

COUNTY NEWS.

LIME SPRINGS.

Mrs. D. E. Horton went to Cresco, Friday, for a visit with friends and relatives, returning home Monday. Walter Smith, Will Hammond and Tucker Baldwin, of Chester, attended the dance, Friday night. Harry Houck and Vale Frost drove to Chester, Sunday. Lynn Horton, who has been at Mercy Hospital, recovered sufficiently from the effects of his operation to return home, Thursday. Arthur Nagle, who has been on his farm near Detroit, Minnesota, returned home Thursday. Chauncey Peck, of Cresco, attended the dance here, Friday night. D. E. Horton was a Cresco caller, Tuesday. Alma Switzer, of Mason City, was a guest at the Cora Woods home, from Thursday to Saturday. Wilma Barlow visited friends in Chester over Sunday. Beryl Burns and Violette Horton were Cresco visitors, Friday. Bert Nagle left Tuesday noon for Detroit, Minnesota, where he will visit his brother Howard in the farm work for the coming season. Albert Moore went to Mercy Hospital at Cresco, Thursday, for an operation for appendicitis. Vincent Horton and Loren Johnson were visitors in Cresco, Sunday. R. O. Hughes and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Peterson, came from Cresco, Wednesday noon. Mrs. G. A. Howland, Mrs. S. A. Miller, Emma Hovey and Harry Owens visited at the O. L. Gordon home, Sunday afternoon. A party of young people of Lime Springs and surrounding country were entertained at the Swan Isaacson home, Friday evening. W. R. Reitz, of Miles City, Montana, returned home Saturday, after an extended visit with friends and relatives here and in the surrounding towns. Robert Latham and wife spent Sunday in Chester at the home of Mrs. Latham's sister, Mrs. Hoopman. F. K. Elwood and wife were Cresco callers, Saturday. C. W. Maehling has been laid up for the past few days with a lame foot. Mrs. Williams spent Sunday at Charles' home at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Summers. Miss Bock accompanied Miss Sjoeborn home at Decorah over Sunday. Mrs. L. Umhoefer left Wednesday for Minneapolis for a brief visit with relatives. Percy and Harry Haven spent Sunday in Austin with their mother and Marion. Norman Haven returned home Saturday on a business trip to California. Mrs. Wyatt left for Mason City, Friday, after visiting a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Black. Professor Moring went to Cresco, today, as one of the judges of the Cresco-Osage debate. Dr. W. B. Coats, of Austin, was a business caller here for a few days last week. Mrs. C. D. Horton and daughter Joy, of Calmar, visited relatives here, Friday. L. G. Riske and wife came up from Cresco, Thursday, to visit with her father, Paul Thomas. Lois Elwood came from Des Moines, Thursday, for a short visit at home. Gladys Jesum, of Minneapolis, visited at the Arthur Hall home, a few days last week. Walter Ludwig and wife, accompanied by Ruth Mead, left Wednesday for McCallsburg, Iowa. Mrs. T. F. Van Leuven went to Osage, Friday, to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, George Van Leuven. Bert Johnson was a Cresco caller, Friday. Will E. Kerr was up from Cresco, Wednesday. A. Jensen, wife and little daughter Arlene left for their home at Sioux Falls, Thursday morning. Mrs. E. Duerdin went to Chester, Thursday, after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. R. M. Roberts. Herman Lidtke and wife were Cresco visitors, Friday. Mrs. K. Rogness returned to Ossian, Wednesday, after a visit at the home of her brother, Andrew Bergeson. Lester Moar went to Le Roy, Saturday. Mat. Whalen was a Cresco business caller, Wednesday. G. A. Howland left for Chicago, Sunday morning, on business, returning home Tuesday noon. W. L. Barnes, of Chester, was in town Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner returned from Cresco, Tuesday. John Ruesink is employed in the barber shop during Carl Maehling's absence. I. C. Sheets and little son Wesley were Cresco callers, Tuesday. Will Holder, of Lawler, came Monday to assist in the spring work on the Chapman farm. Leone Luak, of Chester, came Monday to work in Wells' cafe. Clarence Arsen, of Osage, returned home Monday, after a few days' visit at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hughes.

