Miss Martha Kessel Becomes the Bride of Raymond W. Haas.

Miss Martha Catherine Kessel, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Kessel, became the bride of Raymond Weaver Haas of Eldora, Ia., on Tuesday evening, May 30th, at seven o'clock at the home of her parents, 212 Sixth Ave. East. About seventy-five guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. John Gammons, the double ring service being used. The guests were met at the door by Miss Martha Alexander. A miniature arbor of crab apple blossoms was arranged in the south parlor in which the vows were spoken. Before the ceremony, Miss Katherine Cannon sang "At Dawning" and afterwards "A Birthday." Miss Helen Kessel, sister of the bride, played the nuptial music.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white tulle over white satin and Chantilly lace. The skirt was cut round length and the bodice was decollete with long sleeves of tulle. Her tulle veil was cut long enough to form a train. It was arranged with cap effect and was caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Julia Kessel, and the bridegroom with his best man who was his father, Mr. Charles Haas, met the bride at the altar.

Following the ceremony there was a short reception. Receiving with the members of the bridal party were Dr. and Mrs. Kessel, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Haas, parents of the bridegroom. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the reception room and dining room with Killarney roses and smilax and lighted by pink candles. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Grace Patterson, Hazel Kellogg and Lucy Powers.

Among the out of town guests were the Misses Virginia and Marguerite Haas, sister of the groom; Mrs. Mary Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smyth, Miss Anna Piesen, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hardin and son Kent, all of Eldora, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and son Richard of Jewell, Ia., Mrs. George Young, Miss Lila and Mr. Charles Young of Canton, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brainerd of Mitchell, S. D., Mrs. E. W. Clark, Jr., and son Elbert of Los Angeles, Cal., Miss Marie King of Coxsackie, N. Y., Miss Norma Fellows of Lansing, Ia., Miss Constance Davis and Mr. L. L. Dickerson of Grinnell, Ia., and Mr. W. U. McAlmon of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Haas is a charming and accomplished young lady who has lived in Cresco all of her life; she was graduated from Grinnell college in 1911 and afterwards attended the State Library school at Albany, N. Y. Since then she has been on the library staff at Grinnell college. Mr. Haas is a partner of his father in a large mercantile business in Eldora, Ia., and has a wide circle of friends there.

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for supervisor for the First district, subject to the choice of the Republican voters as expressed at the primaries June 5th. I will appreciate any assistance my friends may see fit to offer.

J. W. WELLS,
Albion Twp.

4th District Presidential Elector.

On account of failure to file a sufficient number of names by the State Committee no name will appear and as now interpreted the law requires that in such case at least 10 per cent. of the vote for the head of the ticket, two years ago, will be necessary to constitute a nomination. Unless this is done Iowa will enter the contest short of electors.

To remedy matters, it will be necessary to write in or paste on the ballot the name of G. A. Meyer, of Calmar, who was chosen for this position by the state conference, but who lacked one name on the petition to place his name on the ballot.

Democrats voting next Monday should bear this in mind and see that Mr. Meyer receives their vote. Don't forget to place a square in front of Mr. Meyer's name after you have written it or pasted it on the ballot. Voters desiring pasters bearing Mr. Meyers' name will find a limited supply at the Plain Dealer office.

Cresco Singers at Decorah.

The pupils of Madame Ohlson-Solem gave a recital at Decorah, last Friday evening, and two of her Cresco pupils appeared on the program. The Decorah Journal mentions their selections as follows:

"Mr. John Patterson is one of Madame Solem's younger pupils whose home is in Cresco. His rendition of Bond's "Perfect Day," sung to his own accompaniment, showed him to be highly gifted musically."

"The Barcarolle from "The Tales of Hoffman" was very beautifully sung by Mrs. Dr. Allen, of Cresco, and Mrs. Bakken, of St. Ansgar."

Installs New Machinery.

Claude Weatherford has recently added materially to the equipment of his monument shop by adding a compressed air tank, operated by an electric motor, to furnish power for the chisels used in engraving the inscriptions and designs on the big lot of monuments he is turning out these days.
