedict called at the Joe Soch home Thursday evening.

Anna Zobeck called at Dave Hutton's Monday.

Albert Benedict and family called at the Joe Thusty home Sunday.

John, Agnes and Frank Voves attended the surprise party at the Frank Zak home one evening last week.

Little Johnnie Haskovec, son of Mike Haskovec, is on the sick list with lung fever.

Mrs. Dave Hutton and children called at the Joe Zobeck home Tuesday.

Anna Zobeck was a Maple Leaf caller Monday.

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by Fred Lowry.

LIME SPRINGS.

Mrs. Johnnie Marshall came down from Austin Thursday for a short visit with Mrs. A. J. Baerman.

Hazel Larson returned to her home at Chester Friday attending the dance.

Miss Korbel came from Cresco Thursday for a visit with Ellen Jones.

Cathryn Kennedy went to her home at Minneapolis Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Obriham were Cresco callers Friday.

John Ruesink went to Chester Friday.

L. P. Sanborn was up from Cresco Thursday.

J. A. Cray was a Cresco caller Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones went to Minneapolis for a short visit.

Belle Pettit came down from Austin Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her mother.

C. P. Nash and Thelma McCulloch came from Minneapolis Thursday for a visit at the Alvin Nash home.

Mrs. Ed. O. Jones and niece Ellen were Cresco callers Saturday.

Marion Hill went to Cresco Saturday for a visit with her grandparents.

Frances Ruesiak went to Chester Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Davis went to Chester Saturday.

J. C. Clark and family moved to Prairie City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Marsh went to St. Paul Saturday.

Eva Maxwell went to Fayette Saturday for a visit with her sister Lillian.

W. A. Lucas and wife moved to Austin Saturday.

Miss Flemming came from Harmony Saturday to visit at the Sullivan home.

J. J. Jones went to Chicago Sunday with two car loads of cattle.

Ruth Howland was on the sick list last week.

Mrs. Fred Elwood returned home from Washington Sunday, after a visit with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Crist came from Mason City Sunday.

Frances Ruesink and Libbie Jones returned home from Chester Sunday.

Lola Walker returned to her home at Cresco Monday after a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Umhoefer returned home from Minneapolis Saturday.

George Hughes and wife from Park Rapids and Gene Hughes from Milwaukee are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williams went to St. Paul Monday to live.

Mrs. Bob Jones came Saturday from Granda.

Dave Owen went to Cresco Monday.

Ruth Davis was a Cresco caller Monday.

Mrs. L. P. Sanborn came up from Cresco Monday for a visit with her daughter Mrs. E. E. Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lawrence returned to their home at Alberta, Canada, Tuesday.

Mrs. King and son Harold went to Kansas City, Tuesday for a visit.

Mrs. C. V. Summers and daughter came Tuesday from Charles City.

Bob L. Jones returned Wednesday from Minneapolis.

Mrs. Will Sanborn returned from Wisconsin Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jones went to Chicago Wednesday.

ORLEANS.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pollitt and daughter are visiting at the Dan Farrell home this week.

Mr. Cagwin and family moved on the Mrs. Jay Watros farm last week.

Frank Farrell is home from Omaha, where he has been for the last three months.

Mrs. Walton and children visited at the Frank Klinge home near Schley Thursday.

Mr. Cummings and family spent Sunday evening at the Frank Walton home.

Mrs. Burr entertained company last Tuesday.

Mrs. Cal Harvey visited Mrs. Cagwin Saturday and Sunday.

John Cunningham spent Sunday on the farm.

Frank Burr moved on the Hess farm last week.

Grandpa Burgess is on the sick list this week.

Jim Nibaur and John Walton helped Arthur Gardner haul hay from Martin Jones last week.

Guy Pollitt and Frank Farrell delivered cattle for Curtis Miller one day this week.

Mrs. Steinmetz and son Elmer visited at the Burr home Sunday.

Paula and Florence Eddy, Geo. Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gardner and Wm. Cummins and family spent Sunday evening at the Walton home.

Willie Burr assisted Fred Howard moving last week.

Vera Burgess and Grace Burr called on the Cummins girls Sunday.

Leulla Steinmetz who has been entertaining the grip is better at this writing.

Emma Smith and Grace Burr are spending a few days at the Frank Burr home.

Roland Burr was seen going west last Sunday. "Wonder what's the attraction."

Sally and Gear Christianson, Edwin Westby and Melvin Hovey and Willie Burr spent Tuesday evening at the Cummings home.

