

COUNTY NEWS

RIDGEWAY.

Myrtle Putz is now spending the week at the Carl Haakenson home.

Mrs. Schuetz and Dorothy were shoppers in Cresco Wednesday morning.

The Misses Gilmore, of Decorah, came Saturday noon to spend over Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Theo. Anderson.

Mrs. Bert Daniels returned from Minneapolis Thursday.

Mrs. Dr. Kaasa and baby came down from Cresco Monday night for a few days' stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Field and N. A. Field and Mrs. Fellard autoed down from Joyce, Iowa, Friday for a visit at the J. H. Bakken home.

Mrs. George Westby came up from Lawler Wednesday noon to visit her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bakken, for a few days.

Rev. D. C. Jordahl was at Waterville last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Leikvold, also attending a meeting.

Miss Sjoboen left Thursday for her home at Ossian.

Cecil Curo is spending this week at the home of Mrs. E. A. Bakken.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Studder left Thursday for Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. Clarence Natvig and son of Lawler, spent last week visiting at the S. Gunderson home.

Miss A. Masmaker went to Iowa City Saturday to attend a house party, before leaving for her home at Greenfield, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Soukup were callers in Decorah last Wednesday.

Carl Qualley and Gilbert Hopperstad autoed to Winona Thursday.

Preaching services next Sunday a. m. at the M. E. church at 10:30, Sunday school 11:30, Epworth League 7:15. Preaching services at eight o'clock.

The L. A. S. of the Synod church will meet Friday afternoon, June 6, with Mrs. Erick Ellingson.

N. Schuetz came over from New Hampton to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. A. Johnson and Anita were at Cresco Friday afternoon.

Christina Owen, who has been attending school at Cedar Falls the past year, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Oscar Moe and children spent last week in the country at the T. Kratz home.

Mrs. Klemme returned the last of the week from Fayette.

Otto Arneson Sundayed with his family in Decorah.

Ross Kirschman returned from Woonsocket, S. D., the first of the week.

Morris Magnus left Tuesday morning for his home in Montana being called here by the death of his mother.

Marion Ringoen left Tuesday morning for Minneapolis.

Earl Libbey, who is working at Lanesboro, came Thursday to spend a few days with home folks and friends.

Mr. Klemme returned the last of the week from Prairie du Chien.

Word was received from Laramie, Wyoming, Monday noon that Mrs. Orrie Libbey had died. This was very sad news for Ridgeway relatives and friends. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Ames, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Libbey and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ernst and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peters left Sunday morning by auto for Ames, Iowa, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Orrie Libbey.

Miss Anna Evans returned to her home at Decorah Friday.

HAPPY CIRCLE NOTES.

Martha De Grooté arrived from Larned, Kan., Monday for a visit with home folks.

Charles Fish assisted Elton Eldridge with work Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Dan Acker and daughter Eleanor and Mr. and Mrs. August De Grooté and family spent Monday evening at the Adolph Peter home.

Mabel Werhan spent Thursday at the F. DeWalle home.

Mrs. H. J. Salisbury drove through our burg Thursday.

Quite a number from this locality took in the returned soldiers' entertainment at Cresco Wednesday evening. The speaking was fine, also the music.

Will Woods was called to Minneapolis Friday on account of the death of a relative, Wilma Woods.

Jake Gerber and family autoed from Chatfield, Minn., for a visit at the Adolph Peter home and with other relatives and friends around Cresco.

Frank Bugenhagen helped Joe Burnickel with work a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Luson and family, Mrs. Leslie Sebastian and sons Donald and Melvin and Mrs. F. Bouska called at the Ed Easter home last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Printz spent Sunday at Alfred Gesell's.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Hansen were Sunday callers at the Fred Lybbert home near Bonair.

Mrs. Pankow and Margaret spent Sunday evening with Mrs. F. Bouska.

The chime of wedding bells will soon be heard in our midst. Watch for "happy lad and lassie."

Company was entertained at Elton Eldridge's Friday.

Ed Dotzler called on his father, Steve Dotzler, Monday forenoon.

Elsie Peter spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish made a business trip to the Gesell home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. DeGrooté were Sunday visitors at the Elmer Van Dan Acker home in New Oregon.

Peter Lick is building an addition to his house.

Raymond Bouska called on his friend, Bill Peter, Monday evening.

Mrs. Burnickel and Johnnie returned from Siren, Wis., Monday night after spending five weeks with her sons George and William.

TWIN VILLAGES.

Ralph McCloud and Ed Brink hauled gravel for new cement bridges for Albion Township, the first week.

