SOLDIER BOYS DEPART FOR FT. THOMAS

PATHETIC SCENES WITNESSED

The cheers, tears, heartaches and smiles of this city sent the soldier boys on their way to mobilization camp at Fort Thomas last night. In this crowd were the wives, sweethearts, mothers, fathers and children of the troopers and in the heart of each was a silent prayer for the safe return of the departing loved one. Dr. Nesbit Capt. of the Hospital corps made a brief and telling address from the band stand and called on Rev. Grant of the Methodist church to say a few words to the departing soldiers. Rev. Hawkins of the christian church offered up a fervent prayer for safety and welfare of the soldiers and left them in the hands of the Great Commander. Some pathetic scenes were witnessed as the boys were going to the special train. Grayhaired mothers and loving wives whose eyes were dimmed with tears bid their loved ones God speed and a safe return. Promises were made to write often to the sorrowing ones left behind. As the train pulled out of the station sobs and moans were heard from some, but cheer after cheer echoed from the big crowd of Earlington people who are proud of their soldiers. It was a scene far surpassing anything of the kind ever witnessed in Earlington and will long be remembered by every one present. The following is a complete list of the members of company G and the Hospital Corps.

Surprise Birthday Party

Miss May Lillian Fish was treated to a surprise birthday party Saturday night in honor of her thirteenth birthday. Mrs. Fish invited a number of young friends who went to the Idle Hour Theatre in a body. After returning to the house a delightful ice course was served the guests.

Easy to See Resemblance.
"Ki-lu-hou" is said to be monkey language for "retreat," which may be true, though, as a matter of fact, the words, in sharp staccato, sound remarkably like a dog, decorated with the order of tin can and voicing discomfiture as the scene of action recedes rapidly into the distance.

THIRTY-FIVE CROSS THE BURNING SANDS

Rizpah Summer Ceremonial at Paducah Most Successful Ever Staged

The summer visitation ceremonial, staged by Rizpah Temple, A. A. O. Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Paducah last Wednesday, was about the most successful since the Shrine was instituted several years ago. A class of thirty-five was initiated into the mysteries of this great order, the candidates coming from all sections of Western Kentucky.

Nobles who attended the ceremonial are loud in their praise of the entertainment of the Paducah Shriners. From the time the special train arrived in the capital of the Purchase until its departure at midnight, there was something doing all the time in the entertainment line. The banquet was a grand affair and the river trip to Metropolis, Ill., was very delightful.

The patrol and Kilt band from Hadi Temple, Evansville, joined the Madisonville patrol and assisted in the work. A number of Evansville Nobles accompanied the patrol.

Arrangements are now being made for the pilgrimage to the Imperial Council meeting at Buffalo next month, and many will accompany the patrol on this trip.

MADISONVILLE PUBLISHERS BANKRUPTCY DEFENDANTS

The Courier-Journal June, 29th says The Hustler Publishing Company of Madisonville, Ky., which publishes the Hustler newspaper at that place, was made the defendant in involuntary bankruptcy proceedings instituted in the United States District Court by eight creditors of the concern, which have claims in the sum of $544.08 against the firm they seek to have adjudged insolvent.

The creditors and their claims follow— Louisville Paper Co., $130.84; Whitaker Paper Co., Cincinnati, $130.20; Oliver Typewriter Co., Chicago, $64.50; Clements Paper Co., Nashville, Tenn., $29.72; American Press Association, Cincinnati, $37, and C. S. Williams, $90; Ashley Hollomon, $45; and Ernest Nisbet $17.70, all of Madisonville. It is claimed that the Hustler Company committed acts of bankruptcy on two occasions since March 2, 1916 by paying other creditors in preference to them.

Our faithful Superintendent Major F. D. Rash is on duty for our country and cannot be with us but we have efficient assistant Supt's and faithful teachers who are anxious for the school to keep its splendid record. You can make or mar their record.

Preaching morning and evening by the pastor. You are cordially invited to attend.
