

COUNTY NEWS.

LIME SPRINGS.

Mrs. T. J. Horton and son Lynn returned to their home at Des Moines, N. D., Monday. Lynn expects to be back to work in about a month. Sanford Taraldson and Wilbur Wells went to the city Monday on business. Harry O'Connell and Dr. Freeman called at Chester between trains Monday. Lois Elwood, who has been visiting at home for a few days, returned to her work at Des Moines Thursday. C. W. Maehling was an Austin visitor Wednesday. Ed Smith and wife, who have been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Hill, went to Cresco Monday for a short visit there with relatives and friends. Martin Johnson, of Cresco, was up Monday to attend to the remodeling of the building into which the Hub Clothing Co. is soon going in business. Milo Sator and Vale Frost attended the talking movies at Cresco Saturday night. Lester Moore, who is working in Spencer's garage, at Le Roy, spent Sunday at home. Cyril Carpenter, of Hinckley, Ill., came Wednesday for an extended visit with friends here. Clara Knutsen, who is attending State Normal at Mankato, Minn., is home for a few days. A. C. McCulloch, of Minneapolis, was in town on business one day last week. Mrs. Gilbert Moar, who has been with her husband at the hospital, returned home Saturday. Robert Jones and wife, of Granada, Minn., came Saturday for a few days' visit at home. John Arneson went to Preston Tuesday on business. Hayes Davis was in charge of the day. Hugh Williams, wife and children, of Minneapolis, came Friday for a visit with relatives here. Evelyn Carlson, of Pomeroy, Iowa, who has been visiting her brother here returned home Wednesday. Mrs. L. P. Sanborn, of Cresco visited at the L. P. Sanborn home for a few days this week. Jack Bratrud, of Chester, was a visitor in our village Monday. Libbie Jones, who is attending High school at New Hampton, spent Sunday with friends and relatives here. Glen Jones, who is attending Cedar Rapids Business College, came last Thursday for a short visit at home. Last Saturday evening, Miss Beryl Burns entertained at her home with E. Kerr, Charles Anderson, Violette Horton and Esther Smith in honor of Lynn Horton, who returned Monday to his home at Des Moines, N. D. Cyril Carpenter, who has been visiting friends here went to Cresco Tuesday. O. L. Gordon and wife went to Chester Tuesday on business. Rev. Skinner left Monday for Luana, Ia., for a short visit there before returning to his home at Delhi, Ia. Ben Davis and children visited at the Dave Davis home at Taopi Friday between trains. Frank Winegar and wife, of Chester, visited at the Barlow home a few days last week. Horatio Gue was a Chester caller Wednesday. John Cray went to Le Roy Saturday on business. Mrs. H. H. Morris went to Chester Thursday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. H. Babcock. Mrs. Anna Howe, of Le Roy, came Wednesday for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Moar. Mrs. J. C. Talmadge and children, of West Union arrived here Sunday. Jacob Klinger and wife, of Greene, Ia., who have been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emerson Broadwater, returned home Wednesday. Geo. Plummer and wife, of Spring Valley, Minn., came Tuesday for a short visit with their son Dr. Plummer, and family. From here they went to Cresco thence to California to attend the Panama Exposition. Mrs. Anthony Marshall, of Cresco came Wednesday for a visit with her parents, A. E. Marsh and wife. Mrs. W. W. Gray, of Chester, was a visitor here Wednesday. George Hughes and wife left Thursday for Blooming Prairie, after spending a few days there they will return to their home at Park Rapids, Minn. J. H. Jones, of Cresco, was visiting friends and relatives here for a few days last week. Mrs. John Schavel and little son returned from the Cresco hospital Thursday. Mrs. Lou Umhoefer returned Saturday from Minneapolis. Mrs. M. March, of Le Roy, was canvassing here Wednesday. Mrs. Peter Johnson and daughter Mabel were Cresco callers Thursday. Oscar Minkie and wife went to Cresco Saturday. G. A. Howland, who has been visiting relatives in Chicago, Union and Maywood, Ill., returned home Sunday. Mrs. Kellogg, of McIntire, came Saturday for a visit with friends here. Mrs. L. Dornbush and Mrs. John Demonts, who have been visiting friends in Lime Springs and surrounding country, returned Monday to their home at Politt, S. D.

ALBION.

