Hovey-Hagen.
 On last Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, Dec. 9th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole T. Hovey, occurred the marriage of their daughter Miss Clara Gustine to Mr. Edward J. Hagen. Only a few of the intimate relatives were present. Rev. H. Normann of the Cresco Lutheran Church officiated. Immediately after the marriage a wedding dinner was served and a very pleasant time in a social manner was spent together in the afternoon.
 The bride was attended by the sister, Olena, and the sister of the groom, Dena Hagen. The groom was attended by his brother Emil and a cousin of the bride, Melvin Benson.
 The bride was attired in a white mesaline silk dress and wore a veil and carried a bouquet of roses, ferns and carnations.
 The bridesmaids wore light blue silk crepe de chine, and the groom and best man wore navy blue serge suits.
 The young couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents. They left Friday for Forest City where they will spend some time. We are all sorry to lose this young couple from our midst but all join in wishing them a long, happy wedded life and much success in their new home. *

A Pleasant Surprise.
 Last Sunday evening, a party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schlader in honor of Harry and Bernard Altuff who left Wednesday for their home in Indiana. The guests met at Mr. Meyer's, east of town, and were then escorted to the Schlader home where they surprised the boys and presented them with a Cresco souvenir sofa pillow as a slight token of the great esteem in which they are held.
 Harry and Bernard have gained many friends during their stay in Cresco the past year, and will be greatly missed both by young and old.

Games, music and merry making in general filled the evening and at 11 o'clock Mrs. Schlader, assisted by Mrs. Henry Rink served the company with a very delicious lunch.
 At a late hour all departed for their home after wishing Harry and Bernard a safe journey and pronouncing Mr. and Mrs. Schlader the best of entertainers.
