OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND COUNTY

PLUCK, PROGRESS, PERSEVERANCE AND PATRIOTISM IN POLITICS

BY MEAD PUBLISHING COMPANY

VOL. LVII. NO. 14

CRESCO, HOWARD COUNTY, IOWA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1915

$1.00 PER YEAR

A REAL CLOAK SALE!

ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26TH

THE NICHOLS CLOTHING CO. will commence the Biggest Cloak Sale that has ever been held in Cresco. This sale will be run for 15 days, and just at the time when it will do the Ladies, Misses and Girls of Cresco and its surrounding territory the most good. For if you are going to have a New Cloak this winter you want it now, and not have to wait until January or February, when the winter will be over half gone.

We are going to save you money on your Cloak—not merely a dollar or two on a Coat—but all the way from $3.00 to $8.00 on every garment, all depending upon the Cloak you pick out during this Big Cloak Sale.

We have never had as good a Cloak business as we have had this fall, and we can confidently say that it is because we are buying our Cloaks from the Best Made and Best Known Lines that can be bought in this country.

The "Palmer" Garment, made in Chicago, and the "Printzess" Line, made in Cleveland, are the lines that we can show you, and we can truthfully say that we can show you Better Cloaks—right up to the minute in style—for less money than you can buy elsewhere. We are well prepared for this sale, as our big line is complete in every way. We have got all sizes and all colors, made up into any style that you could wish for and at any price from $5.00 to $50.00. We are going to mark every Cloak down 20 per cent. from our regular price for this sale. That means that

Every $35.00 Cloak will be sold for $28.00

Every $30.00 Cloak will be sold for $24.00

Every $25.00 Cloak will be Sold for $20.00

Every $22.50 Cloak will be Sold for $18.00

Every $20.00 Cloak will be sold for $16.00

Every $15.00 Cloak will be sold for $12.00

Every $10.00 Cloak will be sold for $7.50

Remember that we absolutely guarantee each and every Cloak bought from us, "from the cheapest to the highest price garment in our line," to give entire satisfaction.

Remember, too, that it is only three weeks to Christmas, and what a useful and acceptable gift one of our Cloaks would make for mother, sister or daughter.

Try and be the first one here, as at these prices our line of Cloaks will not last long.

Married.

BETTS-OFSTEDAHL.

The marriage of Mr. William Betts and Miss Ida Ofstedahl was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in this city on Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 25th. The pastor, Rev. Will Kirwin, received their vows and pronounced them husband and wife. Mr. Betts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Asha Betts, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ofstedahl, proprietor of the O. K. Hotel of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Betts will reside on Market street, near where Mr. Betts, in conjunction with his brother, runs a butcher shop.

BURR-SMITH.

On Wednesday morning, Nov. 24th, at the Methodist parsonage in this city occurred the marriage of Mr. Roland Burr and Miss Emma Smith, both of the vicinity of Cresco. The pastor, Rev. Will Kirwin, was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Burr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burr whose home is 4 1/2 miles east of town; the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith whose home is near Cottrell's ford south of town. These young people will begin their married life on a farm several miles east of town.

MILBRATH-LEWIS.

Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1915, at the German M. E. parsonage, by Rev. A. F. Damerow, Alfred Milbrath of Lincoln township, and Mary Lewis of Lime Springs.

Mr. Milbrath is a well known farmer residing near Ridgeway, who enjoys the esteem of his acquaintances, and his bride is endowed with qualities that bespeak the faithful helpmate and life companion.—Decorah Republican.

ANDERSON-MILBRATH

Yesterday, Nov. 17, 1915, at the German M. E. parsonage, Rev. A. F. Damerow officiating, Walter H. Anderson and Anna Milbrath, both of Ridgeway.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home on the groom's farm. Both are well known in Ridgeway and vicinity, having many friends who join in good wishes and congratulations.—Decorah Republican.

HUDSON-BROWN.

At six o'clock on Nov. 24th, at the Methodist parsonage in this city occurred the marriage of Steven Allen Hudson, of Steuben, Wis., and Mrs. Angelica Brown, of Cresco, the pastor of the church, Rev. Will Kirwin, performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will make their home in Steuben, Wis., for which place they left Thursday evening.

The Baptist Church.

On next Sunday morning the services at the Baptist church will be held at the usual time. At 10:30 Capt. R. A. Brown of Ames, Iowa, will occupy the pulpit. His subject will be, "How to maintain a Revival Spirit," this from the standpoint of a layman. S. S. at 12 m.

In the afternoon we will join in the Union service at the M. E. church at which time Capt. Brown will speak on, "How to Evangelize the World in the Present Generation."

At night we will join with the Congregational people when Capt. Brown will again speak, this time he will speak on, "Modern Civic Righteousness." Come out to these services and hear a live, consecrated layman speak on some living, up-to-date subject. The G. A. R., W. R. C. and W. C. T. U. are requested to attend all these services in a body, or bodies. Capt. Brown has a record in the U. S. army, as well as in the army of the Lord.

J. A. PETTIT, Pastor.

Grace Episcopal Church.

Services Sunday, Nov. 28, at 10:45 a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. The regular Thanksgiving service will be used at the morning service, Kenneth D. Martin officiating. Special music by quartette at both services.

GRACE CHURCH GUILD

On Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 1st, the Grace Church Guild will be entertained by Mrs. Dollie Miller and Miss Lauraine Mead at the home of the latter. Every member requested to attend and bring a guest. Lunch served at 3:30 prompt.

Methodist Notes.

The pastor will preach next Sabbath morning at 10:30. The theme will be, "Satan's Last Stand." We will be glad to have you at this service. The Sunday School at 11:45 and Epworth League at 6:45. At 7:00 Capt. Brown a leader in Christian service, will speak at a Union service in the Congregational church, in which we will join. Capt. Brown comes to us with a fine record and doubtless will give us some inspirational addresses.
