ANNOUNCEMENTS:

COUNTY CLERK.
LILLAND—We are authorized to announce John R. Gilliland, of Riley Precinct, Post office address St. Charles, a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.
MURPHY—We are authorized to announce C. H. Murphy, of Madisonville, a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the action of the voters of Hopkins County at the November election.

AGUINALDO has taken the oath of allegiance to Uncle Sam and will advise his followers to accept American authority.

THE Texas Legislature so loved Aguinaldo that it has passed a resolution condemning his capture. Texas ought to secede.

THERE are heaps of candidates for jailer in Hopkins County. Maybe if everybody was in jail who deserves to be Hopkins would need several jailers and more cell room.

THE scoundrel who held up a young lady from the country the other day by grabbing her horse's bridle and plying her with questions as to whether she sympathized with the United Mine Workers and whether her father worked for the local coal company, deserves a rope's end. If he could be apprehended, his would be a hot dose of the law such as he would likely remember. That such thing could occur is a fearful arraignment of the people who have aided and abetted the fomentors of discontent and the manufacturers of trouble among the prosperous and contented people of Hopkins county.

To the Voters of Hopkins County.
For many months past I have been solicited by good men from all parts of Hopkins county to allow my name to go before the people as a candidate for the office of county court clerk.

I have given this matter thorough consideration, and after weighing the facts and conditions of the present situation in our county, I have come to the conclusion to announce myself as a candidate for said office, subject to the action of the voters of Hopkins county at the November election.

I shall present no further claims for anyone to vote for me than the fact that I am unconditionally opposed to "ring politics," and believe in and shall endeavor to the utmost to put into practice the principles embodied in the proposition that public office is a public trust, and a public officer is a servant of the people and not a master in politics.

My life for forty-three years in Hopkins county is an open book. If after due consideration the people shall by their votes elect me to the clerkship of the county I pledge an impartial administration of its duties.

Asking a careful consideration of the voters of the county, I am, yours respectfully
C. H. MURPHY.

Caldwell County Republican.
The Caldwell county Republicans have nominated the following ticket: Representative, W. H. Jones; County Judge, W. S. Randolph; County Clerk, F. A. Pasteur; Sheriff, W. J. Brown; County Attorney, P. H. Darby; School Superintendent, R. O. Davis; Assessor, O. N. Cartwright; Jailer, William Smith; Surveyor, M. A. Crowder; Coroner, B. Dunning.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Attitude of the Great Churchman on Strikes and Boycotts.

(From Cardinal Gibbons' work, "Our Christian Heritage.")
I am persuaded that the system of boycotting by which the members of the Labor-Unions are instructed not to patronize certain obnoxious business houses, is not only disapproved by an impartial public sentiment, but that it does not commend itself to the more thoughtful and conservative portion of the guilds themselves. Every man is free indeed to select the establishment with which he wishes to deal, and in purchasing from one in preference to another he is not violating justice. But the case is altered when by mandate of the Society he is debarred from purchasing from a particular firm. Such a prohibition assails the liberty of the purchaser and the rights of the seller, and is an unwarrantable invasion of the commercial privileges guaranteed by the government to business concerns. If such a social ostracism were generally in vogue, a process of retaliation would naturally follow, the current of mercantile intercourse would be checked, every center of population would be divided into hostile camps, and the good feeling which ought to prevail in our community, would be seriously impaired. "Live and let live" is a wise maxim, dictated alike by the law of trade and by Christian charity.

Experience has shown that strikes are drastic, and, at best a very questionable remedy for the redress of the laborer's grievances. They paralyze industry, they often foment fierce passion, and lead to the destruction of property, and above all, they result in inflicting grievous injury on the laborer himself by keeping him in enforced idleness, during which his mind is clouded by discontent while brooding over his situation, and his family not unfrequently suffers from the want of even the necessaries of life.

