

COUNTY NEWS.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPINGS

Mrs. Amel Koch was listed among the sick a few days last week, requiring the assistance of a physician. Mrs. Will Landa and son Martin have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mizik, since last week Wednesday. Albert Peter sold some cattle to Henry Vattbauer, of Ridgeway, last week, delivery being made Monday. Earnie Peter was a pleasant caller on friends in Sumner township, last Sunday. The next meeting of the members of the W. M. S. of the Evangelical church, will be at the home of Mrs. C. Schild, the first Wednesday in Nov. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falck and babe from near Ridgeway, were pleasant callers on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vopava, of Sumner township Sunday. Grandpa Kirschman has been reported on the sick list to us. At last report he was feeling somewhat better. Will Frank and family autoed to Decorah last Sunday, for pleasure and sight seeing. Theo. Kratz and wife, and Miss Amelia drove to Golden Ridge, Howard county, last week Saturday, to spend a few days visiting at the home of Dan Krueger and wife and assist the folks there with threshing. An error was made by us in one of our items last week. We stated that the Kirschman school had opened with Clara Kuntz as teacher. It will not open until next week Monday. We had been misinformed, hence the mistake. Roy Koch had the misfortune of getting one of the tendons severed on his hand with a saw, while working on their new barn. John Sobolik, from near Protivin, was a pleasant business caller at Ridgeway last Saturday, getting some feed ground, etc. Elmer Kuntz assisted Frank Butz at plowing sod last week, Thursday and Friday. C. Schild sold a bunch of cattle to John Griffith and son, the latter part of last week. Dr. Byron Lewis, of Ridgeway made a professional call out this way one night last week. Alfred Peter and family autoed to Cresco last Sunday to attend church services. Jacob Hornberger and wife were pleasant callers on Charley Kuntz and family Sunday. Amel Koch, family, and Joe and Elsie Vopava dined with Robert Vopava and wife Sunday and passed a pleasant day together. Leonard Kreitzer is enjoying a visit from his cousins, Adolph and Edwin Vrbas from near Protivin this week. Fred Koch and brother Roy were out dragging the roads the fore part of the week, others who have jobs at dragging were out also. Herbert Kratz called upon his cousin Ralph Schild last Sunday afternoon. John Agertger and others have such a large crop of corn to take care of that their present crabs are inadequate to hold same, so they are building new ones. Nearly everybody through here has started to pick corn to crib. It is quite dry and will no doubt keep all right. Ed. Wagner is our new cream hauler. He made his maiden trip over the route this week Monday. The carpenters, who built Amel Koch's new barn started on the house last week Friday. Arthur Griffith, of Ridgeway made several business calls out this way last week. Ethel Sanderson assisted the women folks at Koch's in cooking for the shingling bee. Sadie Koch, who has been absent from home for some time, is at present domiciled under the parental roof where she expects to remain for an indefinite period. Will Wagner, our veteran cream hauler, has resigned his route, and will now close up his business affairs here and moved to Spillville to engage in the restaurant business. Good bye Will, may success follow you in your new industry.

DAVIS CORNERS

Charley Ranc, Frank Kubicek and Emil Prochaska made a flying trip to Alta Vista Friday night. Mike Bronner delivered hogs at Lime Springs one day last week. Wm. Jarosh came out from Cresco to spend Sunday at home. Frank Wachar and wife, Frank Prochaska, Charley, Mamie and Clara Ranc, Frank and Joe Kubicek and Joe Wachar were entertained Sunday at the Wm. Jarosh home. Quite a number from here attended the dance at Krall's Saturday night and all report a good time. Charley Ranc took Wm. Jarosh to Cresco Monday morning to remain another week under the doctor's care. Elsie Gardner is assisting Mrs. Calahan with housework. Lloyd Gardner came from his work near New Hampton for a few days' visit at home. Mamie and Clara Ranc called on Mrs. Wm. Jarosh Monday afternoon. John Wachar had a shingling bee on Friday. Lester Gardner drove up to Wm. Jarosh's Friday evening, also called on John and Bill Aberly. Joe Urban drove to Cresco Sunday afternoon. John Bronner and wife autoed to Cresco, Tuesday. Frank Kubicek was a Lime Springs caller Tuesday. Lester Gardner and sister Elsie called on the Ranc young folks Sunday night. John Aberly entertained company Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Sifka, from near Ridgeway, autoed out Thursday to spend the day at Wm. Jarosh's. The Miller Bros., of Cresco, came out Wednesday to move the windmill on the Anton Jarosh farm.

