

THE Price of Experience

has always been high, even when the cost of living was low

Trying to get Kelly-Springfield mileage out of low priced tires is one way of buying experience at the top price.

We are not overstocked. We are not giving a FORCED SALE. We are receiving new tires every day. We are selling makes of tires that we do not wish to carry. We have but a few left. For a real bargain see us.

High School Notes.

Cecyle Bradley, Editor.

Now that school has begun why not show Cresco there is a real C. H. S. that's full of pep. Start in right and lets all go into everything like we really meant it. Mr. Jackson has started us out; keep up the good work and put old C. H. S. on the map.

Football has started and everyone is eager for the games that are coming. This is shown by one of the business men of the town. Mr. Odell has given the team twelve pairs of Schimmels. He deserves a great deal of credit for the donation: it shows that he is working for the interest of the school. Just a few more of these high-spirited men and our old opponent, Oaage, will not have a show with us at all.

Dedicated to Cappy.

Early to rise

Stay in your eyes.

Twins—"There were 800 kids burned in a factory at Waterloo."
Noah—"What kind of a factory was it?"
Twins—"A glove factory."

The Lord made the Juniors
He made them in the night
He made them in a hurry
And forgot to paint them white.

Boots—"The world is looking for wise men, Tommy."
Tommy—"Yes, and the government is looking for mules. Better pull in your ears."

"Tis a wise teacher that knows her own Freshmen.

The football season has started and that means plenty of pep. We have started it out right by electing yell leaders. Hazel Burr and Craig Lomas were chosen. Pep meetings have been held and all have shown their fighting spirit. Come on everybody; let's go! Help to win the games.

Anyone wanting a good talker consult the Public Speaking class.

Freshie: "Say, do you know the difference between a sign, an automobile and a mule?"
Sophie: "Nape."
Freshie: "Well its this. A sign is 'oh dear' and an automobile is 'too dear.'"
Sophie: "How about the mule?"
Freshie: "Why that's you, dear."

The Lord made the Irish
The Lord made the Dutch
The Lord made the Sophomores

Bill Korbel's black eye caused much attraction at C. H. S. Someone finally asked the cause of this and Bill replied "Oh, Tommy Nolan and I got into a scrap."

The next football game of the season will be Saturday, Sept. 25, between New Hampton and Cresco. This game and the following games will be played on the new athletic field, two blocks east and one south of the high school grounds. Cresco has a fine outlook this year in both schedule and team. Some of the big games are New Hampton, Nashua, West Union and Decorah. If everybody boosts there is no reason why Cresco can't win the championship of northeastern Iowa.

We think Marcia must be a little home-sick for she hollers "pas" in French frequently.

Mr. Fields in Public Speaking.
"Urban, use the word 'acclimated' in a sentence."
Urban: "The man acclimated the horse."
Mr. Fields: "Just what do you mean by that, Urban?"
Urban: "Why, the man climbed up on the horse, of course!"

The Freshmen have organized their class, elected their officers, and selected their colors. The officers are Naomi Smith, president, Clara Clemmer, vice-president. The colors are old gold and purple.

Dedicated to Henry.
He put his arm around her
The color left her cheek,
But there upon his collar.
It remained for about a week.
Lives of Seniors all remind us
We should do our very best,
And departing leave behind us
Notebooks that will help the rest.
Juniors were born for great things
Sophes were born for small
But it is not recorded
Why Freshies were born at all.