School commenced again in the Darrow Dist. Monday, after a two week's vacation. Will Henry and family attended town election, and the ladies' aid dinner at Granger Tuesday. The bible study class meeting to take place at the church Saturday evening, was postponed on account of bad roads. The many friends of Mrs. Ethel Smith will be glad to know she is thought to be improving since her operation at Mercy hospital. Wm. Peckham, of Cresco attended Sabbath School at Albion Sunday. The Albion farmer's telephone meeting will be held at the Albion school house, Tuesday, March 11.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPINGS.

The next meeting of the members of the W. M. S. of the Evangelical church will be at the home of Mrs. C. Schild, first Wednesday in March. Pupils and teacher of sub-district No. 4, are enjoying a few weeks of vacation these days. Harry Weidaman and family were visiting friends in Sumner township Sunday last. Rev. F. A. Damerow, of Decorah held preaching services at the German M. E. church last Sunday morning, and Howard Center in the afternoon. Leona and Lizzie Koch visited their friend, Esie Vopava, in Sumner township last Sunday afternoon, passing a very agreeable time together. The members of the F. W. M. S. of the German M. E. church met with Mrs. John Reinhart last week Thursday afternoon. Rollie Kratz and wife moved from the Qualley farm, which they occupied since early winter, to the Joe Hopper stand farm they rented in Sumner township. Mrs. Jennie Goth made a pleasant afternoon call upon one of her neighbors last week Tuesday. Roy Sanderson and sister Ethel made a pleasant call at the Amler Koch home last Sunday afternoon. Clarence Falck, from Ft. Atkinson, came up here recently, to spend a few days greeting friends, relatives and acquaintances. Harry Weidaman and family made a pleasant business call at Cresco last week Wednesday, also visiting the former's mother and sister in that burg. Louise Mzik, who has been absent from home for some time, spent a short time under the parental roof last week, then went to visit her sister, Mrs. Martin Tupy near Lawler. Malanna Kratz spent a few days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rollie Kratz, of Sumner township, last week, assisting her in getting settled in her new home. Fred Koch and sisters Nettie and Leona made a pleasant call at Cresco last week Thursday getting some dental work done, etc. Eddie Mzik and brother Bennie drove out near Lawler one day last week to visit their sister, Mrs. Martin Tupy, and made the acquaintance of a newly arrived nephew at that place. Mike Kratz, with the assistance of a number of his neighbors, marketed several loads of hogs the fore part of the week. Fritz Ramseyer, of Ridgeway made a number of business calls west of the river the other day. Rev. L. N. Day and wife, of Cresco were guests of some of the members of their flock through here this week the fore part.

CHESTER.

Alex. Hotvedt, of Ridgeway, is moving on his farm north of town. R. R. Young left for his new home at Parkers Prairie, Minn., Saturday. E. D. McWilliams went to Postville to spend Sunday. Frank Winegar and wife were Lime Springs visitors, Saturday. Mrs. Frank Freeman and sister, Ona Johnson, start for California, Monday, to take in the exposition. O. J. Oleson, of Le Roy, was in Chester, Monday. Frank Ruzicka was in our burg, Monday. James Lusk went to Cresco, Monday, being drawn on the jury. Mr. Obert, of North Dakota, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. A. Eaton. Mrs. Ed Capper has been on the sick list for the last two weeks with grippe. Margaret Owens, of Mankato, spent Sunday with her parents. Frank Winegar and F. A. Eckstein went to Cresco, Tuesday. D. M. Bennett, of Saratoga, was in Chester, Tuesday. Mr. Dennison, of Fayette, was in town looking after his interests here. F. E. Lawson has moved his clothing stock to Rose Creek, Minn. A. J. Finstad went to Chicago with a car of cattle, Sunday. Mr. Slatery, of Dubuque, is doing quite a business in the interest of the M. W. A. Lodge. Clifford Winslow had the misfortune to fall from a load of hay and break his arm. George Leslie has purchased the James Metz home. E. F. Clark, from Pocahontas County, has moved on the farm occupied by O. House.

BONAIR.