Mrs. D. Farrell, Mrs. Guy Pollitt and daughter Vera, visited at the Walton home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walton and daughters Kathryn and Gene, visited at the Cummings home Monday evening.

Mr. Ollendick has been on the sick list the past week.

Chamberlain's Tablets for Constipation.

For constipation, Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent. Easy to take, mild and gentle in effect. Give them a trial. For sale by Fred Lowry.

DAVIS CORNERS

Wm. Jarosh and Johnnie Slifka, from near Protivin, were business callers at Spillville Thursday.

Mayme Ranc spent Wednesday and Thursday night with Mrs. Louise Jarosh.

Kather Norris, of Lourdes, was a caller in our neighborhood Thursday.

Will Aberly called on Charles Ranc Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jarosh, Michael Bronner, Frank Fick, Jimmie Dushak and George Zobeck called at Ranc's Tuesday night.

Little Willie Kubick was a pleasant visitor at Wm. Jarosh's Wednesday.

John Drtina had a lumber hauling bee last week for the erection of a new barn on his place.

John and Will Aberly attended the show at Lime Springs Thursday night.

Mike Bigley was buying cattle of Wm. Jarosh Monday.

John Wacha, with the neighbor's assistance, delivered hogs at Lime Springs Friday.

Reports are heard from D. Ahrens and family, who have recently moved to Perham, Minn., that they have arrived safe and like the country well.

Joe Drtina was a Cresco shopper Friday.

Fred Hruska was at Lime Springs Friday.

John Bronner called at Geo. Fishback's Friday evening.

Michael Bronner was a Lime Springs caller Wednesday.

Charley and Clara Ranc and Frank Dushak called at Wm. Jarosh's Sunday evening.

Geo. Gardner was a Lime Springs caller Saturday.

Mr. Ranc and son Charles were business callers at Elma Saturday.

John Drtina and Frank Fick called at the Ranc home Sunday afternoon.

Will Aberly spent Sunday night with John Aberly.

Charles Ranc drove to Davis Corners Monday afternoon.

Will Aberly called at John Nast's Monday forenoon.

Mr. Ranc called at Joe Drtina's Sunday evening.

Joe Drtina called at Ranc's Saturday morning.

Elsie Gardner called on Mamie and Clara Ranc Monday afternoon.

ALBION.

(Intended for last week.)

Roy Richards is visiting relatives in Omaha.

Ruby Walker has been under the doctor's care the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Livingston returned Sunday from their Wisconsin visit.

Geo. Walker and family moved Saturday to the farm known as the W. C. Nichols farm.

Our people are quite on the move this week; Joe Becker moves to the Will Fiske house in Cresco; Otto Gunderson to the Milz farm vacated by Becker; Howard Nichols to the farm known as the A. E. Bents farm; and Will Smith to the farm known as the Pros Lloyd farm vacated by Nichols.

A lively little "blizzard" visited our locality Saturday afternoon. The snow storm being of short duration but a high piercing north wind continued during the night.

Mrs. Arthur Livingston is entertaining her mother and brother, of Fountain, Minn.

Glad to note that our scarlet fever patients, Hazel Stevens and Stanley Bateman are on the rapid road to recovery at this writing.

Hervy Wells returned to his school duties at Cedar Rapids Saturday.

L. R. Emmonds on Cresco was a business caller at Albion Tuesday.

Geo. and Ed. Easler and Miss Emma, all of Harmony, were pleasant callers at the J. W. Wells home, Friday last week.

The Ladies Aid at the C. A. Wells home was a pronounced success socially as well as financially.

Sorry to note that W. P. Clark had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse recently.

Burt Dudley and family moved Thursday to the farm formerly known as the Dale farm near Schley.

WEST VERNON.

Wm. Reinhart's father died Monday at Alta Vista.

Elton Eldredge, Henry Wilson and Will Woods assisted the Klinge's to move to town Tuesday. Another of our old settlers retiring from the farm.

Fred Fish and family and Mrs. Henry Wilson attended a Royal Neighbor meeting in Cresco Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Bouska visited with her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Sebastian, Tuesday.

Mrs. Peter Hunsen is visiting friends in Minnesota this week.

F. A. Miller and son James called on Wm. Valvoda Monday.

Mr. Eldredge and family visited at Frank Bouska's Tuesday evening, also Mrs. Bouska's brother from Spillville.

Mrs. Mike Slifka and children called at the F. R. Bouska home one day this week.

