

COUNTY NEWS.

LIME SPRINGS.

Lynn Horton went to Calmar Thursday for a short visit with relatives there.

The following people from Lime Springs attended "High Links" at Cresco last Thursday night: Sanford Taralson, C. W. Maehling, Joe Williams, M. E. Telford, A. J. Gray and W. B. Searies and wives.

Will Hughes, who is employed at the insane asylum at Rochester, returned home Thursday for a visit with his parents.

Robert Thomas returned home Thursday from his business trip to Minneapolis.

Mrs. T. J. Horton arrived Thursday from Des Moines, N. Dak. Mrs. Horton came to accompany her son Lynn to the hospital where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

The J. C. C. Club and their husbands were entertained Friday evening at the home of Dewitt Hughes and wife.

Elizabeth Williams, of Minneapolis, came Saturday night for a visit with Marguerite Jones.

Chas. Nash, who was here on business, returned to his home at Minneapolis Wednesday.

Jack Metz moved last week from the Chas. Nash farm to the H. Ruesink farm. Swan Isaacson moved on the place vacated by Mr. Metz.

Samuel Moore, of Decorah, was here for an over Sunday visit at the Marguerite Jones home.

Myrtle and Lillian Tipton returned from Cresco Friday noon.

Mrs. Cora Duerdin and daughter Erna, of Fayette, were here calling on friends before leaving for their future home in Montana.

Robt. Hughes and wife, of Minneapolis came Friday for a visit with friends and relatives here.

A party of young people were entertained Friday evening at the Ed. Mouw home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sipe, of Waterloo, were here last week looking over the country and expecting to make Lime Springs their future home.

Ervin O'Brien moved last Saturday from the Brantner residence to the house formerly occupied by Herman Ruesink. John Lloyd has occupied the house left vacant by Mr. O'Brien.

Iaud Murray, of Chester, visited friends here the last of the week.

F. B. Carlson was a Cresco caller Monday.

C. W. Maehling during the past week, has made many improvements in the barber shop. He has installed a new lavatory with modern equipment and has covered the floor with heavy inlaid linoleum. He has had the walls and ceiling painted and has hung a large oil painting on the north wall.

Maehling has now one of the most modern shops in the vicinity.

Chas. Anderson spent Sunday with Win Cray at Chester.

Frank Elwood, of Elma, was a business caller here Saturday.

Mrs. Scott, of Riceville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Stockdale, returned home Monday.

Thos. P. Hughes and wife, of Minneapolis, came Friday for a brief visit with friends here. Mrs. Hughes is better known to the people here as Jerusha Thomas.

Guy Benson and wife returned to their home at Minneapolis Thursday. They have been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Benson's parents, Theo. Hauck and wife.

Mrs. Barney Thorne, of Bonair, was a caller here Saturday.

Hugh E. Jones has been seriously ill for the past few days.

Mrs. P. H. Luhman, of Postville, who has been visiting with her parents Frank Burns and wife, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. E. V. Davis and daughters were over Sunday visitors at the Walter Davis home at Chester.

Belle Pettit came down from Austin Saturday to spend Sunday at home.

Edna Omoth and Edna Anderson returned to Northfield Monday, after a short visit at home.

Mrs. John Phifer, of Chester, was a visitor at the Ed. Tibbals' home Saturday.

Bert Morrison and wife left Thursday for Decorah.

Mrs. Charles Black and little son went to Austin Saturday for a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wyant.

Mrs. W. W. Cray was down from Chester Monday.

Schacht Bros. are installing a new cabinet in their garage.

Ruth Gue came home from Fayette Saturday for a brief visit with her parents.

W. Moore came from St. Paul Saturday to join her wife, who has been visiting at the Albert Leidtke home. They returned home Monday.

Mrs. McClasky and Miss Diana Mason, of Decorah came Monday to attend the christian science lecture that night.

PROTIVIN

Hellen Jira went to Cresco Friday where she will work.

Mrs. Frank W. Sobolik, Mrs. Anna Zabasky and son Wm., were Cresco visitors Saturday.

Frank J. Kalishek and wife departed Saturday for their home in Lisbon, N. D., after an extended visit here with relatives and friends.

Ina Shores went to New Hampton last week where she intends to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Fencil and daughter Mary were among the Cresco callers Friday.

James Kobliska and wife of Gagen, Wis., are the guests here of their relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charles H. Zender and daughter returned home Friday from a visit in Cresco.

Emma Polansky, Anna and Frank Horky, visited at the Joseph Hruska home Saturday and Sunday.

F. W. Vetecka of Waubesa, Minn., was seen here Monday.

Joseph D. Bouska left Monday for Independence and other cities on a business trip.

MAPLE LEAF

Frank Kubicek called on A. Kakac Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Semerad and son Ludwig, made a business call at Cresco last Thursday and returned Friday.