From official statistics furnished by Bradstreet and Carrol D. Wright, United States Commissioners of labor, for eight years, ending December, 1888, the following summary is condensed:

Number of strikes in the United States for 8 years	5,453
Number of employed involved in the strikes	1,879,292
Loss to employed in wages	$77,538,324

The loss inflicted by the strikes on the employers was but a little over half the amount sustained by the employed, who could much less afford to bear it.

And now permit me to address you, hardy sons of soil, a few words of friendly exhortation, solely inspired by a sincere affection for you, and an earnest desire for your temporal and spiritual welfare:

1. Cultivate a spirit of industry, without which all the appliances of organized labor are unavailing. Activity is the law of all intellectual and animal life. The more you live in conformity with that law the happier you will be.
2. Foster habits of economy and self-denial. No matter how modest your income may be, always live under it. You will thus protect your business integrity, and guard yourself against the slavery and humiliation of debt, which is too often the precursor and the incentive to commercial dishonor.
3. While honestly striving to better your condition, be content with your station in life, and do not yield to an inordinate desire of abandoning your present occupation for what is more popularly regarded as a more attractive avocation. Remember that while the learned professions are over-crowded, there is always demand for skilled and unskilled labor, and that it is far better to succeed in mechanical or manual work, than to fail in professional life.
4. Sobriety will be an angel of tranquility and comfort to yourself and family. While this virtue should be cultivated by all men, it ought to be especially cherished by the laboring class who are so much exposed to the opposite vice. Intemperance has brought more desolation to homes than famine or the sword, and is a more unrelenting tyrant than the grasping monopolist.
5. Above all, let religion be the queen of your household. It will be a sacred bond uniting all the members in the ties of domestic love. It will be the guardian of peace and contentment: it will season the bread of labor: "Not by bread alone doth man live but by every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God." It will be to you an unerring source of wealth; for, "Goodness with sufficiency is great gain."

CORN PLANTING BEGUN.

Dr. W. J. Lamb Will Go to New York to Take Post Graduate Course.

GOSSIP OF NEBO THE COUNTRY.

NEBO, Ky., April 1.—Special.
Farmers are putting in full time preparing for their crops. Some have already planted a part of their corn, going on the principle that the early bird gets the worm.

Dr. W. J. Lamb has sold his house and lot to Dr. Ferguson and will leave for New York about the 10th of April to attend the medical school there. He has been a citizen of Nebo for several years during which time he has made many warm friends and secured a lucrative practice. His many friends regret giving him up and join us in wishing great success in his future life and recommending him as a hightoned, christian gentleman to those with whom his future lot may be cast.

Our people are planting gardens, cleaning yards, repairing fences and getting ready for spring.

Some of our young people attended the theatre at Madisonville Thursday night and they report a good time.

Ben Ashby was down Friday night to attend the weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The young lady spoken of in our last letter, authorizes us to say to

"U No Hoo," that being young and good looking would not be objectionable as a husband, neither would a few thousand dollars be in the way.

W. P. Edwards was in town for a few minutes Friday. He said his prospects were good to be our next jailer. Mr. Edwards has been a near neighbor of ours for a number of years, and we cheerfully recommend him as a sober industrious gentleman and the Democratic party might go further and do worse than to give him the nomination.

Miss Sallie Brown spent a night in our city last week and interviewed most of the Democrats. She has made us a good superintendent, and if we have to have a Democrat, we had as soon have Miss Sallie as any one.

Jno. W. Bone, of Madisonville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Nebo. He lived here for many years and has a host of friends who are always glad to see him.

Saturday being a bad day for farm work a large crowd was in Nebo.

Noah Day is preparing to build a new house on what is known as the Tilford lot.

We understand that R. P. Morrow will leave in a few days for Hot Springs, Ark., for his health.

Nick Parish was in Nebo, Saturday. There has been no high water this spring, consequently he does not have to stay at home to keep the fish from eating up his meadows.

Mrs. Cox has been suffering from indigestion for several days, is reported better.

W. C. Langley, Sr. is a very sick man. We understand that his condition is regarded as critical by his physicians.

T. B. Knox, who has been boarding, is preparing to go to house-keeping. He will occupy Dr. Ferguson's house.

Dr. Ferguson will move to the house he bought from Dr. Lamb.