WEST VERNON.

Frank Miller returned from Louisiana Thursday. Chas. Fish spent Saturday night with friends in Cresco. Mrs. Leslie Sebastian spent Thursday with her mother Mrs. Bouska. Amanda Schmelzer arrived from West Union Thursday to visit at the Frank Miller home. Frank Bouska returned from a trip to Louisiana Thursday. Frank Miller called on Adolph Peter Friday. Leslie Sebastian and wife spent Sunday at the Len Sebastian home. Mrs. Eldredge called on Mark Doolittle Sunday. Mrs. Burnikel spent Sunday with friends in Cresco. Fred Fish and wife visited with friends in Cresco Sunday.

MAPLE LEAF.

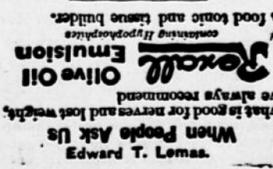

Dr. Mulick was seen in our village last Sunday. Frank and Agnes Kubichek entertained company Sunday afternoon. Emil Hintz called on Fred Groth Sunday afternoon. Geo. Herpinck is visiting his brother on the farm this week. James Beran and family made a visit at the Fred Buresh home, near Saratoga, Sunday. Frank Bigley and Frank Roman were Maple Leaf callers Sunday afternoon. Joe Kadera and family made a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houser last Sunday. Adolph Kakac made a call at Saratoga Sunday. Albert Biber moved to Elma last week, where he and his wife will make their future home. Will and George Bigley are busy hauling hay from Fred Bartel's. Will Groth, Jr., was a business caller at Elma last Saturday. Anton Roman made a business trip to Elma Friday. Albert Frana hauled lumber Friday. Adolph Kakac made a trip to Elma Friday. Pat Stevenson was seen in our village last Monday. Will Jarosh, Jim Zak and Mike Bronner were Alta Vista callers Friday. Joe Kadera was a caller in Elma last week. Fred Buresh made a business trip to Elma last Tuesday. Will Dinger drove over to Sam Dinger's, near Howard Center, last Friday to get his daughter Ruth, who has been visiting there for some time. Frank Roman helped Adolph Kakac butcher Saturday. Bert Wilkes, of Riceville, was seen in our village Saturday. John Wacha marketed some hogs at Lime Springs last Saturday. He was assisted by neighbors. Fred Buresh and John Zidlicky made a business call at Elma last week. Dick Laue was transacting business in Elma last week Friday. Ed Jarosh and Frank Kubichek drove to Alta Vista last Thursday. Jim Houska called on Adolph Kakac last week. Frank Wacha delivered a bunch of hogs at Lime Springs last Friday and received the top price. Dr. Jones called at Anton Roman's Monday to treat a sick horse. Will Bigley made a trip to Elma last Monday. Joe and Charles Ranc were Alta Vista callers last Monday. Joe took the passenger from there to Des Moines, where he will work in a bank. Agnes Kubichek visited with her sister, Mrs. A. Kakac, a few days this week. M. F. Bigley delivered some cattle to Wilkes, in Riceville, Monday. Harry and George Herpinck were seen in our village Sunday afternoon. Henry Callahan made a business trip to Elma last Monday. Frank Ranc started to work for Ernest Bartels, for the summer, last Monday. Muriel Ritze and Miss Stevenson called on Gladys and Lucille Bigley Monday.

SARATOGA.