MAPLE LEAF

Frank Kubicek was a caller on Adolph Kakac, Monday evening. Lillian and Helen Prochaska and Matilda and Josephine Krall were pleasant visitors with Agnes Kubicek, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. A. Kakac called at Maple Leaf, Monday last. Joseph Wachar autoed through our vicinity, Sunday evening. Joe Kubicek called on home folks, Sunday. Anton Roman made a business trip to Alta Vista, Monday last. Frank and Will Prochaska were Cresco shoppers, Wednesday last. Will Dinger and wife, and Fred Marshall, wife and babe autoed to Sam Dinger's, Monday afternoon. Walter Bachmann called on Frank Roman, Sunday. John Wachar and family were visitors at the Anton Roman home, Sunday last. Frank and Jerry Prochaska were pleasant callers at the John Kubicek home, Thursday evening. John Wachar called at the Tom Shimek home, Friday morning. Adolph Kakac drove to Elma, Monday. John Graf called at Maple Leaf, Monday. Frank Kakac and his brother Joe and son, autoed to "A. Kakac's" Tuesday to spend the day. M. F. Bigley and son Frank took a car load of cattle to Chicago Sunday. Harry Herplink called at Maple Leaf Sunday. Joseph Wachar attended church at Lourdes Sunday with his family. John Kubicek helped his sons last week with work. John Wachar made a call at Davis Corners Friday. Len Stevenson called at Mike Bigley's Friday afternoon. Mike Bronner is busy hauling sand for a new floor for the hog house. Joseph Shimek called at J. Wachar's home one evening last week. Martin Souhrada and Jim Houska autoed through our neighborhood Sunday evening. Peter Nelson was a pleasant caller at the Graf home last Sunday. John Johnson and daughter were seen in our burg one day last week. John Wachar had a shingling bee Friday, on his new hog house. Tophy Herplink and Henry Johnson delivered cattle at Elma last Friday. Anton Dozark drove to Elma to do some shopping in that town. Will Wachar drove to Lourdes Friday. John Wachar made a business trip to Elma one day last week. Mike Bronner was a business caller in Elma last week. Mrs. Mike Bigley and daughters Maude and Cecelia, were Maple Leaf callers Thursday. M. F. Bigley and son Frank were callers in Elma last week Thursday. Mike Haskovec was an Alta Vista shopper Friday. Mesd. Joe and Jos Bilek are entertaining their sister and her children from Minnesota this week. John Kubik and wife autoed to the John Voves home Sunday afternoon. Julius Frank and family visited Sunday at the Daniel Frank home. The M. Ludwig young folks and Mary Chihak visited at the Matt Kobiska home Sunday afternoon. W. Frank and wife attended church at Davis Corners Sunday. Anton Kubik and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy born Oct. 16th. Here's congratulations. Elsie, George and Joe Kubicek called at the Voves home Saturday evening. Agnes Zobeck called in Schley last Friday. Mrs. J. Lips and son Frank were Elma shoppers Monday. Kate Falada is assisting Mrs. A. Kubik with her housework. Johnnie Voves visited home folks on Sunday. Joe Zobeck and wife called at the Lou Urban home one day last week. Elsie Kubicek assisted Mrs. Joe Zobeck Friday. Chas. Haskovec and Jim Vit called at the S. Kubicek home one evening last week. Abbie Voves is staying at the John Kubik home this week. Agnes, Frank and Charles Voves and Albert Haskovec called at the S. Kubicek home Sunday evening. Chas. Unger was busy dragging the roads in our locality this week. That's what auto drivers are looking for nowadays. Frank Chihak and wife called at the Opat home Sunday afternoon. George Kubicek was an Elma shopper Tuesday. Joe Drina called at the Joe Zobeck home last week. Frank Lipa autoed to Cresco Tuesday. Mrs. Joe Drina called at the Joe Zobeck home Monday. Albert Haskovec called on Mike Haskovec one evening last week. Mrs. Mary Frank stayed at the A. Kubik home a couple of days last week. Albert Haskovec was an Elma shopper Saturday.