Erna Lybbert is quite sick at this writing. Albert Albertson made a business trip to Cresco Monday, returning Tuesday. B. E. Thorne was elected director at the election Monday afternoon, which is very satisfactory to all. Clara Bird visited Saturday with a friend, Effie Sanborn, at Cresco. Albert Smith and Leon Smith and wives visited at the Mrs. Owens home Saturday. Mrs. Wm. Michel is on the sick list this week. It is rumored that our village is infected with small pox, but that is a mistake, as there are no cases in town, but one a mile west of here. L. E. Grabau, S. S. Missionary, has been working in Chester this week. J. W. Evans and wife spent Tuesday afternoon at the Geo. Buchanan home. Mrs. Joe Jones visited Wednesday at the Marcy home. Dr. Laraway was a business caller in our town Wednesday. Glen Johnson and wife spent Tuesday evening at the Buxton home.

If You Are Losing Weight and your nerves are in bad condition, we recommend Roxall Olive Oil Emulsion containing Hypophosphites a food and nerve tonic prescription. Edward T. Lomas.

WEST NEW OREGON.

The George Hill family spent Sunday at the John Mintz home. Mr. Catton and family attended the silver wedding anniversary at the Henry Smith home Sunday. Dan Kapler and wife called at the Chas. Grimm home Monday. School began last week in district No. 7, with Kate Fitzgerald as teacher. Minnie Grimm called on Mrs. A. Yeager Sunday. Richard Kapler visited at the Jake Baker home Monday. Bertha Sutton called on her friend Lucy Herzog Monday afternoon. The mumps are invading this part of the vicinity at present. Mrs. Frank Baker called on her sister, Mrs. Joe Baker Sunday. Andrew Hauber and family spent Monday evening at the Fred Harnoss home. A. Yeager and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wise and Jacob Baker and family spent Sunday evening with Frank Baker's. Miles Henry and wife called at the A. L. Catton home Sunday evening. Emmett Carrol and wife spent Sunday in Cresco. Peter Rink, of Gladbrook, Ia., called at the Jacob Rink home Sunday. John Blackburns entertained company Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Baker called at the home of Jacob Baker Tuesday. John Volkeper's visited at the Geo. Mackenbush home Monday. Chas. Hokek and Louis Malek delivered hogs at Cresco Tuesday. Julius and Clarence Huber were Cresco shoppers Tuesday. John Kubik and family called at the Art Mrachek home last week. Joe Malek Jr., made a business trip to Spillville Tuesday. Frank Mrachek is staying at his uncle Art's for a few days. Albert Horvorka and wife visited at Henry Novak's. Frank Valvoda and wife were in Cresco Tuesday. Grandpa Lundak is on the sick list. Leona Huber has been confined to her bed for a few days with LaGrippe.

SCHLEY.

James Hruska, the cattle buyer from Elma, was a caller in our vicinity Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Fred Derr returned home Tuesday after a short visit with her parents at Ft. Atkinson. Eather Rhinehart and cousin, Ed Kunes, called at the Fred Rethamel home, Tuesday night. Clarence Falck, from Ft. Atkinson, spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Fred Derr, last week. Gus Paul had the misfortune to get his thumb hurt while starting an engine, last week, making it necessary to amputate the thumb last Monday. J. W. Chitek was a Cresco caller, Tuesday. The home of Mike Derr is under quarantine, their son Louis having a mild case of small pox. Gordon Stander and wife were Cresco shoppers, Tuesday. T. J. Hooper transacted business at Cresco, Monday. Frank Woods and Mr. Stom, from Cresco, called at the John Ohmacht home, Tuesday. Stanley and Harold Hooper are having a tussel with measles, nowadays. Wm. Rinn transacted business at Cresco, Tuesday. Frank Hron called on his father, Sunday. Mr. Hron is reported on the sick list. Henry Rethamel is busy delivering grain at Cresco these days. John Ohmacht and Fred Rethamel were Cresco callers, Wednesday. Robert Wade and wife spent Sunday at the Fred Decker home. Wm. Hoppe and Willie Decker were Cresco callers Tuesday.

GOLDEN RIDGE.

