

COURT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hidding and children autoed to Elma Saturday. Dorothy McDaniel was an Elma shopper Tuesday. Vince Shatek delivered a load of hogs to Elma buyers Saturday. No wonder he carried home a broad smile and a neat roll of bills when hogs reach so close to twenty. John Conley was an Alta Nista caller Saturday. Andy Mead, of Elma, autoed through this vicinity Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haskovec and children spent Sunday evening at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Koshatka. Lewis Fisher was an Elma business visitor Saturday. Leonard Freidhoff spent Saturday and Sunday in Elma visiting his sister, Mrs. John Gansen, and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Gable, of Elma, were pleasant callers at the John Lenehan home, Saturday. Tom Koshatka autoed to Spillville Saturday forenoon. Jeff Knutson's home is under quarantine for diphtheria since one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shatek and babe and the former's mother visited at John Komarek's Sunday afternoon. Joseph Shatek went to Elma after a load of coal Saturday. Clement and Emery Lenehan were callers in our burg Friday evening. We are a little afraid that Emery got mixed up on the corners and went east instead of west. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hidding and daughters Evelyn and Bernice and son Clarence left for Minnesota Saturday morning to visit friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dvorak and sons visited at the latter's parental home Sunday evening. Miss Galda Montague, of Minneapolis, is visiting at the Francis Biever home at present. William Aberly, of Davis Corners, was seen speeding our highways Friday evening. Where to, Bill? Oh, yes! I see! The Gansen lads are managing Fred Hidding's place since Saturday. Frank Dvorak and son Truman, of Davis Corners, called at the Frank Buckley home Saturday afternoon. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Buckley. Johnnie Marik was a Lourdes caller Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hidding and son Wallace, accompanied by Henrietta Koshatka, visited at the Tom Koshatka home. Henrietta remained after several week's absence. Hurry up and get your grain cut, boys; as the next event is threshing. Who said "It's too early to thresh?" Not Tom Koshatka, because he has tried out his threshing outfit Friday afternoon. Everything worked splendidly. Mrs. Mike Conley and daughters, of Minneapolis, are visiting in this vicinity. John Beaumaster was an Alta Vista caller Monday. Eileen and Helen Drakeman visited at the Martin Hoffman home the past week. Charles Zobeck and sister Emma, of Elma, attended mass here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Vince Shatek and Mrs. Joseph Shatek autoed to Elma Tuesday. Francis Clancy called on his oil customers Monday afternoon. A large crowd was at the bowery dance at Lourdes Tuesday evening. Everybody enjoyed a good time and all wish for another dance before the bowery is taken down. John Beaumaster and family visited with their wife and wife Sunday evening. Mae Biewer assisted her aunt, Mrs. Vince Shatek, Wednesday, with cooking for the threshers. (Too late for last week.) Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buckley and babe and Mrs. Fr. Buckley shopped in Elma, Thursday evening. Margaret Dugan visited at the home of Will Shea, Saturday. Those who were entertained Sunday at the Tom Koshatka home were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hidding and son Wallace, Henrietta Koshatka, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shatek and babe, Mr. John Komarek and daughter Rosella and Mr. Joe Riha and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Sindelar and family, of Protivin. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Friedhoff and children visited with relatives near Waucoma, Sunday. Mayme Beaumaster was an Elma shopper, Saturday afternoon. Nora Enright accompanied by Marie Fitzgerald were Elma shoppers, Saturday. The Snyder family who were employed at Phil. Sheridan's, the past few months, departed for Charles City, but Phil. doesn't mind that much as he has a newly married couple keeping house for him. Among those who were pleasantly entertained at the Fr. Buckley home,

