CARRANZA HAS BACKING OF GERMANS

Teutons Want The United States to Engage in Warfare

STOPS SHIPMENTS OF MUNITIONS

Washington, June 22.—Advices received here from Mexico allege German representatives there have encouraged Gen. Carranza in opposing the stay of American troops in that country. The form of encouragement is said to be more moral than material.

This information was disclosed by competent authority, Capt. Franz von Rintelen, under indictment in New York on the charge of conspiracy to foment strikes, who is now a prisoner in England.

The information obtained leads the officials to believe von Rintelen thought the result of the dispute between Mexico and the United States would be to stop shipments of munitions to the allies and prevent the allied navies from getting oil at Tampico, and also to prevent the United States from pursuing the submarine controversy. He named several other Germans who are mentioned in connection with the affair.

PARKER--WYATT

In the presence of a few friends and relatives, Miss Mary Ware Parker and Mr. Omer Jackson Wyatt, both of this city, were quietly married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simons in Madisonville, Ky., on Thursday evening at eight thirty. Miss Ethel Oldham, of this city, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Hardy Wyatt, brother of the groom, as best man. They drove to Madisonville in Mr. Wyatt's car and were married by Reverend Jones, Christian minister of that city. Their many friends wish them success and happiness all through life's journey. Miss Parker is a well known young lady of the city, and her friends are numbered by her acquaintances, while Mr. Wyatt is in the employ of the L. & N. Railroad at this place and stands high in the esteem of the company's officials.

ASTOR--DICK

Bar Harbor, Me., June 22.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor and William E. Dick, of New York, were married at St. Saviors Episcopal Church here today by the Rev. A. C. Larned Rector. Only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dick left immediately on a western trip. They will return after a month and will spend the remainder of the summer at Mrs. Dick's place here.

SOCIETY

The Loyal Daughters Class of the Christian Church had a social meeting in the basement of the church Thursday evening. The Loyal Sons with Mrs. Arnold their teacher, Rev. J. S. Hawkins and Supt. Frank D. Rash were invited. The rooms were made attractive with rugs, pillows, penents and flowers. Punch and cake were served. The members of the L. D. class are Misses Emma Vinson, Pres; Maxie Rayborn, Vice Pres; Lillian Opal Campbell, Sec'y; Flora Lipscomb, Treas; Mamye and Maude Nance, Gussie Tresh; Isabel, Willie, Irene and Myrtle Wilson, Beulah Ballard, Curtis Hawkins, Ada and Artie Favor, Lucile Davenport and Jane Herb; Mesdames Jno. Morgan, James Smith, Leslie Boyd, Tom Buckby and Carl Rayborn.

Miss Sarah Crutchfield has returned from Morganfield where as the guest of Miss Louise Buchanan, she was honoree at a number of charming parties.

Miss Kathleen Corey, who is visiting her aunt in Athens, Ga., will arrive about the 1st of July, and will be the guest of Miss Agnes Lynn.

Mrs. J. L. Pate, of Madisonville, visited her mother Mrs. Vannoy and Mr. and Mrs. Otley Vannoy last week.

Hal Thompson spent several days here this week.

A picture show party composed of Misses Merrie King, Mabel Browning Sarah Beth Mothershead, Mesdames Gilbert King, Henry Rogers, Harriet Browning, Ed Rule, Marion Sisk, John Fish, F. D. Rash, G. W. Mothershead, M. B. Loug, Elgie Sisk, Chas. Barnett, Jno. L. Long, Chas. Trahern, Stella Kemp, S. E. Stevens, D. M. Evans and Delia Southworth enjoyed the six-reel Lubin Feature "The Wolf", on Tuesday evening at the Idle Hour. After the show refreshments were served at Long's.

In honor of the eighty second birthday of Mrs. Jennie Moore, her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Randolph and Mr. Randolph gave a dinner party at which were present Mrs. Kemp, and Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Kemp and Mr. Paul M. Moore. Lovely roses and sweet peas, birthday remembrances for Mrs. Moore made the dinner table very attractive. Other gifts and the presence of her children and grandchildren made this one of the happiest of Mrs. Moore's birthdays. Mrs. Moore is still young despite the many birthdays that have passed and is a striking example of that beautiful poem "Growing Old Gracefully."

The wedding of Miss Camille Lackey and Mr. Ralph Emerson Dudley took place Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church south of Pembroke, with Rev. Elgin assisted by Rev. Gordon, officiating. Mrs. Lander Chisholm was her sisters matron of honor and Misses Lackey and Kennedy were bridesmaids. Mr. Brick Southworth was Mr. Dudley's best man and Messrs Lander Chisholm, Geo. Lackey, Darwood Rose and Ed Morrison were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth Williams, accompanied by Miss Lackey, sang several effective numbers.

The bride was beautifully crowned in a handsome tulle suit with a hat to match. Her flowers were roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley left immediately after the ceremony for Chattanooga and other points. Upon their return they will be at home at the Dudley home here.

