

EDITOR GONZALES DEAD.

Septic Peritonitis Set in Early Monday Morning Foreshad-owing the End.

HE HELD OFF DEATH TILL ONE O'CLOCK.

Lieut.-Gov. Tillman, Who Fired the Fatal Shot, Will Thus Have a Charge of Murder to Face as the Result of His Unwarranted and Hasty Act.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 20.—After four days of suffering, death came shortly after noon Monday to Narcisso Gener Gonzales, editor of the Columbia State, who was shot last Thursday by Lieut.-Gov. James H. Tillman. He was unconscious when the end came. His wife, his three brothers, his sisters, members of the editorial staff of the State and the surgeons were present.

City Strangely Quiet. A few minutes after the end came it was known all over Columbia. There is no apparent anger, no display of excitement, but an unnatural quiet is noticeable throughout the city.

Monday morning, Dr. W. Gill Wylie, after consulting with Drs. Guerry and Barren and members of the family, decided to try the experiment of an intravenous injection of formaldehyde. At nine o'clock the injection was made in the arm. It was known that favorable results in arrest of the peritonitis, if they should follow at all, would be manifest. As time passed, the patient's respiration grew weaker, and the evidence of approaching death became plainer. Just before the end the surgeons, by request, resorted to a second injection. There was a momentary strengthening of the pulse, but almost before the injection had been completed Mr. Gonzales was dead.

An Autopsy Held.

An autopsy on the body was held by Dr. A. B. Knowlton, county physician, Monday afternoon. Drs. LeGrand Guerry and James McIntosh, who attended Mr. Gonzales, assisted. It is understood that the finding of the autopsy will be that the direct cause of death was sepsis, due to a sloughing of the large bowel at the place of injury to that organ.

LIEUT.-GOV. J. H. TILLMAN.

Coroner Green, late in the afternoon, impaneled a jury, composed of well-known business men. The jury viewed the body, after which the inquest was adjourned until Thursday evening, when testimony will be heard in the county court room.

Tillman Hears the News.

Soon after the death of Mr. Gonzales a telephone message carried the news to Capt. Slight, the county jailer, and he apprised Col. Tillman. It is stated that the latter received the intelligence without any expression or betokening any emotion. He was asked if he would make a statement, and replied, through his brother-in-law, ex-Judge Buchanan, that he had nothing to say.

Throughout the day and night hundreds of telegrams of sympathy have been pouring in, not only from communities, newspapers and citizens from all over South Carolina, but from many American citizens, north and south. Among them were expressions from Hugh M. Thompson, of New York, ex-governor of South Carolina, and Gonzales De Quesada, Cuban minister to Washington.

"Cuddy Mack" Captured.

St. Louis, Jan. 21.—Constable John McGillicuddy, better known as "Cuddy Mack," saloon-keeper and ward politician, who is alleged to have shot and killed J. H. Lahmer, Monday night, while firing at some negroes with whom he had had an altercation on a street car, has been arrested and locked up. Officer Lynch says McGillicuddy did the shooting.

To Buy Coal For the Destitute. Chicago, Jan. 21.—The city council has passed a bill appropriating $25,000 with which to purchase coal for the destitute.

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

CUT IT OUT.

BLUE G. BARD.

You are not living as you should, You are doing things not good. Cut it out.

You've been saying things untrue, As some people often do. Cut it out.

You've been slandering a friend And will be sorry in the end. Cut it out.

Everything you say or do That is not right and good and true, Cut it out.

Do your duty day by day, If temptation blocks the way. Cut it out.

You are not tempted alone, All have troubles of their own. Cut it out.

Don't act a hypocrite and say, "I'm so glad you called today." Cut it out.

You are wishing they would go, You didn't want them to call, you know. Cut it out.

At home don't wear an ugly frown And smirk and smile when down in town. Cut it out.

If in the gutter you find a hair, Don't get mad and softly swear. Cut it out.

When the temper waxes hot, Don't say something you should not. Cut it out.

When you read these verses thro', If they happen to hit you, Cut them out.

Special Notice.

On Friday, Jan. 20, the patrons of the Temple Theatre will have an opportunity of seeing the peculiar comedian, W. B. Patton, in the "Minister's Son." This will be one of the very best attractions of the season, Mr. Patton being an actor of high standing and ably supported by a first class company. Tickets will be on sale at St. Bernard store Monday, Jan. 26. No seats will be reserved until tickets are paid for, on account of large guarantees required by a first class production. Curtain will go up promptly at 8 o'clock for the accommodation of those who desire to return to Madisonville on the 11 o'clock train.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE.

Two Persons Burned to Death in an Apartment House Fire in Cleveland, O.

THREE OTHERS WERE BADLY BURNED.

