CRESCO OPERA HOUSE

PROGRAM FROM FRIDAY TILL FRIDAY

The very best of Photoplays that can be obtained.

FRIDAY NIGHT

"The Sphinx" in 5-reels is a red feather photoplay by the universal featuring, Herbert Kelcey and Effie Shannon. Its a feature as good as "The Knight of the Range." 5c and 15c.

SATURDAY—Matinee 2:30. Night 7:30 till 10:30.

Hurrah! We got it back for Saturday. Triangle MATRIMONY in 4 parts with Julia Dean. And "My Valet," 2-reel Keystone Comic with Raymond Hicchock and Mable Normand. Everybody that's married or going to be, should see Matrimony. 5c and 15c.

MONDAY—Matinee at 2:30. Night at 7:30. 8:30.

I want everybody in Cresco and vicinity that's over 16 years of age to see Clara Kimball Young in "Camille." I guarantee this play to more than please. I am putting on the Matinee for 10c just to advertise the picture, not because it isn't worth more. Night price 15c. If you see it you will thank me. If you don't you'll be sorry. Stop everything and see Camille on Monday.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY NIGHT

7-reel Triangle that will be worth coming miles to see. W. S. Hart in another Western. Do you remember his acting in "The Dilemma." If you did not see it, ask somebody that did. This time we have him in a 5-reel Western Drama "Between Men," also a very good Comic in 2 parts entitled "Daring Hearts and Dizzy Heights." When you come out to a Triangle night you see a real classy show, always a two hour entertainment for 10c and 20c.

Florence Martin, who is considered by theatre-goers to be the best Peg that ever essayed the title role in "Peg O' My Heart", not excepting Laurette Taylor, its creator, is to head the Company that will make its appearance at the "Cresco", on Tuesday, April 25. Her wonderful performances of the sweet little Irish lass endeared her to the Boston theatre-goers last season, and her visit here will be most welcome for it is doubtful if any play has ever been so popular in this country as Peg.

Despite snow flurries and road uncertainties, fathers, mothers and children loaded on substantial gear with solid teams gathered at an ample farm house whose every window twinkled a merry invitation to share its hospitality. A host and hostess who believe in living joyously, congenial companions, merry music, capital cigars and "eats"—eats without end; that is the short story of a gloriously long social evening the families of the Community Club spent with Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Taft, Friday, April 7th.
