A Runaway Horse.

Mrs. Green Cavanaugh was thrown from her buggy, on Railroad street, in this city, Sunday, and sustained what was at first feared to be a serious injury. Upon examination, however, it proved to be only a dislocation of the elbow, which was put in place, and she went on her way. The horse took fright and turned suddenly, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mrs. Cavanaugh and two children to the ground. The horse was caught by Mr. James Fegan.

Exposure to cold, damp winds, may result in pneumonia unless the system is kept invigorated with Hood's Sarsaparil.

Low prices and first-class work is my motto. D. GALBREATH.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, as it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington, Bes T. Robinson, Mortons Gap, and George King, St. Charles.

A Painful Mr. Robert Stinebaugh received quite a painful accidental wound the other day which will at least interfere for a while with the locomotion of one of his legs. The accident occurred while Robert was climbing over a gate, and consisted of a fall and the resultant perforation of his calf skin and the underlying flesh to the depth of about one inch. We hope Bob will next time go through the gate with his barlow closed.

Relieved her Rheumatism. MADISONVILLE, Ky., Oct. 10, '95. "My wife has used several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparil, and has been greatly benefited. It has given her relief from rheumatism. She has also used Hood's Pills, and pronounces them excellent." W. C. JOHNSON.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparil.

Robinson & Co., grocers, have one of the most attractive signs in town, painted by J. C. Sutherland, by far the best painter that ever resided in Earlington.

If your watch or clock is not giving satisfaction, go to Galbreath with your troubles, and he will suit you in work and prices.

They do say that the pumpkin custards and milk at the Christian Endeavor Social Tuesday evening, were delicious.

16 years practical experience is a guarantee that you will get first-class work, so take your watch or clock to Galbreath, when out of fix.

If you wish a remedy to bring the flush of youth to your cheeks, new vigor to your system and make you strong and well take Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine. St. Bernard Drug Store.

Many petitions of gratitude have doubtless floated upward to the "giver of every good and perfect gift" for the copious showers last night.

Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine makes the kwae strong. Makes those who are sick well. It builds up the broken down and debilitated system of old and young. St. Bernard Drug Store.

Three very distinct shocks of earthquake were experienced in Earlington this morning, a few minutes after five o'clock. The course seemed to be from the North-west to the South-east. Reports by wire from Louisville, Nashville, Memphis and Chattanooga report the shocks to have been heavy at those points, especially at Nashville and Chattanooga. No serious damage, however, is reported from any quarter.

Ask your druggist for SWARTZ'S OINTMENT.

If your children are subject to croup, watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by the St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Bes T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; George King, St. Charles.

Trouble at Sunday afternoon, Barnesley. a crowd of white boys set upon Ed Clifpatrick (colored) and abused him with sticks and stones. Clifpatrick was seen with a stick in his hand ahead of the white boys who followed him. He was followed to his home and the persecution continuing, he turned on them and but for the interference of his mother, who it is also said, was abused, he would have cleaned out the whole party. As it was, he struck the young fellow on the head and he died before morning.

Blackboard Motives was introduced by Miss Ophelia Davis, and well discussed by Miss Ella Earle and others.

Miss Cordie Greer gave some good thoughts on how to secure uniform attendance at school.

Prof. Smith, in the absence of Prof. Glenn, made a good talk on ## Christian Endeavor Social.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Social, who were invited to the social given at the Christian Endeavor hall, on Tuesday night, October 25, 1895, were: Miss Bettie Hopper and her twelve able assistants, with their pretty costumes, for the success of the Halloween Social of Tuesday night.

The candle light reflected from the rich yellow of the pumpkins, the pretty decorations in the State colors of purple and white, the attractive setting of the tables, all combined to give a very effective scene in the old Assembly Hall.

The singing by the bright faced girls and boys was unusually fine, and it was beautiful to note the earnestness of all in the good work of making others happy.

The little children, seated upon the pumpkins looked the picture of contentment, while their efforts to please with their recitations are to be commended. All did well.

The gusto with which all, big and little, young and old, attacked the excellent pumpkin pies was full evidence of the appreciation by the audience of the good things provided.

The antics of the children in struggling for the possession of the combined, bobbing for apples, scrambling for nuts and candy, attested to their full enjoyment of the evening. Altogether, the first social of the season proved satisfactory and very acceptable to all.

The next social evening will be watched for with keen interest by every member of the Endeavor Band.

If Troubled With Rheumatism, Read This. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Apr. 16, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains, on the market, and cheerfully recommend it to the public. Jno. G. Brooks, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 15 Main St.

ALSO READ THIS. MECHANICVILLE, St. Mary County, Md.—I sold a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm to a man who had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. It made him a well man. A. J. McGuffey. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Bes T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; George King, St. Charles.

PUBLIC SPEAKING. HON. A. E. WILSON, of Louisville, Republican candidate for Senator, will speak at Madisonville, Thursday, October 21st. Come out and hear a good speech.

A Pleasant Gathering. The Teacher's Association for Earlington District met at Earlington, Friday, October 25, 1895.

The meeting was opened by the singing of several songs by pupils of the Public School, and reading the first Psalm, and prayer by Prof. Smith; after which Mrs. Walker, vice-president took the chair.

Nominations being in order, Annie Plain was elected Secretary. The vice-president then appointed Misses Sarah Foard, Cordie Greer, and Mr. Leonard Fowler, as committee on Resolutions.

The Welcome address was ably delivered by Mr. Burr and well responded to by Mr. T. E. Finley.

Prof. Smith then explained in a clear and concise manner the necessity and value of Teacher's meetings.

Miss Sarah Foard read an excellent paper on "What Should be a Teacher's Motive." Several thoughts were presented by Miss Ruth Plain and Mr. Finley.

The Welcome address was ably delivered by Mr. Burr and well responded to by Mr. T. E. Finley.

Some practical suggestions on getting rid of whispering in the schoolroom was introduced by Mr. S. T. Cayce, and discussed by several members of the Association.

Some practical suggestions on getting rid of whispering in the schoolroom was introduced by Mr. S. T. Cayce, and discussed by several members of the Association.

The next subject, as to whether it is better for children to sit at their desks, or to change to a recitation seat to recite, was presented by Mr. Leonard Fowler. After discussion by some of the teachers, it was thought best to use the recitation bench if possible.

Having completed the morning program, we repaired to the Earlington Hotel.

After going the dinner ample and justice we went back to our afternoon work.

The first subject under consideration was Friday afternoon Exercises, their use and abuse.

Mrs. Walker introduced the subject and Misses Minnie Bourland and Minnie Whitfield read interesting papers on the same.

COTTON STATES EXPOSITION.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 18, Dec. 31, 1895.

The schedule printed below is a comprehensive guide to the best and most desirable route to Atlanta from the North and Northwest, Chicago, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Terre Haute, and Evansville.

Palace Day Coaches and Pullman Sleeping Cars are attached to all trains shown in this schedule.

Extremely low rates have been made to Atlanta and return, via the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway. All trains run solid between Nashville and Atlanta, except train in last column.

The train in third column, which leaves Cincinnati at 4:30 p. m., runs solid to Atlanta. This is the route of the famous "Dixie Flyer," through "all the year round" sleeping car line between Nashville, Tenn., and Jacksonville, Fla.

It does look like Supervisor Sullivan was determined to capture the board, as he put about thirty more men at work on the Hanson section last week.

Section foreman John Burns, of the Hanson section, has so far recovered from late injuries as to be able to hobble around on crutches.

The delaying of a passenger train for about one hour, we are informed, caused conductor Maddox to resign last week. He was a good man and the officials and employers hate to lose him.

Several of the boys, we understand, will soon stand an examination on the book of rules and time card to see if they possess the qualifications of conductors. Several of the extra conductors now being put at regular work.

A fatal accident occurred near Henderson last Friday, a young man by the name of Alex. Alford, who was in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who, for the past few months has been rebuilding the telegraph line along the L. & N. between Henderson and Guthrie, while in the act of climbing a pole and when near the top fell to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet, breaking his spine at a point near the neck. He only lived about one day after the accident occurred. He was a resident of Columbia, Tenn., where his remains were shipped for interment last Sunday.

Out of a crew of fifteen men Mr. Alford was regarded as the best climber, and his friends are at a loss to know how he came to slip and fall from so short a pole.

"Half a million dollars is what the Great Western Railway has had to pay to free itself from the obligation to stop every train at Swindon Station for ten minutes. In 1841, before the road had reached Bristol, it made an agreement for ninety-nine years with a firm of builders to hold every train carrying passengers, 'not being sent express or for special purposes,' for a reasonable period of about ten minutes, at Swindon in consideration of the erection of suitable refreshment rooms, for which a rent of a penny a year was to be paid. The railroad soon found out the inconvenience of the arrangement and tried to break it. The courts in 1846 and 1872 held that "express" did not mean in the contract what is now meant by an express train; but the price asked for the annulment of the concession was always more than the company was willing to pay. After a fight of over fifty years it has been driven by the competition of other roads to buy out its opponents, and a ten-minute stop of fast expresses at Swindon is now a thing of the past."

On the line of railway from the heart of the city of Marseille to the necropolis in the quarter of St. Pierre, 1.86 miles long, 2,304 feet of which is a tunnel, fireless locomotives are employed. These consist of a cylindrical receiver charged with warm water at a maximum pressure of 227.5 pounds per square inch. At the end of a run, says the Railroad Gazette, this drops to from 43 pounds to 71 pounds. The water is then reheated to 203 degrees C., corresponding to 227.5 pounds pressure by steam from the generators at the central station. The cylindrical warm water receiver is 10 feet by 3.5 feet, holding 350 gallons and about 4 cubic feet of steam. The steam from the generators is equally distributed throughout the warm water by means of properly arranged pipes. It is condensed after being used in the cylinders in a condenser over the receiver consisting of 1,154 tubes, representing a cooling surface of 538 square feet.

For the purpose of seeing that everything on this division is in first class condition and will stand the test, Sp. Dickson and other officials inspected the Henderson division this week. The general inspection train will make its rounds in November, and we look for a good report from them as to the condition of this division.

Master of Trains Devney believes in rewarding the faithful, and, therefore, he called six of the brakemen on this division before him one day lately and gave them a strict examination on the knowledge of the book of rules and time card, and finding them well qualified for the position of conductor they were given a diploma as such. The lucky men are: Mike Bohan, William Palmer, William Casart, Dan Upton, Dad Prentiss and Jesse Galbreath.

Miners everywhere in Kentucky should bear in mind that the party who placed convicts in the mines to compete with honest labor, is still in power in this state, and the only way to teach them a lesson is to see that you cast your ballot right.

We were shown specimen of the coal taken out of the new mine at Sebree last week, and upon investigation we find that, like a great deal of the coal in this state, it has considerable slate and sulphur about it, yet the operators have every reason to be proud as they are of the find.

Without speaking politically on the subject, how many of our miners would vote to degrade our city and people by having saloons brought back here again? Such questions should be carefully studied and only the men voted for who would be less liable to interfere with our present good law against the liquor traffic. Vote to the best interest of your home and loved ones.

Coal companies generally agree that there is little if any profit to be derived from the coal shipped north of the Ohio, and it is easy to explain why there is no profit for them when we state that coal is mined and delivered in Evansville for five cents per bushel. Here three cents per bushel is paid for mining, and when the freight is added, how can they make anything?

Our old friend Frank Cawley, formerly an employe of the St. Bernard Co., has so far recovered from a severe spell of sickness as to be able to leave Canada for New Jersey.

It can be said to the credit of a large majority of the miners that they have thus far this year shown good judgment in refusing to be led by would-be strikers and with the exception of but few places, peace and harmony have prevailed between operators and miners, most especially in this true of Kentucky when we fail to call to mind but one strike for this year.

Consumers it seems place a great deal of confidence in the goose bone theory as regards the predictions for another cold winter and are, therefore, laying in their winter supply of coal. This accounts for the heavy shipments of coal at present.