Joe Miller assisted Wm. Walker to move Monday.

James and Joe Miller assisted Elton Eldredge to drive cattle Wednesday.

Quite a few of Mike Slifka's gentlemen friends called on him Sunday evening.

Ed Crowe called on Will Woods, Tuesday.

A. L. White called at the Frank Miller home Saturday.

Lizzie DeGroot called on her friend, Elsie Peters, one day this week.

Frank Montague called on his brother Joseph Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Wilson called at the Henry Kemke home Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Woods and family and Miss Harris visited the Wilson family Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. D. Lovejoy called at Mrs. Salisbury's Tuesday.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil for such emergencies. Two sizes 25 and 50c at all stores.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPING.

The members of the F. W. M. S. of the German M. E. church met with Mrs. John Reinhart this week Thursday.

Bennie Mzik, who is attending parochial school at Protitin, these days, came home last Friday returning to his school duties again Monday morning.

Mike Kratz with the assistance of some of his neighbors marketed a few loads of hogs at Cresco Saturday.

The snowstorm of last Saturday had considerable force to it. On the C. Schild place it blew down the windmill tower, thus saving the owner the trouble of taking it down.

Log sawers from Protivin will establish their headquarters at the Mike Hruska home for a number of days.

Frank Kuntz and family and Celia Gustafson autoed to Cresco last Saturday to do some shopping. The storm of the afternoon drove them all home at a rate exceeding the speed limit.

Yes, March came in like a lamb but wasn't it rather cold and shivering?

Walter Falck returned to his home at Arlington, Iowa, the fore part of the week after, spending some over a week in this community visiting friends and relatives.

Billie Wagner from near Ridgeway geared up his Ford car one day last week and took a spin towards the setting sun at a rate of about 30 miles an hour.

Philip Smith sold a few loads of hogs last Friday to Cresco buyers, receiving top prices.

Orie Johnson, who arrived from Norway last May, spent the winter months attending school, learning the English language. Now he has begun working for Henry Halverson.

Quite a crowd, several from our vicinity took in the program and basket social held at the schoolhouse in Dist. No. 5 last Thursday. About twenty baskets were sold many commanding a fair price.

Arthur Kratz and wife, of Cresco, spent several days in this vicinity visiting friends and relatives. They returned to their home at Cresco again the fore part of the week.

District township school meeting next week Monday. A director will be elected at large, and other business transacted.

Sadie Koch who has been assisting her sister, Mrs. Fred Falck, near Ridgeway, in sewing, the past week or ten days, is domiciled under the parental roof again.

Ole Sanderson, secretary of the rural school board, made a trip through the township a few days last week, posting up notices of the coming school election in Dist. No. 1.

Some of Koch's folks and Walter Falck took supper with Mike Kratz and family last Saturday evening, also spending the evening among themselves.

Mrs. Chris Haakenson is at present visiting her son Reinhart in Grand Rapids, South Dakota. From there she is going to visit one of her girls in Minnesota before returning to her home in this vicinity.

Phil Kratz, a former Lincoln boy, but late of Howard county, had a bad case of auto fever lately so he purchased a Cartercar last Saturday. Now all that is necessary is good roads, when we expect to see Phil hitting the pike at a terrific speed dodging telephone poles, fence posts, etc.

Bessie Haakenson entertained her teacher Celia Gustafsen to dinner last Sunday. The afternoon was also spent together in a social way.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moe, of Ridgeway, their sister Amy, also Rollie Kratz drove to Cresco last Saturday. From there they intended to go to Golden Ridge to spend a number of days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Krueger.

KENDALLVILLE.

Mrs. B. R. Evans, of Cresco, was a very welcome guest of her daughter, Mrs. Phil Todd, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Eddy visited at the W. A. Clink home, Sunday.

On account of the bad weather, the K. L. S. was postponed until Saturday evening, March 7th.

We understand Nelson, Hoines & Co. are going to move their creamery effects to Harmony, but Kendallville will continue to do business. Give us a call.

Mattie Burton resumed her school work, Monday morning, after an illness of a couple of weeks.

We are glad to hear that Betsy and Lena Peterson are on the gain, after their illness.

Chas. Smith and Mrs. Wm. Reuter were business visitors at Cresco, Monday.

Edna Burton is sewing at the C. D. Smith home, this week.

Chas. McCarty returned to his home at Harmony, after spending the winter at the Walter Daskam home.

The new lights have been installed in the church and are working fine.

Walter Daskam and family spent Sunday at the Pullitt home in Cresco.