The Fifty Tenants of the Two Buildings Burned Panic Stricken and Many of Them Were Rescued With Difficulty, Many in Their Night Clothes.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 20.—Fire, early Monday morning, destroyed two apartment houses near the corner of Euclid avenue and Andrew street, East Cleveland, resulting in the death of at least two persons and the injury of several others.

The dead: Mrs. Guy Norton, burned to death. Mrs. Jessie Diekey, 45 years old; burned to death.

The injured: Miss Clara Jackson, servant; badly burned.

Guy Norton, badly burned; serious. Rev. W. N. Shoup, pastor of the Winemere Methodist church; slightly burned.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The 50 tenants of the two buildings were asleep when the flames broke out. A panic ensued when they were finally aroused, and many were rescued with the greatest difficulty, nearly all escaping in their night clothes. The total loss is about $60,000; partially covered by insurance.

FIRE ON BOSTON WHARVES.

It Was a Threatening Blaze, But the Firemen Subdued It.

Boston, Jan. 20.—Practically all the fire fighting apparatus in the city was called to Long Wharf early Monday morning to combat a fierce blaze in the sheds of the Dominion Atlantic Railway Co. The sheds and most of their contents were destroyed, and part of the wharf was burned to the water's edge. Several vessels were hauled out to the bay and escaped serious damage.

The firemen succeeded in saving other buildings on the wharf, thus averting what promised to be a serious conflagration. The total loss will not exceed $25,000.

FIRE IN PITTSBURG, PA.

A Fierce Blaze Which Threatens to Sweep an Entire Block.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 20.—Fire broke out in the three-story building occupied by J. A. Williams & Co., dealers in house furnishing goods at 1408 Fifth avenue, and the Merchants' Savings & Trust Co., next door, Monday morning, and a fierce fire resulted. It is feared the whole block will go and merchants are carrying out their goods.

An Elevator Burned.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Fire, Monday, destroyed a grain elevator at 377 Carroll avenue belonging to the Eckhardt & Swan Milling Co., entailing a loss of $75,000.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION.

Two Men Killed, Two Injured and a Saw Mill Wrecked by Explosion at Bell's Mills, Pa.

West Newton, Pa., Jan. 18.—A boiler exploded at Bell's Mills, wrecked a saw mill, killed two men and injured two others, one probably fatally.

The dead: William Hunter. Robert Pore.

The injured: Hon. A. B. Hunter, former member of the Pennsylvania legislature, badly scalded; will likely die. James Dyke, will recover.

DR. ADOLF LORENZ' PATIENTS.

Seven Children Operated Upon in New York are Showing Satisfactory Progress.

New York, Jan. 18.—Seven patients upon whom Dr. Adolf Lorenz operated in this city, and one on which Dr. Muller operated, were shown at a meeting of the orthopedic section of the academy of music last night, and in each instance the condition was satisfactory. The children were able to walk about without pain, but the retaining casts can not be removed for months.

A DEAD PHILANTHROPIST.

Death of Joseph Whipple Stickler, at Orange, N. J., at the Age of Eighty-Nine Years.

Orange, N. J., Jan. 21.—Joseph Whipple Stickler is dead at his home here, aged 89 years. During the past three years Mr. Stickler had given nearly $200,000 to philanthropic objects in Orange. A handsome soldier's monument in Athens, Pa., the birthplace of Mr. Stickler, was another of his gifts. It was formally unveiled last spring.

Attempt to Break Jail. Odessa, Russia, Jan. 21.—About six hundred male and female prisoners made an organized attempt Monday to break out of the local jail. It was only frustrated by the intervention of hastily-summoned troops, who fired on the rioters, killing two and wounding a number of others.

A Coasting Accident.

Lake Geneva, Wis., Jan. 21.—While coasting down hill on a sleigh, Tuesday, a number of boys ran into a team going up the hill, and Carl Vandegart was killed and two others seriously injured.

A MINNESOTA PREDICTION.

The St. Louis World's Fair, Says the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, Will Eclipse All Others.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 21.—The Pioneer-Press says:

"The St. Louis World's fair looks larger and larger on the horizon. People who were at first inclined to look upon it as a sort of mirage, sure to dissolve in disappointment to its projectors on account of the frequency with which other fairs, high sounding in name and prolific in prospectuses, had lately been held without adequate results, now realize that it is to be all its name implies. The world is getting ready to march upon St. Louis. So magnificent are the responses coming in from states and nations to the invitations of the city and of the United States government, that even those sanguine St. Louisans who planned the enterprise and whose sublime faith in the outcome was originally a matter of amusement to men of other burghs, are beginning to wonder whether, after all, they have planned largely enough in grounds, buildings and other works of hospitable preparation. It is to be a grand carnival of industrial and artistic effort. The man who thinks he 'saw it all' at Chicago, or at Paris, or at any preceding fair, will be amazed at the magnitude of his mistake. The Chicago papers generously admit that the St. Louis event will as far outshine their own glorious Columbian exposition as the latter outshone all preceding fairs. It is of utmost importance to Minnesota that adequate preparations be made at once for such exhibits, state and individual, as shall maintain the credit of our proud commonwealth in the presence of an unprecedented and critical audience such as is now sure to gather at St. Louis in 1904."

A SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY.

Several Valuable Articles of Mrs. Chas. Fair's Personal Effects Replaced By Cheap Substitutes.

San Francisco, Jan. 21.—A sensational discovery was made, says the Call, when the personal effects of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair arrived from Paris a few days ago. The magnificent Russian sable coat, valued at $10,000, which Mrs. Fair bequeathed in her will to Mrs. Joe Harvey, was gone, and a cheap imitation affair, not worth $30, has been substituted in its place. Mrs. Fair's famous pearl necklace of five strings, valued at $15,000, had been tampered with, and instead of real pearls in the necklace cheap imitation gems had been set in their places. Numbers of articles of jewelry which the Fairs were known to have taken to Europe were missing, and their only effects which were returned through the American consulate in Paris intact were Mrs. Fair's chinchilla and minx coats and Charles Fair's scarf pins. The changes were made, it is believed, before the valuables were turned over to the American consulate. Steps have been taken to attempt to locate the stolen articles.

JOHN B. STETSON'S WEALTH.

The Millionaire Concludes Not to Give Any of His Money to the University at Deland, Fla.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Minister Stetson, a wealthy manufacturer, has cut from his will all provision for the university at Deland, Fla., which bears his name. This step followed the action of the board of trustees in exonerating the president of the institution, Dr. John W. Forbes, whose conduct has been under investigation. "I certainly shall not aid the university longer under its present management," Mr. Stetson is quoted as saying. "I changed my will hurriedly as soon as the action of the trustees was taken, for fear that I might die before the clauses providing for John B. Stetson university were cut out."

DELEGATE KELLY CONVICTED.

He Was Tried For Perjury in Connection With the Suburban Deal at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 21.—Charles F. Kelly, member of the house of delegates, was found guilty by a jury in Judge Ryan's court of having wilfully perjured himself in his examination before the grand jury touching his knowledge of the St. Louis & Suburban boodle deal, in which $75,000 was placed in escrow to be paid to the municipal assembly combine in case the franchise bill became a law. Kelly's sentence was assessed by the jury to two years in the penitentiary.

THE TRIAL OF COL. LYNCH.

The Point on Which His Guilt or Innocence of High Treason is Likely to Hinge.

New York, Jan. 21.—The trial of Col. Lynch for treason, which will begin Wednesday, promises to turn on the question of whether he was a Transvaal burgher or a British subject when he took up arms for the Boers, says a dispatch from London to the Tribune. British law is now more merciful than in the days of Jacobite plots, when conspirators having French commissions were unceremoniously hanged.

Manchester's Effects Attached.

New York, Jan. 21.—The effects of the duke of Manchester were attached by a deputy sheriff, at the Holland house, Monday, at the instance of a jewelry company to satisfy a claim for $695 alleged to be due for an imitation pearl necklace purchased December 6, 1900, and never paid for.

COLONIZING SOUTHWEST.

Railroad Companies Including Immigration to Arkansas and Texas.

Cheap Lands Whereon Cattle Raising, Fruit and Truck Growing Are Highly Profitable.

An unusual effort is being made by the railroad companies with lines running into the Southwest to induce a greater immigration to that section than ever before. The opportunities offered the farmer, stock raiser and truck and fruit grower in portions of Arkansas and Texas are perhaps not surpassed anywhere in the wide world.

Along the Cotton Belt Route in Southwest Arkansas are large tracts of land from which the timber has been cut by saw mill companies which may be cleared and made into excellent farms. This land can be purchased for $2 to $5 per acre. It makes good pasture land for sheep and cattle, and much of it will produce an average crop of cotton, or will grow immense crops of vegetables of all descriptions. So prolific are the yields of potatoes, onions, cabbage, melons, tomatoes, pears, peaches and, in fact, nearly every kind of vegetable and fruit, that truck growers' associations are forming at many points. The Cotton Belt is actively assisting these associations by granting special rates and otherwise aiding in securing a ready market for the products. It is a fact of much importance that wherever truck growing has been entered into the prices of lands have immediately begun to advance.

In order to encourage this and kindred industries along their lines the Southwestern railroads have put into effect very low round trip Homeseekers' rates of one way fare plus $2, and one way Colonist rates of half the one way rate plus $2, from such points as St. Louis, Cairo and Memphis to Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, enabling homeseekers to visit the country for the purpose of looking around or to locate.

The Cotton Belt Route, through its General Passenger Department at St. Louis, has taken a leading part in calling attention to the possibilities of this splendid country and volunteers to assist in securing therein a home such as he desires.