John Johnson finished loading his car at Riceville last Thursday, leaving for Minnesota that evening. Will Baethke and Bert Miles were Riceville callers Thursday. Frieda Baethke, who was working for Mrs. John Stephens, came home Thursday. Ed and Ernest Schrieber made a trip to Riceville Thursday. Elsie Dettmer is working for Mrs. Ed. Graf these days. Mr. Johnson came out from Stanton, Minn., to assist his son John with moving. Mrs. Geo. Jaekney and daughter Phyllis called at the Kelsey home Thursday. Frieda, Minnie and Will Baethke were entertained at the Geo. Jaekney home Thursday evening. John Erbe was a business caller in Cresco Thursday. Wesley Moses, Jr., was a Riceville caller Friday. Mrs. Wesley Moses, Jr., was a pleasant caller at the Loren Kent home Friday afternoon. Henry Henning was busy getting his work shop in order and begun work March 1st. Wm. Ball called at the C. Baethke home last Wednesday. Aug. and Otto Prinz and Emil, Will and Henry Bohneman called at the Wm. Michaelson home Saturday evening. Fred Sale was a business caller at the C. Baethke home Monday. Fred Sale and wife left for Waterloo Tuesday on business. Henry and Lena Bohneman were callers at the Ernest Frederick home Sunday last. C. F. Baethke, wife and son Will, and Frieda and Minnie Baethke were guests at the Fred Groth home Sunday. Ernest Schahn loaded his car at Riceville Monday leaving that evening for Alexandria, Minn. Mrs. John Miles and Minnie Prinz were New Hampton callers between trains Monday.

Health Promotes Happiness.

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one to-night. 1stw

OTTER CREEK CLIPPINGS.

Mrs. Rollie Kratz spent a pleasant day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kratz, last week Wednesday. A number of elder and young people had a farewell surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Ernst, last week one evening. The latter are about to move to the great Northwest. The members of the W. M. S. of the Evangelical church met at the home of Mrs. L. N. Day, of Cresco, this week Wednesday afternoon. Albert Mzik and son Bennie took the noon passenger for Cresco, last week Wednesday, to get some dental work done. Mike Hruska and wife were entertaining company from abroad, last week one day. Will Kuntz, with the assistance of a number of his neighbors, marketed several loads of hogs, recently. Rev. L. N. Day held preaching services at the Evangelical church here last Sunday morning. There will be one more service before conference, probably. Frank Vrba and family, from near Protivin, made a very pleasant call at the J. J. Kreitzer home, last week Thursday. Deno Kraiz assisted his brother Rollie at hauling corn, hay, etc., to the farm he rented in Sumner Township. Ole Sanderson, secretary of the school board, drove around here last week among the various sub-districts posting up notices and distributing library books. Rev. and Mrs. L. N. Day spent a pleasant time, last Sunday afternoon, with C. Schild and family. Mrs. Frank Ira and son Roma, of Calmar, have been guests of the Albert Mzik family, since last week Saturday. Ross Kirschman, who has been absent from home since last Christmas, arrived home recently, well pleased with his sojourn among strangers. Leslie Bly and wife are going to work on the farm near Bluffton; vacated by Arthur Kratz. Amel Koch and Theo. Kratz and wives, Victoria and Amelia Kratz, also the Vopavas dined with Robert Vopava and wife of Sumner Township, last Sunday. Elsie Bergmann, from near Ridgeway, was visiting friends at Bluffton, a few days, recently. Mrs. Fred Falck and babe are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Robert Vopava, since last week Wednesday. They intend to visit also under the parental roof of the former a few days before returning to their home near Ridgeway. Beatie Haakenson visited her sister, Mrs. Fred Albertson, from last week Saturday till this week Monday. Wesley Kratz, Fred Koch, Ernest and Peter, assisted Rollie Kratz at hauling hay to the Joe Hopperstad farm in Sumner township that he rented for the coming season. Fred and Roy Koch, their sisters Nettie and Leona, also Deno Kratz and his sisters Malama and Victoria called on Rollie Kratz and wife, west of Otter Creek, last week Thursday evening spending a very pleasant time together.

ALBION.