GOLDEN RIDGE

Leslie Bly and Elsie Scheurer were callers at Cresco Monday. Stanley Michel and sister Mona were entertained at the C. W. Nast home Sunday. Albert Bronner and family, and father, also Tilla Scheurer, ate dinner and spent the day at John Michel's. Carl Muehling, of Lime Springs, is spending a few days at C. W. Nast's. J. J. Scheurer entertained company Sunday. Preaching services were held at the Evangelical church Sunday morning and evening. I Can Save You from $1,500 to $2,000 on a good Cresco home. Call on N. B. WHEELER, 45tf

SARATOGA.

Ernest Erbe came home Wednesday after about a week stay with relatives in Dakota. He reports that the crops there were not very good. Wm. Groth has purchased 20 head of cattle within the last week. Doc. Jones was called to Louis Bursh's last Thursday to attend a sick horse. Minnie Baethke called at the Wm. Ball home last Friday. Wm. Boheman and wife drove up to see their daughter Bertha, whose children are very sick. Wm. Groth was an Elma caller Friday and Saturday. Anna Groth was a caller at the Wm. Groth home Saturday afternoon. Ed and Ernest Schriber hauled two loads of coal from Elma Saturday. Fred Sale, wife and two youngest sons were Elma callers Saturday. John Erbe and family visited at the Ernest Erbe home Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Timmerman and children went to Cresco Sunday to see her husband, who had an operation Saturday at Mercy hospital. C. Baethke and wife spent Sunday with C. F. Baethke and wife. Elsie Dettmer spent Sunday at the Wm. Boheman home. Mrs. Jess Miles, who left for Osage Friday to visit her daughter Nellie, returned home Monday. August, Minnie and Emma Prinz were entertained at the C. Baethke home last Sunday. Ernest Baethke was a caller at the Wm. Stopperan home last Sunday. Carl Prinz hauled a load of hogs to Riceville Monday. Wm. Michelson and wife spent Sunday at the Peter Kraft home. Ernest Bartels and his hired man, Henry Henning, and Ed Graf autoed through Saratoga last Sunday on their way to Decorah. Leon, Linda and Dena Erbe spent Sunday at the Ernie Schahn home. Howard Watson and family were over Sunday visitors at the E. A. Watson home. Mrs. E. Schahn and son were callers at the Erbe home Monday. Harry Kelsey, accompanied by Will C. Baethke, autoed to Cresco Monday, the latter calling on her uncle, Wm. Timmerman, who is at the hospital. Mr. Pemberton, after a two week's visit with friends in this vicinity, returned to Cresco Monday. Rudolph Hilgendorf attended church at Davis Corners Sunday night. Beulah Arnold, a graduate of the Minneapolis School of Music and Oratory, will give an entertainment in Kakac's hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 24. Half of the proceeds go to Miss Arnold and half to the Saratoga church. Admission 25 and 15 cents. A. Miles and wife and Dena Erbe were Riceville callers Tuesday. CHESTER. Mr. Taxpayer, don't be hoodwinked. You have been betrayed once and will be again unless you vote for C. T. McWilliams for representative. Mrs. W. J. McMahon, of Cresco visited relatives, and called on friends in Chester. E. E. Richardson, of Decorah, was here on business, Wednesday. Rev. Chas. Marshall, of Cresco came to Chester, Thursday, to look after his farm interests. Chas. Hague will move this week into the residence he purchased from W. A. Hungerford. Basil Brown spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents. F. D. Mead and wife, of Cresco, and F. Paul and wife, of Bonair autoed to Chester Sunday. Gordon Fish and W. J. McMahon and wives, autoed to Chester Sunday. Alma and Gladys Young and their brother Clifton, of Harmony, Minn., were guests at the Ed. Capper home Sunday. Mrs. Lea Gibbons, of Austin, Minn., is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Plummer. Mrs. Kate Johnson has gone to visit her son Norm. Jud Baldwin and wife went to Le-Roy Monday. P. J. Jorstad has purchased the Hutchinson farm. Vera and Floy Murray, Allen Hungerford, and Winifred, Clifford and Warren Flynn, of Austin, Minn., were guests on Sunday at the A. H. Barrett home. Arie Groenboom and wife, of Warod, Minn., were guests, of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Capper on Thursday. Chas. Unger went to Austin Tuesday. Ed. Jones was a Cresco visitor on Tuesday. LOURDES. Lewis Tucek and wife called at the Zobeck home last Sunday. Albert Vokaty and Albert Polansky called on John Vokaty Sunday afternoon. Frank Fisher was at Elma Saturday. Miss Horijisi is visiting at the Frank Fisher home for a couple of weeks. Jame Vokaty was busy dragging loads Monday. Mesd. James Urban and John Vokaty cooked for threshers at Albert Vokaty's. Several teams hauled lumber for Jack Norton Monday. James and Lou Valvoda and Mrs. Montague and son Clarence visited at the Frank Valvoda home Monday evening. Mrs. Bridget Fitzgerald visited at the John Beaumaster and John Fitzgerald homes last week. James Hruska, wife and babe were seen in Lourdes Sunday. Jos. Urban is nursing a sore hand these days. Chronic Dyspepsia. The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by Fred Lowry.

