

Cresco Theatre

Friday MAY ROBSON in November 12
"NOBODY'S FOOL"
 NOT A MOTION PICTURE
 Prices 50c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00. Seats on sale Thursday at Lomas' Drug Store

Saturday CHARLES RAY in November 13
"CROOKED STRAIGHT"
 His first trip to the city and a thousand dollars to spend, and he had never had a "Big Time" in all his life. Also CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "BY THE SEA"
 Prices 15c, 30c. Matinee 2:30. Evening 7:30, 9:30

Monday MABLE NORMAN in November 15
"JINK" "JINK" "JINK"
 It's one of the liveliest pictures that you will ever have the pleasure of seeing. It's better than Mickey and Upstairs, and that's going some. Also SUPREME COMEDY
 Prices 15c, 25c. Two shows—7:30, 9:00

Tuesday MARGUERITE CLARKE in November 16
"A WIDOW BY PROXY"
 To help her best friend she changes places with her, goes to visit her-in-laws, has all sorts of a mix-up and wins a husband for herself when her husband by proxy returns to his wife. Also PATHE NEWS.
 Prices 15c, 25c. Two Shows—7:30, 9:00

Wednesday OWEN MOORE in November 17
"A DESPERATE HERO"
 A merry, mirthful Comedy-Drama in which Love and Romance arrive in a "Fliver" and leave in a Luxurious Limousine. Also SELZNICK NEWS
 Prices 15c, 25c. Two Shows—7:30, 9:00

Remember the dance at Lourdes on Wednesday evening, Nov. 17th.

For Sale—Three Shorthorn-Durham bulls, one year old—J. B. Barthelme. 5tf

Mrs. Hugh Williams and sister, Miss Dodd, of Lime Springs, were Cresco business callers Thursday.

Mrs. E. R. Miller, who has been the guest of relatives at Luana and Decorah, returned home Monday.

Miss Marie Luzum, who has been employed here for some time, returned Tuesday to her home at Calmar.

Mrs. Herman Mackenburg went to Lime Springs Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Plopper.

Start your winter term with us, Nov. 20. Write Eldund Business College, Waterloo, Ia., for terms. 13tf

Miss Martha Jensen, of Sioux Falls, S. D., arrived Monday and will be a guest at the Owen Jones home.

Miss Esther Yates left Monday for Chester enroute to the school south of Spring Valley where she is teaching.

Mrs. Ole Jacobson, who has been a guest of Mrs. Hans Foss, returned Thursday to her home at New Hampton.

The Howard Smith family left on Friday noon for Snodish, Wash., where they expect to reside for a time.

Mrs. E. O. Mitchell and babe came down from LeRoy Thursday for a visit at the parental, A. H. Brown, home.

Mrs. M. B. Billmeyer returned on Monday from an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. L. Raker, at Dyersville.

Drive in on the new pavement to hitching grounds. Room for 60 teams. Hitch out, 10 cents; in barn, 25 cents. J. M. Mara. 12tf

For Sale—Combination buffet and china closet, book cases, carpets, dining table and chairs. Phone 290, Cresco. 12tf

Mrs. E. Nichols, of Lime Springs, returned home Friday after a brief visit here with her sister, Mrs. E. T. Lomas.

Mrs. J. H. Miller and little baby went to Elma Wednesday, caller by the serious illness of her father, M. Devery.

The W. R. C. ladies are packing a barrel of fruit for the Old Soldiers' Home. Please bring fruit to the hall November 20.

The Misses Mable and Josephine Walters went to Austin Wednesday for a visit at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. P. Keune.

Mrs. Ray Swin and children came down from Bonair Tuesday for a few days' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Friend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Root returned Wednesday to Chester, Mrs. Root having been here for some time, a patient at Mercy hospital.

Mrs. Ed L. Weaken and little son Robert returned Friday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. John Feuling, and family at St. Paul.

Mrs. Anna Telford came Wednesday from Decorah for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lyle Eaton, and her sister, Mrs. E. R. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Elwood went to Lime Springs Wednesday for a visit with their daughters, Mesdames J. B. Gray and Loren Johnson.

Mrs. F. A. Ryan, of Minneapolis, and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte McIntosh, returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Decorah.

Mrs. Henry Hebert, who has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Katherine Hoy, and family, returned Wednesday to her home in St. Paul.