Amy Barnes is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barnes.

H. Morrison, of Fayette, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clinton Fifeid.

Those who went to Cresco, Saturday, to enjoy "spring weather" were surprised in the afternoon to find that winter had closed on them, and the clothing stores were busy supplying them with warmer coats to wear home.

There was quite a good attendance at the L. A. S. on Wednesday last at Mrs. Sydney Culbert's. Will meet next on March 11th, at the Soltow home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Todd called at the W. A. Daskam home, Monday afternoon.

Insurance.

Howard County farms and Cresco city properties for sale any day but Sunday here—under the Post Office.

L. E. EATON, Cresco, Iowa.

CHESTER.

Dr. Plummer was seen on our streets Wednesday.

Percy Worthwein is loading his household goods and stock. He is moving to Illinois.

Mr. Dingman has sold his farm and is going to Wisconsin where he has bought a farm.

E. J. Roberts was an Austin visitor Wednesday.

A. Rudloff is moving onto the Timmerman farm near Saratoga.

Mrs. Henry Babcock is quite sick.

Robt. Thomson, of Cresco was in Chester Friday on business.

Mrs. Chas. Plummer was operated on for appendicitis at Cresco hospital Friday.

Fred Conklin and wife, of Austin were visitors at the C. T. McWilliams home Sunday.

Jud Baldwin was operated on for appendicitis at Prairie du Chien and is very much improved.

W. G. Wamas, of Colesburg, who bought the Bert Bronner farm has moved here.

Mrs. A. H. Breedlove and Mrs. Theresa Meighan were over Sunday visitors at Cresco.

Cecil Johnson and Wayne Garrett came to Chester Saturday to visit at Geo. Spencer's, the latter leaving Monday afternoon for his new home at Owatonna, Minn.

Mrs. W. W. Cray went to Cresco Monday.

C. H. T. Jensen shipped two cars of stock to Winnebago City where he bought a farm.

Archie Capper left Saturday for Persia, Ia., where he has accepted a position in a bank.

John Bratrud, of Minneapolis came Monday for a few days' visit.

NORTH WEST CRESCO

Will Owens and family called at the Will Aspel home Friday evening.

Ernest Roth is doing some carpenter work for Elias Ferrie.

The school meeting was well attended Monday evening and Emil Reutlinger was re-elected as director.

Victor Croatt and Frank Rausch called at the John Lussion home Tuesday afternoon.

Leo Meyer bought a load of hogs from John Lussion Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daws took dinner with relatives in town Sunday.

Mrs. Volly Vance returned from the hospital Monday and is getting along nicely.

Ernest Rutsch and Joe Lussion called at the 101 Ranch Tuesday evening.

Elias Ferrie and family visited at the John Daly home Sunday afternoon.

Susie and Tillie Lussion called on Mrs. Will Aspel Sunday.

Notice!

Bring your furs this week or as soon as you can, or they will be classed as springy. 'Phone 376.

SAM FELDSTEIN.

DURING LENT
We Are Prepared To Supply Your Wants With a Great Variety of

FISH

Canned Fish

Chive Salmon, 1 pound flats each.....	25c.
Sockeye Salmon, 1/2 pound flats each.....	15c.
Imperial Red, 1 pound talls each.....	20c.
Barlock Red, 1 pound talls, 18c. or 2 for.....	35c.
Choice Pink Salmon, 1 pound talls 15c or 2 for.....	25c.
Sardines in Oil per tin.....	5c.
Sardines in Mustard per tin.....	10c.
Kippered Herring in tin.....	5c.

Spiced Fish

Spiced Herring per pail.....	85c.
Spiced Belly Cuts per pail.....	$1.25

Salt Fish

Holland Herring, Mixed Kegs Full white hoop, each.....	85c.
Holland Herring, Milchners Kegs Full white hoop, each.....	$1.00
Ocean White Fish per pound.....	8c.
Mackerel per pound.....	15c.
Salmon, Blood Red, Finest Quality per pound.....	15c.

Smoked Fish

Boneless Herring, 1 pound boxes each.....	20c.
Halibut Chunks per pound.....	25c.
Codfish Middles per pound.....	15c.

TRY THIS RECIPE: Soak Salt Salmon in tepid or cold water twenty-four hours, changing water several times. At hour wanted boil sharply. Season to suit taste, covering with butter. This recipe will answer for all kinds of salt fish.

YOURS FOR BUSINESS

ZBORNIK BROS.