White City Notes

Mrs A. W. Raymer and children visited in Earlington this week.

Mr. and Mrs E. C. Morgan left Saturday for Dawson Springs where they will remain a week visiting relatives.

Andrew Hopper left this week for Carbondale where he expects to reside in the future.

Fred Gatlin, of Stanley, was in White City Saturday.

Mrs Lum Stinson was in Morton's Gap last Friday.

The condition of John Pidecock remains unchanged.

Gardening seems to be the order of the day in our little city.

The Kinton Coal Co. will shortly install two new coal cutting machines in their mines.

Our good friend Mr. Doome has enriched himself by the purchase of a fine cow last week.

Some of our prominent citizens expect to "ride the goat" at Morton's Gap Tuesday night.

If your correspondent has been correctly informed, our school at Moss Hill will be taught by Pratt Bailey and Miss Lula Allen.

The school house at Moss Hill will be enlarged shortly to accommodate the increased number of pupils.

There has been a lot of improvement in the way of fencing in White City recently which adds greatly to appearance of the place.

We understand our friend, Eugene Kelley who came here recently from Earlington has returned to that place.

The deizens of our little hamlet are among the most peaceful and quiet of people in Kentucky, with naught to disturb them, not even the wip roaring of Teddy the rough rider hot shot from Taft or the deliverances of "Big Ollie" in behalf of "Champ the ex-Kentuckian" or any of the champagne dope. So we are resting easy willing to let the big fellows fight it out.

A great deal of talk is being done in regard to building a church house here. The sooner the better for the Morals, and the spirituality of our people.

Lame back is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the back, for which you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by All Dealers.

Immediate Effect of Great Kidney Remedy is Soon Realized

In March 1905, I was troubled with severe pains in my back and left side but did not think it was anything serious until last September. I got so bad that I was obliged to seek medical aid. It seemed as if I was suffering almost a living death with hard straining and burning pains after each call, and I would have from five to six calls during the night. I had almost given up to die, when I happened to think of trying Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. My husband bought me a bottle and I began to improve from the first dose. When I had taken two bottles I was completely cured. Yours very truly,

MRS. B. B. HALL

R. F. D. No. 3 Roseboro, N. C. State of North Carolina

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 16th day of July, 1909.

JOHN HORNER,

Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton N. Y.

Feminine Curiosity.

Little Eleanor's pretty cousin wore a new engagement ring, and the budding woman regarded the ring and the giver alike with reverent eyes. One night when the happy man has been invited to Eleanor's home for dinner, Eleanor, unconsciously gushing, burst forth with: "Oh, Mr. Blank, do please tell me. In all the love stories I've read the men propose so sudden. When it's coming on, does it—does it feel anything like a sneeze?"

Reasoning Power Lacking in Apes.

Apes do not count further than four, and the Boers of the Transvaal, when they hunt these animals, hide in numbers exceeding four. Four depart in succession in such a manner as to be noticed by the apes, who then come forth and are easily captured.

Lively as a Boy.

If you are tired, run down, have no appetite, get a bottle of Yunnan Chilli Tonic. A few doses will set you up—give you a boy's appetite—make you strong and lively as a twelve-year-old. Purifies the blood and strengthens the system. See a bottle at the St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Furniture Polish.

Many people do not know that lemon oil is the basis of all fine furniture polishes. A small bottle of polish usually costs 25 cents. You can buy a quart of crude lemon oil in bulk at a paint shop for 15 cents. For using on furniture proper, dilute with one-third turpentine, apply with a soft rag, and you will have the finest polish you could buy. It is fine to use on hard wood, stained or painted floors. A quart of oil will last nearly two months.

A Texas Wonder

Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Genius and Its Tribulations.

"Genius," says the Washington Post, "is the most curious psychological phenomenon with which the mind of man has ever grappled." And the great trouble is that the mind of man never can be sure even while the grappling is going on that genius is really being grappled with.

When your food does not digest well and you feel "blue," tired and discouraged, you should use a little HERBINE at bedtime. It opens the bowels, purifies the system and restores a fine feeling of health and energy. Price 50c. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Cure for Snoring.