Wanted—Young man with car to do special work in Howard county among farmers. Write Earl R. Foster, care Wallace Farmer. 11tf

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Miller, who have been guests of their cousins, the H. E. Reutlinger family, returned on Friday to their home in Austin.

Mrs. J. Mulcahy returned to her home at Minneapolis Thursday, after a few days visit here with her cousin Mrs. Margaret McCarville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Larson and little daughter came up from Decorah last Tuesday, and will spend a few days at the H. A. Teslow home.

Andrew Witt came down from Minneapolis for an over Sunday visit with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Laidlaw, returning home Monday.

Mrs. H. J. Miller returned Monday from Albert Lea, Minn., where she was the guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Brauer.

Mesdames Henry Hinker and John McGary, of Ossian, were Cresco business visitors Wednesday, calling upon Drs. Jinderlee and Normann.

Mesdames H. G. Addie and Eugene Irvine went to Bonair Wednesday to attend a Sunday school rally, both having a place on the program.

Mesdames Vern Bowers and L. E. Sanborn, of Lime Springs, were down Tuesday to visit their aunt, Mrs. Carrie McIntosh, at Mercy hospital.

Keep going and you will arrive rapidly. The Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn., should be your first stop. Send for our catalogue.

Mrs. F. R. Millett, who was here for a week with her husband's parents, O. D. Millet and wife, returned to her home at Livermore Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Banning, of Fayette, came Monday for a visit at the home of his brother, P. M. Banning, and his sister, Mrs. C. J. Vance.

Mrs. O. E. Taylor, of Bonair, was a caller here between trains Wednesday, the guest of her daughter, Miss Edith, who is attending school here.

Mrs. John Halpine and daughter, Miss Virginia, who have been guests of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John F. Daly, and family, left Tuesday for her home at Omaha.

Mrs. W. J. Roberts of Clear Lake, Wis., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hewitt, and other relatives at Lime Springs, was a Cresco visitor on last Thursday.

Miss Florence Kitchen, who has been visiting at the Guy Humphrey home and with other friends in this vicinity, left Friday for her home at Blunt, S. D.

Mrs. E. J. Peckham and son Max left Friday for Mt. Vernon, Iowa, for an over Sunday visit with her daughter, Miss Lucile, who is a student at Cornell college.

Mrs. C. J. Moar returned Friday to Lime Springs, having been down here with her aunt, Mrs. Carrie McIntosh of Decorah, who is a patient at Mercy hospital.

Mrs. L. J. Long and little daughter Margaret arrived on Friday last from their home at Plankinton, S. D., for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret McCarville.

Dr. D. T. Robertson, of Fargo, N. D., was a Cresco visitor Thursday, calling on numerous friends here. Dr. Robertson was a former pastor of the Congregational church.

Mrs. W. C. Bowers and her little granddaughter and her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Scofield and little son, went to Grand Meadow Friday for a visit at the Glen Bowers home.

For Sale—Piano, china closet and buffet, dining table, book cases, carpets, rugs, draperies, dishes, lamps, etc. Phone 290, Cresco. 13tf

Mrs. Jas. Stevenson, living near Maple Leaf, was a guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Harry Harvey, enroute to Decorah, where she goes to visit a cousin of her children who live there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Farrington, who were guests last week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. L. Barker, left Monday for their home at Winnebago City, Minn.

Mrs. Emma Delaney returned Wednesday to her home at Freeport, having been a guest here at the Orrie Stevens home and at the Mrs. Elizabeth Sanager home at Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mohs went to Lime Springs Thursday to attend the wedding of his niece, Miss Alvina Mohs and John Wilken, which was solemnized there that afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Cruzan and Mrs. M. B. Williams, of Fairbury, Neb., came last week for a visit with the ladies' sisters, Mesdames F. O. Farnsworth and P. M. Banning.

The Walter Wentworth family moved over from Granger the first of the week and will make Cresco their home Mr. Wentworth having taken a position in the S. A. Hamilton Novelty works.

Mrs. F. R. Goddard, of Nekoosa, Wis., who has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. H. M. Daskham, at Kendallville, left Friday for Minneapolis for a short visit before returning to her home.

G. W. Rathbun came up from Ossian Thursday and Friday morning, in company with his brother-in-law, W. G. Fish, left for Heron Lake, Minnesota, where they were called by the serious illness of a relative.

Mrs. J. J. McAndrew and the Misses Lu Rene and Anne Lamm came up from Decorah Wednesday to be with their mother, Mrs. J. G. Lamm, who submitted to an operation at Mercy hospital Thursday.