Sunday afternoon, were Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Lukes and daughters, of Waterloo, Mr. and Mrs. Sindelar and family, of Protivin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dvorak and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Buckley and sons. Jack Petersen autoed to Fredricksburg, Saturday evening. Albert Hidding was an Elma caller, Thursday. Mrs. Crowley, of Pennsylvania, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, departed for her home, Wednesday evening. James Valvoda spent Sunday afternoon at the Komarek home near Cresco and also took in the motion pictures at Protivin in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beaton were in Elma, Thursday evening, the latter consulting a physician. James Haskovec is the possessor of a Ford since Sunday. Which belle will get the first ride, James? Miss Mae Noonan was an Elma caller, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buckley and babe accompanied by James Koshatka and sister Regina and Adelaide Sindelar took in the "movies" at Protivin, Sunday eve. Abbie Conry, a bride of this Tuesday, was extended a novelty shower on Sunday eve. A large crowd was present and many beautiful and valuable presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Noonan autoed to Elma, Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Lukes, of Waterloo, called on Mr. and Mrs. Fr. Valvoda, Saturday eve. Tom Noonan autoed to Spillville, Friday. He says the crops look fine around there, much better than in our territory. Mary Murray and Lucile Clair called on Mrs. Ralph Buckley, Monday. Louis Drinovsky, of Traer, who has been visiting with his sister, Mrs. Joe Miller, returned to his home, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. F. Matthias visited with the former's brother, Rev. Matthias, Sunday. John Carstesen, of Fredricksburg, visited at the John Petersen home, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Koshatka and sons visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, Sunday evening. John Flaherty is again listed among the sick. Mr. and Mrs. Will Shea and Mrs. John Fitzgerald autoed to Cresco, Monday morning. Jack Petersen accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Jack Carstesen, spent Sunday evening at the Frank Buckley home. The wedding of Miss Abbie Conry and Mr. Shearss, of Dakota, was solemnized Tuesday morning at 7:30 at the Lady of Lourdes Church by Father Hogan who also officiated at the nuptial mass. We wish them a long and a happy wedded life.

SARATOGA

Roy Sigler autoed to Riceville Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miles and daughter Gladys and Mrs. Aberg autoed to Cresco Tuesday afternoon. Maude Wittinger autoed to Cresco Tuesday with the mail man. Bert Miles hauled a load of oats to Riceville Wednesday. Chris Graham, wife and daughter Evelyn, were Saratoga shoppers Wednesday evening. Frank Kelsey, of Staples, Minn., is calling on relatives and friends for a few days. Ernest Erbe autoed to Chester Thursday. Mrs. John Miles autoed to Riceville Wednesday. Mrs. Geo. Humphrey, who has been taking care of Mrs. Glen Miles for a few days accompanied her. Hans Witzkie and sons Raymond and Burn accompanied by Geo. Wallace autoed to Riceville Thursday evening. Alice and Nellie Miles are entertaining a lady friend for a few days. Mrs. Aberg and daughter Josie went to Cresco Friday to have some dental work done. Mrs. Will Bell and Mrs. Robt. Nelson were Saratoga shoppers Friday afternoon. Earnest Kraft called on his brother George Saturday evening. Mrs. Geo. Wallace and daughters spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Aberg. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foss and daughter Lillian autoed to Decorah to attend the funeral of Mr. Vick, brother-in-law of Mr. Foss. Frank Wallace, wife and son Arthur were Sunday visitors at the parental home of Thomas Kakac. Hans Witzkie autoed to LeRoy Sunday. Mrs. Witzkie, who has been calling on friends for a week, accompanying him back. Josie Aberg made a trip to Cresco Monday with the stage. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kakac, son Tom and daughter Mayme was pleasant visitors at the Fred Vagts home on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hans Witzkie and family accompanied by Mrs. Aberg were callers at the John Zidlicky home Monday evening.

Houses for Sale.

House and two lots. House and one lot. House and five lots. House and four lots. House and two and one-half acres. 494t A. E. Barker.