W. C. Langley, Jr., of Marion, spent some time in Nebo the past week visiting his "Pap" and other relatives.

We desire again to thank our clever postmaster for favors.

Bro. Currie preached an excellent sermon at the M. E. Church last Sunday at 11 o'clock. At night a missionary meeting was held. Bro. Currie gave an interesting talk. Several papers were read and quite an interest manifested in the cause of missions.

Mr. Z. T. Miller and wife, of the Stanhope country, visited Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. R. S. Hill, Saturday night and Sunday. Mr. Miller reported farming as being in a very backward condition.

Our Red Hill frier did not seem satisfied to yield the "cake" to Nebo on dogs. Now we have no disposition to exaggerate, in fact we would not under any condition tell a "fib," and especially about a dog, and to win a ginger cake. Now we claim to be better than Washington; he could not tell a lie. We can, but will not, but we are satisfied that if we could induce U. N. H. to visit our place and view our array of canines he would haul down his colors and yield us the palm. We have dogs of every kind, shepherd dogs, bird dogs, fox dogs, rat dogs, Newfoundland dogs, Spaniel dogs, cur dogs, black dogs, white dogs, liver colored dogs, spotted dogs and even the famous "yaller" dog. We have good dogs, bad dogs, indifferent dogs and even the "stray dog," old dogs, young dogs, middle aged dogs, male and female dogs, dogs that are fat and dogs that are lean, dogs that bark and dogs that growl, dogs that howl and dogs that whine, dogs that yelp, dogs that will suck eggs and dogs that will not, dogs that stay at home and dogs that run about and go out at night, and if you would see dogs—dogs in front, dogs behind you, dogs to the right and dogs to the left. And with all, this but gives a faint idea of the dogs in Nebo. Every dog in Nebo has a host of friends and relatives in the surrounding country which visit them at night and they take that occasion to settle all the old grudges. They growl and fight, howl and whine the night away. A member of congress once said in a speech that "Every poor man owned a dog, and every d-d poor man three or four."

Express your ginger cake to RUSTIUS.
[An Earlington gentleman offers to give both "U No Hoo" and "Rustius" a gingercake apiece if they will write no more about the "dogs," or a dog apiece if they will drop the "gingercake.—Ed.]

Sebree Items.
Sebree was visited by another large fire Sunday morning about two o'clock. The Phoenix Hotel and the house adjoining it were burned. The hotel and household goods were insured and nothing was saved, some of the boarders not even saving their clothes. The depot caught several times but by hard work it was saved.
Mr. H. L. Cason, who was proprietor of the Phoenix Hotel for several years, died of consumption on Tuesday, March 26, at 9:30 p. m., after being confined to his bed for several months. He was forty-two years of age and was born in New York City. After the services the remains were taken to Henderson county where interment took place in the Spencer graveyard.
Miss Velma Shelton, of this city, and Mr. Oscar Cecil, of Evansville, were married in Evansville the 27th.
Miss Olive Bourne, of Louisville, has accepted the position as head trimmer in Miss King's millinery establishment.
Miss Mamie Countzler is visiting her brother at Greenville.
Mrs. A. J. McMullin and daughter are spending several days with relatives at Delaware.
V. Perkins and Gratz Bailey left several days ago for Oklahoma with the intention of making it their future home.
Willie Powell has returned from Winchester, where he has been attending school.
Miss Lola Hall is now assistant trimmer in King & Majors' millinery store.
Mr. and Mrs. Womack spent several days with relatives in Dixon last week.
Miss Katherine Bailey has returned from a visit to Harville, Mo.

TAILOR-MADE SUITS

What do you think of them? Have you ever had one? It is a business forced upon us—sorry to say—because it interferes so materially with home dressmakers. But we are in it and in it big.

The volume of last fall's business in this line doubled any previous effort. Our spring purchase so far eclipses last year's attractions. The difference can not be told.
