

"Eternal City" Very Fine Film.

New York Evening Mail, Jan. 2, 1915.—When the Famous Players presented their beautiful feature film "The Eternal City," in which Miss Pauline Frederick appears...

No expense was spared by the Famous Players in presenting this great literary masterpiece and it is most gratifying to note that they secured results...

The story itself is big—it is almost tremendous. Yet the picture version has taken this great story and developed it so that the thread of action and development of characters is quite plain at all times...

Particular credit is due Mr. Porter and Mr. Ford for the lighting they secured in the exteriors, which they made on the other side. Nothing adds more to a film than to have striking light effects in beautiful exterior locations...

FINGER PRINTS TAKEN FOR PLAYING BALL

Magistrate Fines Three Youths, Then Orders Procedure Usual With Criminals.

New York.—For having played baseball in a street in violation of an ordinance three boys were arrested recently and fined $3 apiece in the Washington Heights court. Then their finger prints were taken, as if the boys were criminals.

Relatives of the prisoners did not complain of their punishment, but were indignant over the finger printing. The boys are Walter Sharpe, seventeen, of 523 West One Hundred and Fifty-first street; John McHertens, sixteen, of 1887 Amsterdam avenue, and Ulrich Hofel, eighteen, of 569 West One Hundred and Sixty-first street. They were arrested in One Hundred and Fifty-first street, near Amsterdam avenue.

In court the three pleaded guilty, whereupon Magistrate Charles E. Simms ordered that their finger prints be taken and that the records be examined to see if any of them had been arrested before. He was told all had excellent reputations. Then they paid their fines and departed.