SPILLVILLE

Prof. James Mikesh left Tuesday for Yale College, New Haven, Conn. Dr. C. F. Sobolik and family and friends, of Calmar, are camping at Riverside Park. Hattie Kovarik, accompanied by her grandmother, left Tuesday for the farmers' home at Chicago. Mrs. Hutchinson and daughter, who have been visiting relatives here, left Thursday for a visit at Calmar, enroute to their home at Elgin. A large crowd gathered here Wednesday evening to attend the concert which was given by the Calmar band. Mrs. Jerome Huber, daughter Carrie, and Lucy Huber autoed to near Protivin Tuesday for a visit with the Ed. Novak family, returning home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Clemence Herold, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Swehla and daughter Lida and Mrs. Joseph Mikesh, autoed to Cresco Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard and daughter, of Saude, were guests at the A. G. Fisher home Tuesday. Mrs. Thomas Dvorak spent last week at Calmar visiting relatives. Mary Suchan returned home Monday, after a stay of two weeks at the Lewis Novak home near Protivin. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hess, of St. Paul, are visiting at the Anton Smith home this week. Mrs. A. G. Fisher and daughters Lillian and Loretta spent Wednesday with relatives at Protivin. Martin Mikesh, who has been spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mikesh, returned Tuesday to Milwaukee. A. A. Novak and family, accompanied by Prof. Alouis Kovarik, left last Wednesday via auto on a trip to Minneapolis and St. Paul, where they will visit friends. Geo. Nockels, from near Protivin, autoed down here Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sebasta left Wednesday by auto for their home at Moose Lake, Minn., after an extended visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nemetz. Andrew Smith autoed to Calmar on business Friday. Paul Kubik, of Protivih, was repairing telephones in town last week. Marie, Agnes and Lucy Suchan, Lena Herold and Emma Mikesh were Decorah shoppers Thursday. Mame Skoda, of Protivin, is staying at the Adolf Mikesh home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novak and son, of Little Turkey, spent Sunday with relatives here. Joe Vopova, of near Protivin, was here on business Saturday. Vitoria Hruska, of Wallace, Idaho, arrived here Friday for a visit at the parental home. Joe Junko spent Saturday at the Wm. Wagner home near Ridgeway. Miss Johnson, of Richmond, Minn., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Gilbert Haadvedt. Mr. and Mrs. James Triska and daughter Lillian, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Swehla and daughter Ida, spent Sunday with relatives near Ridgeway. Regina and Viola Zahaska, of Protivin, were Spillville shoppers Wednesday. Mrs. Harold Knapp and family left for Mason City Sunday after an extended stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mikesh. Miss Boucek and friend from Chicago were guests at the Woldum home Monday. Mrs. Rose Klemish spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Herold. Mr. and Mrs. Elias Meyer, of Fort Atkinson, were calling on friends in town Sunday. Mr. Boucek and sister Lillian, accompanied by a friend from Chicago, are visiting at the Kalla home west of town. J. C. Morris and family, Dr. C. D. Horton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Goite, of Calma, autoed down here Wednesday to hear the band concert. Josephine Hooper is clerking at the Haug-Heuser Co. store while Bessie Tchek is having her vacation. Stella Klemish is staying at the E. Herold home west of town.

For Sale.

Building lots, located in good residence portion of city. City water, sewer and pavement. Inquire of Mrs. G. R. Story. 49-2tp

KEEP STRONG As an aid to robustness, thousands upon thousands use Scott's Emulsion as regular as clock-work the year around. A rich tonic, Scott's Emulsion contains elements that contribute to the up-building of strength. Be sure that you buy Scott's Emulsion. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

CHESTER

Wm. Scheevel passed away Saturday, at his home in Cherry Grove after an illness of a few months duration. The funeral will be held Thursday. Mrs. Steffins of New York, Mrs. W. M. Sims of Minneapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been visiting the W. W. Cray home, also at Decorah and Waterloo. Frank Bagan departed for Hampshire, Ill., Sunday evening to visit his daughter, Mrs. John Miller. The Geo. Ness, John Ness and Ole Ness families from out of town were entertained at the Laurie Ness home Sunday. The ice cream social given Saturday evening by one of the Sunday school classes was a grand success financially, proceeds amounting to $47.00. L. L. Phifer and family drove to Spring Valley Monday morning taking his mother, who took the train at that place to return to LaCrosse, Wis. Mrs. C. T. McWilliams and Paul, Ione Thorson and Maizie Plummer were callers in LeRoy Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McMahon and W. F. Carter autoed from Rochester Saturday to spend the day with relatives and friends. Emma Putzier came Friday to see her sister, Mrs. Ed Roper. Miss Putzier has secured a school for the coming year in our vicinity. L. G. Fiske and family of Cresco spent Sunday at the Geo. Thomas home. Mrs. Matt Johnson and Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Plummer and Luverne autoed to Minneapolis Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Breedlove and Mrs. Fred Morris visited the W. C. Breedlove home the latter part of the week. Tom Roberts of Independence, Ia., came the fore part of the week to see his sister, Mrs. Roy Jones. Mrs. Charles L. Avery and daughter of Austin were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Breedlove. Will O'Brien of Lime Springs was in Chester Monday. Gordon Thomas was a LeRoy caller Sunday. John Breedlove of Cresco visited W. C. Breedlove and Ham Breedlove Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patrick of Boone, Ia., were guests at the W. W. Cray home the last of the week. Ray Downey of Stacyville was shaking hands with old friends in Chester Friday. Knute Rhinehart was over from Spring Valley Wednesday. W. W. Cray was a business caller in Cresco Wednesday. Lornie Phifer went to Lime Springs the middle of the week. Archie Winslow and Edna Maurer autoed to LeRoy Wednesday evening. Winfield Cray went to Decorah Friday. Fred Elwood and Joe Cray were here from Lime Springs Friday morning on business. Roy Lusk and wife of Mankato, Minn., are here visiting the Lusk and Daws homes. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Kent, Saturday, July 19th, a nine-pound girl. Mr. and Mrs. John Genshaw and son of St. Paul are visiting her brother, Fred Maurer. Mrs. Geo. Spencer and Marion, Mrs. J. J. McDowell and children autoed to LeRoy, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. C. T. McWilliams is enjoying a visit with her niece, Maizie Plummer, of Cresco, who has been spending the past week with her. Mrs. H. L. Baldwin came from Waterloo Saturday for a few days' visit with her brother and daughter, Mrs. O. Baldwin and Dorothy. R. Jones and J. J. McDowell were Cresco callers the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roberts were called to Charles City by the serious illness of their daughter Myrtle. Mrs. E. D. Capper returned from Cuba, Mo., Wednesday evening her mother slightly improved. Mrs. Frances Barrett went to Cresco to attend a teacher's meeting at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stintzi and Vernon came Wednesday morning to make their home among us again. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back to Chester. Roy Jones and family went to Bristol and stayed over night with Mrs. Jones brother, John Roberts. W. C. Brown was up from Lime Springs Thursday and visited the C. G. Lake and W. H. Barnes homes. Mrs. A. H. Barrett went to LeRoy Friday afternoon to spend the week end with friends and relatives. F. O. Brown and family formerly of Chester passed thru town Friday enroute to their home in Fayette after visiting Mrs. Brown's people in LeRoy. Bred Baldwin and family and Mrs. Baldwin's nieces the Misses Wagner departed Friday morning for a trip to Minneapolis returning Monday accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Glen Simes.