Will Stockman was a Decorah visitor Friday and Saturday last week. Geo. Brink and wife, of Granger were pleasant callers at the Otto Stevens home Monday. The Farmer's Club meeting Friday evening was well attended and, if could be, an increased interest manifested. Adjourned to meet the last Friday in March. Josie Henke returned to Cresco Monday. C. C. Minty, of Bonair was an Albion visitor last week Saturday. A Mr. Myers and family, of Ossian came Saturday to take charge of his new home recently purchased of Lew Milbreth. Mrs. Peter De Graves entertained relatives of Ft. Atkinson part of the week. Albert Nichols moved the first of the week to the home of his parents. Orson Wells returned to his home last week, after several days' visit with relatives and friends of Cresco. Theodore Gunderson and family spent Monday with Ridgeway relatives. Lucille Peckham was an over Sunday visitor with Cresco relatives. Our new mail carrier is now quite well versed in his new field of labor. J. W. Wells is visiting relatives and friends in Indiana. The neighbors and friends of Lew Milbreth and family gave them a farewell surprise Thursday evening of last week, before their departure to their new home near Ridgeway. Elmer Bateman and family, of Cresco were Albion visitors part of last week. Hervy Wells came home from Cedar Rapids Tuesday. Glad to note that Charlie De Graves was able to be removed from Mercy hospital Monday. N. C. Peckham was a Harmony visitor a couple of days last week.

NORTHWEST CRESCO.

John McDermott Sr. and John McDermott Jr. and wife visited Sunday at the Will Aspel home. Clara Drilling, from Vernon, is assisting her aunt, Mrs. John Drilling with her household duties. Theo. Raker and family moved this week onto the John Owens farm, formerly occupied by Julius Schrader. Dave Ferrie and family spent Sunday at the Elias Ferrie home. Joe Kapler entertained company Friday evening. Joseph Lussan and wife have moved onto the Victor Croatt farm, recently vacated by Albert Nichols. Ernest Rutach called on his friend Harry Waring Monday evening. Will Aspel and wife and Marguerite spent Saturday evening at the Wm. Shea home. The young folks of John Drilling visited at Frank Drilling's Sunday. The school election Monday evening resulted in Geo. Neiberline being elected director for the coming year.

RIDGEWAY.

L. A. Heimark and wife returned from Minneapolis Monday evening, after an absence of ten days. Neighbors and friends of Cyrus Barfoot and wife gave them a surprise Sunday prior to their moving to Decorah. The adult bible class will meet Wednesday evening at the home of A. Orum. W. Dorn, wife and Roy came down from Cresco Sunday to attend the surprise at C. Barfoot's. W. J. Paley and wife went to Oelwein Wednesday to visit their son W. E. Paley and wife. On their return they will visit their daughter Mrs. G. H. Rollins at Fredericksburg. John Albers returned to Cresco Saturday, after visiting his brother Henry Albers. Albert Anderson and Ole Brenno were Cresco visitors Saturday. G. Bowers and wife went to Cresco to spend Sunday with home folks. Spencer Bakken and Lloyd Fosse attended the Million Dollar Doll Friday evening at Decorah. R. Ernst and wife were pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by a host of friends. The playing of games and partaking of refreshments occupied the visitors until the "wee smae" hours. A purse of $20 was presented the host and hostess who will soon be leaving our community. The best wishes of all go with them to their new home near Hope, N. D. Enos Barfoot and wife, of Cresco came down Sunday to attend the party at the home of her brother Cyrus Barfoot. Alec Hustedt is moving his household goods to Chester, where he has purchased a farm and will reside in a short time. A program and basket social will be given in the Kirschman school house Wednesday evening, March 10. Everybody is invited to come and bring baskets. A play will be given by other local talent, residents in the district not in the school. Alice Kettelson was a visitor with home folks in Cresco over Sunday. Clarence Aga and Olaf Guttormson were Decorah visitors Friday. Anita Johnson spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Wentworth in Cresco. L. J. Nali and wife, who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. John E. Hopperstad, returned to their home in Decorah Saturday. Will Rhinehart, of Alta Vista, visited the Butz and Beucher families on Saturday. Adela Fosse was a Cresco visitor on Thursday. Frank Butz went to Calmar Saturday to visit friends. Mrs. N. Brenno spent Sunday in town with Mrs. L. P. Anderson. Clarence Natvig, of Lawler, came over to spend a few days at the S. Gunderson's. Oscar Wemark was a Cresco visitor Saturday. Albert Opstedahl was at Cresco Saturday to visit Dr. Kessel.