C. W. Newmiller started carpenter work with Engel Lunsborg, Monday.

J. A. Ludwig and E. F. Sims were Harmony callers, Tuesday afternoon.

Beatrice Crowell returned home, Tuesday evening, after teaching school at Hardwick, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Drummond, Clara Dell Winkham and two nephews, Gale and Roger Rumrill, were Cresco callers, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Chas. Tierney visited Wednesday and Thursday with relatives at New Hampton, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Krueger were business callers at Cresco, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph McCloud visited from Thursday until Saturday at the Frank Crawford home near Cresco.

Mrs. Elmer St. John returned home Thursday from Cresco.

Friday, Decoration Day, a family picnic was held at the F. N. Martin home.

Mrs. John Finckh spent a few days with friends in our villages.

Mrs. E. G. Sanders and two daughters, Alletta and Alice, came Friday from Calmar to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newmiller, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brink begin housekeeping in the Mrs. Lee Copeman rooms, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Copeman and two daughters visited at the Willis Copeman home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and children were Sunday visitors at the John Martin home.

Rev. George H. Goodrich, of Harmony, gave a sermon in the M. E. Church, Sunday, while Rev. Grabau spoke at Harmony.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sims and children were Sunday callers with Mrs. Lee Copeman and daughter Esther.

OTTER CREEK.

Freemont Armstrong was a pleasant caller at the Schild home, last week.

Frank Vrba was delivering hogs at Ridgeway, last week one day.

Edward Wiedeman, another soldier boy, has arrived from overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kreitzer were callers at Spillville, last week one day.

Elmer Schild arrived home from his sojourn in Chicago and Naperville, Ill., fore part of last week.

Willard Moe, of Ridgeway, accompanied his father on the egg route, last week.

Will Kuntz assisted J. W. Huntoon at latter's work, last week.

Eddie Peter was listed with the sick, the past week, but is his former self again at present writing.

Irvin Kuntz was a caller at the Schild home, last week.

Will Moe has arrived from overseas and is at present writing in New York.

J. J. Kreitzer and family were Cresco shoppers, last week.

Frank Wagner and family were Cresco shoppers, last week one day.

Winfield Kratz was delivering hogs at Ridgeway, last week Saturday.

Aegerter's folks spent Memorial Day at Cresco.

Wesley Kratz was delivering hogs at Ridgeway, last week one day.

Schild folks were callers at the John Aegerter home, Sunday.

Harry Wiedeman and family were callers on relatives at Cresco, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Win. Kratz were callers at the Schild home, last week one evening.

HOWARD CENTER.

Elizabeth Dyer spent a few days last week visiting her friend, Mrs. A. Schmelzer, of Cresco.

Mary Dotzler has been visiting friends in Cresco the past week.

Winnie Long will commence a course in trained nursing at Mercy hospital this week. We all wish you good luck and success, Winnie.

Helen and Bernice Smith left for Menominee, Wis., to visit her brother Lou and family, and friends, Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Dyer and sister Lavina were Cresco callers on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shea and daughter Florence were Cresco callers Friday.

Ray Long and James Collins called at the Frank Schmitz home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novotny autoed to Cresco Sunday.

James Shields and family drove to Cresco Friday.

Edward Dotzler called on the home folks Monday.

Charles Stokes made a flying trip to Cresco Saturday.

NEW OREGON

Emma Smith closed a successful term of school last Friday by having a picnic for pupils down by the river.

Ed Cole and his sister Lizzie returned from Ord, Neb., Saturday of last week where they went to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Wm. Hunt.

Ell Becktold was a caller at the E. M. Cole home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill and Isabell called at A. H. Rucker's Sunday evening.

Frank Wilson was a caller in New Oregon Saturday afternoon.

J. L. Baker and family were Sunday visitors in Cresco Sunday.

Charlie Halweg called on Amos Doolittle Sunday.

Wm. Ernst is erecting a new hay shed on his farm.

Mrs. Herbert Mason, who has been visiting at the home of her father, E. M. Cole, returned to her home near Bonair Sunday.

Fred Mintey was a business caller in New Oregon Monday.

Will Blackburn of Palmyra, Wis., was calling on friends here Monday.

Transformed.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burr, one mile east of Cresco, was made sad last Monday morning, June 2nd, by the sudden passing of their little daughter. She had been ailing only a few days and her trouble was not thought to be serious when suddenly, and almost without warning, the little spirit took its flight.

Alice Irene was born November 11, 1918, and was transformed to an Angel on June 2, 1919, making bright and happy the home of her parents for six months and twenty-one days. She was a darling little rosebud and her memory will leave a sweet influence in the hearts of her parents, four grandparents, two great-grandmothers, uncles, aunts, and one little cousin.