Pat Enright and family have moved out on the Fred Strich place near Maple Leaf, which he has rented for this year.

Amil Kutz and Anna Groth were married at Maple Leaf Lutheran church by Rev. Matthias last Monday, and will live on a farm near Cresco.

Albert Frana is busy hauling wood these days.

Jim Zak helped Albert Frana with some work last week.

Jim Beran was a pleasant caller at Adolph Kakac's Sunday afternoon.

Frank Herplink has hired out to Will Jarosh for this summer's work.

Fred Semerad was a business caller in Elma one day last week.

Will Jarosh is on the sick list these days.

Dr. Mulick, of Elma, was a caller at J. Bronner's last Friday, attending Mrs. Bronner who is on the sick list.

Joseph Wach made a business call at Elma Saturday. He was accompanied by Anna Frana.

Frank Kubicek made a call at Maple Leaf Saturday.

Frank Zak and wife and Joe Shimik and daughter Louise, were business callers at Elma Saturday last.

John Zak was a caller in Elma last Saturday.

Pat Stevenson was helping Joe Bigley haul some hay last week.

Fred Buresh and son Wesley made a trip to Elma Thursday. They were accompanied home by John Zidlicky and wife who will visit for some time here.

Jim Beran drove to Riceville Wednesday.

Frank Kubicek made a call at the Horejsi home Friday afternoon.

Fred Marshall and A. Kakac drove to Kaderas last Thursday.

Joseph Wach made a business trip to Elma one day last week.

Tophy Herplink made a business call in Elma one day last week.

Miller Bros. are busy hauling corn to M. F. Bigley's this week.

Albert Frana had a lumber hauling bee Thursday for an addition to his house.

TWIN VILLAGES.

J. A. Ludwig has been busy the past week with his ice men and teams filling the ice house for the creamery, and the ice house for D. M. Hunt, the druggist.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. E. F. Sims on Thursday, and a large crowd was in attendance.

Mrs. Nellie Weatherford, of Cresco, is at the hospital at that place, but is doing nicely at this writing.

Mr. Gregg received a telegram on Tuesday evening to come to St. Paul at once as his brother was very sick with the measles, and he took the first train for St. Paul; on Wednesday noon, Mrs. Gregg received a message that he had passed away, and for her to come to Dexter at once as the remains would be brought there for burial, his folks living there.

Miss Ginthner, assistant teacher, took the pupils from the upper room down below into her room and taught all of them during the absence of Mr. Gregg.

Miss Kelley, the Florenceville teacher, went to Cresco on Saturday with A. W. Ludwig to take the train for Elma to visit with her mother, there being no school on Monday—Washington's birthday.

The Serfling wood sawing crew sawed wood at the school house on Saturday.

Mr. Burr, our miller, has been busy the past week grinding feed, as he has had more water than he has had for some time.

R. W. McCloud sold his bay mare to Theodore Michel.

Arthur Copeman and family visited at his father's home, Mr. Lee Copeman's, on Saturday.

J. T. Drummond and Ed Kneuth were Cresco callers on Thursday.

Measles are the go nowdays, as they are in the homes of George Grootboer and Robt. Hughes, but are doing nicely.

Mrs. Andrew Peterson is at the hospital for appendicitis and is doing nicely.

Hugo Bock took in a other little girl at his home on the 20th.

DAVIS CORNERS

John and G. Nast and wives were shopping in Cresco, Saturday.

Wm. Jarosh and wife, Amil Prohaska, and the Ranc, Gardner and Kubicek young folks spent Thursday evening with John Aberly and wife, and all report a jolly, good time.

Ed Jarosh was a Cresco shopper, one day last week.

Mrs. Potta spent a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Johnny Bronner, who has been on the sick list.

John Nast called in our village, Monday.

Mike Bronner was a shopper at Lime Springs, Monday.

Will Aberly was a caller at Cresco, Monday.

John Drtina entertained company, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edna Aberly and Agnes Kubicek called on Mrs. Louise Jarosh, Saturday afternoon.

Michael Ranc called on Anton Niebauer, one day last week.

Frank Kubicek called at Maple Leaf, Friday.

Mike Bronner called on Ed Jarosh, Friday night.

Frank and Agnes Kubicek and Lester and Elsie Gardner were pleasantly entertained at John Aberly's, Saturday night.

Chas. and Frank Ranc were seen driving through our village, Saturday.

People Ask Us: What is the best laxative? Years of experience in selling all kinds leads us to always recommend as the safest, surest and most satisfactory. Sold only by us, 10 cents. Edward T. Lomas.

Rexall Orderlies

RIDGEWAY.

P. L. Gordanier and wife went to Postville Friday where the former was to hold a sale on his farm there the following day.

Cyrus and Paul Orum left Monday morning for Web, Saks., after a three months' visit here with home folks.

