Earlington vs. Dawson.

One of the most exciting games of ball seen on the local diamond this season was the game Saturday between the Dawson and Earlington high school teams.

The game was hotly contested from the beginning and a great deal of enthusiasm was shown by the rooters. Prof. Jenkins of the Dawson school and Mr. Dennis Clark chairman of the board of education accompanied the Dawson boys to this city and did all possible to encourage them but their feeble cries were nothing compared to the wild rooting done by the Earlington fans led by the teachers Misses Weir and Murrell.

The following is the lineup of the local team: Sharp, C.; Adcock, P.; Stone, S. S.; Victory, 1st B.; Dudley, 2nd B.; Foster, 3rd B.; Featherstone, R. F.; Mitchell, C. F.; Fugate, L. F.

The score stood 6 to 7 in favor of Earlington at the ninth inning.

Baker Fugate umpired the game and gave general satisfaction.

The boys will go to Dawson Saturday. A crowd of rooters, both young ladies and young men will accompany them.

White Makes Good.

Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, sailed six miles from the Bennings racetrack to the White House yesterday, landing in narrow Executive avenue, where he was greeted by army and navy officials. He circled the dome of the Capitol and flew even with the peak of the Washington monument on the way.

REALIZED MOTHER'S VALUE

How Three Spoiled Daughters Were Taught to Appreciate What Their Parents Did.

This happened years ago, but it is worth repeating. In a certain home was the over indulgent mother of three daughters. You can just imagine what the week's washing was with three or four petticoats, besides many other articles. This mother did the washing, ironing, cooking, baking and about everything imaginable, and the daughters—well, they were "cultured" and did not do much of anything except eat the good meals and wear the clean clothes, says the Jacksonville Times. One day the father called the mother aside. The two had a long talk and he admitted he was not able to hire a domestic. The next day the usual complaint was made by the girls about the poor dinner and the mother quietly got up, went to her room, dressed and came downstairs. She carried a heavy suitcase and stopped long enough to tell her children that she hoped they would have a better meal the next day. Their father took her to the station and she was away from home a month. Every one of those girls learned to cook, bake, scrub and look after the house, although they admitted that for a week they lived on baker's bread, lemonade, and quince preserves and either salmon or sardines. It was a hard lesson for them to learn, but they learned the value of their mother.

Conjugal Kissing.

Where one wife is now kissed with some pretence at regularity by the man who was always swearing before marriage that he would eat her up before the year was up, it is safe to say that ninety-seven other women go moping around the house with lips parching from neglect, burning biscuit and running down shoes in sheer despair, for the want of that encouragement an occasional kiss probably gives. It shouldn't be as it is for a kiss after marriage is relished equally with those before and if you want to see your wife tripping about with melody in her soul and feet like cork just imprint on her lips an occasional "Lovers' Kiss."

All that most married women need to make their beings of light and jewels of gladness is more kisses from the old man less growling about how the potatoes are fried. No woman can be an angel without a sip of nectar now and then, and the husband who fails to grant a supply of ambrosia to the spirits in muslim, who make paradise on earth, a possibility, deserves to be "henpecked" all his days.

Locomotive Blasts

Several changes were made in General Yardmaster Bramwells office this week. Mr. J. S. Hancock was promoted to assistant agent and G. Y. M., Roy Foard was promoted to chief clerk, Ed Majors was made cashier and Mr. Morrison record clerk. It is unnecessary to add the promotions were all deserved.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 13.—William J. Oliver, of this city, has been awarded the contract to build 115 miles of railroad from Jackson, Ky., to Appalachia, Va., through a mountainous section. The line will be an extension of the Lexington and Eastern road now operating between Lexington and Jackson, Ky. At Appalachia it will connect with the L. & N. and the Virginia and Southwestern roads.

Seven Indicted for Land Grabbing.

Telegram received Saturday at the General Land Office announced the indictment at Tacoma, Wash., of seven men on the charge attempting to defraud the Government out of 25,000 acres of valuable coal land near the Cunningham fields in Alaska. The charge involve 154 entries in the English and Christopher groups.

Tobacco Declines.

Prices for tobacco of the 1909 Burley Society pool offered at auction at Lexington yesterday showed another heavy decline when over 2,000 hogshead sold at an average of only $7.85.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

These are the sweetest of all words invited—

"Inclosed find check;"

Sweeter than love notes, however rose-scented,

"Inclosed find check;"

Words that are beautiful, starlit and sunny;

Words that are dripping with nectar and honey;

Words that ring sweet with the jingle of money—

"Inclosed find check."

Where can you beat it from Webster's collection?

"Inclosed find check;"

Where is the pirate that will bear such inspection?

"Inclosed find check;"

What words have Shakespeare or Burns or the sages

Offered the world on their metrical pages

Equal to this classic gem of the ages—

"Inclosed find check?"