Minnesota Farm Lands.

Get my list of Minnesota farms at from $150 to $185 per acre. They are good ones too. Right near the Iowa line in Houston and Fillmore counties. Go and see these lands on Monday, Aug. 4th. For particulars see or write 50-1f A. J. Evans, Cresco, Iowa.

LIME SPRINGS

Clinton Cowen, of Eagle Grove, Iowa, spent part of the past week as a guest at the Frank Burns home. Rev. Edwards and family have been enjoying a visit from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Roberts and son, from Lake Crystal. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Isaacson autoed to Cresco, Monday. Grace Nichols, who has been spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Lomas, at Cresco, returned home Monday. Mrs. Henry Whitford, Mrs. Guy Whitford and daughter, Mrs. Clinton Humphrey and daughter were guests of Mrs. L. Sanborn at Cresco, Monday. Alice Jones is enjoying a visit with Miss Schnef, of Iowa City. Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hughes and little daughter were guests at the Hughes home, Tuesday. Mrs. John Arsen and little daughter, of Osage, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hughes. Mrs. Glen Jones and Ellen Jones were Cresco shoppers, Thursday. Arleigh Dunlap came home, Monday, having been discharged from active service in France. Lillian O'Brien came down from Minneapolis for a visit with home folks. Myrtle Kerr returned home from Lansing where she has been visiting at the E. L. Barlow home. Mr. Bullard, of Waseca, is working in the Horton Drug Store. Mrs. George Haven and daughters are spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Haven's mother in Milwaukee. Mrs. Susan Ivers, Mrs. Lovell and daughter Georgia came from Duluth, Friday, for a visit with friends and relatives. Bessie Arsen of Osage spent the week end with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hughes. Mrs. Mattie Owen was a Cresco shopper Saturday. Floyd Dunlap of Algona spent the week end with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Foote were Charles City visitors last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Omoth and daughter are spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Goldfield. Edna Anderson is tending the store in their absence. Wm. Scheevel passed away at his home north of town after an illness of several months. Funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon. Wm. Evans and family were Cresco shoppers Saturday. Joe Williams and Harold Sanborn autoed to Charles City Sunday. Mrs. Russell Brantner and little daughter are visiting the former's parents at North English. Mrs. M. B. Davis and Anna May were Cresco callers Thursday. Wilma Barlow came down from Lansing for a visit with friends. Loren Johnson was a business visitor at St. Joe, Mo., last week. Rev. Shoemaker, who has spent the past month with his parents in Ohio, returned home Friday. Mrs. G. A. Howland and cousin, Mrs. Arsen spent Thursday in Cresco. Joe Hughes, who has been attending school at Mt. Vernon returned home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Halver of Chester were Lime Springs visitors Thursday. Will Roberts and family of Minneapolis are guests of Mr. Roberts mother, Mrs. J. H. Roberts and other relatives. Mrs. E. E. Griffith and Marjory are spending the week with Mrs. Frank Stevens, camping at Old Town.