Mons Michel spent from Wednesday till Saturday last week at C. Naat's. Wm. Walter and wife, of Black Water, S. D., came from Cresco and spent Saturday evening at Louis Walter's. Herman Miller and Louis Walter and families, Wm. Walter Jr. and wife, Mrs. Wm. Keune and sons, and Della Krueger spent Sunday at J. P. Keune's. Carl Martin and Miss Genthe spent Sunday evening at C. Naat's home. A large crowd of young people spent Monday evening at Mrs. Wm. Keune's, and reminded Herbert of his 22nd birthday. A good time is reported. Mrs. Carl Naat Sr., of Cresco, spent a few days last week at C. Naat's. Dan Bronner and family spent Sunday at Herman Weinkauf's. Tom Dvorak and Manda and Mollie Miller spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Cresco. Dan Krueger and family, Deno Kratz and Miss Kratz and Albert Bronner and family spent Sunday evening at Wm. Keune's. Mrs. A. H. Keune spent Monday at Mrs. Wm. Keune's.

NORTHWEST CRESCO.

John Barthelme's father, from Osasian, spent a few days last week with him. Susie and Tillie Lussou called on Josephine Kreke Sunday. Herman Wentholt called on John Drilling Sunday evening. Harry Waring left Tuesday for St. Lucas for a few days' visit. Ted Lussou and family spent Sunday evening at the John Lussou home. Dan Kapler and family visited Sunday at the Henry Leferink home. Mrs. John Drilling returned Thursday from a visit with relatives at Ft. Atkinson. John Barthelme made a business call on Theo. Raker Monday morning. Victor Croatt called on Joe Lussou Monday. Jos. Lussou and wife spent Tuesday at her sister's in Vernon. Will Aspel and family visited with relatives in Cresco Sunday.

MAPLE LEAF.

Joe Kadera made a business call at Elma this week Tuesday. John O'Brien, Charlie Wentworth and Fred Miller were business callers at Alta Vista Tuesday. Fred Marshall, assisted by A. Kakac, delivered two loads of hogs at Alta Vista Tuesday and received the top price for them. John Krall made a call at Alta Vista one day this week. Tophy Herplink made a visit at Cresco last week. Agnes Kubichek returned home last Friday, after a few days' visit at the A. Kakac home. James Zak took the train for Omaha Neb., last Thursday to remain for some time. A. Kakac was a Saratoga shopper last Saturday. Pat Stevenson is helping Mike Bigley haul hay these days. Lydia Jinderlee spent Sunday at the Frank Wachas home. Mrs. A. Kakac and Agnes Kubichek, visited at the Anton Roman home last week Thursday. John Kubichek Sr., is busy sawing wood in the neighborhood. Frank Kakac, who has been working for Thomas Kakac, returned to his brother's place, A. Kakac's Sunday. Fred Buresh and wife made a business trip to Elma Monday. Leroy Ritze made a call at Elma Monday. Frank Kakac is chopping wood for Chas. Murphy this week. Our assessor, Andy Mead, called in our vicinity last week. Dave Hutton called on Fred Marshall Saturday. Frank and Maud Bigley and Myrtle Neebe, attended the show at Elma Sunday evening. Charlie Murphy and family visited with relatives last Sunday afternoon. Jim Beran was seen in our village Sunday. Myrtle Neebe is visiting with Maude Bigley. Albert Frana and Geo. Herplink were Elma shoppers last week. Anton and Frank Roman were visitors at the Herplink home Thursday evening, and all enjoyed a good time. Mike Bigley was a business caller in Elma last Tuesday. Jim Beran called on Anton Roman Sunday. Tophy Herplink made a trip to Elma this week. Geo. Fishback and Frank Jinderlee made a business call at Elma Tuesday. Frank Bigley called on Frank Roman Tuesday evening. Fred Semerad marketed three loads of hogs at Lime Springs last Tuesday.

KENDALLVILLE.

Elmo Stephenson and wife were Cresco visitors Wednesday. J. H. Warburton, of Riceville visited friends and relatives a few days this week. Miss Ethel Fifield, who has been a patient at Mercy hospital in Cresco returned to her home Monday. Mrs. Alson Daskam has been quite sick the past week. Allyn Daskam and wife returned to their home in Cresco the last of the week. The Ellingson families, of Kendallville spent last Thursday at the Stinson home near Plymouth Rock, to help Grandma Ellingson celebrate her birthday. Willie Allyn, of Garnaville, visited friends and relatives in this vicinity a couple of days last week. Quite a few from here attended a party at the John Clink home last Friday night and report a fine time. A. Melas, of Bluffton township was a business visitor here Wednesday. J. Johnson, the Raleigh man visited our burg Wednesday. School closed Friday for a three weeks' vacation. Sanders & Reuter sawed wood for A. Clink Monday. Amil Rasmussen was over from Locust Wednesday, after the rest of his goods. C. C. Brown and wife visited at the Alson Daskam Wednesday. Sam Moore was up from Decorah for an over Sunday visit with home folks. Mrs. Len McIntire, Charley Curtis and Rob Moore are on the sick list this week. Mrs. Clinton Fifield and children went to Fayette Tuesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison.

