POLITICS IN THE BLUEGRASS.

While certain popular young Democrats were running for Congress in the Seventh District Convention last week it appears that the Hon. James E. Cantrill was running for Judge of the Court of Appeals in a way that outfooted them all. The convention was called to nominate a Congressman, but it turned out that the nomination of a Judge was the real purpose, about which the voters and the delegates knew nothing until the heat of contest was developed.

Then it was that such eminent young Democrats as Thomas, Kimball and De Haven were set aside by an agreement that covers four years of time, regulating the Congressional succession. It first of all carried the promise of votes in the judicial convention for Judge Cantrill for the Court of Appeals bench. The Beckham machine got it in the neck from the Cantrill machine, which seems to be a better working organization in that district than the Frankfort body.

Campbell Cantrill has scored victory No. 2.

Foreign Mission Lectures.

Mrs. Mary Curtis, who has recently returned from India, gave two very interesting lectures last Thursday and Friday nights at the M. E. church on the subject of Foreign Missions. Mrs. Curtis has spent several years in China, India and the Philippines preaching and working among the heathens, and her description of the situation there was sufficient to arouse the sympathy of almost every one.

She is laboring to raise funds to send another missionary into this field.