Prof. C. Carothers and four pupils of the High School attended the spelling contest in Decorah Friday evening. They were Agnes Quayley, Lida Jacobson, Joseph Owens and Anton Anderson.

Edward Halstead and Mabel Hopperstad, of Northwood are visiting their cousins the John Fjelstuls.

Julia Hopperstad went to New Hampton Saturday to visit the Olson and Otterson families for a while.

Ida Josvanger spent Sunday at home.

Edna Meyer, of Calmar, visited her sister Florence Meyer between trains.

Mrs. A. Johnson and Anita spent Saturday in Cresco with her mother.

Mrs. H. H. Albertson, of Le Roy, Minn., came down Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. Sears, who has been visiting the A. Griswolds' went to Cresco this week to visit her daughter Mrs. H. Pollitt.

School commences Monday in District No. 6, after a two weeks' vacation on account of measles.

The R. Ernst and Bert Butz families expect to move to North Dakota in the near future.

Lloyd add Tyndall Fosse were Cresco visitors Monday.

M. Brekke, Ole and Esther visited the J. Linde's in Calmar over Sunday.

Bert Daniels and wife, of Decorah visited the M. O. Libbeys' this week.

Mrs. R. Ernst returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ferd Butz, in Worthington, Minn.

Carl Owen and wife visited the C. Owen and Helge Owen families Saturday.

SCHLEY.

T. J. Hooper, Fred Taft and A. White and wives attended the opening of the new opera house at Cresco Thursday night of last week.

Fred Amman assisted Fred Derr hauling corn last Saturday.

Frank Capouch delivered oats at Cresco Saturday.

M. A. Derr called at the John Barnes home Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Ondrasek called on her sister, Mrs. Wm. Hyke, Saturday afternoon.

Ed. and Gordon Stander and wives were Cresco shoppers Saturday.

Fred Derr and wife, and Mike Derr called at the John Ohmacht home Monday night.

Adam Frank, accompanied by her mother, were Cresco callers Saturday.

Mary Rethamel, who has been sick the past week with measles, is able to be around again.

T. J. Hooper drove to Cresco Monday to have some dentist work done.

John Ohmacht and wife, Fred Derr, Henry Novak and Henry Rethamel and daughter Ida were Cresco callers Saturday.

John Brophy, accompanied by John Guyette, of Lourdes, drove to Elma Tuesday afternoon.

L. D. Neffenger delivered corn to Cresco Saturday.

Geo. Eppens, wife and children are spending a few days at the Fred Rethamel home.

CHESTER.

Geo. Owens went to Cresco to take in the play, Thursday night.

Mrs. McMahan, of Cresco, came up to spend a few days at the home of her parents.

E. D. McWilliams returned from Postville, Thursday.

Mrs. C. L. Warren went to Chicago, yesterday, for a few days' visit.

C. G. Lake returned home yesterday.

Frank Winegar has been confined to his bed from a severe attack of grippe.

Ona Johnson, of Chatfield, Minn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Freeman.

John Bratrud, of Thief River Falls, is visiting at the T. C. Bratrud home.

Alex. Kessling, of Hennepin, Illinois, is moving on the Emery Hutchinson farm north of Chester.

E. A. Hoopman, of Cresco, was in Chester yesterday.

Louis Zahn, of Graston, Wis., was in Chester on business, yesterday.

C. H. Thomas is on the sick list with an attack of pneumonia.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, a daughter.

WEST VERNON.

Mrs. Frank Miller returned from West Union Tuesday, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Schmelzer.

Will Slifka left Monday for a trip to Minneapolis.

Fred Fish and wife spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Cresco.

Gertie Slebiska and Agnes Hosting, of Calmar, and Clara Yourish, of Garner, are spending a few days at the Bouska home.

Ed. Bouska entertained a few of his boy friends Sunday afternoon.

Frank Miller left for a trip to LeRoy Friday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. Leslie Sebastian called on her sister Helen Bouska Saturday.

Sorry to say that Tony Slifka is on the sick list.

Elsie Peter spent Sunday at home.

George Burnikel and Fred Peter took in the show at Cresco Friday evening.

Will Coughlin and wife spent Friday evening at the Bouska home.

For Sale

My famous imported Percheron stallion Estevan (51744), sired by the great Massena (43208, dam Manilla (48207) of France. Pedigree of stallion furnished. A bargain if taken soon. Call or write

Mak Svoboda, Phone W. N. O. No. 10. Cresco, Ia. 2623 Route 8.

ALBION.

Our mail carrier failed to make his trip Tuesday on account of the storm.

Henry Downs is moving to his Albion farm this week.

The Darrow school closed Friday of last week for a two weeks' vacation.

Gen. Eastler, of Decorah, spent Friday of last week at the J. W. Wells home.

Herb Brink and family visited Granger relatives from Saturday until Monday.