ELMA.

Fannie and Luella Deveraux entertained the Young Ladies' Sodality, Friday evening. The Misses Sarah Foley and Williams, of Minneapolis, are visiting at the C. F. Foley home. MARRIED—Dorothy Miller, of Elms, and Dr. Raymond Krueger, of Riceville, were married Wednesday afternoon. They will make their future home in Riceville. The Misses Meyers will have their millinery opening, Friday and Saturday of this week. Mrs. L. W. English entertained the Lace Club, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Lappin, of Riceville, attended the meeting. Ira Pardee and wife, of Oelwein, have moved to Elma and settled in the A. D. Conway cottage. He is working with his brother, H. A. Pardee. Some—To Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Garrett, Wednesday, March 3rd, a baby girl. John Condon's have moved into their new house on the west end of Main St. Miss Fink, of Northfield, Minn., was a guest at the Fallgatter home, Sunday. Elizabeth Cashman went to Dubuque, Saturday, being called there on account of the illness of her brother's baby. Mrs. D. Fallgatter has moved into her home in town. Norma McCusker returned from Chicago, Saturday, where she was buying her spring stock of millinery goods. FOR SALE—Some houses in Cresco Address Mrs. NELLIE WATSON, Cogswell, N. D.

DAVIS CORNERS.

John Drtina spent Sunday afternoon at the Ranc home. Agnes Zobeck returned to her home the latter part of the week, after a couple of days stay with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Drtina. Steve Vrtal was a welcome guest at the Joseph Drtina home Tuesday evening. Frank Ranc spent Sunday under the parental roof. Lester Gardner and sister Elsie and Mrs. John Wachas and daughter Loretta spent Sunday afternoon with Wm. Jarosh and wife. M. Ranc, accompanied by his daughters, was a Cresco shopper the fore part of the week. Ed. Jarosh drove to town on Tuesday. Steve Vrtal was seen calling on friends Sunday. M. Ranc called on Joe Drtina Friday. Wencil Shimak drove to Cresco on Tuesday. Barbara Kubichek is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. John Drtina. Willie Aberly called on his brother John the first of the week. Jim Vit drove through our locality on Tuesday. John Aberly and wife called on Wm. Jarosh and wife Saturday. The Ranc young folks, Anton Roman and John Aberly and wife were entertained at the Gardner home Sunday evening. Lloyd Gardner and John Buckmeyer came up from Buffalo, Ia., Tuesday for an extended visit at the former's parents here. M. Ranc was a Lime Springs shipper on Monday. Frank and Maud Bigley called on the Roman young folks Saturday evening. Joseph Shimek is reported on the sick list. Lillian Prochaska is assisting Mrs. Johnny Bronner with household duties. Chas. Ranc and sister Mamie made a flying trip to Cresco Wednesday. Will Klein was taking in the sights of Cresco last week. Steve Vrtal called on Chas. Ranc Sunday. Harry Herpelinck drove through our vicinity on Monday. Wm. Jarosh and wife entertained a company of their friends Wednesday evening. Geo. Niewald, Jr., drove to town the fore part of the week. John Jarosh and wife called at Ed. Jarosh's Wednesday.

TWIN VILLAGES.

Another snow storm the past week and we missed the daily one day—as the mail man did not get here. A. G. Serfing, of Preston, spent three days in the Villages, the past week, on business. The auction sale at Louis Biel's was well attended and everything sold well. O. R. Perkins and John Martin were Harmony callers, the past week. Mrs. Gregg returned from Dexter, Minn., on Saturday, after spending nearly three weeks with Mr. Gregg's people. Bert Bering and wife were Cresco callers on Thursday. Chas. Hebig and family have moved to a farm south of Cresco. Services conducted Sunday by Rev. Mettens, from Mable, Minn. Rev. Smith changing pulpits with him. Otto Serfing and wife entertained for Sunday dinner: C. W. Newmiller and family and Richard Serfing, Clarence Serfing, and Mrs. Bronner, their mother. Erwin Ludwig and wife entertained George Ludwig and family and Albert Ludwig and family for Sunday dinner.