SCHLEY

Come one, come all to the big dance in Schley, Friday, Oct. 23rd. John Chihak, from Lourdes, was seen driving through Schley Thursday last. Ed. Slama and the Frank Pecinovsky folks were pleasant callers at the L. V. Svestka home Sunday. Ed. Cenek, Mike Derr, Joe Barnes and Joe Citek, were Cresco callers Saturday. Lillian Vrbas is visiting friends in Cresco. Louis Ondrasek and Frank Hron, wife and son Edward, spent Sunday at the Jim Ondrasek home. Joe Malek made a trip to Protivin Sunday. Lillian Svestka called on her friend, Annie Vrbas, Monday. Joe Barnes and family Sundayed at the Henry Novak home. Mrs. Fred Rethamel and daughter, and Agnes Musel, were Schley shoppers Monday. Ed. Cenek and Mike Derr were Cresco callers Saturday. Emmet Cummins spent last week visiting with the John Harris family. Mrs. Frank Dinger and son David visited at W. J. O'Brien's one day last week. Raymond Bauer, who has been sick the past week, if much better at this writing. Inez Rethamel returned home Saturday, after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Eppens. Fred Amman was an Elma caller Saturday. Mesd. John and James Malek and children, called at the Milota home, Sunday afternoon. T. J. Hooper made a business trip to Cresco Monday afternoon. Frank Capouch and Fred Curtin delivered cattle at Elma Friday. Mike Derr and wife, Fred Derr, wife and daughter, Louis Derr, wife and daughter, John Ohmacht and family, and Mrs. John Evert and children, spent Sunday at the Joe Bilek home near Maple Leaf. T. J. Hooper and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the Fred Taft home. Fred Derr was a Cresco shopper Saturday. Jennie Clancy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Stevenson. M. A. Derr spent Sunday afternoon and evening at the Dushek home. John Hyke, from Ft. Atkinson, called at the home of his sons Clem and Adolph the fore part of the week. Fred Curtin and wife were Cresco shoppers Tuesday. Clarke Kerr and wife returned from their two week's visit in Muscatine Saturday. Mary McCarville returned from Cresco Wednesday evening to spend Institute days at home. W. M. Walker and wife and daughter Mona called on Kerr's Sunday. Grandma Kingle, of Cresco, is visiting at the W. M. Wilson home. Harriet Doherty spent Thursday night with Gladys McCarville. Joe Barnes and daughter Clara called on Henry Novak Monday. Mrs. Fred Derr and babe did shopping in Schley Tuesday morning. Joe Barnes is building a cistern these days. Frank Harris autoed to Cresco Monday. Chas. Frank and wife autoed to Cresco Wednesday. Johnnie Derr is busy plowing now days. R. E. McCarville and family autoed to Cresco Sunday evening. Clarence and Eugene Barnes attended the dance at Jim McCarville's Friday night. Joe Doherty and wife were Cresco callers Friday. GRANGER. C. F. Robinson, Ada and Manley, of Cresco, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in the Village. R. McCloud and wife spent Saturday and Sunday at Decorah. John Michel and wife entertained a large company of relatives at dinner Sunday. Mr. Newland and family left Monday for their new home at Caledonia. John Finck attended the funeral of John Rev. Souders at Prairie Queen, Sunday. Eunice Ludwig pleasantly entertained the Y. L. A. society, at her home Friday. Dr. and Mrs. Tierney autoed to Cresco Saturday. The Misses Kelly and Gintner spent Sunday evening at Newmillers. Ed. Schoonmaker and wife Sundayed at Ed. Privat's. Ina Chase spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gregg. Herman Serfling and wife spent Sunday at Otto Serfling's. A. G. Serfling, of Preston, was a Village visitor Thursday and Friday. Geo. Michel and wife, and Mrs. E. F. Sims, were Cresco shoppers Saturday. E. F. Sims Sundayed at Geo. Michel's. ALBION. C. B. Ashley and daughter Mae departed Tuesday evening for an extended visit with relatives in Chicago and other points in Illinois. Wells, Holcomb and Ashley commenced their fall's threshing campaign Monday. Mrs. J. C. Livingston has been spending the past two weeks with relatives and friends, of Strawberry Point and vicinity. Don't forget the farmer's club meeting, Friday evening, Oct. 30th. Kendall Ashley, of Chicago, is visiting at the C. B. Ashley home. For Sale. Poland Chinas, fall and spring boars ready to sell. Herd headed by the great Pawnee Jumbo, the 1000 lbs. prospect. Satisfied customers in seven different states. J. J. Prochaska, Protivin, Ia. 6 t-13