"Sleep on in thy beauty,
Thou sweet Angel child;
By sorrow unlighted,
By sin undefiled,
Like the dove to the Ark,
Thou hast flown to thy rest,
From the wild sea of strife,
To the home of the blest."

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their help and sympathy at the death of our darling baby and also for the many beautiful floral offerings.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK BURR.

Lutheran Services.

Pentecost Sunday, June 8.
Norwegian services 11 a. m. in Orleans church. 3 p. m. in N. L. church Ridgeway. 7:45 p. m. in First Lutheran church, Cresco.
Orleans Young People's Luther League at Helga Scott's residence 8 p. m. Sunday.
Cresco Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Iver Grinde's Thursday afternoon June 5.
H. M. Normann.

Farm for Sale.

Sixty-seven acres near Protivin, Ia. All tillable land. Fair improvements. Rt. 4, Box 71. J. W. Hrukska, Cresco, Ia. 42-4tp

For Sale.

Some good late white potatoes at 75c per bushel. 42-3t
Theo. H. Aberg, South Vernon 11.

We have just 10 days to get your order for the Delineator at $1.10 per year, about 9c a copy.
Otis Brothers' Variety Store.

OBITUARY.

FARNSWORTH.

Clinton Willis Farnsworth was born in Whitewater, Wis., the first of March, 1850.

He was the third child of a family of ten children of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Rice Farnsworth, of whom only two sisters and three brothers now remain unclaimed by death.

The Farnsworth family came west in 1869 and located in Orleans twp., Winneshek county, four miles southeast of Cresco.

In 1865, Dec. 29th, "Clint" was married to Fannie C. Moore of the immediate neighborhood in which they then lived and have since remained.

Only one child was given them, Willis Clinton, who died Dec. 21st, 1916.

Nine years ago Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth left the farm and came to town to evade the "stress of toil and fret and care" and enjoy a hard-earned period of leisure.

As a friend and citizen Mr. Farnsworth's life was an open book known and read by all who knew him. Not a line of that book was blotted by dishonor. He was temperate, gentle and kind; a home-loving husband and father.

About six years ago he felt he ought to assume a more definite relationship with the church and, in company with his wife, became a member of the Congregational church.

When he became conscious of his real physical condition he simply said this world was good enough for him to live in but if his time had come to leave it he was ready to go. He quietly passed away in the early hours of the Sabbath morning, June 1st, 1919.

He leaves a wife, a daughter-in-law and two grandchildren, Raymond Romanine, nine years and Leota two years of age to mourn their loss.

The home funeral occurred on Wednesday afternoon at half-past two at the residence No. 721 N. Elm street, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. A. Bockoven. Interment in Oak Lawn cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

The widow and relatives wish to express sincere thanks for flowers and favors of friends during this sickness. Mrs. Fannie Farnsworth, Mrs. Willis Farnsworth.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the death and burial of our mother and sister, Mrs. Nellie Hanson, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
Joe Hanson, Mrs. S. Christen, John and James Walton.

GROSSER'S

GROCERY AND VARIETY STORE

MINCE MEAT. Special two pkgs. for 25c

FRESH PEANUT BUTTER, per pound, Saturday only 20c

NUT MARGARINE, per pound, special 33c

ALGOOD MARGARINE, per lb., special price 38c

SPECIAL IN BOX STATIONERY
Regular 15c value, special, 11c. Regular 35c value, special, 27c. Regular 40c value, 32c

FRESH STRAWBERRIES

Otis Brothers.

Delineator, regular price $2.00 a year, special limited offer $1.10 a year, about 9c a copy, you pay 20c a copy regular. Place your order with us. We have just 10 days to get the special offer in.

M. W. A. and R. N. A. Memorial Day.

Maple Camp No. 1344, M. W. A., and Glen Bently Camp, R. N. A., will observe their Memorial Day next Sunday, June 8th. All members who wish to participate are requested to meet at the hall at 9:30 Sunday morning, and to provide their own conveyances. Committees.

FOR SALE—A piano wagon in first-class shape.
JOE R. PATTERSON.

Cresco Opera House

Mr. RICHARD ROWLAND and Mr. MAXWELL KARGER present

The Great NAZIMOVA in EYE for EYE

Supreme among all the actresses of the world

From Henry Kistemaeckers' marvel drama "L'Occident" Adapted by June Mathis and directed by Albert Capellani in Seven gorgeous acts.

NAZIMOVA PRODUCTIONS

Distributed by Metro Pictures Corporation

TWO DAYS, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, JUNE 11 and 12
One show each night at 8:00 o'clock. Admission 20c and 30c