DAVIS CORNERS.

Jim Krall, accompanied by Matilda Krall, was a Cresco shopper, Thursday. Ed Jarosh and Frank Kubichek were Elma callers, one day last week. John Aberly and wife were Cresco shoppers, last Thursday. Mrs. John Nast visited with her mother, Mrs. Aug. Aberly, one day last week. BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jarosh, a baby girl. Here's congratulations. Charles Ranc was a business caller at Lime Springs, Friday. John Nast was a caller at Lime Springs, Friday. John Aberly and wife and the Gardner and Kubichek families were royally entertained at the John Hawk home, Friday evening. Amil Prohasky was shopping at Cresco, Saturday. Frank Dvorak called at Cresco, Friday, and was accompanied home by his brother and sister, Charley and Helen. Mrs. Edna Aberly called on her friends, Agnes Kubichek and Louisa Jarosh, Friday morning. John Drtina was a Cresco shopper, Friday. Will Jarosh and wife entertained a number of their friends, Saturday evening. Billie Aberly was at Cresco, Saturday. Josephine Krall spent Sunday with Matilda Krall. Amil Prohasky went to John Musels Monday, where he will work the coming year.

CHESTER.

Harry Jones went to Rochester Saturday. Mrs. F. E. Lawson of Fayette was a Chester visitor last week. Mrs. Fred Nichols of N. D., was in Chester last week. Mr. Matson, of Madison, Wis., is looking after farm interest. Francis Barlow, of Lime Springs, came up to spend Sunday. Mrs. L. Warren returned from Chicago yesterday. John Bratrud is visiting at the T. C. Bratrude home. Frank Winegar was a Cresco caller Monday. S. G. McKee is moving his household goods to Chester. Martin Jordan is loading three cars preparatory to moving to his new home. Mrs. T. E. Lawson was an over Sunday visitor at the home of A. C. Barrett. Martin Oswald is moving on the Freemire farm. Rev. Chas. Marshall and his brother C. A. of Cresco, were in Chester between trains Tuesday. Ellery Barker and H. D. Spencer were Lime Springs callers Tuesday. Mrs. J. C. Olson is visiting friends at Bassett for a few days. John Scharnweber is loading a car of household goods, having purchased a house in Cresco. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cagle's baby is very sick with pneumonia.

SCHLEY.

Fred Decker, wife and daughter Irma were Cresco shoppers Monday. Bert Reinhart and wife are reported on the sick list, Mr. Reinhart having an attack of appendicitis and Mrs. Reinhart having the measles. We wish them a speedy recovery. Wm. Hyke and family have moved onto their new farm near Harmony. Joe Patchek, wife and baby called at the T. J. Hooper home last Friday. Mike Derr, wife and son Louis returned home Tuesday from a three weeks' visit with friends and relatives residing at different points in Minnesota. Geo. Eppens, wife and children returned to Cresco last week, after a month's visit with relatives in this vicinity. Albert Reinhart and wife called at the Henry Rethamel home Sunday. Quite a number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Jake Frank at Cresco Tuesday. Fred Derr, wife and daughter called at the Adam Frank home Thursday night of last week. Ida and Earl Rethamel are both sick with the measles. Among the Cresco callers from this vicinity Saturday were Guss Paul, Mike Derr, Jr., Fred Derr, Frank Hron and T. J. Hooper. J. J. McCarville, wife and two children, and John Ohmacht and wife called at the Mike Derr home Tuesday night. Mrs. Henry Rethamel returned home Saturday, after a few days' visit with relatives at Cresco. Tom Reynolds is moving onto his farm from Elma, and Mr. Larkins is moving onto the farm vacated by Wm. Hyke. Henry Rethamel assisted John Ohmacht delivering corn to Cresco Saturday. Louis Moravcz and two sisters attended church at Protivin Sunday. Fred Curtin and wife and baby left last week for a few weeks' visit with relatives at McGregor. M. A. Derr assisted John Bilek moving to Elma Monday. Dr. Graf, from Cresco made a professional call at the Fred Derr home one day last week. Relatives residing in this vicinity received the sad news last week of the death of Bernard Doherty at his home in Montana. Mr. Doherty was a former resident here leaving here about 14 years ago for the west. He had been in ill health for the past year, death resulting from cancer. The family have the sympathy of their many friends residing here.