Glad to note that C. A. Holcomb is again on the gain.

Charlie De Graves is a patient at Mercy Hospital.

The Richards, Wells, and Haneman families attended church at Bonair Saturday evening.

Sorry to note that Mrs. Ethel Smith is seriously ill at the home of her aunt in Cresco at this writing.

Theodore Gunderson and family visited Ridgeway relatives from Thursday until Saturday.

Evangelists Woods and Brooks conducted church services at Albion Sunday before going to Harmony, where they will conduct a series of meetings.

The Farmers' Club will meet as usual this Friday evening, Feb. 26th. Everybody welcome.

Some of our people attended the Hansen sale near Cresco, Wednesday.

C. A. Wells went to Cedar Rapids, Wednesday.

Mrs. Peter DeGreve is spending a few days in Cresco.

Our young people planned a pleasant surprise at the Richards home, last Friday evening, in honor of Miss Esther's birthday. Needless to say, all report a very enjoyable evening, and presented her with a ring as a memento of the occasion.

KENDALLVILLE.

Alvin Hollenbach and bride of Fountain, Minn., were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity, last week.

Quite a number from here attended the opening of the new opera house in Cresco, Thursday evening.

The Literary Society was well attended, Saturday evening, and a good program given. Next meeting, March 6th; everyone cordially invited.

Mr. Reuter and wife, Mrs. Pete Ellingson and Mrs. Charles Smith visited at the John Ellingson home, Wednesday.

W. A. Daskam and family visited at the Brown home in Orleans, Sunday.

J. Johnson, the Rawleigh man, was in town, Thursday and Friday.

Charles Smith and family moved on a farm up near Canton, last week.

R. Barnes and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Dave Eastler and family, last Friday.

The young people enjoyed themselves roller skating for a while, after Literary Society, Saturday evening.

There were no church services, Sunday, on account of the bad weather.

BONAIR.

Mrs. Leon Phillips and daughter Elsie left Tuesday afternoon for Big Lake, Minn., their future home. Mr. Phillips will go with their car the last of the week.

Genl. Missionary, L. Grabau, was called to Des Moines the 24th, on special business relating to Sunday school work.

E. A. Paul and wife attended church here Saturday night.

Mrs. Glen Johnson was a Lime Spring caller Wednesday.

Robert Owens and wife returned to Rochester, Minn., this morning, in regard to Mr. Owens health.

Mrs. B. E. Thorne made a business trip to Lime Springs Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Johnson is visiting at the home of her son Glen, a few days this week.

Rev. Oison, of Chester, attended the revival service here Tuesday evening.

Rosina Thomas returned home Friday from Decorah for a vacation.

A number of the Albion people attended the revival service here Saturday evening.

A number of friends and neighbors gave Leon Phillips a farewell party Monday night. Everybody had a fine time and a bounteous lunch.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets Will Relieve Your Indigestion Edward T. Lomas.

"Safety First."

A special whistle will be used in distribution of all samples of medicines, foodstuffs, etc., requiring inservice. Positively no samples given to children. Public Service. JAMES E. GRAHAM.

For Sale.

Three registered Holstein bulls grade Holstein calves of either sex, a registered Chester White boar, 1 1/2 year old and some young Chester White boars. Phone Eureka 1. 16th Wm. Owens,

For Sale!

All kinds of Cement Blocks for sale on Jim Wagner's farm, 3 miles west and 1 mile south of Ridgeway. 27m3 WAGNER BROS., R. D. No. 4, Box 27 Cresco, Iowa.

A Bargain if Sold at Once!

A six-room house and two lots, well and barn, well located, will be sold for $2,500 if taken by March 1st. Address P. O. box 728.

Dr. B. A. Stockdale

The Successful Specialist of Des Moines, Iowa, who has visited Cresco during the past six years will be at his office at the

STROTHER HOUSE

Thursday, March 11th

He will be pleased to meet any one who is in need of advice and treatment.

DR. STOCKDALE wants every person who suffers from a chronic disease—it makes no difference how bad the case or how long they have suffered, to call and consult him. He will make a thorough examination, tell exactly what can be done, whether curable or not, how long it will require and all about it. He treats only chronic diseases. He has devoted twenty years of his life to the study and treatment of Chronic Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Kidneys; also Catarrh, Constipation, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases; Piles and all Rectal Diseases.

DR. STOCKDALE has a system of treatment which he believes is the best known for chronic diseases. He is able to cure many cases that have resisted other treatments. He does not undertake any case that he thinks is incurable, and will tell the patient candidly.

HE HAS A SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL WEAKNESS OF MEN WHICH HE WOULD LIKE TO EXPLAIN IN PERSON. CALL AND GET HIS OPINION AND ADVICE FREE OF CHARGE.

If for any reason you cannot visit him personally, write him for an examination blank. Address:

DR. B. A. STOCKDALE,