RIDGEWAY.

Mrs. Chas. Jacobson, of Bismark, N. D., is visiting her brothers Ole and Theo. Gullickson, and other relatives. Rev. and Mrs. A. Knudson, of Minneapolis, arrived Saturday from Davenport, to visit their daughter, Mrs. L. A. Heimark, and the L. J. Fosse's. Mrs. M. R. Ringeon, of Minneapolis, returned home today, after a week's visit with her sons here. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Anderson leave Tuesday, for their home at Bison, N. D., after visiting relatives here the past three weeks. N. C. Putnam went to Cedar Rapids Wednesday, to attend the funeral of his father. Mrs. M. R. Ringeon visited relatives and friends at Calmar and Decorah, from Wednesday to Saturday. Gladys Barthell was at Cresco between trains Saturday. Mrs. A. Orum, daughters Nellie and Willie were Cresco visitors Saturday. Mrs. Northote, who has spent the past five months in Canada with her daughter, Mrs. S. L. Fosse, stopped off here Friday on her return to Calmar. She has spent the past eight weeks in St. Paul with the T. Ahern family. H. A. Libbey and family, of Cresco, spent Sunday here under the parental roof. Stella Thompson came over from Waukon Friday, to see her brother, who recently returned from Texas. Mrs. C. Oen, R. Thompson and wife, and Stella Thompson visited relatives in Cresco Saturday. Nellie Fjellstul spent Sunday at home from her school duties at Decorah. Dorothy Hickey was at Cresco Tuesday. Ray Thompson and wife left Tuesday morning for Estevan, Canada, their former residence. Rev. Shoemaker was at Cresco between trains Tuesday. Glen Bowers and wife visited home folks in Cresco Sunday. Members and friends of the M. E. church gave Rev. and Mrs. Shoemaker a pound party at the parsonage, Tuesday evening. PROTIVIN. Mrs. Mary Snopek arrived home Thursday, from a brief visit in Austin and Blooming Prairie, Minn. Edna Sobolik returned Thursday, to her home in Fort Atkinson, after a week's visit here at the A. J. Mikesch home. Charles Andera and Joseph Kratka were Jackson Jct. callers Thursday. Joseph Zender, of Eagle Grove, Ia., is visiting his brother, C. H. Zender. John J. Mikesch autoed to Spillville Monday. Mr. Goddard, of Ft. Atkinson, transacted business in town Monday. Grand Bohemian entertainment will be given at Beseda, Sunday evening, October 25th, by Saint Cecilia choir, for the benefit of the church. Josephine Kovarik, Mrs. Thomas Jira, Mrs. Mary Andera and son Frank called on Spillville relatives Monday. Anna Zobeck left Sunday for her home in Maple Leaf, after an indefinite stay with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Tucek. George Eimwaller and family, of Ft. Atkinson, were visitors at the Fred Lukes home Monday. Lewis Tucek and wife autoed to Maple Leaf Sunday, and spent the day visiting the latter's parents. Mrs. John S. Kallal and children, of Jerseyville, Ill., who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lukes, went to Ft. Atkinson Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. George Eimwaller. A dance will be held in Beseda, Wednesday evening, Oct. 28th. Music as usual. Come. Anna Lentz arrived Monday from Mason City for a visit with relatives and friends. Grand Bohemian entertainment will be given at Beseda, Sunday evening, Oct. 25th, by Saint Cecilia choir, for the benefit of the church. KENDALLVILLE. A. H. Phinney, of St. Paul, was a business visitor in Kendallville last Wednesday. Fred Barnes autoed Wm. Reuter and wife and Nick Olson to Harmony Tuesday. Mrs. Alson Daskam spent a few days the first of the week with friends and relatives in Cresco. Mrs. Clinton Fifield and children went to Fayette Saturday, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morison. Linus Curtis, of Orleans, attended church in Kendallville Sunday morning. The roads have been greatly improved by the recent dragging.