PROTIVIN.

Frank W. Jirak and James W. Koblikska returned Saturday from Cedar Rapids, where they have been visiting friends. Elias Weigel and family, of Jerico, were visiting Mrs. Mary B. Lands Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Mary Snopek and Mary Moudry are at Chicago, Ill., where the former is selecting the latest styles in millinery. W. M. Kaliahek and wife visited the latter's mother in Spillville Sunday. Many from here went to Little Turkey Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Tuckek, Jr., better known as Addie Shores, who died Saturday at her home in Calmar. J. D. Bouska and wife, J. F. Pecinovsky and F. J. Fencil and wife were among the Cresco callers Friday. Thresa Pecinovsky visited last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Svestka. Frank Fisher and John Vokaty and wife were over from Lourdes last Monday. The Sisters of St. Francis and William Polashek were at Cresco Saturday. Glen Bowers and wife, of Ridgeway visited the latter's home here Sunday. Emma Polansky returned to her work in Calmar Monday. James Malek, of Schley was a caller here last Sunday. Thomas Jira, James and Frank H. Chyle were Cresco business visitors Monday. Mrs. Joseph Michale and little daughter are visiting here at the home of her mother Mrs. Mary Anders. Dr. Robt. Jameson was called to the Chas. Kalishek's home Monday night. Adolph Kovarik was reported to be sick. A. J. Mikesh returned from Spillville Saturday, after visiting his mother a few days. Paul Lands was a caller in Lawler Saturday. George Mikota, of Spillville called here Tuesday. John J. Mikesh is at Spillville visiting his mother who is sick. Mrs. John Herold, of near Ridgeway is visiting this week here, her mother Mrs. Kate Zahasky.

WEST NEW OREGON.

Art Machek and family were callers at the John Kubik home Sunday. Harriett Martin and Leona Huber were Cresco shoppers Saturday. Andrew Horn and Joe Moravec made a business trip to Cresco last week. Leona Huber returned home from Calmar after a visit with her brother. Mrs. Valvoda went to Jackson Junction last week to visit her brother Frank. Mrs. Art Machek visited at the Wm. Hoesek home last Wednesday. Julius Huber was a business caller at Calmar Saturday. Andrew Horn and wife called at the Albert Hovorka home Tuesday. Wilma Huber stayed over Thursday night with Mrs. Joe Malek. Louis Malek started to work for Wm Hoesek Monday. Clarence Huber is assisting Art Machek with his work this week. Will Valvoda and Will Stika called at the Mike Schlinger home Monday night.

GOLDEN RIDGE.

Chas. Bigalk, wife and son spent Sunday at Chas. Mandelko's home. Albert Bronner and family visited at Johnnie Bronner's Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Keane has been on the sick list. Dan Bronner and Herman Weinkauf and families spent Sunday at Herman Lange's home at Twin Village. Leslie Bly and wife spent Sunday at Herman Anderson's home near Lime Springs. Mike Walter and wife will move their household goods to Cresco Wednesday where they will reside. Albert Weinkauf, Geo. Michel, Mike Bronner and Chas. Nast and families, Randolph, Willie, Henry and Geo. Bronner, Alex Geotsch, Herb and Wesley Keane and Della Kreuger, Martha Miller and Clara Stevenson attended the birthday party on Rose Bronner Saturday evening. Martha Miller and Della Kreuger visited Mrs. Wm. Keane Sunday. Mollie and Manda Miller visited Mrs. Albert Bronner Thursday afternoon. Messrs. Louis Walter, Herbert Evans, Chas. Bigalk, J. P. Keane, Wm. Keane, Wm. Geotsch all attended the ladies aid at Wm. Bigalk's last Thursday. Geo. Michel, Albert Bronner and Mike Bronner and families, Martha Miller, Della Kreuger, Rosie Bronner, Randolph, Willie, Henry and George Bronner, Alex and Willie Geotsch, Herbert Keane, Leo Biel, Herman Bronner, Geo. Swenson and J. Newton spent Sunday evening at C. W. Nast's home. Henry Bigalk, wife and babe visited at Wm. Geotsch's last Wednesday. Carl Mohs and Willie Geotsch attended the show at Lime Springs Tuesday evening. Clarence Foltz and wife have moved in one of D. S. Miller's vacant houses. Frank Miller and family, and Leonard and Ernest Walter spent Sunday at Louis Walter's.