WEST VERNON.

Leslie Sebastian and wife entertained company from Monona, Sunday afternoon. Sorry to say that Will Woods is on the sick list. Ed Hosting, of Calmar, is visiting his cousin, Ed Bouska, this week. Jim Miller and Chas. Fish spent Saturday evening in Cresco. Mrs. Amanda Schmelzer returned from West Union, Monday. They will make their future home in Cresco. George Burnikel entertained company, Sunday evening. Mrs. Julius Doolittle entertained company a few days this week. Adolph Peter and Joe Burnikel called on Frank Bouska, Sunday evening. Mrs. Will Reinhart called on Mrs. Leslie Sebastian, Thursday afternoon.

RIDGEWAY.

Mrs. Ole Sanderson and Ethel were Cresco visitors on Monday. Eli Werham, of Decorah, visited his mother Mrs. P. L. Gordanier on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Peacock went to Decorah today to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bert Daniels. Mrs. P. L. Gordanier went to Decorah today to visit relatives and friends. Mrs. J. D. Parker and Eleanor, of Fayette are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Klemme. Ida Brenno went to Decorah Saturday to visit her friend, Mrs. Johnson, a couple of weeks. Mabel Gunderson went to Nora Springs Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Louise Steen. Laura Barth went to Decorah Thursday to spend a week's vacation with home folks. Jas. Hopperstad and wife are visiting relatives near Spillville. Mrs. A. Johnson returned Saturday from a several days' trip. Ida Joavger was called home Friday by the death of her grandmother. A shower was given Ethel Sanderson Friday evening by her many friends. Mrs. S. L. Fosse and daughters went to Charles City Tuesday, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Maxfield. Miss Fosse returned to Calmar Tuesday, after a short visit with Edith Butz. The Donovan family, moving from Oelwein onto the Cyrus Barfoot farm, arrived the latter part of the week. The Adult Bible Class will meet at the R. G. Baker home Wednesday evening, March 10. A number of ladies of the United Lutheran church went to Le Roy, Minn., Thursday to spend the day with the pastor and family, Rev. Svenningson. Mrs. Bert Butz left this morning for Hope, N. D., her new home. Mr. Butz and R. Ernst left Friday for the place. Alfred Gullickson left this morning for Gull Lake, Sask., after a visit with home folks this winter. Lew Milderth and family from north Cresco, moved on the C. Anderson place this week.

PROTIVIN.

Chas. Tuckek, wife and babe spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blazek. John Holecek left Sunday evening for Chicago. W. W. Chyle is home from Cedar Rapids, where he completed the commercial course in the Cedar Rapids Business College. Dr. Daly of Cresco was a professional caller here Thursday. At the meeting of the Protivin Creamery Co., Tuesday, J. A. Dostal was elected buttermaker and Secretary. Mrs. W. J. Kalishak and Anna Polansky are reported sick. Joseph Kostka was a Jackson Jct., called Saturday. Joseph F. Pagnovsky spent several days in Cresco this week. Mrs. John Malek and daughter returned to their home in Schley Tuesday, after spending a few days with Mrs. W. J. Kalishak. Mrs. Edward Lukes left Saturday for Belle Plaine to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tukalek. J. F. Soukup was over from Ridgeway Tuesday. Frank Lentz was a Schley caller Tuesday. Rudolph Lukes returned Tuesday from his trip to Mason City and other cities. Joseph Kostka and Nelly Mikeh were at Cresco Monday, where the latter was having dental work done.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Many Children are Sickly. Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children Break up Colic in 24 hours, relieve Feverishness, Headache, Stomach Troubles, Teething Disorders, and Destroy Worms. At all druggists, 25c. Sample mailed free Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. 25c. If you want a term loan at a low rate of interest, see American Loan & Trust Company, Cresco Ia.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN Take Notice. NOW is the time to bring in that Spring Suit or Dress and get it cleaned for Summer is almost here. We Do First Class Work To be convinced, all we ask of you is a trial. We are located First door west of Plain Dealer office. KLEANALL SUITATORIUM J. W. NEWTON, Prop. Phone, 441