Rev. Hatfield and family, of Burr Oak, moved into the house recently bought of Ed. Hoines, Tuesday. The second meeting of the L. S. in the church, Saturday evening, was well attended. A fine program was given which was enjoyed by all present. The next meeting is Oct. 31. Every one is cordially invited to attend these meetings. Mrs. G. W. Daskam visited a few days of this week at the Dunn home. Steve Todd and Fred Todd and wives spent Sunday evening at the Phil Todd home. A family reunion was held at the R. Barnes home, Tuesday to help Mrs. Barnes celebrate her birthday. Miss Kittie Clink was an over Sunday visitor at the John Clink home. NORTH WEST CRESCO. John Drilling visited Sunday at Henry Schlader's. John McDermott Jr. and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the Will Aspel home. V. Croatt and wife and Harry Warling called at John Lussion's Sunday evening. Emil Reutlinger and family were Sunday visitors at the Eben Teeshorn home. Will Aspel and wife and Marguerite were callers at the Wm. Owens home Sunday evening. George Leferink visited Sunday at John Leferink's. Tillie Lussion spent Saturday evening at home. J. W. Daly and wife were Sunday callers at John Carroll's in Cresco. Josephine Kreke and Frances Schneider called on their friends, Susie and Tillie Lussion, Sunday. John Huber and family, from Spillville, visited at the Zack Kapler Jr. home Sunday. Dr. Precious and family called at the Harry Howard home Sunday. John Drilling Jr. and cousin, Frank Drilling, from Fort Atkinson, visited at John Lussion's Saturday afternoon and evening. LIME SPRINGS. John Pluss Williams and wife and Fred Elwood autoed to Cresco Sunday. Geneva Anderson came home from Fayette for an over Sunday visit. A. J. Baerman and wife and Margaret Jones autoed to Cresco Sunday. H. P. Anderson, Charles and Geneva and Helen Bock autoed to Cresco Sunday. Rev. Perry's wife and children arrived last week from Walker, Iowa. Ellis Owen and wife and wife left Thursday morning for Fox Lake, Wis., to attend the funeral of his father. Selma Sjoboen returned Saturday from her home at Ossian, accompanied by her sister. Clayton Roberts, of Alexandria, Minn., came Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Roberts. Mrs. R. S. Pesak and son came Sunday from Austin for a visit with Bessie Wells. D. H. Thomas autoed to Chester Friday. W. C. Jones was a Cresco caller on Wednesday. Mrs. W. G. Barker returned Monday to Minneapolis after a visit with relatives. Cora Woods went to Mason City Friday for a visit with friends. WEST VERNON. Joe and Jim Miller helped Mike Sifka shingle his new house in Cresco Saturday. Geo. Burnikel spent Sunday with Ed. Bouska. Mrs. Peter Harsen was pleasantly entertained at the Will Schaefer home Sunday. Julius Doolittle returned from a trip to Montana Monday. Cora Sebastian, of Cresco, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sebastian a few days last week. Fred Peter spent Sunday under the parental roof. Frank Bouska, Adolph Peter and Jim Barnes called on Frank Miller Sunday. Frank Sifka called on his brother Mike Sunday morning. Will Woods and family visited Sunday evening at the Fred Fish home. Will Reinhart and family spent Sunday with relatives in Cresco. Hay Wanted. I wish to buy hay, wild or tame, in the stack, for baling. Phone 615. C. J. POWERS, Cresco, Iowa. Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers, rely on Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Fine for cuts, burns, bruises. Should be kept in every home. 25 and 50 cents.

WATCHWORD OF THE HOUR!

We are trying to help you live within reason—to make your dollars do their full duty. We have always sold Reliable Merchandise at the very Lowest Prices, and we propose to see that the tendency of prices heeps on the downward march. Under such conditions this store will be your logical goal, for we offer you the Best at Prices that must appeal to the intelligent buyers who are looking for their money's worth. Come in and inspect our new line of LACE COLLARS and CUFFS to match.

WALSH'S RACKET STORE

PAY CASH AND PAY LESS