GRANGER.

Elmer Sims was at Cresco on Tuesday to see his sister, Mrs. Weatherford, at the hospital, returning on Wednesday. Mr. Gregg returned from Dexter, Minn., on Monday, but Mrs. Gregg remained for a short time. E. F. Sims was a Cresco caller on business on Thursday and to see his cousin Mrs. Weatherford at the hospital. Daniel Bronner and wife spent Thursday with their daughter Mrs. Herman Lange. William Leitz sold a colt to Dan Bronner for $165. Fred Eickmier says he has got to have meat so he purchased a hog of Albert Miller. Rumor has it that Mrs. Andrew Ludwig will move in with Mrs. Nettie Siawson, occupying part of the house. A large crowd of our young people spent Saturday evening at the home of Jacob Bronner, it being Rosa's birthday. Benjamin Serfling and wife will be Granger residents again soon, occupying part of their old home with Dr. Tierney for a while. Otto Serfling and his mother, Mrs. Bronner, were Cresco callers on Friday. John Martin and wife were business callers at Cresco on Friday. George Ludwig and Chas. Derr were Cresco callers, one day the past week. C. W. Newmiller was a Cresco caller on business, Saturday. John Darrach and family and E. F. Sims and family were entertained at the Newmiller home on Sunday, being the 50th birthday of Mrs. Newmiller.

BONAIR.

John Fitzgerald and wife were callers at the Tom Bird home Thursday. Dan Drew and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Minear were callers at the Bird home Sunday. J. H. Nichols and wife spent Monday visiting in LeRoy, Minn. L. E. Grabau left Monday for Waukon. Robt Owens passed away at the hospital at Rochester, Minn., Sunday afternoon. The remains were brought here Monday night and the funeral was held at the church Wednesday forenoon. Sympathy was expressed by the people in their beautiful floral tributes. Burial was at the Lime Springs cemetery. L. M. Phillips left with his car, Monday night, for Big Lake, and Mr. Hillsbeck left for Marshalltown, his future home. Mrs. P. W. Setchell and daughters, Mrs. Ernest Redman and Mrs. Paul Auringer, left Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Setchell's brother, Lincoln McNight.

NOTICE IN PROBATE.

To Whom It May Concern:— You and each of you are hereby notified to appear at the Court House in Cresco, Howard County, Iowa, on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1915, at 12:30 o'clock p. m., to attend the probate of an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John M. Hoesek, late of Howard County, Iowa, deceased, at which time and place you will appear and show cause, if any, why said will should not be admitted to probate. In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the Seal of the District Court of Howard County, Iowa, this 4th day of March, 1915. (SEAL) J. W. PLATT, Clerk of District Court.

For Sale

My famous imported Percheron stallion Estevan (51744), sired by the great Massena (48208), dam Manilla (48207) of France. Pedigree of stallion furnished. A bargain if taken soon. Call or write Mak Srobona, Phone W. N. O. No. 10, Cresco, Ia. 2613 Route 8.

Note the Prices

on fresh fish at Bowers & Son's market: Fresh Herring, 4 lbs. .... 25c. Walleyed Pike, per lb. .... 12c. Fresh Salmon, per lb. .... 15c. Catfish, per lb. to fry .... 15c. Smoked fish from 7 to 17 cents, and guaranteed. 27

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA