

COUNTY NEWS.

SCHLEY.

Ed Derr left Friday to spend Easter with friends near Caledonia, Minn. Fred Rethamel make a business trip to Cresco, Friday. Louise Hein is assisting Mrs. Fosse a few weeks with her household duties. Adolph Hyke is sporting a new top buggy, and the girls are all "wondering" who will get the first ride. Pete Milota called at the Frank Hron home, Sunday evening. Mrs. Henry Rethamel and Mrs. Bert Rhinehart called at the J. Brophy home, Friday afternoon. T. J. Hooper transacted business at Cresco, Monday. The Moravez family attended church at Protivin, Sunday. John Ohmacht delivered a load of goods to Cresco, Saturday, for Louis Derr. Fred Decker and wife were Cresco shoppers, Friday. Ed Cenek and son Frank were Cresco callers, Saturday. T. J. Hooper and wife spent Sunday at the Herman Kull home. Louis Derr, who has been under quarantine at the M. Derr home, was released Thursday and has moved his household goods to Cresco where he will reside in the future. Adam and Chas. Frank transacted business at Cresco, Saturday. Bert Rhinehart and wife spent Sunday at the Albert Rhinehart home. James Ondrasek made a business trip to Cresco, Saturday. Louis Derr spent Sunday at the John Ohmacht home. Wm. Wilson and wife were Cresco shoppers, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter born Thursday, April 1st. Congratulations. Henry Rethamel and family, and John Ohmacht and wife spent Sunday evening at the T. J. Hooper home. Fred Curtin was a caller in our vicinity a few days last week. Sadie Noonan, teacher in Dist. No. 4, spent Easter with her parents near Elma.

Ervin Barnes delivered two loads of hogs at Lime Springs, Wednesday. Chas. and Albert Musel made a business trip to Cresco, Thursday. The Dusheck and Haskovec young folks visited at Kubicek's, Tuesday evening. James McCarville and wife were shopping at Cresco on Thursday. Nick Bieri drove to John Harris's, Wednesday evening. George Harris and sisters were visitors at Hawk's, one evening last week. W. J. O'Brien, Owen Enright, Joseph Drtina, Frank Kubicek, Leslie and Martin Guilinger and sisters Mary and Louise, Frank Vince, Joseph McCarville, Charles Musel, Mary Hawk, Agnes Voves, James Vit, Nick Beiri, Willie Harris and Phil. McCarville spent Sunday at Kubicek; a good time was reported. John Harris and son George were shopping in Cresco on Tuesday. John Jarosh and family visited at the John Hawk home, Monday. Phil. McCarville was a caller at the A. Guilinger home, Friday evening. Kubicek Bros. assisted A. Guilinger in sawing wood, Thursday. Agnes Kubicek called on Mrs. Kerchoff, Friday afternoon. Chas. Musel made a flying trip to Schley, Friday. Frank Urban and wife, and Fred Hristka and Frank Zakastelsky visited at the James McCarville home, Thursday evening. A number of young folks visited the John Hawk home, Friday evening. Owen Enright spent Saturday evening with W. J. O'Brien. John Hawk was a shopper at Cresco on Saturday. Chas. Musel and Joe Kubicek called on Bernie Ferris, Saturday evening. Phil. McCarville was a pleasant caller at the John Hawk home, Friday evening. What's the attraction, Phil? Frank Jan and wife entertained company, Sunday afternoon. W. J. O'Brien called on A. Guilinger, Monday.

BONAIR.

Owen Jones has had a severe attack of appendicitis and will have an operation as soon as he is able. Eva Grabau spent a few days with her father L. E. Grabau at McIntire. Mrs. Geo. Walker has suffered considerable the past few weeks with a carbunkle. Sylvia Grabau returned home Friday from her visit at Wykoff, Minn. Rev. L. E. Grabau assisted Rev. Casper with revival meetings at McIntire. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buchanan attended Easter service at Lime Springs Sunday morning. J. M. Phillips has had a hard tussle with la grippe this week. Lime Springs and Bonair nines engaged in a game of ball Saturday, resulting in victory for the Bonair boys, the score standing 8 to 16. Thomas Bird returned home Saturday from a visit at Watertown, S. D. Rev. Hill went to Charles City Monday to attend the district conference of the M. E. church at that place. Lilla Bowden has been sick the past week with mumps. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson and daughter Marian spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Paul near Lime Springs. Our school is closed for one week's vacation. The teacher Miss Bird will visit her sister Frances, a student at Mt. St. Joseph's college at Dubuque. John Evans came home from school last week on account of having the mumps. Glen Johnson and Everett Phillips have started their season's work by painting the former's house. Ernie Windmiller came home from Austin for a week's vacation. Mrs. L. E. Grabau has suffered considerable the past week with la grippe. Dr. Plummer, of Lime Springs was a professional caller in our town Tuesday.

SARATOGA

Jess Miles and wife went to Riceville last Wednesday to meet their daughter Alice, who came home from Osage where she is attending school. Helen Buresh and Thelma Jones came home from Osage last Wednesday to spend Easter with home folks. Albert Lockie, who was spending a week at McIntire came home Thursday. Ella Groth, who is working for Mrs. L. Kent went home Thursday to spend Easter and returned Monday. Rudy and Fred Hilgendorf, and Aug. C. Baethke and Sophia Ball were entertained at the Fred Groth home Friday. Wm. Ball and family spent Friday at the Carl Baethke home. August Baethke, who is working at McIntire came home Friday and returned Saturday. Miss Frieda Baethke went to Wm. Ball's Friday where she will work for the summer. Carl Prinz and son Otto were Riceville callers Saturday. Mrs. Geo. Jackney and daughter Phyllis made a pleasant call at the E. Erbe home Saturday afternoon. Wm. Bohneman made a trip to Riceville Saturday. Wm. Michaelson made a business trip to Riceville one day last week. Chas. Viebrock and wife were out auto riding Saturday afternoon. Charles is getting in a hurry to use his car again. Arthur Warnke, who is working for Chas. Walles spent Easter at home. C. Baethke and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the Peter Kraft home. Rudy Hilgendorf called at the A. Warnke home Sunday. Wm. Timmerman and wife received word Sunday of the sudden death of the latter's mother. Mrs. A. Hintz which occurred early Sunday morning. John Miles and family and E. A. Watson and wife spent Easter with Jess Miles and family. Otto and Elsie Dettmer were seen in our village Sunday. Charlie C. Baethke spent Sunday under the parental roof. C. F. Baethke and wife called at the E. Frederick home Sunday. Peter Kraft and wife took supper at the C. Baethke home Monday evening. Jess Miles took his daughter Alice and Helen Buresh to Riceville Tuesday, they took the 9 o'clock train for Osage. Henry Henning and Bob White went to Cresco Tuesday. G. Buresh and family called at the Henry Buresh home Monday evening.

RIDGEWAY.

The Misses Mabel and Marie Werhan returned to Cresco Saturday after visiting their grandmother, Mrs. P. L. Gornonier a few days. Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Steensland of Calmar, visited their daughter, Mrs. R. G. Baker Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson were Cresco visitors Thursday afternoon. The Misses Anna Kalec and Martha Posusta of Calmar spent the week end here with the Misses Soukup. Mrs. S. R. Ringeon went to Decorah this afternoon to visit her parents a few days. N. C. Putnam spent Sunday at Lyle, Minn., where his family went the first of the week to visit under the parental roof. They returned Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Paley of Oelwein, concluded a visit here and at Calmar and returned home Sunday evening. Miss Olena Hovey returned to her school work at Valder Monday after a short stay at home. Chris Trytten and Ole Brekke were Cresco callers Monday. Miss Amelia Teskey returned from Decorah today, after a week's stay with homefolks. Miss Olga Gunderson was a Cresco shopper Saturday. Prof. C. C. Carrothers spent Sunday with friends at Lime Springs. Miss Anna Holverson left for Conrad Montana, Wednesday, to spend the summer with her brother Roland who owns a farm there. Henry O. Albertson moved on the old Farrell place Saturday. G. Ellingson and O. Sjobakn were at Cresco between trains Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Linde arrived from S. D., Wednesday for an extended stay with the Chris Wangness family. Miss Laura Barth returned today from a visit with relatives at Decorah. Lewis Fosse of Schley spent Sunday here with his grandparents. G. Gunderson and Miss Mabel went to Cresco Wednesday to visit at the home of the latter's brother. Mrs. Lewis Walter of Golden Ridge who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Kratz, spent Monday here with her sister, Mrs. Oscar Moe. Frank Butz visited Calmar friends Tuesday. Conrad Johnson left for Ray, Montana, Tuesday morning, where he will spend the summer and probably file on land.

ALBION.

