NELL ROBINSON IN THE LEAD

All Candidates in Mammoth Cave Contest Make Great Gains This Week

CONTEST ENDS AUGUST 21

Miss Nell Robinson is still in the lead in the Cave contest, Miss Fannie Trathen, of Nortonville, second, Miss Mabel Browning, of Earlington, third, Miss Edna Peyton, of Morton Gap, fourth, Miss Golda Salmon, of Earlington, fifth, Miss Mary Parker, of Earlington sixth, Miss Divie Woodruff, of St. Charles, seventh, Miss Hazel Griffin, of this place, Miss Alberta Barnett, of Morton Gap, and Miss Nina Williams, of Ilesley are fighting for seventh place and any one of the three may be sixth or seventh next Friday. All of the contestants made great gains this week and several of them expect to do better next week. There are only three more weeks of the contest and the time is getting short. It behooves the contestants to get every new and renew subscriber and all of the job work they possibly can between now and the 21st day of August.

Remember this trip is a six days outing along one of the most beautiful rivers in the world, with some of the grandest scenery imaginable. If you have not done so and wish to take this trip with us send in your name as soon as possible as we are limited to a certain number and can take only a few more before that number is reached. The cost for the entire trip is only $20.00.

Summer colds are hard to get rid of, and frequently lead to asthma, bronchitis, and hay fever. Do not let your cold get a hold on you, but use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for quick relief. W. H. Allen, Chelsea, Wis., says: "We prefer Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to other cough medicines because it quickly cures coughs and colds. It will ward off a cold if taken in time." Contains no opiates. Is safe for children. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and accept no substitute. St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated Drug Department.