Miss Elizabeth Byrnes left Wednesday for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Conway, at Elma, enroute to Minneapolis, where she will visit her sisters, Mrs. R. J. Woods and Miss Julia Byrnes.

Miss Alvina Bartz and sister, Mrs. Asa Ean, returned Wednesday afternoon to their home at Ossian. The latter lady has been at the hospital for several days, having submitted to an operation there.

The W. R. C. ladies are collecting second hand clothing for the Armenians. Please bring same to the W. O. W. hall Saturday, Nov. 20. If you cannot bring to hall on that date, please take to the H. O. Brooks or Ed Politt home before Nov. 30.

S. S. Culver and D. J. Ferrie left Friday for Iowa City to see the big Iowa-Minnesota game there Saturday which bids fair to be a most interesting one. The advance ticket sale is unusually large, the tickets now selling at top notch prices.

Maplesota Flour at F. A. Glass'. None better. 8tf
 Heating stove for sale. Phone 299, Cresco, Iowa. 12tf
 Come to the big dance at Lourdes Wednesday evening, Nov. 17th.
 For Sale—Residence for sale, opposite German Catholic church. Lot 50x100.—T. M. Vagts. 9tf.
 Mrs. Ed Fisher, of Lime Springs, was a Cresco business visitor Monday.
 Wanted to rent—By January first, a medium sized, modern or partly modern house. Enquire at this office 12tf
 Tom Thompson returned Wednesday to LeRoy, having been here to visit his wife, who is a patient at Mercy hospital.
 Three small farms for rent.—Drew Land Co. 10tf
 Some fine White Rock cockerels for sale.—L. P. Baldner, Phone 578½ 12tf
 Mrs. Oliver Qualley, of Ridgeway, was a Cresco business visitor Wednesday.
 Miss Tess Cannon went to Austin Monday to spend a couple of days with friends.
 Some good registered Duroc Jersey stock hogs and Short Horn bulls for sale.—L. J. Meyer. 12tf
 Two unfurnished rooms to rent one-half block northeast of high school.—Mrs. L. P. Sanborn. 2-11
 Miss Sophia Henning left Thursday for Hawkeye where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. P. Boeckenhauer.
 Farm for Rent—Enquire of A. J. Mikesch, Protivin, Iowa. 7tf
 For Sale—Brooms by the piece or by the dozen.—Fred Erier. 6tf
 Thos. Darby entertained a friend a few days last week, Miss Eunice Hartley of Waukon.
 Martin Johnson and son-in-law, J. M. Brown, left Wednesday on a business trip to Minneapolis.
 J. E. Doolittle left Tuesday for Sacramento, Cal., expecting to be absent for some time on business.
 Floyd Fravel expects to leave Saturday for a visit with relatives living at Milwaukee, Wis., and Chicago.
 Mesdames A. J. Baerman and Martin Jones and her two children, of Lime Springs, were Cresco visitors Tuesday.

BREAD

YOUR BEST AND CHEAPEST FOOD
 EAT MORE OF IT

The following table shows that more energy can be obtained from Bread expressed by calories or heat units, for the same amount of money, than from any of the common foods. Bread requires no further preparation as with other foods in this table, and thus, the expense of cooking, etc., is saved.

Peerless Bread

Is the Height of Excellence and Costs No More than Ordinary Bread

Food Value Purchaseable for One Dollar

Bread	11,800 Calories
Potatoes	7,500 Calories
Butter	4,650 Calories
Bacon	4,600 Calories
Milk	4,340 Calories
Cheese	3,200 Calories
Pork	1,980 Calories
Beef	1,560 Calories
Eggs	1,440 Calories
Chicken	580 Calories

For Sale at

THE GRILL CAFE

Cresco - - - Iowa

A PHOTOGRAPH

as a Christmas Gift is the most personal and most appreciated of all gifts. Come early and avoid the rush and hurry, and be satisfied. Early in the day, early in the week and early in the month.

Blomquist Studio

GROCERIES AT COST

As I want to give my whole attention to other lines, I will Close Out my entire line of Groceries at and Below Cost. If you want to cut the high cost of living, here is your opportunity. Sale starts and continues until everything is sold. Get busy! Anticipate your wants and buy your winter's supply now. You will never be able to buy Groceries as cheap as now. The Fixtures are also for sale.

Friday, Nov. 12th

William Fye

West Market Street,

Cresco, Iowa