Glad to note that Miss Perry was able to resume her school duties again since her recent illness. H. Curse of Cresco sawed wood in our community last week. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hanneman was taken seriously ill one day last week, but under the care of Dr. Plummer is much improved at this writing. Miss Olive Richards was Mistress at the E. L. Peckham home during Mrs. Peckham's absence, she being called to Chicago by the death of a cousin. Dr. Merschon will conduct quarterly services at the usual church hour at Albion next Sunday. Several of our people are attending the show in Cresco this week. Ralph Peckham of Cresco attended church at Albion Sunday. C. V. Johnson is remodeling his home. Knuth boys are doing the work.

FOR SALE—One fullblooded Short Horn bull one year old; also Eggs for setting from fullblooded Plymouth Rocks. 2810 J. B. Barthelme.

MAPLE LEAF.

Frank Wacha entertained company on Easter Sunday. Anton Roman Jr., called at Fred Marshall's Sunday afternoon. Anton Doezark made a business trip to Elma Monday. The school at Geo. Enose's started April 5th, with Miss Murphy as teacher. Will Jarosh entertained a number of his friends Sunday evening. Frank Bigley was a Maple Leaf caller Sunday evening. Steve Semerad made a trip to Frank Schneider's near Howard Center Sunday. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Schneider and son who visits at the Semerad home for a while. Frank Roma called on Frank Kakac Sunday. Jim Bergan called at the Roman home on Easter Sunday. Frank Zak drove to Alta Vista last week Saturday. Frank Roman was a caller at the Joe Wacha home one day last week. Frank Kakac called at Elma Saturday last. Martin and James Souhrada were business shoppers at Elma Saturday. Anton Roman Sr., was a pleasant caller at James Beran home Sunday. Fred Lauck made a business trip to Elma last week. Jim Barnes was an Elma shopper one day last week. Henry Crooks was a caller at the Henry Johnson home Saturday. Fred Marshall made a call at Saratoga Saturday. Ruth Dinger made a trip to Acme one day to do some trading. Joe Wacha was a caller in Elma last Thursday. Harry Herplink and Frank Bigley were Elma shoppers last week. James Beran called on Adolph Kakac last Friday. Will Armetrong has bought a large bunch of stock from M. F. Bigley. Fred Marshall was at Acme one day last week. Mrs. Kate Horejsi was a Saratoga shopper last week Thursday. Will Dinger and Chas. Murphy made business trip to Elma Saturday. Steve Vrtal and Frank Kubicek made a trip to Alta Vista last week. Chas. Ranc was a Maple Leaf caller one day last week. Mike Bigley and daughter were Elma shoppers one day last week. Frank Ranc spent Sunday under the parental roof, returning to Bartels Monday. M. F. Bigley made a business call to Elma Monday. Frank Bigley made a professional call at Cresco last Monday. Jim Beran purchased a fine draft horse of Charlie Murphy Saturday. Charlie Murphy purchased a fine Ford touring car last Saturday of Wm. Deikman of Elma.

OTTER CREEK CLIPPINGS.

Everybody feels good to see the snow leave us. Ducks, geese and other migrating birds have been making their annual journey northward. Some of our poultry experts have quite a number of young chicks to take care of. Albert Aegerter had one of his hands badly lacerated in a gasoline engine recently. The F. W. M. S. of the German M. E. Church met with Mrs. J. G. Kirschman last week Thursday. The newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Koch are now comfortably settled in their new home near Otter Creek. Lawns are becoming green so get your lawn mower ready. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moe moved into Fritz Ramseyer's home last week. The W. M. S. of the Evangelical church met with Mrs. Wm. Kratz, of Cresco last Wednesday. Mrs. and Mrs. Dan Krueger and children, of Golden Ridge, Howard Co., made a pleasant visit at the Theo. Kaatz home Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falch, north of Ridgeway, dined with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amel Koch, one day last week and called upon Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Koch during the afternoon. Miss Malanna Kratz assisted her sister, Mrs. Oscar Moe in getting settled in her new home, one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mzik and Miss Ardella, called upon Mr. and Mrs. Will Lander near Lawler, last week. Easter Sunday was rainy, so it will rain for seven Sundays in succession, as the saying goes. Joe Malady has been on the sick list for some time, suffering with appendicitis.

WEST VERNON.

Joe Miller left for a trip to Wisconsin Wednesday. Grandpa Slifka, of Cresco helped his son Frank Slifka saw wood Tuesday. Helen Bouska left for Calmar Thursday where she will visit her cousin Gertrude Slebiska. Frank Miller entertained company Monday. Fred Peter and Geo. Burnikel called on Ed. Bouska Monday evening. Will Woods entertained company Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Will Reinhart entertained company Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson spent Sunday at the Peter Hanson home Sunday. Adolph Peter and Joe Burnikel called on F. R. Bouska Sunday afternoon. Miss Marie Jensen spent Saturday and Sunday in Cresco. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fish was called to Cresco Friday it being the illness of their brother-in-law, Dave Edminster. Frank Slifka and wife called at the John Jarosh home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fish spent Sunday in Cresco.

Bids Wanted!

Bids wanted for doing the road dragging in Howard Center Township. Bids must be in on or before Saturday, April 10th. J. J. Long, Clerk.

The Best Farm Power And Where to Get It WE make no mistake when we tell you that a Fuller & Johnson Engine is what you want on your farm. This concern has been manufacturing goods for 74 years and no concern can last that long if their goods are not satisfactory. We selected this line to handle because we know we are giving our farmer friends the best value for their money. This is proven by the record of the active work these engines have done in the field. We handle the complete line of FULLER & JOHNSON ENGINES Stationary and Portable 1 to 20 H. P. and will be glad to help you select an engine best suited to your work—and when you see the durable, reliable and economical service this engine gives you, you will never regret the purchase. A Fuller & Johnson Engine is an asset to your farm. It is the best farm power to handle! Call and See These Engines CRESCO IMPLEMENT CO.

PROTIVIN. Dr. Daly was over from Cresco Saturday. Abbie Kodelka returned to New Hampton Wednesday, after a week's visit here with her parents. Walter C. Johnson left last week Wednesday for his home in Decorah. Mrs. Elias Weigel, of Jerico is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary B. Landa who is sick. Leonard and Charles Snopak came home from Dubuque Sunday to spend Easter vacation at home. John Bielek returned from Decorah Tuesday, after a brief visit with friends. John Vokaty and wife were over from Lourdes Easter Sunday. August Lukes, who attends school in Cresco is spending Easter vacation with his parents. Frank Kaderabek, of Alta Vista is visiting friends here. Fred Vachta and wife, of Cresco are visiting at the latter's home here, F. W. Sobolik and wife. John A. Dostal and wife went to Manly Wednesday to attend the funeral.

Tillie Skoda returned Tuesday to her work in Elma, after a few days visit under the parental roof. al of the latter's sister, Mrs. James Kostka, Jr. Lewis Mikesch, of Spillville visited here Monday. Mrs. F. W. Sobolik, Regina Zahasky, James Zahasky and daughter Rose were Cresco visitors Monday. Nelly Mikesch was a New Hampton caller Tuesday. The dance Monday night was a success. Ludmilla Holub went to Cresco Tuesday to visit at the Louis Holub and wife home a couple of weeks. Messrs Murray and Frank Griffin, of Lawler attended the dance here Monday night. Miss Kobliksa, of Bassett is visiting here, her sister, Mrs. C. B. Bouska. Emma Novak is in Alta Vista visiting her sister, Mrs. E. J. Polashek. Mary Krall, Mary and Will Svestka, of Jackson Jct., attended the dance here Monday night. Chas. B. Bouska and wife were Cresco callers Monday.

Statement. Statement of ownership, management, etc., of the CRESCO PLAIN DEALER, published weekly at Cresco, Iowa, required by Act of August 24, 1912. Editor—F. D. Mead, Cresco, Iowa. Business Managers—F. J. Mead and F. D. Mead, Cresco, Iowa. Publishers—F. J. Mead and F. D. Mead, Cresco, Iowa. Owners—F. J. Mead and F. D. Mead, Cresco, Iowa. Known Bondholders, Mortgagees, and Other Security Holders—None. F. D. MEAD. Sworn and subscribed before me this 6th day of April, 1915. JOHN MCCOOK, Notary Public. (My commission expires, July 4, 1915.) Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is nature's own tonic, purely vegetable. Its use is not followed by devitalizing after-effects. Safe and sure, try it for debility, anaemia, poor appetite, Spring tiredness. Tea or Tablets 35 cents.—Fred Lowry.

REMEMBER WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF Shoes, Overalls, Work Shirts, Jackets, Gloves and Mittens THAT WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY SPECIAL Bargains in Dry Goods We are Closing Out our Entire Stock of Men's and Boys' HATS at Half Price. If You Call Once You Will Call Again. Joe G. Glass & J. L. Mueller In the Schneider Block on Market St.