ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce Judge J. W. Hanson as a candidate for Congress from the Second district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized by Earlinton People

A little backache at first.
Daily increasing until the back is lame and weak.
Urinary disorders may quickly follow.

Dropsy and often Bright's disease.
This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills.
Don't take this course. Earlinton residents should profit by the following experience.

T. J. Pool, Nortonville, Ky., says:
"I had kidney trouble for about ten years. My back ached at night and I was lame in the morning. I tried easily, was nervous and had headaches and dizzy spells. My sight was also affected. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and contained sediment. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and a few doses relieved me. They have given me more relief than any other remedy I ever tried.

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pool had. Foster-Milburn Co., Prosp., Buffalo, N. Y.

Perfection.

A man is one whose body has been trained to be the ready servant of his mind; whose passions are trained to be the servants of his will; who enjoys the beautiful, loves truth, hates wrong, loves to do good and respects others as himself.—Anon.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live.

Some one advised me to take Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefitted by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."— Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E.
Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Claude Morton UNDER TAKER

Center St. Madisonville, Ky

Low Estimate on the Jokesmith.
"A wag in the Jokesmith column recently referred to my poetical paragraphs as 'larceny,' a trifle disgracefully stated Tennyson J. Daff.
"Hub! If he considers my lyrics and Ilmericks larceny, what would he call my runes and sagas? Aw, well, it doesn't matter, for the jokesmith is the lowest form of human life, anyhow, and only useful to show to what extent foolishness may go without being funny."—Kansas City Star.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.
Send for list of testimonials.
Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists, 75 cents.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Does Advertising Pay?

The other day a local merchant elevated his chin, squared his shoulders, assumed a belligerent attitude, and defiantly told us that "advertising doesn't pay."

He is still alive, but let us consider a minute:

A London baronet who manufactures pills has sold a part of his real estate for the tidy sum of $30,000,000.
He made it out of the profits of his business, and he built that business up by advertising, often spending as high as half a million dollars a year in printer's ink.

John Wapmaker, the best known and most successful merchant in this country, made his millions by advertising, and said so.

The great department stores of the country are kept alive by advertising, and are coining money by more advertising.

You never hear of a large mercantile house in this country that does not advertise, and advertise heavily.

If a politician wants to make himself known to the dear people, he uses the most effective means—newspaper publicity. That is advertising.

If a new son arrives at your house you are keen to have it "put in the paper," where your friends will see it, thereby advertising the fact that you are walking on eggs.

If the editor called you a thief in a two-line item and stuck it away in the most obscure corner of the paper, would you pass it by in the belief that it "could never be noticed?"

NEVER! You would consider yourself defamed before the entire community, and would paw up the earth in your bellowings. You would be only too quick to concede that every line in the paper is read.
Yes, advertising certainly pays.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulets are recommended for this purpose. 25c a box at all drug stores.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal.
For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority.
Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At druggists, 50c. large box, or by mail, The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

THE SUMMER PROSPECTUS.

I read about the fishing, and I read about the trees;
I read about the scenery all guaranteed to please;
I read about wild nature with its glories and its grace,
And packed my grip, determined that I'd go and see the place.

The fish were tired of biting, and the trees were not so grand As those that flourished in our parks and roadways near at hand, And nature in its wildness seems to love a lot of things That it provides with various sorts of stickers and of stings.

And yet those printed pages seemed like poetry so fine,
And a handsome illustration went with every other line.
No longer will I seek the rolling wave or leafy nook, I'll pack my grip again and go back home and read the book.
—Washington Star.

"Second Story Bill is an ingenious guy, isn't he?"
"Yes; he wears rubber soles to erase his footmarks."—New York World.

A Few Best Sellers.

The principal character in the following dialogue was not engaged in flirtation, but merely requisitioning a few novels:

Young Lady (reading from list)—
"Engaged to Be Married?" Librarian (referring to shelf)—No, madam.

Lady—"Thou Art the Man?"

Librarian—Yes, madam.

Lady—"Thank you. 'Two Kisses?'"

Librarian—Out, madam.

Lady—"After Dark?"

Librarian—Yes, madam.

Lady—"Thanks. 'Love Me Forever?'"

Librarian—No. "Wooded and Married?"

Lady—No, thank you. "Under Love's Rule?"

Librarian—No, madam.

Lady—"Goodby, Sweetheart?" Thank you very much.—Books of Today and Tomorrow.

Father and Son.

A certain Chicago business man is the father of a youth of a most literal tendency. Last spring, when the father left for Europe, where he was to spend the entire summer, he promised the lad that if he were to attain a certain mark in his studies his reward would be a continental trip with his father.

The prospect of such a trip stimulated the lad to such a degree that he attained a mark even higher than that set him by his parent. He cabled his father the one word "Yes."

It would seem, however, that the pater had forgotten his offer, for after thinking over the message he cabled back, "Yes, what?"

Then, in turn, the son was perplexed.
Finally, after due reflection, he cabled to his father, "Yes, sir."—Detroit Free Press.

From the Readers.

Prospective Subscriber (in office of the Weekly Whoop)—Don't you have any clubbing propositions?

Editor and Proprietor—Oh, once in awhile, but horsewhipping and shooting propositions seem to be the favorites around here!—Puck.

Tender Hearted.

"He is the most tender hearted man I ever saw."

"Kind to animals?"

"I should say so! Why, when he found the family cat insisted on sleeping in the coalbin he immediately ordered a ton of soft coal."—Tit-Bits.

The Alternative.

"You wring my heart!" wailed the youth whom the Vassar girl had just refused.

"I'd rather wring your heart than wring your clothes," she said.—Livingston Lance.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Chafing of the Skin.
Children and fat persons are very often annoyed by chafing of the skin wherever there is friction or perspiration, as under the breast and in the folds in the upper parts of the thighs. There is frequently a diffuse redness of the skin and a moist heated feeling in the parts affected. If the cause is not removed an inflammation may result. Bathing the parts with a saturated solution (four heaping teaspoonfuls dissolved in a pint of boiling water, used when cool) of boric acid several times a day and dusting with plain talcum powder or pulverized starch (an ounce mixed with pulverized camphor, one teaspoonful, and dusted on morning and evening) will relieve the burning and heal the abrasions.

Sold Hogs by Telephone

A South Carolina farmer had a large number of hogs which were ready to kill. The weather was so warm that killing was out of the question.
He went to his telephone, called a dealer in Columbia over Long Distance and sold his hogs at a good price. He then called the local freight office and arranged for shipment.
The telephone is now a necessity on the farm.
