OBITUARY

Combs.
Fred Combs, second child of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Combs, departed this life Monday, Oct. 4, at the University hospital, Minneapolis, where he had been a patient for some time. He was about 18 years of age, contracted the influenza last spring, from which he never fully recovered, other complications setting in which resulted in a disease of the heart. The remains were brought here to the home of his parents, from which place the funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Backoven officiating, with interment in Oak Lawn cemetery. The deceased leaves to mourn his death, his parents, several brothers and sisters and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Bates, of Elk River, Minn.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank the friends who so kindly assisted us in the time of our bereavement.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Combs and Family.

Dance at Protivin.
There will be a dance in Tuckek's Hall in Protivin on Tuesday, Oct. 12th, music by Crouse's orchestra.

Dance at Schley, Sunday.
There will be a dance in the Schley hall, Sunday night, Oct. 10th. Good music. Everybody invited.

For Sale

Will sell my farm of 77 acres with plenty of good buildings, good fences, etc. Located on a good main traveled road.

This farm is only one mile from Granger, Minn.—a good town with two churches, good schools and good creamery. Three miles from Catholic church. Priced right. See owner. John Mathews, Cresco, Iowa. 8tf

For Sale!

As I put less than one-third of my Poland Chinas in the sale, Sept. 20th, I have five fall boars and all kinds of spring boars to sell. If you want anything in this line of the most popular breeding at a low price, come and see them and I will save you money. Also posts to sell. 8tf W. J. WEBSTER.

For Sale

I still have some registered Poland China boars, some sired by "Webster's King Jones," and some by "Big Bone Timm, Jr." They are right and the price is right. Also some White Rock cockerels. 811 Edw. F. Novak, Cresco, Ia.

A good 7-room house for sale in the best location in town, at a bargain. Must be sold at once to close estate. Paved street, cement walks; lot runs to alley, with garden and barn. Just the place for a young couple or a farmer who wants to move to town. No trades. Cash only. Write at once. W. E. S., 321 North Elm street, Cresco, Iowa. 822

Boyle Woolfolk, producer of musical comedies of the better sort will send to this city on Monday, Oct. 18, at the Cresco theater his favorite metropolitan success, "Vanity Fair." Lovers of music, comedy and dancing will have an opportunity to witness one of the best musical comedies on tour, with the original cast and production. The company carries thirty-five people and a beauty chorus of twenty under twenty.

Word was received by Cresco relatives the first of the week of the death of Peter Breen, at one time a resident of Cresco, but who has been living for several years at Butte, Montana, where he passed away. His death, which was very sudden, was due to heart failure and occurred Saturday, Oct. 2nd, with burial on Thursday, Oct. 7th. Mr. Breen leaves surviving him, his wife, who was Kate Griffin, a sister of Atty. Joseph Griffin of this city, and two adopted daughters, also three nephews, Reginald, Leslie and Paul Barnes of Cresco.

Local News and News Letters. Omitted

Much to our regret, some of our news letters from about the county—those arriving late in the week—considerable local news and some advertisements are omitted from this issue owing to the demands of advertisers upon our columns, and a shortage of help absolutely prohibits an enlargement of the paper at this time. However, the Plain Dealer's new typesetting machine, one of the very best made and ordered over a year ago, is at last on its way from the factory, and within a few weeks we expect to be enabled to meet any demands upon our newspaper columns.
