Burgess & Sons

Saws

A MECHANIC is known by his tools. That's an old saw, but a tried and true one. Regarding real saws, by the way, you should examine our stock. The saws we carry are certainly high class—just the kind you really can depend on to last and give good service. You can rely on everything you buy here. Your money refunded if you are not satisfied. But you will be satisfied.

Maruska, Smith & Co.

STRAWBERRIES

A very sad incident marked the closing performance of the Camelia Concert Co's engagement in Frankville. As usual a gold watch was given to the most popular young lady and a diamond ring to the handsomest baby in town, the latter was awarded the 3 months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Van Wey. The baby had been asleep all through the performance which was attended by a large crowd, and was taken by its grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Van Wey, to her home where it was discovered that the child was dead. Dr. Nash, who was hastily summoned stated that it had been dead for an hour or more. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large circle of friends sympathize with the sorrowing parents in their affliction.—Postville Review.
