CRESCO OPERA HOUSE

PROGRAM FROM FRIDAY TILL FRIDAY

FRIDAY NIGHT—5c and 10c—7:30 and 9:00

Herbert Bosworth in "The Target," one of those real live ones. A big story of the northwest where big red-blooded men reigned supreme. See Herbert Bosworth in this play. It's good. I guarantee it.

SATURDAY—Matinee at 2:30. Night 7:30 till 9:00

SPECIAL—I have a treat for you Saturday and I want you all to see "The Melting Pot." I saw this play and claim it's one of the most gripping plays ever put into six reels, and features Walker Whiteside, America's most noted stage star. He was paid thousands of dollars to act in this feature, just as Billie Burke was to make "Peggy," and just as Geraldine Farrar was to make "Carmen." The only time he ever left the foot-lights was to make "The Melting Pot." I want you see it. You'll thank me and say it was worth 50c or more. We are putting it on in Cresco for 10c and 15c. I expect to play to capacity, so come early. Mr. Reader, if you're in town Saturday afternoon, don't stand around, but come to the opera house and give yourself a treat and see "The Melting Pot." 2:30

MONDAY NIGHT.

5 big Universal reels with favorite Universal actors for 5c and 10c. Everybody ought to come Monday. 7:30 and 8:30.

TUESDAY—METRO NIGHT.

SPECIAL—Edmund Breeze in "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." A big story of Snow World. You'll miss something if you miss this one. Listen to me when I shout and don't miss this good one. Good ones, that's my middle name. 5c and 15c.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY NIGHT

Willard Mack (don't that sound great) in "The Conqueror," 5 parts and Mack Swain in a 2-reel Keystone entitled "A Movie Star." Wednesday night 10c and 15c. Thursday night is the Big Gala Night at the opera house with the Triangle Program. Read the big ad. about the night of nights.
