

STAIRCASES in which beauty is the first consideration, for the bedrooms built-in dressing tables that are a part of the house itself, mantels that carry out the architectural type of the house—these are standardized items of Curtis Woodwork.

For over fifty years Curtis Woodwork has been known as good woodwork—honest craftsmanship. Now, the designs and sizes of Curtis Woodwork being standardized, the lowered cost of production has brought the price of beautiful woodwork lower than it has ever been before, and brings beautiful homes within the reach of all.

Through our co-operation with the manufacturers of Curtis Woodwork, we are able to obtain for home-builders, without charge, portfolios of "Better Built Homes," in four architectural types—Colonial, English, Western and Southern. Each portfolio contains illustrations of exteriors, interiors, and floor plans, with complete description of 32 homes, ranging in size from 3-room cottages to 8-room homes.

Come in and talk over your new home with us. Even though your plans be yet in the dream stage, we will be glad to help you select and plan your home—the center of your world.

Obituary.

Anna Augusta Mohr was born on the 16th of August 1879, as the daughter of Mr. August Schacht and his wife Julia, in Hazel Green, Delaware County Ia. In the year 1879 her parents removed to Howard County, where she lived ever since.

On August 6th, 1908, she was wedded to Mr. Emil Mohr of Howard Center, Twp. With love and devotion she assumed the duties of a mother to his two children, Georgena and Verne. Their union was blessed by two children, Carl and Herbert.

In the years that Mrs. Mohr has been with us, she has won the love and affection of everyone that became acquainted with her. As wife, as mother, as daughter, as friend she showed herself active in deeds of love.

Mrs. Mohr was an earnest and devout Christian and always took an active interest in church matters. She was affiliated with the Ev. Lutheran congregation and Ladies Aid of Davis Corners.

It is with true regret and heartfelt sorrow that we heard of her death, which occurred last Saturday morning. She attained to the age of 41 years and two months. Her untimely departure is mourned by her husband, children and stepchildren who have been mentioned, her brothers, Messrs. Henry, Frank and Charles Schacht, her sisters Mrs. Mary Mohr and Mrs. Anna Hall, her mother and two aunts, Mrs. Roessler and Mrs. Buegel.

The funeral service was held at Lime Springs on Monday afternoon, Rev. G. Bunge of Lime Springs officiating. Interment took place at Pleasant Hill cemetery.
