

New Discounts in Dry Goods

Our policy of following the market to its new low level continues. In addition to the new special discounts offered here, we are continuing practically all of the special prices previously announced. Read this advertisement carefully and you will find many opportunities to save money.

Specials in Suits

We still offer 20 per cent. discount on all our handsome Ladies' Suits. At sale prices $26.00 and up. These represent an unusual saving.

Skirts Pleated Free

Buy your skirt length in our Dress Good Department and we will pleat it FREE this week. This applies to all Wool Dress Goods selling at $1.50 a yard or over.

Buy Winter Coats Now

Prepare for cold weather with one of Heavy Plush or Cloth Coats. These new Winter Coats are all at 10 per cent. discount.

Special Prices on Dresses

See our special lot of Silk Dresses now at 25 per cent. discount. Special prices on one lot of Serge Dresses ranging from 15 to 25 per cent. discount.

Compare Both Quality and Price Here

20 per cent. Discount on all Silk Petticoats.
10 per cent. Discount on Blankets.
10 per cent. Discount on all Silk and Wool Dress Skirts.
Gingham Dresses at Half Price.
All Hosiery at 15 per cent. Discount.
All Underwear at 15 per cent. Discount.
Fleesners Knitting yarn 90c a skein.

Best quality Percales now 29c
Best quality Outing Flannel 30c
9-4 Bleached Sheeting now 65c
35-inch Bleached Muslin 23c
Special prices on Jap Table Cloth
50c Gingham only 38c
15 per cent. Discount on Cotton Middies
15 per cent. Discount on all corsets

Special Prices in Many Other Departments H. A. Warner & Son

Successors to Mott & Co.

Cresco, Iowa

Miss Alvina Bartz returned Thursday night to her home at Ossian, having been here with her sister, Mrs. Ann Egan, who is a patient at Mercy hospital, where she underwent an operation Wednesday morning.

For sale or trade—For second hand Ford car—one 30-horse-power wood-saw with sleighs, also one eight inch burr feed mill in good running order. Inquire of L. W. Bentley, Cresco, Ia. Route No. 6, box 43. It

Mrs. C. C. Thornton of Farmington, Minn., arrived today for a visit with her relatives, the C. J. Vance and P. M. Banning families and with her daughter, Miss Leta Thornton, who is teaching west of town.

Big News is Coming

It'll be the Talk of the Town. The Whole Family will be there. It's worth waiting for.

The greatest sale we have ever put on begins Saturday, Oct. 30th, and continues until our $100,000 stock has been reduced to $50,000. We have decided to continue our October Sale and have made another big slash on

Men's Suits and Overcoats
Boys' Suits and Overcoats
Ladies' Suits and Coats
Children's Coats and Ladies' Dresses

Below we mention only a few of our many attractive bargains:

Calicoes 15c yard
36-inch Percales 30c yard
Dress Gingham 30c yard
45c Outings 30c yard
40c Muslins 30c yard
30c Muslins 20c yard
35c Towelling 25c yard
Laces and Embroideries Half Price
$1.00 per yard disc. on all 36-in. Silks
$2.00 discount on every pair of Ladies' Dress Shoes
Men's $10 Leather Vests at $6.95

Men's extra heavy $1.50 Work Shirts now 95c
Men's Stifel $2.50 Overalls and Jackets at $1.75
Men's extra heavy $3.00 plain blue Overalls and Jackets $2.25
No limit. Buy as many as you like
Boys' $4.00 Shoes at $3.25
Men's $10.00 Foote Schultz Shoes at $7.95
Men's $14.00 Florsheim Shoes $11.95
One lot Men's $7.00 Shoes at $3.95
Men's Work Shoes at $2.95

THE TOGGERY

S. B. Johnson, Prop.

Harmony, Minn.

"Supreme Ice Cream," Home made. Cabbage for sale.—Alex Glawogger, Route 8.

Maplesota Flour at F. A. Glass'. None better. 8tf

Maplesota Flour at F. A. Glass'. None better. 8tf

Heating stove for sale. Inquire of Mrs. H. Baker. It

Miss Louise Barfoot of Decorah, was a Cresco business visitor Monday.

W. F. Scholz, of Ossian, was a Cresco visitor between trains Monday.

N. A. Blackburn, Lawyer, office over Field's furniture store. Phone 455.

For Sale—19 high-grade Holstein heifers, a nice lot. J. E. Doolittle.

FOR SALE—Brooms by the piece or by the dozen. 6tf FRED ERLER.

Three small farms for rent. 10tf DREW LAND CO.

FARM FOR RENT—Enquire of 7tf A. J. MIKESH, Protivin, Iowa.

Miss Anna Aberg left Friday afternoon for Cedar Rapids for a short stay.

Miss Mamie Lee went to Decorah Saturday afternoon for a few days' stay.

There will be a meeting of the Civic Club at the Library Monday, Nov. 1st, at 2:30.

For Sale—Singer sewing machine—good as new. See Mrs. Geo. Wentworth.

George Owens left Friday on a business trip to various points in North Dakota.