Mrs. H. H. Holeman gave an elaborate reception Wednesday afternoon at her beautiful home in Madisonville in honor of her attractive daughter-in-law, Mrs. F. Montgomery Holeman, a June bride. Upon arriving at the beautifully decorated home, Misses Laura Isabel Laffoon and Nell Dulin standing on the cozily arranged porch greeted the guests and served them with delicious fruit punch. At the door a picturesque "black mammy," nurse of the son of the house, with old time courtesy ushed the visitor into the handsomely decorated hall where Mrs. Brent Hart showed them into the library. The decorations here were red and green. Here Mrs. Holeman, in a handsome embroidered organdy gown, introduced her daughter who stood next in line, wearing a chic pink taffeta and lace gown with an abundance of tulle about the neck and shoulders. With the Mrs. Holeman stood Mrs. Ed Nisbet, of Evansville, Miss Mary Gholson, of Princeton, Mrs. Dempsey and Mrs. Parker. The dining room was a bower of pink and green loveliness. The table was handsomely arrayed with pink tapers, sweet peas and festoons of vines and tulle ribbons extending from the chandelier. Mrs. Will Morton and Osborn assisted in serving. The tea, cakes and mints carried out the color scheme of pink and white. Those who attended from Earlington were Mrs. Rogers who assisted Mrs. Holeman in entertaining, and Mesdames Hart, Atkinson, F. D. Rash, Kline, Alford, Mahon and Miss Katherine Vickers.

Misses West Entertains For Misses Woodson

Misses Anna and Thelma West entertained a number of friends at their home on Farren Avenue, Thursday evening in honor of the Misses Melba and Mable Woodson, the two charming sisters of Mrs. E. W. Renfro. The guests were entertained delightfully during the evening and at a very late hour left much in debt to the Misses West for such an evening's pleasure.

The guests were: Misses Elizabeth Long, Lena Davis, Gladys Whitford, Hattie Polk Crenshaw, Aileen Fox and Laura Parker. Messrs Jack Whitford, Carl Umstead, Guy Vannoy, Loux Dethon, Audrey Wyatt and Clyde Cobb.

SECOND BATTLE FOUGHT

12 Americans and 14 Mexicans are Slain

El Paso, June 22.—The Americans lost twelve dead, including the commander, and seventeen prisoners, while fourteen Mexicans were killed and thirty wounded in the battle of Carrizal, it was officially announced at the Mexican consulate here today.

It is said that complete details had been received except that the name of the American Commander was unknown.

The bodies of the American dead were counted as they lay on the field. The Americans removed their wounded with them.

Dance at Park For Miss Woodson

One of the most charming social events of the season was a dance at Loch Mary, Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Melba Woodson, of Humboldt, Tenn. The evening was perfect and the beautifully situated pavilion overlooking the lake makes a most artistic setting and a very desirable place for such amusement.

Music was furnished by the colored string band of the city. After dancing had been enjoyed for some time at the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served consisting of all the delectable good things. Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Sisk chaperoned the merry party.

Those present were: Misses Melba Woodson, Lena Davis, Gladys Whitford, Gladys Walker, Myrtle Mae Sisk, of Moultons Gap, Hattie Polk Crenshaw, Anna West, Jane Foard and Elizabeth Long. Messrs Henry Clark, Loux Dethon, Carl Umstead, Earl O'Bannon, Clyde Cobb, Rex Hamby, Jack Whitford, Guy Vannoy, Audrey Wyatt and Chester Ashby, of Madisonville.

Misses Stella Nichols and Daisy Bransford, of Dawson, spent Saturday night and Sunday here with friends.

America is a good country. Let's tie it to.

Rev. Summers Brinson filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday.

Neal Sisk, who has been attending Normal School at Bowling Green, is home, but expects to return to Bowling Green for the summer session.

E. S. Blanks who has been a resident of this place for a number of years left Monday for Detroit. He says should he find anything in his line of work, there is a possibility of him locating there.

W. T. Davis, of the Dawson Tribune, spent Sunday here.

Misses Myrtle Hamby and Essie Cranor, of the Terry Country, are visiting the Misses Hampton this week.

Miss Fern Nichols, Messrs Clifton and Floyd Long and Loyd Sisk, of Earlington, spent Sunday with Miss Charlie Sisk.

Walter Ashmore, of the Buffalo country, was in town Sunday.

"Buddy" Woodruff and sisters, of Crabtree, were here Sunday.

Mesdames Wright and Fox, of Carbondale, were in town Saturday night.

Dr. B. C. McEuen motored to Earlington Sunday.

Dexter Hart, of Nashville, who is spending a few days with parents at Carbondale, was here Sunday night.

Nortonville and St. Charles ball teams crossed bats here Sunday; the game resulted 9 to 3 in favor of the visitors.

Louis Teague, of the Daniel Boone country, was here Sunday.

Mrs. Owen Sisk and children have returned to their home in Luzerne after an extended visit to relatives here.

GALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work

There is no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury, and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonfull of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Origin of Pajamas. Pajamas are garments which Europeans adopted from the Mohammedans of India. The name means simply leg garments, and earlier generations in India knew them as "long drawers" and "mogul breeches." It is only of recent years that they have sprung into almost universal use in England in place of nightshirts—which some one characterized as equivalent to adopting trousers in place of frock coats—but references to the garments have been traced as early as 1828. "Peejams," "pigammahs" and "plajammah" were some of former variants in use, and Thackeray wrote of them as "pejammahs." The standard spelling is only a recent agreement.