The invention of a light steel bar to be held against the upper lips by clamps to prevent persons from snoring is announced in the patent office, but many persons are convinced that a crowbar driven deftly through the cranium is the only permanent cure.

Miss Minerva and William Green Hill

ANCES BOYD CALMOUN

Wright, by Betty & Britton Co.

"Naw; I ain't got a red cent." "I'll tell you what we'll do," suggested Jimmy; "we'll trade you a baseball mask for him. My mama's going to gimme a new mask 'cause I all time stay at home, so we'll trade you our old one. Go get it, Billy."

Thus commanded Billy ran and picked up the bustle where it lay neglected on the grass, and handed it to the quasi-owner of the puppy. The deal was promptly closed and a black little negro went grinning down the street with Miss Minerva's ancient bustle tied across his face, leaving behind him a curly-haired dog.

"Ain't he sweet?" said Jimmy, hugging the fluffy white ball close to his breast, "we got to name him, Billy." "Le's name her Peruny Pearlina," was the suggestion of the other joint owner.

"He ain't going to be name' nothing at all like that," declared Jimmy; "you all time got to name our dogs the scawlaggest name they is. He's going to be name' 'Sam Lamb' 'cause he's my partner."

"She's a girl dog," argued Billy, "an' she can't be nam' no man's name. If she could I'd call her Major!" "I don't care what sort o' dog he is, girl or boy, he's going to be name' 'Sam Lamb.' Pretty Sam! Pretty Sam!" and he fondly stroked the little animal's soft head.

"Here, Peruny! Here, Peruny!" and Billy tried to snatch her away.

The boys heard a whistle; the dog heard it, too. Springing from the little boy's arms Sam Lamb Peruny Pearlina ran under the gate and flew to meet her master, who was looking for her.

CHAPTER XXV,

Education and Its Perils.

It was a warm day in early August and the four children were sitting contentedly in the swing. They met almost every afternoon now, but were generally kept under strict surveillance by Miss Minerva.

"I won't be long fore we'll all hafta go to school," remarked Frances, "and I'll be mighty sorry; I wish we did n't ever hafta go to any old school."

"I wish we knowed how to read an' write when we's born," said Billy. "If I was God I'd make all my babies so 's they is already educated when they gits born. Reckon if we'd pray ev'ry night an' ask God, he'd learn them babies what he's makin' on now how to read an' write?"

"I don't care nothing at all 'bout them babies," put in Jimmy, "I ain't going to do us no good if all the new babies what Doctor Sanford finds can read and write; it'd jes' make 'em the sassiest things ever was." "Eides, I got plenty things to ask God for 'bout fooling long other folks' brats, and I ain't going to meddle with God's business nohow."

"Did you all hear what Miss Larrimore, who teaches the little children at school, said about us?" asked Lina importantly.

"Naw," they chorused, "what was it?"

"She told the superintendent," was the reply of Lina, pleased with herself and with that big word, "that she would have to have more money next year, for she heard that Lina Hamilton, Frances Black, William Hill and Jimmy Garner were all coming to school, and she said we were the most notorious bad children in town."

"She is the spitefulest woman they is," Jimmy's black eyes snapped; "she 'bout the meddlesomest teacher in town."

"Who told you 'bout it, Lina?" questioned the other little girl.

"The superintendent told his wife and you know how some ladies are—they just can't keep a secret. Now it is just like burying it to tell mother anything; she never tells anybody but father, and grandmother, and grandfather, and Uncle Ed, and Brother Johnson, and she makes them promise never to breathe it to a living soul. But the superintendent's wife is different; she tells everything she hears, and now everybody knows what that teacher said about us."

"Everybody says she is the crankiest teacher they is," cried Jimmy, "she won't let you bring nothing to school 'cepting your books; you can't even take your slingshot, nor your air-gun, nor—"

"Nor your dolls," chimed in Frances, "and she won't let you bat your eye, nor say a word, nor cross your legs, nor blow your nose."

"What do she think we's goin' to her ol' school for if we can't have fun?" asked Billy. "Tabernels sho' had fun when he went to school. He put a pin in the teacher's chair an' she sat down on it plumb up to the head, an' he tie the strings together what two nigger gals had they hair wropped with, an' he squeeze up a little boy's legs in front of him with a rooster foot tell he squealed out