Mrs. Anna Kirkland of Decorah was a visitor last week of her friend, Mrs. H. A. Kinnie.

Fashionably bred Berkshire boar pigs for sale. W. G. Harold, Route 3, Cresco, Iowa. 102f

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Falck arrived the first of the week for a visit with Mrs. Phillip Gesel.

Miss Francis Judd went to Austin on Tuesday for a visit at the home of her brother, John Judd.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dvorak and family left Thursday morning for their new home in Wisconsin.

Sewing machine for sale, in good condition. Phone 332 or call at residence 237 3d Ave. W. 7tf

Mrs. Margaret Friend was a Bonair visitor Friday, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Swin.

Eat "Supreme Ice Cream." It is delicious and wholesome. Sold by all up-to-date dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook left Thursday afternoon for a visit with his relatives at Lamont, Iowa.

Vic McNally came out from Chicago Sunday for a visit at the home of his brother, C. P. McNally.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zapotocny leave today for Milwaukee where they go to make their future home.

Miss Vala returned Monday to her home at Charles City, after a visit here at the Dr. Jinderlee home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Teslow autoed to Lansing Sunday and were guests of the Barney Johnson family.

Miss Eva Bagan returned to her home at Chester after a visit here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alfred Orum of Ridgeway spent Saturday afternoon in Cresco, and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Mrs. Drake and daughter, Miss Mary, of Lime Springs, were over Sunday guests of Mrs. S. M. Culbert.

A large size Radiant Home hard coal stove for sale. Inquire of Mrs. Margaret Zender. Phone 439. 11tf

Mrs. A. L. Wagy returned last Monday night from a visit with her sister, who resides in Minneapolis.

Mrs. E. J. Ferrie and daughter, Miss Dorothy, went to Lime Springs today to spend the day with friends.

Mr. Will Forry and little daughter Elizabeth, returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Riceville.

Mrs. Will Armstrong and sister-in-law, Miss Nellie, came down from Lime Springs, Thursday, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Englehardt returned Friday from their honeymoon, spent with relatives at Monona.

Miss A. Koehn left Thursday for Manchester where she will be the guest of her sister Ellen for a few days.

M. A. Williams arrived on Saturday morning from St. Charles, Ill., for a visit at the C. F. Robinson home.

Wanted—Auto truck hauling. Also auto livery work. Phone 483. 9tf S. M. Culbert.

Miss Elizabeth Byrnes arrived home last week from Champaign, Ill., where she has been trimming the past season.

Mrs. Henry Courtney, of Decorah, returned Tuesday to her home after a visit here with her father, Thos. Gilmore.

Mrs. Ed Wilbur left Monday for McGregor and Prairie du Chein, where goes in the interest of the S. D. A. church.

FOR SALE—Three Shorthorn-Durham bulls, one year old. J. B. BARTHELME. 8tf

Mrs. Ed Weaklen and little son Robert are in St. Paul, the guests of her sister, Mrs. John Feuling and family.

Miss Alma Meyers returned to her home at Hayfield, Minn., after a visit here at the Fred Miller and Frank Wilson homes.

Mrs. R. A. Register left Tuesday for Minneapolis, where she will be the guest of her son, Ray Pierce, for a few days.

Mrs. Delbert Foss and two children arrived Wednesday from Mason City, for a visit at the parental John Ingraham home.

Mrs. Eugene Irvine was a week-end visitor with her daughter, Miss Kathryn, who is a student at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Rachel Frehauf came down from St. Paul the first of the week and will be here a few days attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Fisk returned on Monday morning to their home at Monticello, Minn., after a few days stay here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Melias of Decorah, were over Sunday visitors with the George and Gilbert Melias and John Iverson families.

Wanted—Young man with car to do special work in Howard County among farmers. Write Earl R. Foster, care of Wallace's Farmer. 11t3

There will be a program and basket social at the Brierly school Friday evening Nov. 6th. Everyone invited. Leta Thornton, teacher.

Mrs. Ida DeLange, of Marmarth, N. D., came last week from Rochester, for a visit with her mother, Mrs. West, and other relatives here.

Miss Mae Miller and brother Darwin, returned Monday to their home at Bonair, after a visit here with their grandmother, Mrs. M. Walter.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil House and little babe came down from Minneapolis on Tuesday afternoon, called by the death of his father, J. J. House.

Mrs. Dan Drew returned Thursday from Waukon where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. James Ryan and with other relatives there.

Mrs. C. T. McWilliams was down from Chester Thursday for a day's visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Plummer and mother, Mrs. Courtney.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taft returned Thursday to their home at Minneapolis having been here to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, J. J. House.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Stevens have recently moved to Cresco and will occupy their new home in the second ward, recently purchased from Roger Clark.

S. W. Harris left Monday afternoon for Minden Mine, Mo., for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Willis, whom he has not seen in over thirty years.

Drive in on the new pavement to hitching ground. Room for 60 teams. Hitch out—10 cents; in barn—25 cents. J. M. Mara.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lomas returned Wednesday afternoon from a visit at Villisca with their sons, DeWitt and Dr. Willis Lomas, and their families.