G. W. Moor and family, Mrs. V. S. Bowser and children autoed to Cresco, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Al Galloway and son Hewitt, of Clarinda. Mr. and Mrs. Halverson and son who have been visiting at Jamestown, N. D., returned Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitford and sons Gene and Jim and family autoed up from Volga, Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sanborn and Rob Davis autoed to Strawberry Point, last week. Violet Horton and Will Kerr spent Sunday at Storm Lake. Friday evening at 7 o'clock, about 60 guests gathered in the M. E. church basement where a dainty two-course banquet was served in honor of our returned soldiers and sailors. The room was very prettily decorated with the National colors, this and the beautiful bouquets on the tables presenting a most pleasing appearance. After the banquet toasts were given by the following, Capt. H. W. Plummer acting as toastmaster: Mr. Cunningham, Art Nagel, W. E. Kerr, Harrison Davis, Dave Roberts, Hayden Edwards, Paul Nagel, Mr. Bullard, Mrs. Plummer and Miss Alice Jones. Following the banquet the band gave a very fine open air concert; then to finish off the evening there was a dance for all who cared to attend.

PROTIVIN TATTLE TALE.

W. M. Kalishak motored to the Frank Vestecka home Tuesday. Edward Kalishak motored to Cresco Saturday. Lewis Smith from Spillville was a caller here Sunday. Lewis seems to like Protivin all right. Frank Fencil was a business caller a Calmar Thursday. Georgina Skoda called at the John Zahaska home Friday. C. W. Chyle was a business caller at New Hampton Saturday. A crowd of young folks from Spillville were entertained at the Joseph Klimesh, Sr., home Friday. Grace Sweatka of Schley, is a guest at the Hemen Lukes home this week. Joe Fencil was a business caller at Ridgeway Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biespiel of Chicago were also present at the picnic at Vernon Sunday. (It was an error of the printer that their names were omitted from that item last week.) Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Busta visited at the John Svoboda home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lukes and daughter Bernette were guests at the Louisa Shores home near Lawler Sunday. The song of the threshing machine can be heard in every direction these days. Frank Fencil called at the Chas. Bouska home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kalisek and daughter were callers at Junction Jct., Thursday. George Klimesh accompanied by his mother and Mrs. Frankie Klimesh shopped at Spillville Saturday. Emma Skoda, Carolyn Kerian of Minto, N. D., Joseph Klimesh and Charles Chyle motored to Decorah Sunday to see the beautiful scenery and ice cave. Arthur Sweatka of Schley and mother and sister Grace and Luverne were guests at Hemen Lukes home Sunday.

Births During July.

Certificates of birth have been filed with the clerk of the courts during the month of July as follows: Chas. Francis Milz, born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Milz, July 6, 1919. Mildred Grace Betts, born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Betts, July 10, 1919.

Which Position Do You Prefer? Hundreds of pleasant, paying positions, such as picture above, await the trained, proficient men and women to occupy them. And salaries are highest ever known. FIT YOURSELF FOR ENJOYABLE WORK AND A BIG SALARY Let us prepare you for success in life. Let us teach you to become a competent, well-paid worker. Just choose work to your liking and let us develop your talents. There is a big demand for trained bookkeepers, stenographers, telegraph operators, banking experts and other office workers. There is also a scarcity of auto, truck and tractor experts. We fit you for success in any of these callings and help you secure positions. THOUSANDS OF SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS Our students write us of their good salaries and bright prospects. You have just as good an opportunity. Write us today and take the first step to success. YOU WILL ENJOY COLLEGE LIFE Its sports, pastimes and privileges will please you. The low cost of living when learning will surprise you. Come to beautiful, desirable Austin and join the successful ones. SEND FOR FREE ILLUSTRATED CATALOG Tell us what line of work you prefer, and we will send you our beautifully illustrated catalog that tells all about our course in your chosen calling. Don't delay. Write today. U. L. MACKAY, Sup't. UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MINNESOTA Austin, Minnesota 1600 College Ave.

Day Phone 2204 Night Phone 2204 Exclusive Undertaking Parlors IN THE COZY THEATRE BUILDING West Side Main Street E. L. Bradley, License Embalmer. Mrs. Elizabeth Bradley, Lady Assistant