

The First Bottle of PE-RU-NA

Gave Relief so Writes

Entirely Free from Catarrh of the Stomach

"Peruna has positively done for me what many doctors failed to do. I have been time and again compelled to take to my bed for days. The first bottle of Peruna gave relief and while I always keep it in the house for emergencies, I consider myself entirely free from catarrh of the stomach, the trouble from which I suffered for so long before taking this remedy."

Married.

Tuesday morning, Feb. 10, 1920 at eight o'clock at the chapel, Ben Novak and Stella Klemish were united in marriage, Rev. J. P. Broz solemnizing the nuptial mass and performing the marriage ceremony. The bride wore an attractive traveling suit of navy blue wool tricotine with a hat of a corresponding shade and carried a bouquet of white roses. They were attended by Mary Novak, of Protivin, and Lewis Suchan of this place. Following the ceremony at the church a four course wedding breakfast was served to the nearest relatives. The past eleven years she has spent at Cedar Rapids where she graduated as a registered nurse at Mercy hospital and where she worked as nurse. The same day they departed for an extended honeymoon trip. On their return home they will reside on the groom's farm near Conover.

Several from Cresco attended the funeral here Monday of Henry Herold which was held at St. Clemence church. Joseph Ptacek had a new telephone put in his home last week.

Obituary.

Hruska.

Frank Hruska, son of John Hruska, Sr., of this town passed away at the home of his parents Saturday morning, Feb. 7, 1920, at about two o'clock a. m. after a long and lingering illness. About two years ago while at work as a carpenter Mr. Hruska and several others fell from a high scaffold and was severely hurt. He seemed to recover from this injury, but never became really well again and gradually became weaker so that for about the two last years he was unable to work at all. At the time of his death was 35 years, 7 months and 26 days. Funeral services were held from St. Wencelous Catholic church Monday morning Feb. 9th, Rev. J. P. Broz, officiating. The body was escorted to its last resting place by members of the local lodge of M. W. A. of which the deceased was a member. He leaves to mourn his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hruska, Sr., two brothers, Joseph of Omaha, Neb., and John W. of this town, four sisters, Mrs. Frank Valenta of Lankin, N. D., Mrs. Jas. Frana of Calmar and Mrs. Frank Poshusta and Caroline of Spillville, Mr. Hruska was a likeable young man, upright and honorable which commended the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. His death is deeply deplored by his friends and relatives all of whom have the sympathy of the community in their loss. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Valenta and daughter Marcella, of Lankin, N. D., Victor and Joseph Valenta of Calmar and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Frana of Calmar.

Henry Herold passed away at his home west of town on Saturday morning, Feb. 14th, 1920. Funeral services were held on Monday morning, Feb. 16th at St. Clemence Catholic church at 10 o'clock and interment was made in adjoining cemetery. The only relatives he leaves to mourn are two sisters of Cresco, Mrs. Richard Kapler and Mrs. Zack Kapler.

Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

If ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts,
Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

There's a satisfied user near you

IN considering the installation of a farm electric plant, more must be taken into account than mere price. There are other things of greater importance.

You want to be sure you receive long years of dependable service at low operating and upkeep cost, and be sure the plant you install will do the things which are claimed.

Delco-Light is not an experiment. It has gone through the refining influence of years of actual farm usage. Today there are more than 85,000 plants in daily use. Nearly everywhere you will find Delco-Light plants providing complete and dependable electric service. There is a satisfied Delco-Light user near you.

Think what this means to you. It means that you need not depend entirely upon your own judgment when buying an electric light and power plant. You can talk to an actual user and learn from him whether Delco-Light will do for you the things claimed.

Perhaps your neighbor has Delco-Light? If not, write for name of nearest user and catalog.