Tom Perry came over from Mason City last week to visit home folks and, incidentally, to get acquainted with his twin nephews at the Chas. Fish home.

Mrs. Chas. Burmeister and Miss Anna Richter from near Harmony went to Monona Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the Rev. Daug home.

George Fleming returned Tuesday to his home in Minneapolis. While here Mr. Fleming was a guest of his cousins Mrs. J. E. Kennedy and M. J. Fleming.

Mrs. Bernard Buckland was over from Mason City last week for a visit at the parental John Hallman home and with her sister, Mrs. Joe Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leitz returned Monday to their home at Benson, Minn., after a visit here at the Henry Leitz home and with other relatives in this vicinity.

Remember "To sow a thought is to reap an action." Your first action should be to send for our catalogue. Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Owens returned Tuesday morning from Dubuque, where they spent the week end with their daughter, Miss Helen, at Mt. St. Joseph's, Dubuque.

Miss E. Belden, field representative of the Central Division American Red Cross, called at Cresco Monday relative to the peace-time program of the Red Cross and the regional conference to be held in McGregor Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Albert Ellingson and little son, of Kildeer, N. D., who has been visiting at the Wm. Williams home in Minneapolis and with her brother, Leslie Birtwistle, and wife at Lakeville, Minn., arrived Tuesday afternoon for a visit at the parental, Wm. Birtwistle, home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray, of Rochester, Minn., were here this week to attend the funeral of their father, Charles Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christensen left Monday for Maddeok, N. D., to attend the wedding of their daughter, Clara, who became the bride of Ole Grinde on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. H. Miller returned Wednesday night from Waterloo, where she was called by the illness of her granddaughter, Lois Miller, whom she reports as convalescing nicely.

Mrs. J. C. Just returned Thursday night to her home at Rockford, Ill., having been called here by the death and burial of her father, J. T. Elliott, who lived near Harmony.

Mrs. Jake Falck arrived Thursday from Strawberry Point. Her husband will follow in a few days and they will make Cresco their future home, and will live in the second ward.

For Sale—A good pressed brick dwelling, strictly modern, on paved street, close to high school, nearly two lots and a very desirable location. Enquire of Luers & Clark Land Co. 9t3

Mrs. Hugh McIntosh, of Big Lake, Minn., who has been the guest of relatives here, returned Sunday last to her home. She was accompanied by her brother-in-law, John McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinmetz and little child were over Sunday visitors at the Mrs. John Byrnes home and with other relatives here, returning to their home in Davenport Tuesday.

Emmett Flemming and R. E. Culbertson autoed up from Des Moines for a short visit with home folks. They returned Sunday, Mrs. Culbertson accompanying them to remain there this winter.

Miss Hulda Roth, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roth and of other relatives, expects to return Saturday to Columbia, S. D., where she has the position of post mistress.

Mrs. C. M. McIntosh, of Decorah, who has been a guest the past few days of the W. A. Gleason family and Mrs. Charlotte McIntosh left Tuesday for a visit at Lime Springs with Mrs. Clarence Moor.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hall and children and Mrs. Lynn Smith and daughter, Naomi, returned Sunday from an auto trip to Delaware, Iowa, where they were guests of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sloan.

WANT TO BUY—A gentle driving horse, not over 1200 lbs., that will work good single or double, must be 4 to 6 years old and sound, to be dark color. State price. Address, SPILLVILLE MILL, Post Box 7.

Co. Supt. Mira B. Buck expects to leave next Tuesday for Des Moines to attend a meeting of the Iowa State Teachers Association, which convenes there on Wednesday and continues throughout the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Marsh went to Lime Springs Monday, for a short visit with his parents at Lime Springs before returning to their home in Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Marsh is convalescing nicely from a recent operation at Mercy Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kottzbach returned Saturday afternoon to their home at Monona, with their little three year old son who had recently had an operation at the hospital for appendicitis, from which he was recovering in fine shape.

Fred Burr and Sheriff D. J. Ferrie left Friday for Anamosa, having in custody Richard Brooks, recently convicted forger, who will be committed to the reformatory to commence serving the sentence imposed upon him at this term of court.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walton and son Donald, and their son Will and family and Dave Harmon, returned last week from a visit with relatives in the Twin Cities. The Will Walton family also visited at St. Cloud Minn., with the John Evert family.

Mrs. R. E. Culbertson was the first woman to exercise her right of suffrage in Howard county. Taking advantage of the absent voters' law Mrs. Culbertson cast her ballot Saturday before leaving for Des Moines where she will remain this winter.

The community was shocked Thursday when they heard the news of the death of Captain Thomas Hooper, who passed away early Thursday morning at the home of his son, George, at Victoria, Michigan. The remains will be brought here for burial, but the date of their arrival is not yet known.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lowry arrived in Cresco Monday night from their ranch at Lost Spring, Wyoming, a distance of about 1200 miles which they covered in six days time. They ran into a snow storm at Cheyenne, Wyo., but aside from that weather conditions were quite favorable. Lellis will return to Wyoming in a few days he still having about a month's more residence to put in on his ranch to make him eligible for proving up.