It is said that a new electric battery of a very interesting sort has been devised by Dr. Borchers of Driesburg, Ja. Germany; its peculiar peculiarity being that the current is generated, not by the solution of metal, but by conversion of hydro-carbon and carbonic oxide into carbonic acid. As this is practically the same reaction that takes place in burning coal, the electrical energy derived from the oxidation of a given weight of carbon in the battery can be directly compared with the effect of burning coal or coal gas to drive a steam engine, or in a gas engine. It is well known that a steam engine utilizes about 7 per cent under the most favorable circumstances of the theoretical energy produced by the oxidation in this boiler furnaces of the coal used to drive it; and a good gas engine utilizes about 20 per cent, while Borchers' battery is said to have delivered, at times, in available form 38 per cent of the energy liberated by the consumption of carbon 'if, and at no time to have delivered less than 26 per cent. It would be curious if the oxidation of carbon in the wet way, in a battery, should give more than three times as much power per pound of coal consumed as burning it in a boiler furnace; but this is just what is claimed for the new battery, and it is obvious that if the claim is sustained it will not be long before steam boilers are abandoned and power derived entirely from batteries and distributed through wires and electric motors to persons desiring to use it.

The Bee has a wonderful lot of political news this week.

Grapevine Telegrams

Rev. R. D. Wade has returned from where he has been holding a series of meetings.

The members of the M. E. Church, at this place, held a church meeting Saturday night, to make arrangements for building a church.

Our new pastor was present Sunday to fill his appointment.

We have two deaths in our midst today, that of Doc Nolan and Jeff Harris, the latter received his death from a blow on the head given by a negro.

MORTON'S GAP.

Miss Bertha Doyal and sister, of Earlington, were the guests of Miss Cordie Greer last week.

Mr. Tom Blair and family, of Earlington, were the guests of Mr. P. B. Blair Sunday.

Mike Fitzgerald and Ellis Banner are at work at Crabtree's mines.

John Coil, after several days' sojourn here, has returned to Madisonville.

M. Cain and G. M. Davis were in Madisonville Monday.

Mr. Wm. Watwood has returned from a visit to relatives and friends at Nebo.

Charlie Jackson and Will Kimmons were in Earlington Sunday.

The revival at old Salem closed several days ago, and we hope that much and lasting good was accomplished.

Come to Sunday School Sunday morning and we will renew our efforts, put our shoulders to together and build a school that will be a credit to this community.

Miss Eppie Hockersmith and mother visited the family of F. B. Harris last week.

Mr. F. B. Harris and family contemplate a trip to Atlanta during the great Exposition.

Several from our town attended the Republican rally at Earlington Monday night, at which time we were held spell bound by the eloquence of W. S. Taylor, candidate for Attorney General. He spoke an hour and fifty minutes, during which time he delivered sledge hammer blows at the corrupt ring at Frankfort, declaring that if elected he would institute proceedings against the perpetrators of the gigantic frauds carried on in violation of the Constitution. At the conclusion numbers pressed forward to press the speaker's hand and congratulate him on his effort, promising support for the whole ticket at the approaching election.

CALLED BACK

To health, every kind, illness, nervous weakness, the remedy for being laid back is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she weak, run-down, and overworked, that builds up the system, restores the vitality, and drives out of the system all the ailments that afflict her, it corrects and cures.

Department of Photography, U. S. Artillery School, Fort S. M. Barr, Va.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION. My wife cannot speak too highly of your Favorite Prescription. I have completely cured her of a serious womb trouble. She took five bottles of your medicine and is now a large, healthy, and happy woman. There has been no return of the complaint. I am sure you will wish every woman to know the invaluable value of your Favorite Prescription. I would be glad to receive your testimonial, and I would be glad to have you write to me for a copy of the book.

Your obedient servant, EDWARD F. P. BARRETT.

Locomotive Blasts.

Conductor Lew Walz has resigned his position as conductor on the L. & N., and we are informed, will take a position of the same kind on the Chicago & Alton.

Section foreman John Burns, of the Hanson section, has so far recovered from late injuries as to be able to hobble around on crutches.
