Birthday Party Given by Bro. and Mrs. Howard J. Brazelton

On Thursday afternoon the Parsonage was a place of much merriment, when in honor of the birthdays of Howard Brazelton, Jr. and Helen Loyd Browning, Bro. and Mrs. Brazelton entertained from 4 to 6.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather, sixteen little folks arrived in excellent spirit and enjoyed very much the games of childhood which never grow old.

About five-thirty Mrs. Brazelton asked Howard and Helen to lead the children into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in green and white. The center piece was an artistic French basket of white carnations and ferns, while ropes of smilax and white crepe paper were festooned from the chandelier to the table.

As the hour drew near for their departure there were many expressions of enjoyment and good wishes for other birthdays. As each child started home Howard presented them with a carnation for their mother.

Those present at this enjoyable little affair were:--Cyrthia Watts, May Lillian Fish, Clara Cloyd, Sarah Beth Mothershead, Eleanor Arnold, Earnestine Renfro, Mary Eloise Renfro, Edith Owen Sisk, Margaret Rogers, Margaret Coward, Helen Browning, George Thomas Baldwin, Nelson McCreary, Curtis Rule, Dillman Rash, Dudley Sisk and Howard Brazelton.

Miss Virginia Elwood as Fanny in "Bought and Paid For" at Garrick Theatre, Tuesday night, Oct. 28

BRIEF AND BREEZY.

President Wilson ought to realize that while very few members of congress are farmers, all of them have fences to look after.

Secretary Daniels continues to justify the claim of his friends that he is the biggest gun of the navy. Cheer up it is admitted that diamonds are going to be cheaper soon.

It is alleged, rumored, reported and stated by those who are in a position to speak with authority that the tango is being danced in the servants hall at Buckingham Palace. What effect this news will have on the dancing customs of the English-speaking world is of course problematical.

The trouble with some men is that they never learn how little they know until it is too late to learn anything else.

Husbands, tell your wives about this. We would rejoice over the exit of these summer skirts if we were not afraid of what they will be next season.

It won't do to judge a man by his automobile. Some mighty cheap men ride in high-priced cars.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver Oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known--Iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

The most surprising thing about it all is that the prevailing style in women's dress has not caused a falling off in the number of marriages. Dec. Sun might do worse than coalesce with the Manchus in forming a Chinese Bull Moose party.

Why not have congress in continuous session and allow the President to issue notices for vacations? Emperor William of Germany owns a cafe, but he has never yet delivered a Chautauqua Lecture.

The Hon. Oscar Underwood is respectfully reminded that it has been a long time since a United States Senator was elected President. Woodrow Wilson though confident of the beneficent effects of extra session legislation, is still hearing from the "it can't-be-done club."

General Baptist Association Closes.

The 74th Annual Session of the Union Association of the General Baptist that met at the Baptist Church of this place, Oct. 18, and closed Sunday the 19 was well represented. There being 144 delegates and the ministers and visitors ran to the two hundred mark, and the large crowds of Earlington people that came to the services from time to time filled the church to its utmost capacity, and many had to go away.

"Bought and Paid For"

William A. Brady, who can always be relied upon for the best, is sending us "Bought and Paid For" by George Broadhurst, recognized in the theatrical world as the most interesting work from this author's pen.

It seems to be like a man's plan and a woman's play, appealing with pretty nearly equal force to both sexes. Most women believe that they would do as Virginia Stafford, does when her millionaire husband comes home over-charged with champagne and forces his caresses upon her.

The play has been one of the pronounced successes of the past two seasons. It is being brought here by a company which everywhere this season has been greeted by big houses and giving great pleasure.

"Bought and Paid For" will be at Garrick Theatre Madisonville Tuesday night Oct. 28.

A Marvelous Escape

"My little boy has a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians, of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of group. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." "Logging Engineering." A chair of "logging engineering" has queer sound, but out in Washington the lumbermen insist that they need it in the state university in their business. There are possibly in some eastern colleges professorships more impressively titled than are set of as such practical value.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

A Great Success--A Large Crowd Being Present

One of the most unique entertainments was given by the school Tuesday night. "Fun on The Podunk Limited," which was gotten up by Miss Elizabeth Martin, who makes this a profession, and was most creditable to all who took part. The opening drills: "The Night Shirt" by fifty little boys, and the "Jing-a-boo Man" by as many little girls captivated the audience. Music by Miss Anna West. The Podunk Limited came on time with many interesting passengers.

The first to arrive were Mrs. and Mrs. Boggs and Mary and Tom. These were among the star actors, the parts being played by Edgar Arnold, Miss Ethel Oldham, Sue Wade Davis and Lionel Rea, who kept the audience in an uproar of laughter as they acted their parts to perfection.

Grandma and Grandpa Wiggins were among the best and well suited for their parts as was Miss Prim who in her sweet girlish manner was most pleasing. Mrs. Herby with her numerous remedies, was most amusing. The Swede girl, Chinaman and Irish woman were pleasing, both in costume and manner. The fond mother and young society girl Miss Highstyle were most natural characters. Miss Stutterly, Mrs. Deafly and the fat man were among the most unique figures. Both the Suffragette and daughter well suited their parts and were fine. But the most captivating was the bride and groom who performed as newly-weds usually do, unconscious of anyone living but themselves. The conductor, newsboy and porter were as natural as if they were the real ones on the L. & N. At the limited reached Podunk of a never-to-be-forgotten journey, the musical man played "Turkey in the Straw."

The Western chorus which was composed of eight girls was very attractive, being dressed in the western costumes. Music by Miss Grace Martin.

One of the most attractive features was the last on the program, "Little Miss Up-to-Date." Almost sixteen boys and girls took part in this. All the girls were dressed in white and pink evening caps and muffs. The boys wore evening costumes. Sarah and Tommie Featherston sang the verses and the others joined in on the chorus. This was one of the most beautiful drills ever seen here. Mrs. W. K. Nisbet presided at the piano.

A large crowd witnessed this performance and a neat sum was realized.

Women Who Get Dizzy

Every woman who is troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney troubles should use Electric Bitters. They give relief and nothing else will improve the health, adding strength and vigor from the first dose. Mrs. Laura Gaius, of Avoca, Ia., says: "Four Doctors had given me up and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good." Just try them 50c. and $1.00 at all druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklin & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.
